The Permanent Committee on Commissions presented the following additional Report, which was adopted:

Two additional commissions have been presented which are regular in form, but accompanied by letters from the Stated Clerks of the Presbyteries concerned, which indicate that the circumstances under which they were issued were peculiar. Neither the principal nor alternate elder elected by the Presbyteries of Grande Ronde and Pembina being able to attend the Assembly, the Moderators and Stated Clerks of said Presbyteries, "by common consent of many of our presbyters," commissioned Ruling Elders W. I. Dishman and J. H. Watson, and these brethren are here present with their commissions. Letters have also been received from a majority of the members of the Presbyteries asking that they be enrolled.

These cases find a precedent in the action of the Assembly of 1904 in receiving a Commissioner from the Presbytery of Chinan; and we recommend that the commissions be received, and that Mr. Dishman and Mr. Watson be enrolled as members of the Assembly.

Rev. James D. Moffat, D.D., of the Presbytery of Washington, was by acclamation unanimously elected Moderator.

Upon the nomination of the Stated and Permanent Clerks, the following were chosen as Temporary Clerks: Rev. David R. Moore, D.D., of the Presbytery of Chillicothe; Rev. Arthur Hicks, of the Presbytery of Oakland; Rev. J. Marshall Rutherford, of the Presbytery of Philadelphia North, and Mr. Henry W. Jessup, of the Presbytery of New York.

The General Rules for Judicatories and additional Rules for business as contained in the Manual were adopted.

The Docket as printed in the Manual was adopted.

The printing of the Roll of the Assembly was ordered.

The Committee of Arrangements, through its Chairman, Rev. Solomon C. Dickey, D.D., presented a Report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

The Committee of Arrangements respectfully reports as follows:

I. The Lord's Supper will be observed in the Auditorium at 7.45 this evening, in accordance with the Standing Order of the Assembly. The Rev. C. B. McAfee, D.D., of Brooklyn Presbytery, will preside, at the request of the retiring Moderator. The Rev. G. W. Wadsworth, D.D., of the Presbytery of Los Angeles, will administer the Bread, and the Rev. Edward H. Pence, D.D., of the Presbytery of Detroit, will administer the Cup.

The following elders will aid in the administration of the Cup: Hon. H. C. Ellison, of the Presbytery of New Castle; Mr. J. K. Hoffman, of the Presbytery of Los Angeles; Mr. Henry S. Osborne, of the Presbytery of Chicago; William H. Wishard, M.D., of the Presbytery of Indianapolis; Hon. John K. Montgomery, of the Presbytery of Dubuque; Mr. W. C. Rue, of the Presbytery of Transylvania; Mr. George W. Wishard, of the Presbytery of Minneapolis; Mr. Abram Van Arsdale, of the Presbytery of Newark; Col. Alexander P. Ketchum, of the Presbytery of New York; Mr. Robert Paviour, of the Presbytery of Rochester; Mr. L. H. Severance, of the Presbytery of Cleveland; Mr. Henry B. Black, of the Presbytery of Chester; Mr. Norris W. Harkness, of the Presbytery of Philadelphia; Mr. G. L. Applegate, of the Presbytery of Pittsburg.

The following elders will aid in the administration of the Bread: Mr. Justice John M. Harlan, of the Presbytery of Washington City; Mr. T. C. Bee, of the Presbytery of Oakland; Mr. John A. Cole, of the Presbytery of Chicago; Hon. Elias S. Holliday, of the Presbytery of Indianapolis; Prof. S. W. Stookey, of the Presbytery of Cedar Rapids; Mr. P. W. Griggs, of the Presbytery of Topeka; Mr. J. M. Hawthorne, of the Presbytery of St. Paul; Mr. Carroll Robbins, of the Presbytery of New Brunswick; Mr. Henry W. Jessup, of the Presbytery of New York; Mr. William W. Smith, of the Presbytery of North River; Mr. Robert S. Fulton, of the Presbytery of Cincinnati; Dr. John H. Converse, of the Presbytery of Chester; Mr. W. K. Woodbury, of the Presbytery of Lehigh; Dr. George W. Bailey, of the Presbytery of Philadelphia.

II. It is recommended that the hours of meeting of the Assembly be from 9 A.M. to 12 M., and from 2.30 P.M. to 5 P.M.; the hour for all the popular meetings to be 7.45 P.M.

III. The following recommendations of services additional to the Standing Orders are submitted for approval:

1. That a popular meeting be held Saturday evening in behalf of Sabbath Observance; and

2. That a popular meeting be held Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock in this Auditorium, in the interest of the College Board.

3. That on Sabbath evening an evangelistic service be held, led by Rev. Dr. J. Wilbur Chapman.

4. That when the Assembly adjourns to-morrow (Friday) afternoon, it adjourn at 4.30 o'clock in order to attend the laying of the cornerstone of the Presbyterian Building.

5. That the popular meeting on Thursday evening be given up to a Laymen's meeting in the interest of the Church, programme to be hereafter announced; this meeting to be followed by a reception at the Winona Hotel to the officers of the Assembly and distinguished guests.

In behalf of the Committee,

S. C. Dickey, Chairman.

The Stated Clerk announced the time and places of the meeting of the Electing Sections, and the names of the members of the same to whom the necessary papers were to be delivered. The names are as follows:

Rev. S. C. Dickey, D.D., Chairman of the Committee of Arrangements, presented a gavel to the Moderator in an address to which the Moderator made an appropriate response.

On invitation, the Rev. John Balcom Shaw, D.D., addressed the Assembly in behalf of the work of the Evangelistic Committee.

Announcement was made by the Moderator of the names of the Chairmen of the Standing Committees. Rev. J. Addison Henry, D.D., the retiring Moderator, asked leave to resign the Chairmanship of the Standing Committee on Bills and Overtures. The request was granted, and the Moderator appointed in his stead Rev. Cleland B. McAfee, D.D.

The Moderator announced the appointment of Ruling Elder Mr. Justice John Marshall Harlan, U. S. Supreme Court, of the Presbytery of Washington City, as Vice-Moderator of the Assembly.

The following Orders of the Day were fixed:

The Report of the Special Committee on Christian Education, as the first Order for this morning.

The Report of the Special Committee on Sabbath Observance, as the Order for 11 o'clock this morning.

The Report of the Special Committee on Evangelistic Work, as the Order for 3 o'clock this afternoon.

The Report of the Special Committee on Sustentation, as the Order for 4 o'clock, Wednesday, May 24.

The Report of the Special Committee on Forms and Services, as the Order for 10 o'clock, Friday, May 26.

The Special Committee on Christian Education, through its Chairman, Rev. Eben B. Cobb, D.D., presented its Report, which was accepted. Pending its consideration, the Order of the day arrived.

The Vice-Moderator presented a Memorial and letters on the subject of the erection of a Presbyterian church structure adapted to conditions at the national capital. The papers were referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures.

The Special Committee on Sabbath Observance, through Rev. Arthur J. Brown, D.D., acting Chairman, presented its Report, which was accepted, and after addresses by Rev. Frederick J. Stanley, D.D., General Secretary of the American Sabbath Union, Rev. Cleland B. McAfee, D.D., and Rev. C. A. R. Janvier, was adopted. It is as follows:

The Committee on Sabbath Observance respectfully reports as follows :

Gladstone well said in a speech before the House of Commons: "From a moral, social and physical point of view, the observance of the Sabbath is a duty of absolute consequence." Blackstone, a century and a half ago, declared: "The profanation of the Sabbath is usually followed by a flood of immorality"; while Daniel Webster affirmed: "The Republic will not survive the loss of the American Sabbath a century." President Roosevelt, in 1904, boldly stated the truth: "Experience shows that the day of rest (one in seven) is essential to mankind; it is demanded by civilization as well as by Christianity."

But the highest of all authority, the Lord, Master or Owner of the Sabbath, said: "The Sabbath was made for man" (Mark ii. 27).

Three fundamental principles are involved in these truths enunciated above: First, man's physical, mental and spiritual nature, threefold, is maintained and developed by the observance of the Sabbath. Second, the very existence of the Commonwealth, composed as it is of these individual units representing that threefold nature, is dependent absolutely upon this weekly day of rest and worship. Third, the Creator and Upholder of all mankind, as the Lord of the Sabbath, emphasized the vital relation of the Sabbath to man, in all ages and climes, as essential to his highest well being. In short, the material and moral forces beneficently placed in the hands of man by an all-wise Creator are so intimately related to the Sabbath, that this holy day of rest becomes the bulwark of the home, the Church and the nation.

God's Holy Word verifies this; and men, in this day and generation, need to be reminded of Jehovah's example and precept. The important truth was emphasized by God's wise economy in giving to man made in His own image the Sabbath as the first day of his existence on earth. On that holy day God set His seal, making it first in time and first in importance, as He started the human race down the course of history. First the Sabbath for rest, spiritual and physical; then follow six days of toil in the garden. First day of Adam's first week on earth was the Sabbath. There is a philosophy divine in the words:

"A Sabbath well spent
Brings a week of content,
And health for the toils of the morrow;
While a Sabbath profaned,
Whatsoever be gained,
Is a sure forerunner of sorrow."

In His Holy Word the Lord of the Sabbath confirms this truth, regarding the vital relation this day bears to man. "Verily My Sabbaths ye shall keep; for it is a sign between me and you. . . . . I am the Lord that doth sanctify you" (Ex. xxxi. 13). "Blessed is the man . . . . that keepeth the Sabbath from polluting it" (Isa. lvi. 2). "To fulfil the word of the Lord by the mouth of Jeremiah, until the land had enjoyed her Sabbaths; for as long as she lay desolate she kept Sabbath, to fulfil threescore and ten years" (2 Chron. xxxvi. 21). Is not this last an example to solemnly warn our nation against desecration and profanation of the Sabbath? "Lift up your eyes round about and see." "Can ye not discern the signs of the times?" exclaimed our Lord nineteen centuries ago. With peculiar force and appropriateness, shall we "lift up our eyes" to "discern the signs of the times" to-day on the Sabbath question, in our own and foreign lands?

We find special events within the past year inviting our attention.

In Our Own Land.

1. The successful closing of the gates on Sabbath in St. Louis at Louisiana Purchase Exposition last year. In accordance with the agreement which the Managers of the Louisiana Purchase Exposition entered into when they secured the five millions of dollars appropriation from our Government, the gates were kept closed on Sunday throughout the seven months of the Exposition. This was a great victory for the Christian American Sabbath as a rest day. It was a decided triumph, and a lesson for all European nations, as the Expositions in foreign countries were seldom closed on the first day of the week, or Christian Sabbath. The first time in twenty-eight years in our country, since 1876, that the gates of a National Exposition in this land were closed all day Sabbath.

2. The Tenth World's Sunday Rest Congress, which was held at St. Louis, October 11 to 14, gave hopeful signs of the times in various directions. One was that the various Canadian and United States Sabbath Associations, State, Provincial and National, were federated into "The Federation of Sunday Rest Associations of Canada and United States." This forms a basis of coöperation similar to the federation of labor unions in this country. It is contemplated holding a Sunday Rest Congress at least once in four years, either in this country or Canada, under the auspices of this Federation. This is the first time any such federation has been attempted, and the outlook is very hopeful for coöperative work.

3. The Railway General Passenger Agents' Association of America, at their Convention at Old Point Comfort, October 18, discussed the Sunday excursion question. The question was placed on the docket at their own initiative, some two months before the Convention, as a subject of interest to the railways. They discussed it from three standpoints:

(a) The financial, as it has proved a failure financially to some of the railways and was a question with others as to the net gain.

(b) The moral point; the demoralization of the employés of the railway to such an extent that they become hardened as to conscientious scruples, and careless for life and property, when they have to labor seven days in the week, year in and year out. Thus the wrecks caused by men overworked was a great financial loss to the companies.

(c) The communities to which the Sunday excursions were sent, either mountain or seashore resorts, were greatly demoralized. The standard of morality, being lowered thus by Sunday excursions, deterred many of the better classes from going the other six days in the week, thus proving an injury to the morals and finances of the communities.

4. The Undertakers' Congress was also held at St. Louis about the time our Sunday Rest Congress was in session. With marked unanimity and great enthusiasm they passed a resolution, which was endorsed by our Sunday Rest Congress, asking the Christian ministers and Churches, Odd Fellows, Freemasons and other fraternities and the public in general to have no more Sunday funerals, except in rare cases and emergency. This will give the undertaker and his employés one day in seven for rest and their God-given privilege.

5. The American Retail Druggists' Congress, also recently held in St. Louis, passed a resolution begging the Christian Churches to assist them in closing their drug stores on Sunday, and all people to refrain from purchasing articles of luxury and merchandise, as ice cream, cigars, etc., on Sunday. The retail druggist must work seven days in the week until twelve and one o'clock at night, and some Christian people thoughtlessly add to their burdens by indulging in ice cream, soda water, etc., after church on Sabbath evenings. They ask that drug stores combine and keep one of three or four open on Sabbath in rotation, merely to fill prescriptions as a work of necessity. The mental and spiritual reasons are still higher.

6. Samuel Gompers, at the head of the Federation of Labor in this country, reported to the World's Sunday Rest Congress, in St. Louis, last October, that all of the 443 labor unions, nearly three millions of men, had placed on their books within the past two years strong resolutions asserting their right to the day of rest called Sunday, first day of the week. Also that they have resolved to press this demand till every State in the Union shall restore by law the workingman's day of rest, which is his by Divine right; and that no man should rob him of his God-given birthright, for mere greed of gain or pleasure. The laboring classes are aroused as to the needs of a Sabbath day rest.

In Foreign Lands.

Testimony from all countries shows that the movement for the Sunday rest has made decided advances within the last few years. In several, laws have been passed curtailing the hours of toil on the Lord's Day.

Canada.—The Canada Lord's Day Alliance, through its Secretary, Rev. J. G. Shearer, has been especially active in visiting railway managers throughout the Dominion to urge a decrease in Sunday trains; also it has influenced the Minister of Customs to refuse to provide facilities for excursion steamboats on Sunday in the harbors of Canada. The D. A. R. steamer from Boston, when it arrives at Yarmouth, N. S., on Sunday morning, does not at this season leave to return until Monday, so that the distinctively "excursion" feature of the traffic has been eliminated. A large crowd of Rochester people were unable to land at Coburg recently as intended. much to their disgust, and to the delight of the people of Coburg; a large boat loaded with Syracusans glided into Kingston harbor on a recent Sabbath, but on being informed that if they landed no clearance would be given them till Monday, they chose to spend the day in the middle of the lake.

Holland.—The Dutch Cabinet, in the Queen's speech lately read before the States General of Holland, made known the purpose of the Government to introduce a bill for the better observance of the Lord's Day, as stated in the outline of the governmental policy; its purpose will be to secure to all laborers, even to those employed upon the railways, absolute cessation of toil. It calls for the suspension of all business and the closing of such amusements as require the labor of others to constitute the entertainment; so that if adopted it will not only close the factories and forges, but the theatres and beer gardens. This, it might be noted, comes after a very long experience of the "Continental Sunday."

Germany.—Germany is being staggered out of its self-indulgent Sunday pleasure-making by the discovery that this is rapidly depriving the masses of their rest day, and so of their family fellowship and happy mental, moral and religious nature; and both Emperor and people are turning attention to the building up of the safeguards of the Christian Sabbath. No wonder when we learn that 59 per cent. of the factories and 77 per cent. of the transportation concerns of that great country allow their employés no respite from continuous seven-day-in-the-week toil.

Ten years ago the Reichstag promulgated a law making Sunday and fête days holidays, and restricting work to a few hours on these days. On its anniversary, ten years later, a petition was presented declaring the measure insufficient and asking for freedom from work and for the rest of Sunday.

Switzerland.—The Swiss Federal Council has strictly prohibited the printing of newspapers during the twenty-four hours of Sunday; postal service lessened and 400 freight trains suppressed. They have also recently decided to suppress at once cheap Sunday pleasure trains. In Switzerland great progress has been made in securing for railway employés their rest day rights.

Under the new Sunday law of Geneva, every employer, whatever the character of the industry, is required to give his employés one day of rest in seven without any reduction in wages. Further, once in two weeks this rest must be Sunday. Heretofore only State officers were sure of a weekly rest, while railway and postal employés were allowed twenty-six Sundays in the year. It has taken seven years of agitation, with much arduous labor and many defeats, before the General Council of Geneva passed the above law.

Switzerland, in spite of the influence of the old "Continental Sunday," has taken stand far in advance of anything in our own land. The great corporations, with few exceptions, seem to ignore the religious element in Sunday rest, and because of the exigencies of business make Sunday the day of their greatest activity. Particularly is this true of the railway freight service; and often for weeks and months together the men will not have a Sunday to themselves, unless they "report off" for sickness.

Switzerland has set an example which all might do well to follow, and in the meanwhile Christian sentiment should make itself felt in the demand for more consideration for the right of men where possible to have the Sabbath rest, and for more careful guarding of the Sabbath day.

Italy.—In Italy, too, there is a national movement of promising proportions toward reinstalling among the national institutions the Lord's Day. Mass meetings are being held in all important centres for the special purpose of preparing public sentiment for the passage and enforcement of a national Lord's Day law.

At an immense mass meeting in Venice, this is in part a resolution adopted: "Convinced of the inalienable right of society to protect the physical and intellectual health of its members, to cultivate the love of the family, and to raise the civil, moral and religious tone of the people, records its vote for the law which shall compel all business to be suspended throughout the land on Sunday, so that no man may be able to gain an advantage over his neighbor; and prays Parliament to make this proposal the law of the State."

Australia.—In Australia the Sunday rest is said to be protected more completely than in any other part of the world. The Australian workingman never labors more than forty-eight or fifty-two hours a week, for Saturday half-holidays prevail everywhere in the colony. For the accommodation of wage-earners the stores remain open on Saturday evenings until ten o'clock, but the employés of the stores are given another afternoon in the week free, besides Sunday, the time being fixed in each district by the merchants interested.

This custom prevails in New Zealand also. Domestic servants are free on Sunday afternoons. Most of the regulations in respect to the labor of men is a matter of custom, that is to say, obtained by agreement between labor union and employers; but the labor of women and children is determined by recent legislation secured by the political action of the workingmen. In several of the colonies efforts are being made to diminish by statute the number of liquor stores and to close them on Sunday. In the Transvaal it is stated officially that no work other than that absolutely necessary for the maintenance of the mines is permitted on Sunday.

Japan.—Out of deference to the representatives of Christian nations, all the public offices in Tokio are closed on the Sabbath. This is certain to spread, and it is thought that before many years Sabbath Observance will become universal throughout the empire. This is progress of the right kind and in the right direction.

From this brief résumé it is apparent that the friends of the Sabbath may thank God and take courage. It must be, however, obvious that eternal vigilance is the price of safety, and your Committee therefore recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That the authority of the Christian Sabbath is found in the law of God and confirmed by the Lord Jesus Christ.

Resolved, 2. That the General Assembly expresses its strong conviction that the sacred character of the Sabbath must be carefully and strenuously maintained, and to this end enjoins all ministers, officers and members of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America to exercise special care and faithfulness.

Resolved, 3. That the General Assembly reiterates its strong and emphatic disapproval of all secular uses of the day, all games and sports, all traveling for pleasure and all excursions, and urges upon all employers of labor and captains of industry to recognize the need of the laboring man for his weekly rest day, and thereby insure his greater efficiency and happiness and the greater prosperity of both capital and labor.

Resolved, 4. That the General Assembly hereby reiterates its emphatic condemnation of the Sunday newspaper, and urges the members of the Presbyterian Church of the United States of America to refuse to subscribe for or read or advertise in it.

Resolved, 5. That the General Assembly recommends that a Sabbath Observance Committee be organized in each Presbytery, to coöperate with similar Committees of the other denominations within its bounds in aiding the work of local Sabbath Associations; and where such organizations do not exist, to promote the formation of such associations in connection with the national organization, the American Sabbath Union and the Woman's National Sabbath Alliance.

Resolved, 6. That the General Assembly recommends that a Sabbath Observance Committee be organized in each Synod, of which the Chairman of each Presbytery's Committee on Sabbath Observance shall be at least a corresponding member, and that the Synod's Committee shall coöperate with the State Sabbath Associations.

Resolved, 7. That we most heartily commend and warmly endorse the work of the American Sabbath Union and the Woman's National Sabbath Alliance, national organizations, in their efforts to preserve in its purity the Christian Sabbath.

Resolved, 8. That we earnestly recommend that each pastor of our communion preach a sermon in the month of April next on the subject of the Sabbath, and that at that time an offering be made for the work of the American Sabbath Union (which is the association organized by the coöperation of the General Assembly in 1888, and which represents the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America in this department of Christian work): or in lieu of an offering, we recommend that the Union be placed upon the list of benevolences of the churches; contributions to be sent to Col. A. S. Bacon, Treasurer, 37 Liberty St., New York City.

The Special Committee on Evangelistic Work, through its Chairman, John H. Converse, LL.D., presented its Report, which was accepted, and after addresses by the Chairman, Rev. J. Wilbur Chapman, D.D., Corresponding Secretary of the Committee, Rev. E. E. Baker, D.D., and Rev. R. F. Coyle, D.D., was adopted. It is as follows:

For four years the General Assembly's Committee on Evangelistic Work has endeavored faithfully to carry out the instructions of the different Assemblies, annually given to the Committee at the time of its appointment. The Committee was called into existence in Philadelphia, reappointed in New York, Los Angeles and Buffalo, and records with gratitude to God the manifest leading of the Spirit during these past years, and rejoices in what seems to be His evident seal of approval on the work.

From May until November, 1904, the offices were at Winona Lake, Ind. Upon invitation of the Presbytery of Chicago the offices were transferred to the city of Chicago, until April 1, 1905, the Presbytery generously providing quarters for the Committee's use. In the absence of the Corresponding Secretary, Rev. J. Wilbur Chapman, D.D., who during almost the entire season has, at the direction of the Committee, been conducting simultaneous meetings in the different cities of our country, the Rev. Parley E. Zartmann, Assistant Secretary and Treasurer, has, under the direction of Dr. Chapman, had charge of the correspondence, the office work, and the executive part of the Committee's service. Mr. Zartmann has been untiring in his labors and is worthy of special mention in this Report.

It is the impression of the members of the Committee that from the first year of its appointment the tide of evangelism has been rising, until to-day there has been awakened throughout the entire world a new spirit of hope and the desire for an awakening; and in some places, not only abroad but in our own land, remarkable works of grace have been witnessed recently. The belief is warranted that in some slight degree at least the General Assembly's Committee on Evangelistic Work has had its share in helping to encourage and conserve this increasing interest, and at the same time has helped to bring to the front a higher type of evangelism than our Church has known in more recent days. Beyond all question the spiritual condition of the Church is remarkably improved.

The money expended in the prosecution of the work from May 1, 1904, to May 1, 1905, has been $82,616.33. The greater part of this has been contributed by individuals.

The collections from the churches and contributions from individuals in response to the appeal of the Committee authorized by the General Assembly amounted to $3,283.68, the net profit from the sale of publications was $2,268.14, and the free will offerings received at the various evangelistic services were $9,703.39. The miscellaneous receipts were, therefore, $15,255.21, leaving $67,361.12 which were provided from individual sources.

The attempt has been made faithfully to carry out the instructions of the last General Assembly. These instructions were in brief as follows:

1. That each Presbytery and Synod be requested to appoint a Committee on Evangelistic Work.

2. That special emphasis be placed on pastoral evangelism, but that the fact be not overlooked that a part of the work of the Committee should consist in presenting to the Church such evangelists as may in their judgment have the seal of God's approval upon their ministry.

3. That conferences be held wherever possible and necessary.

4. That the entire year be signally set aside as a year of aggressive evangelism.

5. That special attention be given to the children of our Christian households, and that parents be urged to fulfill their vows to God and their obligations to their children by bringing to their attention the claims of Christ and the Church.

6. That special emphasis be placed on the work of reclaiming lapsed members of the Church.

7. That a special presentation of the claims of the ministry upon young men be made.

8. That special attention be given to students in theological seminaries.

9. That the Committee should coöperate with the Presbyterial Ministerial Association of St. Louis in conducting a campaign in connection with the Louisiana Purchase Exposition.

10. That an earnest attempt at coöperation with other evangelical denominations should be made by the authority of the Assembly.

11. That the Committee be authorized to appeal to the Church for financial assistance, in order that the prosecution of the work might be more effective.

The work of the Committee in carrying out its commission has been far from perfect, but it is a pleasure to state that, in so far as it has been possible, the members of the Committee have tried to carry out to the letter these minute instructions, and the result of the last year's work is set forth in the following Report:

I. Correspondence.—It has been the policy to enter into personal correspondence with all pastors so far as possible. Fifteen thousand letters have been received and carefully noted and answered. Suggestions have not only been made to the pastors but have been invited from them.

II. Literature.—The distribution of literature has been no small part of the work for the past year. Striking sermons brought to the attention of the Committee have been reprinted and circulated. Methods which have been successfully used by our pastors have been issued in pamphlet form, whenever obtainable. Special books on personal work, prayer, Bible study, and the world's great awakenings have been widely distributed. It has been the privilege of the Committee to send out during the year the following books and pamphlets:* California Independent

* The figures in parentheses indicate the number of copies of each.

(500); Open to the Spirit (1000); Evangelistic Campaigns (1000); Address to Young Converts (5000); Soul Winning (5000); Prayer and Revival (6000); Special Statement to Pastors and Sessions (6000); The Evangelist (6000); Circle of Prayer Membership Cards (8000); God's Way of Saving Man's Soul (9000); Call to Prayer (10,000); More Purpose in Prayer (10,000); Decision Day in the Sunday-school (15,000); Aftermath of the Pittsburgh Revival (10,000); Report of Evangelistic Committee (10,000); Good News from the Synods (10,000); Where More Effort is Needed (11,000); How to Begin Our Winter's Work (12,000); For What are We Converted? (13,000); Comparative Statistics (15,000); Atlanta Revival (15,000); Soul Saving (18,000); Three Months' Evangelistic Campaign (20,000); Training the Young (22,000); Are Revivals Outgrown? (22,000); True Evangelism (30,000); What is it to be a Christian? (31,000); The Sychar Revival (41,000); The Welsh Revival (47,000); In His Steps, by Rev. J. R. Miller (5000); Studies for Personal Workers, by Dr. Howard Agnew Johnston (10,000) —a total of 424,500. This literature has not only been gladly received by our ministers, but requests for it have come from other denominations, and in every instance, so far as we know, these requests have been granted.

III. Synodical Visitation.—The following Synods were visited by the members of the Committee or by the Committee's representatives: Baltimore, Rev. S. S. Palmer, D.D.; California, Rev. Parley E. Zartmann; Colorado, Rev. Joseph P. Calhoun, D.D.; Illinois, Rev. Howard Agnew Johnston, D.D.; Indiana, Rev. Joseph P. Calhoun, D.D.; Iowa, Rev. Howard Agnew Johnston, D.D.; Kansas, Rev. Joseph P. Calhoun, D.D.; Kentucky, Rev. Charles A. Dickey, D.D.; Michigan, Rev. W. B. Jennings, D.D.; Missouri, Rev. T. V. Moore, D.D., Rev. Joseph P. Calhoun, D.D.; Montana, Rev. J. Beveridge Lee, D.D.; Nebraska, Rev. T. V. Moore, D.D.; New Jersey, Rev. F. W. Sneed, D.D.; New Mexico, Rev. John S. MacIntosh, D.D.; New York, Rev. C. B. McAfee, D.D.; North Dakota, Rev. J. Beveridge Lee, D.D.; Ohio, Rev. John Balcom Shaw, D.D.; Oregon, Rev. Parley E. Zartmann; Pennsylvania, Rev. John F. Carson, D.D.; South Dakota, Rev. T. V. Moore, D.D.; Tennessee, Rev. W. H. Houston; Utah, Rev. John S. MacIntosh, D.D.; Washington, Rev. Parley E. Zartmann; West Virginia, Rev. S. Edward Young, D.D.; Wisconsin, Rev. John A. Morison, D.D.

Special financial assistance has been granted the Synods of Michigan, Indiana, Illinois, Minnesota, North Dakota and South Dakota.

Special help has been given the following Synods by sending evangelists into their borders, the evangelist always being sent at the request of the Evangelistic Committee of the Synod or Presbytery, and said evangelist laboring under the direction of these Committees: New York, Tennessee, Kentucky, Ohio, Illinois, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Iowa, Missouri, Kansas, Indian Territory, New Mexico, Washington, and Oregon.

Particular attention should be called to the Synod of Oregon, where, at the suggestion of Rev. E. P. Hill, D.D., and Rev. W. S. Holt, D.D., the Synodical Superintendent, a corps of evangelists was sent to labor, under the direction of the General Assembly's Evangelistic Committee on the Pacific coast. At different times during the year five evangelists have labored in Oregon, and concerning this movement the Rev. E. P. Hill, D.D., writes as follows: "The Synod of Oregon has had the greatest year perhaps in its history. The Evangelistic Committee has sent trained evangelists into every city and village in the State where there is a Presbyterian Church. We have had a remarkable campaign. Churches have been strengthened. Entire sections of the State have been stirred as never before in their history, and a multitude has been led to Christ. In one town of 4000 there were 500 conversions. In another town of 1500 over 200 confessed Christ as their Saviour."

The Rev. E. L. Williams says, concerning the work in Illinois: "Four evangelists were employed during the six months. Meetings were held in eighteen towns and cities, in ten Presbyteries of the Synod, and 1028 conversions were reported. In several cases the meetings developed into a large union work which continued after the evangelist had left the field. The number of conversions has exceeded any previous Report of the Synodical Evangelistic work. The results arouse enthusiasm and encouragement to plan for greater things."

IV. Conferences.—Our pastors have been so busy conducting services either in their own or neighboring churches that it has been almost unnecessary to hold many conferences. However, the following places have been visited by members of the Committee or ministers appointed to represent the Committee: Denver and Colorado Springs, Colorado; Los Angeles and San Francisco, California; Portland, Oregon; Seattle, Washington; Kansas City, Missouri; Louisville, Kentucky; Scranton, Wilkes-Barre and Easton, Pennsylvania; Boston, Massachusetts; Milwaukee, Wisconsin; Huron, South Dakota; Belvidere, Kankakee and Chicago, Illinois; Michigan City, Evansville, Indianapolis and Richmond, Indiana; Passaic, New Jersey; Mt. Vernon and Jamaica, New York. It was found that in many Presbyteries the pastors have been able to conduct their own conferences, so that less demand was made upon the Committee for such service than in former years.

V. Evangelists.—It has been no small part of the Committee's duty to recommend evangelists to inquiring pastors or committees. This work has been the more difficult because the number of available and accredited evangelists has been comparatively small, and while the Committee has in several instances unintentionally failed to send the most acceptable evangelists in answer to appeals, yet this work has, in the main, been successful. But besides recommending evangelists it has been the policy of the Committee to bring churches and Committees in need of evangelistic assistance in touch with evangelistic pastors who for a time have been granted leave of absence by their Sessions.

While the evangelist has a place in the Church which, it is hoped, he may always hold, it is, nevertheless, a gratification to the Committee to announce that the number of evangelistic pastors is rapidly increasing. It has been the policy, in sending evangelists into territory where the financial support could not be provided, to guarantee a minimum support, and in case the local church or community failed to meet this minimum, the Committee has had pleasure in doing so. Our limited treasury has greatly hindered us in this work, and has made it impossible for us to do all that has been asked. Requests, if not granted, have been declined because the demands upon the treasury have been too heavy to permit answers to the petitions for help.

VI. Special Meetings.—Following out the instructions of the last General Assembly this Committee, more particularly in the work in the cities, has coöperated with other evangelical denominations in what is known as "The Simultaneous Movement." This has come to be a distinctive feature of the present-day evangelism, and in a city of 75,000 or more, past experience has shown that it is far better to attempt to move the city from various centres with more workmen than one, than to hold a great central meeting in a secular hall or rink. By arrangement of the Committee, Rev. J. Wilbur Chapman, D.D., Corresponding Secretary, in company with a corps of evangelists, has labored in the following cities: Atlanta, Ga. (this engagement was made during the political excitement in November, and was deemed advisable in order that the North and the South might be brought together in this great evangelistic movement); Binghamton, N. Y.; Terre Haute, Ind.; Colorado Springs, Colo.; Fort Collins, Colo.; Cripple Creek, Colo.; Pueblo, Colo.; Denver, Colo.; Los Angeles, Cal.; Redlands, Cal.; San Louis Obispo, Cal.; San Diego, Cal.; Orange, Cal.; Alameda, Cal.; Oakland, Cal.; Portland, Ore.; Grants Pass, Ore.; Eugene, Ore.; Tacoma, Wash.; and Seattle, Wash. At the present time meetings by four evangelists are being carried on at Honolulu, H. I. This entire campaign, lasting from the first of October to the first of May, was carried on most extensively, but it is a great satisfaction to the Committee to announce that expensive as this campaign was it has been self-supporting, the cities where work was done in almost every instance caring for the financial side of the campaign. This corps of evangelists engaged in interde-nominational work, under direction of Dr. Chapman, was drawn from the following denominations: Presbyterian, Congregational, Baptist, Methodist, United Presbyterian, Southern Presbyterian and the Friends. The majority of the corps were Presbyterians. In every city without exception due credit was given to the General Assembly's Committee for inaugurating the work. Rev. Dr. Robert McIntire, a distinguished Methodist pastor in Los Angeles, Cal., publicly stated that he desired to recognize the fact that in the providence of God the evangelistic leadership to-day seemed to be in the great Presbyterian Church, and that a Methodist Bishop had recently said that the mightiest evangelistic force of the present time was to be found in the Presbyterian Church. Concerning this simultaneous campaign the following comments have been made by the Chairmen of the Committees in different cities where the work has been carried on:

Atlanta, Ga.—"Atlanta was stirred as never before in her history by the simultaneous meetings. I thank God that I have witnessed the greatest revival of my life. A great company of people have united with the churches. We are under great obligation to the General Assembly's Committee for assistance rendered." (Former Governor) W. J. NORTHEN.

Binghamton, N. Y.—"The plan of simultaneous meetings has solved the problem of union meetings in our cities. The results in Binghamton have been most delightful. Crowded churches, overflowing prayer meetings, churches on fire with zeal for the salvation of the lost, and hundreds of people coming into the ranks of the Church are a result of the movement. The work of the Church has received an impetus which will reach out into the coming years." Rev. E. F. HALLENBECK, D.D.

Oakland, Cal.—"I rejoice in the evangelistic campaign. Thirty-three churches of different denominations coöperated. Large meetings for men only, a day of prayer with closed stores, a midnight service, as well as the regular evening services which were thronged, show that our city is concerned about higher things, and that our citizens respond to the claims of religion. This simultaneous campaign, which is swaying the country from Atlanta to the sea, makes possible a larger evangelistic effort than we have yet known. We have had substantial additions already and many more will follow. The 600 received since the close of the meetings are only a beginning of the good done. Our churches have been revived. Religion has been brought to the front. Evangelism has been rehabilitated where it had been wounded in the house of its friends. The Bible is being studied as never before." Rev. E. E. BAKER, D.D.

Redlands, Cal.—"As we anticipated, great blessing came. The whole city was stirred deeply. Different churches were greatly revived and increased. My own church received seventy-three the first communion following ten days of meetings." Rev. J. H. Williams, D.D.

Denver, Colo.—"The United Evangelistic Campaign in Denver made a profound impression on the city. Churches were thronged. On one day all business ceased. His Honor the Mayor and His Excellency the Governor sat with us on the platform during the special services on the day of prayer. At our midnight meeting thousands paraded the streets, and as a result of this one service scores came to Christ. My own church received one hundred and sixty at its first communion. Several thousand have already joined the Church. More are coming." Rev. Robert F. Coyle, D.D.

Los Angeles, Cal.—"As a result of the simultaneous meetings a federation of the churches has been made possible. We are now working against the Ascot Race Track and the organized liquor traffic of the city, and confidently expect to break the power of both. The city was moved as never before in its history. Great numbers have already united with the churches, and the number will grow with each successive communion service. This city is under lasting obligations to the General Assembly's Committee on Evangelistic Work." Rev. Wm. Horace Day, D.D.

Portland, Ore.—"The evangelistic campaign in Portland has far exceeded our most sanguine expectations. We can calmly say that the city has been stirred from centre to circumference. The very air is charged with holy influence, and the effect of this wonderful spiritual upheaval will be felt for a quarter of a century." Rev. E. P. Hill, D.D.

In addition to the simultaneous meetings above mentioned, the Rev. Joseph P. Calhoun, D.D., Field Secretary, has devoted his entire time to the holding of conferences, traveling from the Atlantic to the Pacific, and has also directed simultaneous meetings in Kansas City, Mo., Louisville, Ky., and Buffalo, N. Y. The most wonderful results have attended Dr. Calhoun's evangelistic ministry, and the Committee desires to express its hearty approval of the generosity of the Homewood Ave. Presbyterian Church, Pittsburgh, which has made possible Dr. Calhoun's special ministry this year. His church generously granted him a year's leave of absence.

VII. Work in Lumber Camps.—For three years special work has been done among men at work in the vast lumber camps. This year this work has had a special blessing upon it, and a sub-committee has outlined a plan for extended and vigorous work.

VIII. World Visitation.—The special work in the Synods has been conducted in coöperation with the Home Board. Our coöperation with the Board of Foreign Missions has resulted in joint arrangements to send forth a member of the present Evangelistic Committee, the Rev. Howard Agnew Johnston, D.D., on a missionary and evangelistic tour around the world. His mission is to stimulate the missionaries spiritually, and to carry the greetings of the Evangelistic Committee in this day when a world-wide awakening seems imminent.

IX. The World's Fair.—The Committee coöperated with the Presbyterian Ministerial Association of St. Louis in conducting meetings during the Louisiana Purchase Exposition. This called for a financial contribution toward the expenses of the general work, and also for the payment of salaries of a number of evangelists and singers who labored under the direction of Rev. Charles Stelzle, who was temporarily released during the Fair from work on the Home Board at the suggestion of the St. Louis ministers, that he might carry on this great work, which he did with remarkable success.

X. Work Among Students.—Rev. Howard Agnew Johnston, D.D., the Chairman of the Subcommittee on this subject, reports that two methods have been employed in this work, viz.:

(1) A letter was sent to each Presbyterian student in our denominational colleges, and this has been fruitful of much good in stimulating students to more positive, aggressive leadership in Christian work.

(2) Almost every State university in the country north of the Ohio river has been visited by a member or representative of the Committee, to present the claims of the ministry upon young men as a life-work. It is most gratifying to report that the students welcomed such a plan and helped to make the meetings successful. The members and representatives of the Committee engaged in this work were as follows:

Thornton A. Mills, San José, Leland Stanford University, Cal.

Dr. John S. MacIntosh, San Anselmo, Univ. of California.

Dr. W. A. Major, Seattle, Washington University.

Dr. E. P. Hill, Portland, University of Oregon.

Dr. F. W. Russell, St. Louis, the Universities of Colorado, Nebraska, Kansas, Missouri, Iowa, Minnesota and Illinois.

Dr. W. B. Jennings, Detroit, the Universities of Michigan and Wisconsin.

Dr. F. O. Ballard, Indianapolis, University of Indiana.

Dr. S. S. Palmer, Columbus, O., University of Ohio.

Dr. Howard Agnew Johnston, University of Pennsylvania, Princeton University and the University of the City of New York.

The Future.

The encouragement which has followed the labors of the Committee this year has been greater than ever before. In view of this fact and of the following weighty considerations, it seems wise to recommend at this time the appointment of a Committee on Evangelistic Work for the ensuing year.

A. The fact that in the judgment of many we have entered upon a great world-wide awakening makes it imperative that a Committee should be appointed. The great revival in England, the unprecedented revival in Wales, the awakened hopes on the part of Christians everywhere, and the remarkable awakenings in our own country, all indicate that the best work in the interest of evangelism may yet be done. The danger of injury to the cause is greater to-day than it ever has been, for, because of this awakened interest, untrained and unskilled men may take the field and our churches be hindered rather than helped in their work by the services of men who, however honest their intentions, are not fitted for this most important of all service.

B. May it not be true that God's set time to favor His people has come, that the day is dawning for a mighty awakening, and that the hour has now struck when we should go forward? For us to hesitate now might be for us to lose much that we have already gained, and inasmuch as our Church has been conspicuously before the world as an evangelistic force, we feel that we hear God's call to lay before the Assembly the desirability of a larger and more effective work than has as yet been accomplished.

C. The fact that other denominations, notably the Methodist and Congregational Churches, have now Committees similar to our own and are planning vigorous campaigns would, in our judgment, make it advisable and necessary that the Presbyterian Church should continue a Committee in the field, so that whenever and wherever possible we may heartily coöperate with all similar Committees for a movement which shall be as great as our country.

The following recommendations are submitted:

Resolved, 1. That a Committee of twenty, ten ministers and ten elders, be appointed by the Moderator to promote evangelistic work in the churches. This Committee shall coöperate with the Presbyteries and Synods, and shall have power to select such advisory members, consisting of both ministers and elders, as may, in the judgment of the Committee, seem necessary; and to form an Executive Committee of not less than five members for the transaction of business in the intervals between regular meetings of the General Committee; and shall report to the next General Assembly. The expenses, except for the attendance of members upon the regular meetings, shall be met by voluntary contributions.

Resolved, 2. That each Presbytery and Synod be requested to appoint a Committee on Evangelistic Work, and that in the appointment of their Evangelistic Committees for the coming year, the Presbyteries be requested to reorganize them so as to include, wherever necessary, and as far as possible, those who have shown special interest and had useful experience in evangelistic work.

Resolved, 3. That the General Assembly emphasizes the primary responsibility for evangelistic effort as resting upon pastors and Sessions; at the same time the Assembly again, as heretofore, recommends the use of accredited evangelists, and therefore authorizes the Committee to pass upon the qualifications of evangelists, and to promote their employment so far as their services may be needed; and only such evangelists should be commended to the Church at large as have the proper endorsement and approval of their brethren and the seal of God's approval upon their ministry.

Resolved, 4. That in addition to the lines of work indicated by preceding Assemblies, the special work of the Assembly's Committee for the coming year be the conduct of evangelistic campaigns in the cities, the holding of conferences for quickening the spiritual life of the Church and for promoting that study of the Word of God which may encourage a spirit of evangelism, and also for the presentation of such general methods of work as may inspire pastors, elders and members of the Church generally to earnest effort in behalf of the unsaved.

Resolved, 5. That the Committee be authorized to appeal to the churches for financial assistance in this all-important work.

Resolved, 6. That, in view of the fact that there is an awakening in the Churches, this General Assembly recommends that the ensuing year be given up to a most aggressive evangelistic effort. That this special effort should be directed to the Church as a whole and the lapsed church members in particular, to the young people in societies and Sunday-schools, to men in their special organizations that their work may be more effective, and to the great multitude of unsaved people who as yet seem indifferent to Christ, and because they have not accepted Him are under condemnation. This great movement, lasting throughout the year, should be encouraged by street meetings in season, tent meetings in the summer and fall days, services conducted on the lawns of the churches, on the steps of churches, group meetings where churches may be united under the direction of some leader, whether pastor or evangelist, parlor meetings, noonday meetings for business men, and house-to-house visitation.

Resolved, 7. That the General Assembly hereby authorizes such coöperation with other evangelical denominations as may make it possible to move in a more marked way the cities of our land. The evangelistic movement should include, whenever it may seem to be wise on the part of pastors and Sessions, simultaneous meetings in cities in coöperation with other evangelical denominations; and where such meetings are held, preparation should be not only thoroughly made before the meetings, but results carefully followed up and the harvest garnered after the meetings.

Resolved, 8. That while emphasis is laid upon general work, the Evangelistic Committee is enjoined to lay special stress upon the subject of personal evangelism. It is by this method of work that the bounds of the Church may be steadily enlarged. Let each man try to win his brother or friend to Christ, each woman her sister or father. This may be done by means of prayer lists, personal visitation, or by the writing of a letter; but let it be remembered that all methods must be clothed with the power of God and used by the spirit of God.

In order that the work of this year may be signally blessed, let special prayers be offered for our great cities, and special days of prayer and fasting be set apart for God's special blessing upon our Church. It is believed by the Committee that there has never been such an opportunity for victory. The fields are white unto the harvest. This is the day of God's visitation. May He fill us with His spirit and inspire us with His presence.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN H. CONVERSE, Chairman;
J. WILBUR CHAPMAN, Cor. Secretary.

PARLEY E. ZARTMANN, Treasurer.

The following Resolution was adopted unanimously:

Resolved, That the Assembly, having heard with deepest interest and great joy the Report of the Committee on Evangelistic Work, in which is set forth the marvelous blessing God has caused to rest upon the labors of the past year, hereby appoints for next Thursday, from 3.30 to 5 o'clock P.M., a special service of thanksgiving, prayer and consecration, to acknowledge the Lord's grace, to ask a fuller baptism of the Holy Spirit, and dedicate ourselves and our Church to heartier and fuller efforts for the salvation of souls and the exaltation of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Rev. Howard Agnew Johnston, D.D., on behalf of the Special Committee on Evangelistic Work, presented to Mr. John H. Converse, Chairman of the Committee, a silver loving-cup, engraved with the names of the twenty members of the Committee, and bearing the inscription, "John H. Converse, LL.D., with the loving appreciation of his associates on the Evangelistic Committee of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, 1904–1905."

Mr. Converse responded to the address of presentation, and the Assembly sang the hymn, "Blest be the tie that binds."

The Assembly adjourned, and was closed with prayer.

FRIDAY, May 19, 8 o'clock P.M.

A popular meeting was held in the interests of Publication and Sabbath-school Work, and addresses were delivered by Rev. James A. Worden, D.D., Rev. W. H. W. Boyle, D.D., and Rev. Mark A. Matthews, D.D.

SATURDAY, May 20, 8.45 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with devotional exercises.

The Minutes of yesterday's sessions were read and approved.

The Permanent Committee on Commissions reported the following additional Commissioners, who were duly enrolled: Ministers—J. Richard Barrett, of the Presbytery of Southern Virginia; David A. Clemens, of the Presbytery of Boisé; Elders—T. C. Hodgson, of the Presbytery of Red River, and H. F. Barr, of the Presbytery of Freeport.

The Moderator announced the appointment of Ruling Elder Carroll Robbins as Chairman of the Judicial Committee, in the place of Rev. H. C. Minton, D.D., resigned; and Rev. Charles E. Bronson, D.D., as Chairman of the Standing Committee on Benevolence, in place of Rev. J. W. Day, resigned.

The Report of the Special Committee on the Assembly Herald was made the Order of the Day immediately after the consideration of the Report of the Standing Committee on Ministerial Relief.

The hearing of the representatives of the American Tract Society was made the third Order for this morning.

It was ordered that the Assembly adjourn at 12.30 o'clock until Monday, at 8.45 o'clock A.M.

The Standing Committee on Bills and Overtures, through its Chairman, Rev. Cleland B. McAfee, D.D., presented a Report referring papers, which was adopted, and is as follows:

The Committee on Bills and Overtures respectfully reports upon the papers placed in its hands by the Stated Clerk.

The Committee is required to report all references of papers, whether made to itself or to other Committees.

It is recommended that the Assembly refer Overtures as follows:

To the Standing Committee on Colleges:

To the Standing Committee on Bills and Overtures:

Overtures Nos. 39 to 42, on a plan for the establishment of an Evangelistic Department of the Board of Home Missions, from the Synod of Minnesota and the Presbyteries of Boisé, Dayton and La Crosse.

Overture No. 51, from the Presbytery of Pendleton, on abbreviations after ministers' names in the Statistical Reports of Presbyteries.

Overture No. 58, from the Presbytery of Newton, on Sabbath Observance.

Overtures Nos. 59 to 62, from the Presbyteries of Newton, New York, Omaha and South Florida, on Union with the Cumberland Presbyterian Church.

Overture No. 64, from the Synod of Ohio, as to Men's Societies.

Overture No. 65, from the Presbytery of Syracuse, as to the designations after ministers' names in the Statistical Reports.

Overture No. 66, from the Presbytery of Westminster, as to alleged acts of the Presbytery of Nassau.

Overture No. 68, from the Presbytery of Wellsboro, as to an historical preface to the Constitution.

Overture No. 71, from the Presbytery of Bloomington, on the use of the diaconate for beneficiary purposes.

Overture No. 74, from the Presbytery of Dayton, on the making of our Church year coincide with the calendar year.

Overture No. 77, from the Presbytery of Nassau, on the Brief Statement of the Reformed Faith.

The Stated Clerk reported the vote of the Presbyteries upon Overtures Nos. 1, 2, 3, 4 and 5, being the Overtures on Judicial Commissions, sent down by the last Assembly, as follows:

The Stated Clerk, in accordance with the Rules of the Assembly, reports the vote of the Presbyteries on the Overtures sent down by the last Assembly on Judicial Commissions, and numbered from 1 to 5. The vote is as follows:

Overture No. 1—Affirmative, 184; negative, 42; reporting no action, 8; making no answer, 7. Total, 241.

Overture No. 2—Affirmative, 159; negative, 64; reporting no action, 10; making no answer, 8. Total, 241.

Overture No. 3—Affirmative, 174; negative, 51; reporting no action, 9; making no answer, 7. Total, 241.

Overture No. 4—Affirmative, 154; negative, 69; reporting no action, 10; making no answer, 8. Total, 241.

Overture No. 5—Affirmative, 192; negative, 33; reporting no action, 9; making no answer, 7. Total, 241.

The total number of Presbyteries in the Church is 241. The above Overtures being amendments to the Administrative Standards require for adoption a majority vote of the Presbyteries, viz., 121. Under the rule of the Assembly it is required that a Committee of Canvass be appointed, consisting of three ministers and two elders.

Respectfully submitted,

WM. H. ROBERTS, Stated Clerk.

The Report was approved and the Moderator appointed the following Committee of Canvass: Ministers—John F. Patterson, D.D., William R. Kirkwood, D.D., S. Alfred Fulton; Elders—S. W. Stookey, E. S. Holliday.

The Stated Clerk reported the vote of the Presbyteries on Overture No. 6, being the Overture on the Territorial Limits of Presbyteries, sent down by the last Assembly, as follows:

The Stated Clerk reports on the Overture proposing an amendment to Chapter 10, Section 2, of the Form of Government, commonly known as Overture No. 6, on the Territorial Limits of Presbyteries, and sent down to the Presbyteries by the last Assembly. The vote is as follows:

Affirmative, 188; negative, 45; reporting no action, 3; making no answer, 5. Total, 241.

The total number of Presbyteries in the Church is 241. The above Overture being an amendment to the Administrative Standards requires for adoption a majority vote of the Presbyteries, viz., 121. Under the rule of the Assembly it is required that a Committee of Canvass be appointed, consisting of three ministers and two elders.

Respectfully submitted,

WM. H. ROBERTS, Stated Clerk.

The Report was approved, and the Moderator appointed the following Committee of Canvass: Ministers—Frederick J. Sauber, D.D., H. B. King, Thomas B. Grant; Elders—John A. Seaton, James H. Woolley.

The Stated Clerk reported the vote of the Presbyteries on Overture No. 7, proposing an amendment to Constitutional Rule No. 3, sent down by the last Assembly, as follows:

The Stated Clerk reports on the Overture proposing an amendment to Constitutional Rule No. 3, commonly known as Overture No. 7, and sent down to the Presbyteries by the last Assembly. The vote is as follows:

Affirmative, 216; negative, 15; reporting no action, 4; making no answer, 6. Total, 241.

The total number of Presbyteries in the Church is 241. The above Overtures being amendments to the Administrative Standards require for adoption a majority vote of the Presbyteries, viz., 121. Under the rule of the Assembly it is required that a Committee of Canvass be appointed, consisting of three ministers and two elders.

Respectfully submitted,

Wm. H. Roberts, Stated Clerk.

The Report was approved, and the Moderator appointed the following Committee of Canvass: Ministers—R. P. Kerr, D.D., John B. Eakins, Ph.D., W. L. Van Nuys; Elders—E. B. Boyle, R. D. Dodge.

The Stated Clerk reported the vote of the Presbyteries on the Overture sent down by the last Assembly on the Reunion and Union of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America with the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, as follows:

The Stated Clerk reports to this Assembly the vote of the Presbyteries on the Overture sent down by the last General Assembly on the subject of the Reunion and Union of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. and the Cumberland Presbyterian Church. The last General Assembly, inter alia, adopted the following resolutions, viz.:

"1. The Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., whose General Assembly met in the Immanuel Church, Los Angeles, Cal., May 21, 1903, and the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, whose General Assembly met in the First Cumberland Presbyterian Church, Nashville, Tenn., May 21, 1903, shall be united as one Church, under the name and style of the Presbyterian Church of the U. S. A., possessing all the legal and corporate rights and powers which the separate Churches now possess.

"2. The union shall be effected on the doctrinal basis of the Confession of Faith of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., as revised in 1903, and of its other doctrinal and ecclesiastical Standards; and the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments shall be acknowledged as the inspired Word of God, the only infallible rule of faith and practice.

"3. Each of the Assemblies shall submit the foregoing basis of union to its Presbyteries, which shall be required to meet on or before April 30, 1905, to express their approval or disapproval of the same, by a categorical answer to this question:

"Do you approve of the reunion and union of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America and the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, on the following basis: The union shall be effected on the doctrinal basis of the Confession of Faith of the Presbyterian Church of the U. S. A., as revised in 1903, and of its other doctrinal and ecclesiastical Standards; and the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments shall be acknowledged as the inspired Word of God, the only infallible rule of faith and practice?

"Each Presbytery shall, before the 10th day of May, 1905, forward to the Stated Clerk of the Assembly with which it is connected a statement of its vote on the said basis of union.

"4. The Report of the vote of the Presbyteries shall be submitted by the respective Stated Clerks to the General Assemblies meeting in 1905, and if the General Assemblies shall then find and declare that the foregoing basis of union has been approved by the constitutional majority of the Presbyteries connected with each branch of the Church, then the same shall be of binding force, and both Assemblies shall take action accordingly."

The Assembly of 1904 also adopted the following Resolution, viz.:

"Resolved, That the Report of the vote of the Presbyteries shall be submitted by the Stated Clerk to the General Assembly meeting in 1905, and if said Assembly shall find and declare that the foregoing basis of union has been approved by two-thirds of the Presbyteries of this Church, then the necessary steps shall be taken, if the way be clear, to complete the union with the Cumberland Presbyterian Church."

The vote of the Presbyteries on Union with the Cumberland Presbyterian Church on the foregoing basis is as follows:

In the affirmative, 194; in the negative, 39; reporting no action, 2; conditional, 1; making no answer, 5. Total, 241.

Under the resolution adopted by the Assembly of 1904, a two-thirds vote of the Presbyteries is required for the adoption of the Overture, viz., 161. In the action of the Assembly of 1904, on the subject of reunion and union with the Cumberland Church, there is no direction as to the method by which the Assembly shall find and declare that said basis of union has been approved by the required majority of the Presbyteries. There is simply the direction that the Stated Clerk shall report the vote. Further, the law of the Assembly of 1891, on the canvass of the answers of the Presbyteries to Overtures sent down by Assemblies, does not specifically apply to this Overture on Union. It is, however, suggested that a Committee of Canvass, consisting of three ministers and two elders, be appointed to report to this Assembly the state of the vote, accompanied by a form of declaration in accordance with the terms of the Plan of Union.

Respectfully submitted,

WM. H. ROBERTS, Stated Clerk.

The following Resolution was then adopted:

Resolved, That the Assembly hereby appoints a Committee of three ministers and two elders to canvass the vote of the Presbyteries on the Overture sent down to them by the Assembly of 1904 on the subject of the Reunion and Union of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America and the Cumberland Presbyterian Church; and that said Committee report to this Assembly the state of the vote, accompanied by a form of declaration in accordance with the terms of the Plan of Union, and also report such other action as may be necessary, said Committee to be appointed by the Moderator.

The Moderator appointed as said Committee of Canvass: Elder Henry W. Jessup, Chairman; Ministers—Charles E. Bronson, D.D., John C. Laughlin, David M. Skilling, D.D., and Elder Henry S. Osborne.

The Standing Committee on Ministerial Relief, through its Chairman, Rev. Thomas C. Kirkwood, D.D., presented its Report, which was accepted, and after an address by Rev. Benjamin L. Agnew, D.D., Corresponding Secretary of the Board, and others, was adopted, and is as follows:

The Standing Committee on Ministerial Relief respectfully presents the following Report:

We have carefully examined the Annual Report of the Board, and the Minutes of the sessions of the Board held during the year ending April 1, 1905, and cordially approve them.

The Annual Report is the Board's fiftieth Report, and partakes both in matter and manner of the nature of a jubilee. The Secretary and Treasurer both inform us that the year just closed is the best in all the history of the Board. More money has come to its treasury, more cases of relief have been presented for its consideration, and more joy has been experienced by its faithful members and officers in the administration of its affairs. Surely in the homes made more comfortable and the hearts made less anxious by the delicate and loving distribution of this fund there has been a like increase of gladness. The whole Church has reason to thank God for the good that has been done and the cheer that has been imparted.

The amount that has been received by the Board is $220,529.57 for the current fund—exceeding by $23,520.82 the amount reported to the Assembly last year—while in addition there has been given to the Permanent Fund the sum of $53,098.16. This has come from churches and individuals. Contributions have been sent from 4351 churches, while 3402 churches have failed to share in this glorious privilege. It is interesting to note that the first Report of the Board to the General Assembly mentions the fact that only 57 churches made contributions to the cause during the year. They gave $1466. On the roll of annuitants were twenty names of persons or families receiving assistance, and to these were appropriated $1630. The first year's deficit was therefore $164.

The present Report shows that 926 families are represented on the roll, and the appropriations to beneficiaries amounted to $172,436. The demand has increased and so has the supply, but not in anything like the ratio of the growing applications for relief and support.

One notable thing should be known and fully appreciated by the Church. So earnest and faithful have been the members of the Board and their Secretary and Treasurer that the total cost of administration has been less than four and one-half per cent. of the Board's receipts. What other institution of any Church can make a better showing? The great Presbyterian Church should certainly appreciate such devotion to her service and to the cause of her blessed Master. Appreciation should be shown by more liberal support cheerfully bestowed.

Great problems have been presented to the Board during the year that is now past.

The number of applications for aid is constantly increasing. There have been added to the roll of annuitants 97 new homes—39 ministers, 57 widows and 1 orphan. While this is the case, the Report reveals the fact that the amount granted is, in most cases, altogether too small. They say "the average amount paid widows last year was $150.

"The average paid all on the cash pay roll, excluding those at the Home, was $188.

"The average paid those on the Honorably Retired roll was $290. These ministers did not all ask for the full amount they are entitled to receive in case of need.

"The maximum appropriation paid is $300 a year."

On the subject of appropriations the Board in its Report has this to say:

"It is a most delicate and difficult work for the Board to consider all the hundreds of applications for relief and decide these cases upon an equitable basis, and give to each applicant his or her fair share of the limited means at its command.

"It is painful to the members of the Board to be compelled to sit and consider whether they can, in justice to others, grant an increase of $25 or $50 in an appropriation, when asked by a Presbytery to do so; or whether they must not reduce an already too small appropriation $25 or $50, because others similarly situated are granted less. We should receive far more money than we do, so that all appropriations could be increased and the galling penury of all these families at once relieved."

More money is needed and needed at once.

Two suggestions are made in this admirable Report which should be carried home by every Commissioner to this Assembly.

The Permanent Fund should be greatly increased. If, in addition to what is now in hand, there could be added the sum of $4,000,000, we are told that, with the Church collections and individual gifts, the Board could pay to every honorably retired man who is in need an annuity of $500, to every widow under their care $300, and increase the payments to all other families $200 a year. In these days of colossal fortunes—honestly gained—is this too much for charity to hope for or faith to confidently expect? Cannot our great Church make this seeming dream a blessed reality? She has done far greater things.

The other suggestion is along the line of a plan undertaken and partially carried out last year.

It is the proper working of this so-called apportionment scheme. It was quite thoroughly wrought out by the Committee on Sustentation, but they were not able to get it before the churches until the month of December, 1904, too late to gain full trial of its merits before the close of the then current year. The officers of the Board assure us, however, that very considerable results were attained by its use. It seems wise to keep it before the churches another year, and to press its provisions, so full of relief to the Board, upon every church within our bounds. In closing this we discover a fine field for the exercise of the talent and piety not only of pastors but also, and perhaps even more fittingly, of the elders of the Church. Many of the ruling elders have done noble service in presenting the cause, when the pastors found it more difficult or delicate to do so.

Fathers and brethren, this worthy cause appeals as never before to our sense of right and justice, and of loyalty to God whose servants are in need, and of devotion to those noble men and women who have given up their earthly all for Christ's sake.

Your Committee begs leave to make the following recommendations:

1. We recommend the approval of the Minutes, which we find neatly and accurately kept.

2. It is recommended that Presbyterians exercise all possible care in making applications and recommending appropriations to be made by the Board, constantly bearing in mind that funds given for this purpose are a sacred trust.

3. We recommend that the apportionment scheme be continued in use another year, and urge all our churches to make full trial of its provisions.

4. We recommend that ministers and elders be urged to greater diligence in bringing the claims of this Board before their respective churches.

5. The terms of office of the following Directors expire at this meeting of the Assembly: Rev. Thomas R. Beeber, D.D., Rev. Alexander H. Young, D.D., Francis Olcott Allen, Esq., Rudolph M. Schick, Esq. It is recommended that they be reëlected.

Respectfully submitted,

T. C. KIRKWOOD, Chairman.

The Special Committee on The Assembly Herald, through Rev. John Dixon, D.D., a member of the Committee, presented its Report, which was approved, and is as follows:

To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America:

The Committee on The Assembly Herald respectfully report as follows:

The business year closed December 31, 1904, showing a balance of $98.84 on the right side of the ledger. The subscriptions from May 1, 1904, to April 30, 1905, increased by 3877, making the total number of paid subscribers at the latter date 44,472.

Every effort within our means has been used that circulation and influence might be enlarged. The testimony of very many readers encourages us in our belief that The Assembly Herald to-day is better than at any time in its history, and that its service to the Church in disseminating interesting, helpful information and in stimulating zeal on the part of the people is becoming a more important factor each year in the great work carried on by the Boards and Committees.

The Assembly Herald is the official organ of our Church, containing information from the following Boards and Committees: Boards of Home Missions, Foreign Missions, Education, Ministerial Relief, Publication and Sabbath-school Work, Church Erection, Board for Freedmen, College Board, Committee on Young People's Societies and Committee on Temperance.

During the year all of these used extra pages from time to time, and more illustrations than heretofore (these pages and illustrations being paid for by the Boards were therefore not an expense to The Assembly Herald), so that the volume for 1904 contained ninety-six pages more than that for 1903. In 1903 there were 139 illustrations; in 1904, 240; an increase of 101.

The subscription price of The Assembly Herald is nominally fifty cents (50c.) a year, but practically twenty-five cents (25c.), as almost all subscribers naturally join the Club formed in their own church. As it costs considerably more than twenty-five cents (25c.) to produce and deliver the twelve copies of the magazine constituting a year's subscription, there is a large deficit each year in the work of the subscription department. This must be made up by the income from advertisements, and from the same source funds have to be secured to meet the expenses of the office, salaries, etc.

The enormous competition for advertisements on the part of publishers and the lack of interest in the denominational religious press as an advertising medium, make it difficult to secure a sufficiently large patronage to allow a more aggressive and therefore expensive subscription work, and a greater outlay in the way of improving the publication.

The difficulty, so far as the enlargement of circulation is concerned, might be largely met if pastors—every pastor, not some—would bring to the attention of their Sessions the claims of The Assembly Herald to the interest and support of the people and arrange to present the matter to their congregations. The Business Manager would be only too glad to outline plans for securing individual subscriptions by methods which have been found successful in hundreds of churches.

As an evidence of the interest taken in The Assembly Herald and in Home Mission work, attention is called to the receipt of money from a number of subscribers for the purpose of paying the subscriptions of home missionaries. Eight hundred (800) have been thus provided for, and one lady in sending fifty dollars ($50) for the purpose writes that she wishes to renew the contribution annually.

We cannot close our Report without acknowledging the hearty interest and approval which have been shown by the Secretaries and the officers of the Boards. Neither would we fail to acknowledge with grateful appreciation the efforts of those pastors and Sessions by whom The Assembly Herald has been so earnestly supported.

Lastly, but by no means leastly, we desire to record our thanks to those many hundred consecrated workers who personally solicit subscriptions without compensation, satisfied if by so doing they might serve the cause of Christ.

The Committee was continued, to report to the next Assembly.

The Special Committee on Christian Work among Seamen, through Rev. Henry F. Lee, acting for the Chairman, presented its Report, which was accepted, and after an address by Mr. Lee, was adopted. It is as follows:

The Special Committee on Christian Work among Seamen respectfully presents the following Report:

In view of the great importance of Christianizing the seamen of the world, and the manifest tendency in some quarters to neglect this work, your Committee is constrained to ask the earnest attention of this Assembly to the facts and recommendations herewith presented. What ought Presbyterians to do toward winning the sea power and seamen to Christ? is a most important question. That the Church should try to do its full share of the work is as certain and urgent as that it should aid in Home or Foreign Missions. The following facts should be always kept in mind:

1. That God has graciously promised the conversion of the sea (Isa. lx. 5); that He has made it a central and most important part of His plan for the conversion of mankind; that He will fulfill His promise; and that we, to be loyal to Him, must be His faithful agents in accomplishing His purposes. We need faith and enthusiasm for this blessed work.

2. That Jesus in His brief ministry gave great prominence to this class of persons; and Christians are followers of Jesus.

3. That the seafaring class is great in the number of priceless souls it contains, and also great in its influence on the course of history and the success of Christianity. The sea power opens up the world, and shapes history. The more we look into this aspect of the subject the more profoundly we will be impressed. It is the great international and missionary power. The sailor's every voyage is a mission. To expect the conversion of the world without the conversion of the sea power is unreasonable.

4. No field is more hopeful to the Christian worker who is fit for it. Seamen are approachable, open-souled, and inclined to believe the message of the cross. No class is freer from skepticism. Many of the greatest sailors have been whole-hearted Christians, such as Admiral Collingwood, who was second in command at Trafalgar, who really brought the fleet into action, and when Nelson was killed took his place; Admiral Foote of our Civil War; Philip and Sampson of our last war; Admiral Togo and Vice-Admiral Uriu of the Japanese navy, and many others.

Especially just now is there need to consider and act in the matter of chaplains in the United States navy. The number now in the service does not meet half the need. The time is opportune and urgent because there is likely very soon to be an increase in the corps of chaplains. There are now twenty-four chaplains for some forty great ships and many smaller ones, twelve of whom are on sea duty and twelve on shore or on receiving ships. There has been no increase since the Civil War, though the navy has increased threefold. Of these twenty-four chaplains, one is a Presbyterian, six are Roman Catholics, six Protestant Episcopal, four Methodist Episcopal North, two Methodist Episcopal South, three Baptist, one Congregational and one of the Disciples. The office of chaplain is difficult, yet affords a great opportunity for the right man. The members of your Committee believe that, if continued, it will be able to aid in getting a larger number of fit men into this service, and to give good counsel and assistance to young men who may seek it. We hope to get aid from chaplains and other Christian officers in the navy.

The following recommendations are submitted for approval:

1. That your Committee be continued and increased to nine members, the additional members to be appointed by the Moderator in consultation with the Committee, and required to report to the next General Assembly.

2. That Presbyteries, especially those having sea or lake ports within their bounds, be urged to take a practical interest in all good work for seamen; and in these fields we heartily commend the work of the American Seamen's Friend Society.

3. That the scope of this Committee be so enlarged as to include chaplaincies in the United States navy; and that the Committee be authorized and directed to communicate with the President and the Secretary of the Navy with respect to a fuller representation of Presbyterians among the naval chaplains; and that also the Committee be directed to tender their services to the Government in such way as may seem appropriate.

4. That the Stated Clerk be authorized to pay the necessary expenses of the Committee, not exceeding in amount $75.

In behalf of the Committee,

E. R. Craven, Chairman.

The Report of the Special Committee on Vacancy and Supply was made the second Order of the Day for Tuesday afternoon.

Rev. George L. Shearer, D.D., Secretary of the American Tract Society, addressed the Assembly in behalf of the work of that Society, and the following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That the Assembly has heard with deep interest the Report of the work of the American Tract Society, which it commends for its fidelity to the teachings of the Bible, and for its industry in disseminating Christian truth in one hundred and sixty languages and dialects. The Assembly calls special attention to the large body of Christian literature prepared by this Society for immigrants and in their several languages. It also gratefully recognizes the invaluable aid rendered by the Society in the production and circulation of Christian literature in the Foreign Mission fields in the native languages, thus meeting the necessity and opportunity coming upon our foreign missionaries.

The Assembly again renews its commendation of the American Tract Society, and its recommendation that each Presbytery appoint a Standing Committee on its work, and that each church be urged to make an annual offering for its support.

The Moderator announced the following Committees:

Special Committee on Christian Work among Seamen: Ministers

—E. R. Craven, D.D., Henry F. Lee, John H. Edwards, D.D., Donald McLaren, D.D., C. A. R. Janvier, John B. Devins, D.D., George McP. Hunter; Elders—Homer L. Pound, Richard H. Wallace.

Special Committee on Evangelistic Work: Rev. James D. Moffat, D.D., Moderator of Assembly and ex-officio member of the Committee; Rev. William H. Roberts, D.D., Recording Secretary for the Committee; Mr. John H. Converse, LL.D., Chairman; Ministers—Joseph P. Calhoun, D.D., John F. Carson, D.D., J. Wilbur Chapman, D.D., Robert F. Coyle, D.D., Cleland B. McAfee, D.D., John S. MacIntosh, D.D., Robert Mackenzie, D.D., S. S. Palmer, John Balcom Shaw, D.D., Charles Wood, D.D.; Elders—John Willis Baer, George W. Bailey, M. Linn Bruce, E. A. K. Hackett, H. B. F. McFarland, Henry P. Merriman, Louis H. Severance, William W. Smith, Thomas W. Synnott.

The Report of the Special Committee on Church Coöperation and Union was made the second Order of the Day for Monday morning.

Rev. J. Milton Greene, D.D., addressed the Assembly on behalf of the work of our Church in Porto Rico.

The Assembly adjourned until 8.45 o'clock Monday morning, and was closed with prayer.

SATURDAY, May 20, 8 o'clock P.M.

A popular meeting in the interests of Sabbath Observance was held, and addresses were made by Justice John M. Harlan, Rev. F. J. Stanley, and others.

MONDAY, May 22, 8.45 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with devotional exercises.

The Permanent Committee on Commissions reported the name of Elder Nelson McVicker, of the Presbytery of Allegheny, who was duly enrolled.

The accidental death of a little child of Rev. Edward Baech, who is in attendance upon the Assembly, was announced, and Rev. John S. MacIntosh, D.D., at the request of the Moderator, led the Assembly in prayer in behalf of the bereaved parents.

The Stated Clerk was also instructed to extend to them the sympathy of the Assembly in their sorrow.

The Stated Clerk presented the following Report concerning the 200th anniversary of the organization of the first Presbytery, which was adopted:

The Stated Clerk respectfully reports to the General Assembly upon the approaching 200th anniversary of the organization of the first Presbytery. This Presbytery, commonly known as the General Presbytery, was organized in the city of Philadelphia, and in the First Presbyterian Church of that city, in the spring of 1706. At this first meeting the number of ministers was seven. This Presbytery continued until 1717, and then by its own action transformed itself into a Synod. In 1788 the Synod established the General Assembly. The Assembly is therefore the legal successor of both Presbytery and Synod. Further, the General Presbytery was the first organized Christian body of a denominational character within the territory now occupied by the United States of America. It was altogether independent of European control, and in addition was strictly popular and republican in its government. It is of great importance that the 200th anniversary of the supreme judicatory of this Church, the oldest ecclesiastical republic on the American continent, should be appropriately commemorated. It is therefore suggested that a Committee of nine, five ministers and four elders, with the Moderator as Chairman, be appointed with power to arrange for an appropriate commemoration of this great historical event, report to be made to the next Assembly.

Respectfully submitted,

Wm. H. Roberts, Stated Clerk.

It was voted that Commissioners retain their present seats throughout all the sessions of the Assembly.

The consideration of the Report of the Special Committee on Christian Education was resumed.

Resolution seven (7) of the Report, dealing with a Handbook for Communicants' Classes, was recommitted, and Resolution eleven (11), as to a Book for Family Worship, was withdrawn.

The Report as amended was adopted, and is as follows:

Your Committee on the Forward Movement in Christian Education would, first of all, congratulate the Assembly, and through it the Church, upon the increasing interest which seems to be manifested just now in this important subject.

Our Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work has taken a number of advance steps along this line during the past year which deserve recognition—not only in view of what they are in themselves, but also in view of the prophecy which they give of greater things in days to come.

In coöperation with several Churches belonging to the Western Branch of the "Alliance of the Reformed Churches throughout the World holding the Presbyterian System," Manuals for Teacher Training have been prepared. The first of these Manuals was issued in September, 1904, and at once won wide favor, a new impetus being given to the organizing of teacher-training classes throughout the Church. The second Manual, for a second year's course of study, will be issued during the summer. And the first Manual, which after a year's test has been thoroughly revised, will be reissued in time for the work of the coming fall. Your Committee regards this step as one of the most important which has recently been taken in the line of Christian education, especially in view of the fact that it meets, in part at least, a desire which has sprung up in the hearts of the teachers themselves for a more thorough and systematic training in Biblical study along pedagogical lines that they may do better work in their classes. Indeed, if the quality of the teachers in our Sunday-schools can in this or any other way be improved, many of the problems in Christian education which now confront us will have been solved.

Then the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work, which is issuing, as is known, a very valuable series of graded Quarterlies upon the "Uniform Lessons" of the "International Association," has been issuing also, during the past year, a series of "Graded Supplemental Lessons for the Elementary Departments of the Sunday-school, arranged by the Central Committee of the International Primary Department of the International Sunday-school Association," which Supplemental Lessons are also meeting with wide and increasing favor. These Supplemental Lessons (an outline of which has been published in a leaflet issued by the Board which may be had for the asking) are intended to take only about one-fourth of the time devoted to the teaching of the lesson, and are designed to supply that which has been thought by some to be lacking in the International Lessons.

In addition to these Supplemental Lessons, now found in the Quarterlies of the Primary and Junior Grades, the Board has issued a series of Supplemental Lessons for the Intermediate Grade, the outline of which is as follows:

First Year.

First Quarter—Old Testament History, Creation to David.
Second Quarter—Old Testament History, Solomon to Hezekiah.
Third Quarter—Presbyterian Home Missions.
Fourth Quarter—Books of the Old Testament.

Second Year.

First Quarter—Old Testament History, Isaiah to John the Baptist.
Second Quarter—Physical Geography of Palestine.

Third Quarter—Presbyterian Foreign Missions.
Fourth Quarter—New Testament History, Life of Christ.

THIRD YEAR.

First Quarter—New Testament History, Lives of the Apostles.
Second Quarter—Books of the New Testament.
Third Quarter—The Work of the Presbyterian Church.
Fourth Quarter—Church History, Polycarp to Columba.

FOURTH YEAR.

First Quarter—Church History, Austin to Luther.
Second Quarter—Church History, Knox to Livingstone.
Third Quarter—Missionary Biography.
Fourth Quarter—Story of the English Bible.

Your Committee is of the opinion that the issuing of this series of Supplemental Lessons has done much to meet the demand for graded instruction in our Sunday-schools. It is admitted that the International Series of Sunday-school lessons has many and decided advantages. It is deeply enshrined in the affections of a large part of the Christian world, has done a vast amount of good, and could not easily and ought not lightly be given up. And it is admitted, further, that no system of graded lessons which has yet been issued has met the continued and enthusiastic approval of any considerable part of the Church. If, therefore, while holding to the old we can add on the new, if to the graded instruction upon the uniform lessons which we now have we can add a carefully prepared series of Supplemental Lessons, constructed upon the most approved pedagogical lines and designed to cover the things in the Bible, in the Kingdom of God and in the doctrines of our Church which our youth ought to know, and if, further, through the maintenance of teacher-training classes, our teachers are made better qualified to teach these uniform and supplemental lessons, your Committee feels not only that a decided forward step will have been taken in Christian education, but also that it will probably be the most practical forward step which we can now take.

Nor are the encouraging signs of which we speak confined to the efforts of our Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work. On the contrary, under the careful supervision of the Assembly's Permanent Committee on Young People's Work, a series of lessons for our youth upon important Biblical and kindred themes has been prepared, which series is awakening much interest throughout the Church. The Assembly's Committee on Evangelistic Work has also issued literature upon this subject, noticeably a pamphlet upon the "Training of the Young," in which through questions and answers "About the Bible," "About Sin and Temptation," "About Christ and Salvation," "About Confessing Christ," "About Being a Christian," "About a Life of Service,"

"About Faith and Prayer," "About Church Membership," and "About the Sacraments" important Christian instruction is given to our youth. Then the Missionary Boards of our Church have devoted much time and effort, during the year, to the organizing of Mission Study classes and to the creation of a literature along this line. In many of our colleges and theological seminaries, also, increasing attention has been given to the study of the English Bible and to instruction in pedagogy; while, in obedience to the instructions of the last Assembly, this Committee, largely through the efforts of one of its members, has prepared a Handbook for Communicants' Classes, which has been published by the Board, and which, it is believed, will meet a long-felt need. The book is not large. It consists of six brief chapters. It treats only of those subjects upon which our youth should be instructed that they may worthily take their places at the Lord's table. It is designed to be suggestive rather than exhaustive. It has been prepared for the young. It was used, while being prepared, by one of our pastors with large success. And it is given to the Church in the hope that, after it has been subjected to the test of actual use, suggestions and criticisms will be sent to the Board, that in subsequent editions the book may be made as perfect as possible.

So that, for these and other reasons, your Committee praises God for that which is being done.

But while your Committee thus rejoices in these encouraging signs of the times, it is deeply conscious that there are many other signs which awaken our concern. Parents are not personally giving to their children the religious instruction which these children ought to receive from them. The Sunday-school has been allowed by many to take the place of the instruction which the children should receive in the home. The family altar is falling into disuse. The Bible is not read and studied in the home as it should be. Nor is it accorded its rightful place in our schools and institutions of higher learning. And, as a result and an evidence of all this, there is a decrease in candidates for the Christian ministry, as indicated by the tabulated statement which is appended to this Report, which is alarming.

And because of these things, and with a view of indicating and emphasizing some of the lines along which the Church should now press forward, your Committee would present for your adoption the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That, convinced that nothing can relieve parents from the responsibility laid upon them by God for the Christian instruction of their children, and that we find in parental fidelity the main solution of the problem before us, the Assembly solemnly charges parents to be faithful to the children committed to their care, not only by setting before these children a godly example, by praying with and for them, and by entrusting them only to such schools and instructors as are calculated to do them good; but also by themselves watching over and, as far as possible, guiding the Christian instruction of their children, that at least it may be true of these children, as of Timothy, that "from a child" they have "known the Holy Scriptures, which are able to make (them) wise unto salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus."

Resolved, 2. That, appreciating the great and increasing difficulty that there is just now in maintaining in the home the family altar, and impressed with the vital importance of this altar to the Christian atmosphere, and hence to the Christian instruction of the home, the Assembly earnestly calls upon all Christian parents to establish and maintain, at whatever sacrifice, the family altar in their homes, and directs all our pastors and Sessions to urge this upon their people.

Resolved, 3. That, persuaded that nothing can take the place of the prayerful and systematic reading and study of the Bible on the part of the individual Christian, and fearing that for various reasons this valuable custom is falling into disuse, the Assembly urgently exhorts all the members of our Church to set apart, and to maintain inviolate, a portion of each day for this purpose, that, nourished and built up by the Word, our members may become "men of God," "furnished completely unto every good work."

Resolved, 4. That the Assembly regards with favor the efforts which have recently been made by the Permanent Committee on Young People's Societies, by the Committee on Evangelistic Work, and by the Boards of Home and Foreign Missions to create and to utilize a literature which shall aid in the Christian instruction of our youth, and invokes the blessing of God upon such efforts.

Resolved, 5. That, its attention having been directed to the Supplemental Lessons prepared by the Primary Department of the International Sunday-school Association, and now being published in the Primary and Junior Quarterlies of our Board, and also to the Supplemental Lessons for the Intermediate Grade prepared by our Board and now being published in the Board's Intermediate Quarterly, the Assembly commends these Supplemental Lessons to the Church as a practical step in the direction of graded instruction in the Sunday-school.

Resolved, 6. That, convinced that no one thing is more needed, in connection with our Sunday-school work, than to improve the grade of our Sunday-school teachers, the Assembly urges upon pastors, Sessions and Sunday-school officers and teachers the importance of the formation of teacher-training classes, and the value of the Manuals for teacher-training recently issued by our Board.

Resolved, 7. That the Assembly urges upon all institutions of higher learning in any manner connected with our Church the supreme importance of establishing and maintaining upon a high plane of efficiency full courses of Biblical instruction in their institutions.

Resolved, 8. That, in the judgment of the Assembly, it is of the highest importance that all our theological seminaries establish, at the earliest possible date, courses of instruction in the principles and methods of the modern Sabbath-school, more especially in connection with administration, teacher-training and evangelistic work; and the theological seminaries are hereby requested and directed to report action taken by them along this line to the Assembly of 1906.

Resolved, 9. That, in view of the alarming decrease in the number of candidates for the Christian ministry, as indicated by the tabulated statement appended to this Report, and in view of the vital connection of this decrease with all departments and phases of Christian education, the Assembly directs the several Synods to appoint Committees of College Visitation, who shall visit the colleges within the jurisdiction of the appointing Synods and urge upon students the claims of the Christian ministry.

Resolved, 10. That the Committee may devote itself to other subjects in connection with Christian education upon which it has not yet been able to complete its investigations, the Committee be continued with instructions to report to the Assembly of 1906, and that the Committee be enlarged by the addition of the Rev. Dr. Wilbert W. White, of the Presbytery of New York, and the Rev. Dr. Cleland B. McAfee, of the Presbytery of Brooklyn.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

In behalf of the Committee,

EBEN B. COBB, Chairman.

The Committee of Canvass of the vote of the Presbyteries on Overture No. 6, On the Territorial Limits of Presbyteries, presented the following Report, which was accepted and adopted:

The Committee of Canvass on Overture No. 6, sent down by the Assembly of 1904, respectfully reports as follows:

The text of the Overture reads—

Overture.—Shall Chapter x, Section 2, be amended by adding to it the following words: "but in exceptional cases a Presbytery may be organized within the boundaries of existing Presbyteries, in the interests of ministers and churches speaking other than the English language, or of those of a particular race; but in no case without their consent"; and the same rule shall apply to Synods.

The vote of the Presbyteries is as follows:

The following Presbyteries voted in the affirmative: Adams, Alaska, Albany, Allegheny, Alton, Arizona, Athens, Austin, Baltimore, Bellefontaine, Binghamton, Bismarck, Black Hills, Blairsville, Bloomington, Boisé, Boston, Boulder, Box Butte, Brooklyn, Buffalo, Butler, Butte, Cairo, Canadian, Cayuga, Cedar Rapids, Central Dakota, Champlain, Chemung, Chillicothe, Chippewa, Choctaw, Cimarron, Cincinnati, Clarion, Cleveland, Columbia, Columbus, Corning, Council Bluffs, Crawfordsville, Dakota (Indian), Dayton, Denver, Des Moines, Detroit, Duluth, Ebenezer, Elizabeth, Emporia, Erie, Fargo, Flint, Fort Dodge, Fort Wayne, Freeport, French Broad, Genesee, Geneva, Grafton, Grand Rapids, Great Falls, Gunnison, Hainan, Hannibal, Hastings, Havana, Helena, Highland, Holston, Huron, Indianapolis, Iowa City, Jersey City, Kalamazoo, Kansas City, Kearney, Kendall, Kiamichi, Kingston, Kittanning, Lackawanna, La Crosse, Lake Superior, Lansing, Larned, Lima, Logansport, Los Angeles, Louisville, Lyons, Madison, Mahoning, Manila, Mankato, Marion, Mattoon, Maumee, Milwaukee, Minneapolis, Minnewaukon, Monmouth, Monroe, Mouse River, Muncie, Nassau, Nebraska City, Neosho, New Albany, Newark, New Castle, Newton, Niagara, Niobrara, North River, North Texas, Northumberland, Oakes, Oakland, Oklahoma, Olympia, Otsego, Ottawa, Ozark, Parkersburg, Peking, Pembina, Pendleton, Peoria, Petoskey, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, Platte, Portland, Portsmouth, Puget Sound, Red River, Redstone, Rio Grande, Riverside, Rochester, Rock River, Sacramento, St. Clairsville, St. Cloud, St. Lawrence, St. Louis, St. Paul, San Francisco, Santa Barbara, Santa Fé, Schuyler, Sequoyah, Shanghai, Shenango, Siam, Sioux City, Solomon, Southern Dakota, Southern Oregon, South Florida, Spokane, Steuben, Steubenville, Stockton, Syracuse, Topeka, Transylvania, Trinity, Union, Utah, Utica, Vincennes, Walla Walla, Washington, Washington City, Washita, Waterloo, Weihsien, Wellsborough, Wheeling, White Water, Willamette, Winnebago, Wooster, Wyoming, Zanesville—188.

The following Presbyteries voted in the negative: Aberdeen, Atlantic, Benicia, Birmingham, Cape Fear, Carlisle, Catawba, Central Washington, Chester, Chicago, Corisco, Dubuque, East Florida, Fairfield, Grande Ronde, Hangchow, Hodge, Hudson, Huntingdon, Iowa, Knox, Lehigh, Long Island, McClelland, Morris and Orange, Nanking, New Brunswick, New York, Ningpo, Omaha, Osborne, Philadelphia North, Porto Rico, Pueblo, Saginaw, San Jose, Southern Virginia, Springfield, Troy, Westchester, West Jersey, Westminster, White River, Winona, Yadkin—45.

The following Presbyteries reported that no action had been taken: Canton, Eastern Persia, Shantung—3.

There have been no answers received from the following: Chile, Chinan, North Laos, Western Africa, Yukon—5.

The total number of Presbyteries is 241, and the provision of Chapter 24 of the Form of Government, Section 1, requires that a majority of all the Presbyteries approve in writing of amendments or alterations of the Form of Government. A majority of the Presbyteries is 121, and inasmuch as 188 Presbyteries have voted in the affirmative the Overture has been adopted, and it is the duty of the Moderator to make due declaration of the fact in the following terms, viz.: I hereby declare that Overture No. 6, sent down by the Assembly of 1904 to the Presbyteries, being an amendment to Form of Government, Chapter x, Section 2, and found in the Minutes of the Assembly of 1904, pages 146–147, has been constitutionally adopted as an amendment to the Form of Government, and is now a part of the Constitution of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A.

In behalf of the Committee,

FREDERICK J. SAUBER, Chairman.

In compliance wherewith the Moderator made the following formal and official declaration: "I hereby declare that Overture No. 6, sent down by the Assembly of 1904 to the Presbyteries, as an amendment to Form of Government, Chapter x, Section 2, and found in the Minutes of the Assembly of 1904, pages 146–147, has been constitutionally adopted, and is now a part of the Constitution of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America."

The Standing Committee on Freedmen, through its Chairman, Rev. Robert Scott Inglis, presented its Report, which was accepted, and after addresses by the Chairman, Rev. E. P. Cowan, D.D., Secretary of the Board, J. Calvin Mead, D.D., and others, was adopted. It is as follows:

Your Committee on Freedmen, after carefully reading the complete and yet concise Report of the Secretary of the Board, and the neatly kept records of the Board with the Financial Report, come before you with a glad heart. It is with gratitude and gladness that we report that the past year has been in many ways the best in the history of the Board. Last year a decrease of offerings from the churches was reported, amounting to $2322, and from other sources a decrease of $3605. This year the income from the churches increased $2984, and from other sources $4659. The receipts from miscellaneous sources also, which includes individual gifts and interest on invested funds, were $5601 more than last year. The total receipts were $189,654, being $6639 more than last year, and the largest total in the history of the Board. It is also gratifying that the increase in gifts came from the living and not the dead, and so gives hope of continuance and increase in coming years.

In spite of the increase in the collections, there was, however, a decrease in the number of giving churches. Out of 7657 churches in the Assembly only 4894 contributed to the Board last year in any way, a decrease of sixty-one over the preceding year; and only 3959, a little more than half, gave a church collection, a decrease of 149 over the previous year. Had all the Churches been faithful the Report this year might not only have been creditable, but triumphant and jubilant. Your Committee would urge upon elders and pastors the importance of seeing that more churches are urged to give more money to the Board. A previous Assembly set the standard at $300,000. This has not been reached, but it is being more nearly approached than ever before. With the wonderful ability of a God-blessed Church, used in the face of an urgent necessity, surely the Church should not be long in securing the additional one-third to complete this amount.

Too much of the work being done for the Negro in this country to-day lacks that religious basis without which the morals inculcated cannot root deeper than the temptation which sweeps them away, and the result is an educated, and therefore a more dangerous, man, if he be an immoral one. What the Negro needs is not less education but more Christian education! Not less education of the head and more education of the hands, but more education, not only of the hand and head, but also of the heart. Lately we have heard much of industrial education for the Negro. This is good, but he needs more than this. We believe in industrial education for the Negro, just as we believe in industrial education for the white man; but we believe also in higher education for the white man that he may have educated teachers and doctors and lawyers and preachers—educated leaders. The Negro also needs more than industrial leaders. He needs educated leaders. He needs educated doctors, for his death rate is much higher than that of the white! He needs educated teachers to lead him out of ignorance; he needs educated preachers to lead him out of immorality. We do not belittle industrial education. We commend it. But we would have the members of our great churches remember that they need not be led off by their zeal for industrial education to support secular institutions, when our own Church has such a splendid list of industrial schools pleading in vain for much-needed equipment for industrial training which they are anxious to give. Industrialism is a leading characteristic of our schools for the Negroes. We bid Godspeed to the much-advertised industrial schools, but we bid our Church remember that there is nothing new in the secular industrial schools that is not old in our Freedmen's Board schools. Let those who do not believe our Gospel support the schools which do recognize the Gospel, and let Christians support Christian schools.

There is a mighty question to be solved in the treatment of the Freedman. There is only one of five things to do with him: export him, destroy him, assimilate him, enslave him or save him. He does not want to be exported. There is no place to put him. He is too large. For the same reason it would be difficult to destroy him. He constitutes almost twelve per cent. of the population. Assimilation is as destructive as it is repugnant. Slavery is not to be dreamed of in this land of liberty. Can we save him? We must, or he will destroy us. Can two races live together, and both be independent and their identity be preserved? For answer look at the Jew.

The Negro must be taught self-respect and race-respect, for often he hates his own kind, and therefore hates every other kind. Educate him, not for a civil slave, but to give him an equal chance with every other man—laborer with laborer, artisan with artisan, doctor with doctor, teacher with teacher, preacher with preacher and leader with leader. To this end, bear with his childishness, bear with his backwardness, bear with his stubbornness, bear with his indifference, restrain firmly his immorality, curb greatly his self-assertiveness, until generations of Christian education shall have eliminated the puerility of slavery and developed the virility of freedom. God be praised for the work our Church has done in the past! God be praised for the work she is doing now! Does it pay? Look at the noble men and women made by Biddle and Mary Holmes and other schools, and compare them with the immoral and degenerate creatures which have been made so in part by the neglect of the Christian Church.

The 220 ministers employed in the 366 small churches, with a total membership of 22,189, reported 1700 confessions of faith, an average addition of eight for each preacher, while the average for the whole Church is only nine, a percentage of increase of the Church membership of seven and two-thirds per cent., while that of the whole Church is but six and one-fifth per cent. These pastors raised on their fields, from their people—poor people—and amongst their local friends, $63,270, and for self-support $42,884, a total of $106,155. An order of the Board last year requested every minister under its care to conduct a parochial school when conditions would permit. The result of this was a large increase in the school work. The schools increased from 91 to 113, and the scholars from 11,763 to 13,852. For their instruction a total teaching force of 314 is employed. Two hundred and seven of these are women, 24 are laymen, 73 are clergymen, 69 of whom preach in addition to teaching. The work is scattered over a wide territory, covering thirteen States, extending from Maryland to Indian Territory. One of the pathetic things in the Minutes of the Board is the oft-repeated expression, in answer to multiplied appeals from this extended field, "Refused for lack of funds."

In spite of the many open doors that have had to be passed by, a review of the field shows some important work accomplished. Through the generosity of Mr. S. P. Harbison, a member of the Board, a large additional building was erected at Harbison College, at Abbeville, S. C., costing over $10,000. Your Committee reports with sorrow the death of this generous supporter of our work, which occurred since the publication of the Board's Report. An unsolicited gift of $10,000 came from a Christian woman in Detroit, Mrs. Tracy McGregor. And with it an additional building, much needed by the famous school conducted by Mrs. Lucy Laney in Augusta, Ga., is being built, to accommodate the 700 pupils "crowded for room and cramped in every department." What potentialities for purity of life may proceed from that building! It is expected that a new $10,000 dormitory now being built at Swift Memorial Institute, Rogersville, Tenn., will be ready for occupancy this fall. Miss Flora Mather, another good friend of the work, who has helped generously in years gone by, has added this year to previous gifts a farm for the school at Andersonville, S. C. We regret to note that the new industrial building at Biddle University, Charlotte, N. C., completed early in the year, has not been utilized to advantage, owing to the lack of an equipment costing only $2000. The building was erected entirely by the students and only awaits equipment. While here and there there may be objections by the citizens in the neighborhood of our schools or churches, yet the report of the Board says: "The work our Board has been trying to do in the South for the last forty years has, as a rule, commended itself to the good judgment of the better element of almost every community in which our schools and churches have been established. We are not without abundant and constantly recurring testimony in our office, voluntarily given by many of the white people of the communities in which we labor, as to the beneficial effect of our work upon the character and lives of the people for whose benefit we labor. As against any one community that might not want us in their midst, we can easily find a hundred that would not only welcome us, but would, as they have done in many cases, offer us tempting pecuniary considerations by way of inducing us to come."

A year ago the Assembly appointed Rev. H. T. McClelland, D.D., as Field Secretary, with the understanding that it should be his special work to stir up the churches and increase the resources of the Board. The reports indicate not only great fidelity in his work, but encouraging results financially. He has traveled through the fields in the South, and has learned much by personal observation of the needs of the churches and the schools, and has come into encouraging and inspiring contact with teachers and preachers. He has attended as many meetings of Presbyteries and Synods as possible, and has been present at the sessions of the General Assembly, watching for and embracing opportunities for speaking a helpful word for the work. His work since December has been largely in and about New York City, where he plead eloquently and earnestly in many of the largest churches for increased contributions. His message has been that our beloved Presbyterian Church has formulated and applied for forty faithful, fruitful years the only effective rule for the solution of the Southern Negro problem, namely: Preach the pure Gospel of Jesus Christ, and apply the principles thereof, in the church, home and school, to the heads, hearts and hands of the Negroes who, under the Holy Spirit, will hear, believe and practice. That all such become intelligent instead of superstitious, moral as well as religious, and are persuaded and enabled to live thrifty and decent physical lives. That the Negro thus made good is a blessing to the South, and that the good white people of the South are his friends. That the rule works, and will more and more. That to bring about the desired end, to redeem the new Negro product in the South, and to save both the North and the South from the horrid entailments of slavery and social degradation, can be most economically, speedily, effectively accomplished by generous contributions to the general work of our Board, a work which in extent and quality stands in the very front rank of all evangelical work done for the temporal and eternal salvation of the Southern Negro millions.

We cannot speak too highly of the work of the Woman's Board. We have not only secured the faithful assistance of many of the Woman's Home Missionary Societies, but have also inspired the young people to help liberally, the Sabbath-schools contributing through them $5085, and the Young People's Societies $12,019, an increase of $900 over the preceding year. Special mention should be made of the fact that the young people of the Presbyteries of Pittsburgh and Allegheny raised $1200 extra this year above their usual contributions for a school building at Cordele, Ga. The Woman's Department has undertaken to raise $3500 for a new school building for McClelland School at Noonan, Ga., of which they have $2200 on hand, and $10,000 for a building at Cotton Plant, Ark., for which they have on hand $5800. The total amount raised by the women this year is $73,047, being $1605 more than they ever raised before.

Conversions to the number of 693 occurred in the sixty-six schools conducted under the direction of the Board, and as a majority were amongst boarding scholars, a large number of them are probably not included in the number reported as joining our churches.

So the work goes slowly but surely on. But to overtake the rapidly growing population and recover the lost ground, redoubled efforts are necessary. The seed sown is but a handful, but the fruit thereof should some day shake like Lebanon.

An incident mentioned in the Report brings this forcibly to our attention. An application was made for aid toward the building of a small church in a quiet rural region, where a girl who had graduated some years ago at one of our boarding schools had gone back to her home, and had begun to teach and train the young people of her neighborhood in ways of right living. Year after year she labored and prayed and maintained her school, and out of that school gathered into the church the children as they grew to womanhood and manhood, until she could look back and see that nearly every one of those she had begun to train had grown up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord.

We respectfully present the following recommendations for the adoption of this Assembly:

1. That the Assembly commends the Board of Directors for their fidelity and their self-denying labors in behalf of this great work of the Church, and expresses its gratitude.

2. The Assembly congratulates the Woman's Board on the splendid work for the year, and expresses its grateful appreciation of their valuable services.

3. That this Assembly repeats the request of the last Assembly that the churches raise not less than $300,000 for this growing work.

4. That the Minutes of the Board be approved.

5. That the Rev. S. J. Fisher, D.D., Rev. H. D. Lindsay, D.D., Mr. Robert S. Davis and Mr. Willis A. Boothe, Esq., whose terms as members of the Board have expired, be reëlected.

Respectfully submitted,

Robert Scott Inglis, Chairman.

The Committee of Canvass of the Vote of the Presbyteries on Reunion and Union of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America and the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, through its Chairman, Henry W. Jessup, Esq., presented its Report, which was accepted.

The Canvass of the Vote and the Form of Declaration presented by the Committee were adopted, and in accordance therewith the Moderator made the following formal and official declaration, to wit:

"I hereby declare that Overture No. 8, sent down by the Assembly of 1904 to the Presbyteries, in the form set forth at pages 119 and 136 in the Minutes of said Assembly, has been adopted by more than the required two-thirds vote in the affirmative, and accordingly constitutes the basis of the proposed union between our Church and the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, according to the Plan adopted by the Assembly of 1904."

The remaining resolutions as proposed in the Report were adopted.

The Report as a whole was adopted. It is as follows:

Your Committee appointed to canvass and report the vote of the Presbyteries on Overture No. 8, sent down by the last General Assembly, on the subject of the Reunion and Union of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. and the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, accompanied by a form of declaration in accordance with the terms of the Plan of Union, and also to report what further action may be necessary, do respectfully report:

1. We have canvassed the vote as reported by the Stated Clerk, and find that out of a total of 241 Presbyteries 194 Presbyteries, or more than the two-thirds majority required, have voted in the affirmative; 39 have voted in the negative; 2 have taken no action; 1 has given conditional assent, and from 5 no answer has been received. [Annexed hereto is an alphabetical list, marked A, showing the name and action of each Presbytery.]

2. We recommend accordingly for adoption by the Assembly the following form of declaration in accordance with the terms of Union (see Minutes, 1904, p. 136):

This Assembly, having received and duly examined the vote of its Presbyteries on the Basis of Union of the Presbyterian Church in U. S. A. and Cumberland Presbyterian Church, does hereby find and declare that more than the required two-thirds majority of its Presbyteries have approved the Basis of Union submitted to them by the Assembly of 1904, to wit:

"The Union shall be effected on the doctrinal basis of the Confession of Faith of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., as revised in 1903, and of its other doctrinal and ecclesiastical standards; and the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments shall be acknowledged as the inspired Word of God, the only infallible rule of faith and practice"; and that the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. has complied with all the requirements of the Plan of Union adopted by the Assembly of 1904 [see Joint Report, Minutes of 1904, p. 135 et seq.], and this Assembly declares its readiness to take action accordingly.

And your Committee recommends the following further action:

Resolved, That this whole matter be now recommitted to the Assembly's Committee on Church Coöperation and Union, for conference with the Committee on Fraternity and Union of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, or other similar Committee, appointed or to be appointed.

That such Committee be increased in its number to twenty-one, and that the Moderator report to this Assembly the names of the additional members.

That it be the duty of such Committee to ascertain what steps are necessary to complete the Union, and to report with its recommendations to the 118th General Assembly, when convened in 1906, the particular details whereby organic union may be so effected as to assure to the united Church all the legal and corporate rights and powers which the separate Churches now possess" (see ¶ 2 of Basis, Minutes, 1904, p. 136), and whereby the corporate rights now held by the two General Assemblies and by their Boards and Committees may be consolidated and applied for their several objects as defined and permitted by law" (see Seventh Concurrent Declaration, Minutes, 1904, p. 138).

Resolved, further, That the said Committee be and it hereby is authorized to confer with the Trustees of the General Assembly, if and when necessary, in order to safeguard the corporate or property rights of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. upon and after the completion of the proposed Union; and the Trustees of the General Assembly are hereby directed, if so requested to confer, to comply with such request.

Resolved, further, That the Stated Clerk communicate the purport of the aforesaid Declaration, when adopted, to the General Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, now in session at Fresno, Cal.

A.—Exhibit of the vote on Overture No. 8, on Union and Reunion with the Cumberland Presbyterian Church.

The following Presbyteries voted in the affirmative: Aberdeen, Adams, Alaska, Albany, Allegheny, Alton, Arizona, Athens, Austin, Binghamton, Black Hills, Blairsville, Bloomington, Boisé, Boston, Boulder, Box Butte, Brooklyn, Buffalo, Butler, Butte, Cairo, Canadian, Canton, Cayuga, Cedar Rapids, Central Dakota, Central Washington, Champlain, Chemung, Chicago, Chillicothe, Chippewa, Choctaw, Cimarron, Cincinnati, Clarion, Cleveland, Columbia, Columbus, Corning, Council Bluffs, Crawfordsville, Dakota (Indian), Dayton, Denver, Des Moines, Detroit, Dubuque, Duluth, Ebenezer, Elizabeth, Emporia, Erie, Fargo, Flint, Fort Dodge, Fort Wayne, Freeport, French Broad, Genesee, Geneva, Grafton, Grand Rapids, Grande Ronde, Great Falls, Gunnison, Hainan, Hangchow, Hannibal, Hastings, Havana, Helena, Highland, Holston, Huron, Indianapolis, Iowa, Iowa City, Jersey City, Kalamazoo, Kansas City, Kearney, Kendall, Kingston, Kittanning, Lackawanna, La Crosse, Lake Superior, Lansing, Larned, Lima, Logansport, Los Angeles, Louisville, Lyons, Madison, Mahoning, Manila, Mankato, Marion, Mattoon, Maumee, Milwaukee, Minneapolis, Minnewaukon, Monroe, Morris and Orange, Mouse River, Muncie, Nanking, Nassau, Nebraska City, Neosho, New Albany, Newark, Niagara, Ningpo, Niobrara, North River, North Texas, Northumberland, Oakes, Oakland, Oklahoma, Olympia, Otsego, Ottawa, Ozark, Parkersburg, Peking, Pembina, Pendleton, Peoria, Petoskey, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, Platte, Portland, Portsmouth, Puget Sound, Red River, Redstone, Rio Grande, Riverside, Rochester, Rock River, Sacramento, St. Clairsville, St. Cloud, St. Lawrence, St. Louis, St. Paul, San Francisco, Santa Barbara, Santa Fe, Schuyler, Sequoyah, Shanghai, Shenango, Siam, Sioux City, Solomon, Southern Dakota, Southern Virginia, Spokane, Springfield, (see B.), Steuben, Steubenville, Stockton, Syracuse, Topeka, Transylvania, Trinity, Union, Utah, Utica, Vincennes, Walla Walla, Washington, Washington City, Washita, Waterloo, Wellsborough, Westchester, Wheeling, White Water, Willamette, Winnebago, Winona, Wooster, Wyoming, Yukon, Zanesville—194.

The following Presbyteries voted in the negative: Atlantic, Baltimore, Bellefontaine, Benicia, Birmingham, Bismarck, Cape Fear, Carlisle, Chester, Corisco, East Florida, Fairfield, Hodge, Hudson, Huntingdon, Kiamichi, Knox, Lehigh, Long Island, McClelland, Monmouth, New Brunswick, New Castle, Newton, New York, Omaha, Osborne, Philadelphia North, Porto Rico, Pueblo, Saginaw, San José, Southern Oregon, South Florida, Troy, West Jersey, Westminster, White River, Yadkin—39.

The following Presbytery reports conditionally: Weihsien—1.

The following Presbyteries reported no action: Eastern Persia, Shantung—2.

There have been no answers received from the following Presbyteries: Catawba, Chile, Chinan, North Laos, Western Africa—5.

B.—Your Committee has had placed in its hands certain papers, consisting of two sheets, being a communication from the Stated Clerk of the Presbytery of Springfield, noting the probable prosecution of a complaint to the Synod of Illinois from a ruling of the Moderator made during the consideration in that Presbytery of this Overture, limiting discussion to the exact wording of the Overture.

We find that, in view of the large excess in the vote as canvassed over the required two-thirds, that this could not in any eventuality affect the result; and as this paper is not regularly or in due course of any process before this Assembly, no action further than this minute is required.

Respectfully submitted,

HENRY W. JESSUP, J. C. LAUGHLIN,
DAVID M. SKILLING, HENRY G. OSBORNE.
CHARLES E. BRONSON,

The Report of the Special Committee on Church Coöperation and Reunion was made the third Order for this afternoon.

The following telegram of fraternal greeting was received from the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, in session at Fort Worth, Texas:

FT. WORTH, TEXAS, May 20, 1905.

To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, Winona Lake, Indiana:

The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States salutes you in the Lord; grace, mercy and peace be with you. See 1 Thessalonians, five and twenty-three.

J. T. PLUNKET, Moderator.
W. A. ALEXANDER, Stated Clerk.

The Moderator and Stated Clerk were authorized to send the following reply:

To the General Assembly in session at Fort Worth, Texas:

The General Assembly in session at Winona Lake, Indiana, cordially reciprocates your fraternal greeting. See Romans, Chap. viii, verses 38, 39.

The following telegram was received from the General Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, Colored, in session at Huntsville, Ala.:

DR. WM. HENRY ROBERTS, Stated Clerk, Winona Lake, Ind.:

The General Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, Colored, has appointed a Committee of seven to confer with a like Committee of your General Assembly, looking to union.

C. L. DAVIS, Stated Clerk.

The Moderator and Stated Clerk were authorized to reply, and the subject matter of the telegram was referred to the Standing Committee on Bills and Overtures.

The Assembly took recess, and was closed with prayer.

MONDAY, May 22, 2.30 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The Standing Committee on Education, through Rev. John Quincy Adams, of the Committee, presented its Report, which was accepted, and after addresses by Mr. Adams, Rev. E. B. Hodge, D.D., Secretary of the Board, Rev. H. C. Minton, D.D., and others, was adopted. It is as follows:

The Standing Committee on Education respectfully reports to the General Assembly that the problems which confront the Board of Education have received large attention in recent years. Even the secular press has aroused public interest in discussions concerning the causes and effects of an inadequate supply for the future of candidates for the sacred ministry. Your Committee would call special attention to the part of the Report of the Board which has to do with the domestic conditions which have possibly affected the number of candidates.

Eliminating the superficial and local causes, there are two or three reasons which will probably explain the decrease in the number of candidates. Each of them will prove amenable to our united prayers and a natural readjustment to new conditions.

This Board not only aims to render financial aid where necessary, but includes in its purposes the moral, spiritual and persuasive, so far as they may be necessary for the securing of an adequate supply of ministers. It must therefore keep in view the entire field of the education of our youth. Beginning at the cradle, there is no influence going to the making of the man of God about which it is not concerned. The family altar, the domestic atmosphere, parental restraints, the safeguarding of our public schools system, pastoral supervision, the choice of a college, and the proper conception of and purpose in the pursuit of a higher education, the instilling of worthy ideals—in all of these this Board has a vital interest. These are the conditions fundamental to an adequate supply of men and manhood for our pulpits.

We learn with gratification of the undiminished zeal in our Presbyterian colleges in presenting to our youth the appeal of the ministry. Undoubtedly the term "commercialism" enters very largely into the causes determining the choice of a profession by our young men. Our State University courses tend increasingly toward technical specialization; preparation for the legal, pedagogical, engineering and medical professions bulk largely and increasingly there. This is a natural evolution and the end is not yet. A literary and classical discipline does not hold the place it did in these institutions. In this transition period we may abide in patience, holding that the failure of our State University to furnish a fair proportion of candidates is not necessarily due to a permanent or constitutional attitude or indifference to the ministry, but to the fact that they have not yet fully defined to their own minds their precise mission.

Your Committee has carefully examined the records of the Board and the accounts of the Treasurer, and has found them carefully and satisfactorily kept. They indicate the thorough manner in which the work of the Board and its executive officers has been performed, which entitles them to the hearty commendation and approval of the Assembly. The receipts of the Board enabled it to pay the full amount authorized by the Assembly to all the candidates.

Your Committee would submit the following recommendations:

1. That the election by the Board of the Rev. William H. Oxtoby, D.D., as a member to succeed the Rev. Robert Hunter, D.D., resigned, be approved.

2. That the term of office of the following members of the Board having expired, we recommend that they be reëlected for another term: The Rev. James M. Crowell, D.D., Rev. William P. Finney, Rev. Joseph W. Cochran, D.D., S. Spencer Chapman, Esq., Charles P. Turner, M.D., and T. M. Rogers.

3. That the Board be again authorized, as requested, to grant aid, not exceeding $175 per annum, if deemed expedient, to students of foreign tongues, where their education requires special instructors.

4. That the fourth Thursday in January, 1906, be designated as the Day of Prayer for Colleges, and its observance be urged upon the churches.

5. That the Assembly expresses its gratitude for the increased number of candidates and for the successful inauguration of the work, authorized by the Assembly of 1904, of training candidates of foreign speech for the ministry, who are to carry the Gospel to their own people in this country.

6. That the Assembly commends most heartily the action of several Synods in coöperating through Committees with the Corresponding Secretary of the Board in visiting the colleges and universities within their bounds and presenting to the students the claims of the Gospel ministry, and recommends to all our Synods a similar oversight and visitation.

7. That in view of the apparently increasing number of ministers who have been called to our churches and admitted to our Presbyteries from other denominations, many of which have a lower standard of education as well as a different doctrine and polity from our own, the attention of Presbyteries is hereby directed to the amendment of Chapter xv of the Form of Government, made in 1901 by an almost unanimous vote of the Presbyteries, by addition of a section requiring that ministers connected with other denominations applying for membership in a Presbytery shall submit satisfactory evidence of possessing the qualifications of character and scholarship as well as of doctrinal soundness required of candidates and licentiates of our Church, and Presbyteries are urged to a strict compliance with this constitutional provision.

8. Finally, the Assembly lays once more upon all our pastors the responsibility of fully presenting to our churches the claims of this Board upon their benevolences and urges a larger response on the part of the Church to this important cause.

On behalf of the Committee,

EDWARD H. PENCE, Chairman.

The Special Committee on Marriage and Divorce, through its Chairman, Rev. Charles A. Dickey, D.D., presented its Report, which was accepted, and after addresses by the Chairman and Rev. H. C. Minton, D.D., was adopted. It is as follows:

Presenting our third Report on behalf of the Inter-Church Conference regarding Divorce and Remarriage, your Committee would, first of all, respectfully remind the General Assembly of the circumstances which called for our appointment, and of the progress already made.

A communication was received by the Assembly which convened in New York, May, 1902, from the General Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church, asking our General Assembly to appoint a Committee of Conference to consider the evils which were corrupting the Church and threatening the purity of the State.

This request was complied with, and a Committee was appointed which reported progress at Los Angeles in 1903, and again at Buffalo in 1904.

Fourteen ecclesiastical bodies, together with The Alliance of the Reformed Churches, are represented in the Inter-Church Conference, and although their deliberations have developed some differences of opinion regarding Scriptural grounds of divorce and the right of remarriage as recognized in the Scriptures, yet there has been remarkably encouraging unanimity, and the conclusions which have been presented to the several Churches have found unanimous support in the conferences. At first there was a disposition to confine the deliberations to the subject of divorce and remarriage as related to the Churches, and considerable reluctance was manifested to the consideration of these questions as they were related to State and National legislation.

Presenting our Report to the last General Assembly, which convened at Buffalo in May, 1904, our recommendations exclusively concerned the obligations and responsibilities of ministers and church members, and the Assembly was pleased to enjoin such action as was supposed to tend to better conditions.

We intimated, however, that the Conference was seriously considering the obligations of the Church to the State, and the duty of the Church to bring to bear upon the State every possible and proper influence, in the hope of securing better legislation and of correcting deplorable evils.

It is with great gratification that we communicate to the Assembly the action of the Conference at the meeting held in Washington, D. C., January 25 and 26, 1905.

The deliberations and conclusions at this meeting pertain chiefly to the relations of this important subject to National and State legislation, although other recommendations were made regarding the obligation of the Church to take a more advanced and decided stand upon this vital question.

Repeating a declaration made in our Report of a year ago, your Committee is agreed in the opinion that "we cannot hope to influence public opinion and secure stricter divorce laws in the State, unless the Standards of our Churches are in conformity with the teachings of Christ, and unless the conduct of ministers and members, who represent the Church, is in conformity with our Christian Standards, to which we have sworn allegiance." High Standards will not avail unless the discipline of the Church enforces the Standards. If ministers and members are allowed to be a law unto themselves, and if flagrant violations of the law of the Church are not rebuked by deserved censure, we cannot hope to prevail against the reckless conduct of the world, neither can we expect to influence those who make and execute civil laws to lessen the evils that we deplore.

"If the righteous scarcely be saved, where shall the ungodly and the sinner appear?" The purity of the Church alone can resist immorality and increase righteousness.

And if we are indifferent regarding the family, what will secure either Church or State? To quote the manly, Christian words of President Roosevelt, addressed to the members of the Inter-Church Conference, "If the nation shall solve every other problem in the wisest possible way, it shall profit us nothing if we shall have lost our own national soul; and we will have lost it if we do not have the question of the relations of the family put upon the proper basis." These words should be written on the walls of the study of every minister who would exercise the right, granted by the State, to solemnize marriage. Something more than a State permission should be required by a Christian minister. Every minister should know, before he performs a marriage ceremony, that the relation proposed has the sanction of his Church and the sanction of the word of God.

Your Committee would remind this Assembly that the last Assembly "enjoined all ministers under its care and authority to refuse to perform the marriage ceremony in the cases of divorced persons, except as such persons have been divorced upon grounds and for causes recognized as Scriptural in the Standards of our Church."

And still further, "The Stated Clerk was instructed to call the special attention of Presbyteries to the action of the General Assembly regarding the marriage of divorced persons, and to request the Presbyteries to exercise such needful oversight and discipline as may be required to secure the enforcement of existing laws and obedience to the injunctions of the General Assembly." We have not been without examples of continued laxity, but we have had no signs of "needful oversight and discipline."

Your Committee respectfully asks that the injunction of the last Assembly may be repeated and emphasized.

Your Committee would report the following Resolution, unanimously adopted by the Inter-Church Conference, and, with like unanimity, we commend the Resolution to your favorable consideration, with the hope that this General Assembly will approve the advanced position taken, and enjoin our ministers and members to adopt this rule of action. The resolution adopted is as follows:

"It is the judgment of this Conference, and hereby it is recommended to the ecclesiastical bodies represented in the Conference, for their approval, that ministers should refuse to marry divorced persons, except the innocent party in a case where the divorce has been granted on Scriptural grounds, nor then until assured that a period of one year has elapsed from the date of the decision allowing the divorce."

The Conference has been content to rest the case, so far as ecclesiastical action is proposed, upon this one resolution, and your Committee has no other action to propose.

Regarding the relations of the Church to the State touching divorce and remarriage, the Inter-Church Conference has made decided advancement.

It assumes no authority, but does claim the right for its members, as citizens, to protest against legislation, or lack of legislation, that defiles citizenship, and that destroys the very foundations of society and righteous government.

As citizens, as much right is claimed to ask for the protection of the family as there is to ask for the protection of life and property.

Therefore the appeal was made first to a Christian President. And the appeal was not in vain. The delegates were received with courtesy and answered with prompt action. Almost before the Conference had adjourned, a message was sent to Congress by the President, and Congress enacted a law which will, as speedily as possible, give the citizens of this good land the alarming facts upon which is based the appeal for better laws and for needed reform.

With the investigation that is proceeding in the States blighted by Mormonism, together with the facts that the proposed census will produce, it is confidently believed that the conscience of our beloved country will be so aroused that the reform for which we pray will be assured.

We append to this Report the Second Address and Appeal issued by the Conference to the Christian Public, and especially to judges, Federal and State, to all who frame or execute our laws, and to ministers, who more than any other class of citizens have it in their power to stigmatize unlawful marriages, and to preserve the integrity of the family. The Appendix to the Appendix contains the forceful Address of the President of the United States, his message to Congress, and the Act concerning Divorce approved by the American Bar Association. The high stand taken by the respectable Press, almost without exception, the deep interest taken by all good citizens, the manifest endeavor of conscientious judges to curb this great evil, all these, together with a revived and earnest Church, give us a great hope that this tide of evil has reached its height in our nation, and turned.

Upon this Assembly, representing so much good citizenship, much of this hope depends. We respectfully ask the adoption of the following Resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That this Assembly repeats the action taken last year at Buffalo, and enjoins its Presbyteries, its ministers, elders and members, to adhere strictly to our Standards regarding marriage, divorce and remarriage.

Resolved, 2. That we approve the action of the Inter-Church Conference, and recommend "that ministers should refuse to marry divorced persons, except the innocent party in a case where the divorce has been granted on Scriptural grounds, nor then until assured that a period of one year has elapsed from the date of the decision allowing the divorce."

Resolved, 3. That this Assembly rejoices in the commendable action of the President, of Congress, and of judges, Federal and State, who strive to execute the best existing laws, and to secure the best conditions.

Resolved, 4. That the Appeal of the Inter-Church Conference is approved and commended.

Resolved, 5. That the Stated Clerk is hereby instructed to convey this action to the Presbyteries.

Resolved, 6. That the Committee on Conference with Other Churches on Marriage and Divorce is hereby continued.

The following telegram was reported by the Stated Clerk as having been sent to the General Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church:

WINONA LAKE, IND., May 22, 1905.

REV. J. M. HUBBERT, D.D., Stated Clerk, General Assembly Cumberland Presbyterian Church, Fresno, Cal.:

Official announcement is hereby made that the Overture for Union and Reunion between our respective Churches has been adopted by more than the required two-thirds vote of the Presbyteries in the affirmative, that all the conditions of the Plan of Union have been complied with by this Church, and that the further steps necessary to complete the Union have been referred to the Committee on Church Coöperation and Union to report to the next Assembly.

WM. HENRY ROBERTS, Stated Clerk.

The following telegram of fraternal greeting was received from the General Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, in session at Fresno, Cal.:

FRESNO, CAL., May 22, 1905.

To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in U. S. A., Winona Lake, Ind.:

The General Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church send cordial greeting. Ephesians, sixth chapter, twenty-third verse.

J. B. HAIL, Moderator.
J. M. HUBBERT, Stated Clerk.

The Moderator and Stated Clerk were authorized to reply.

The Special Committee on Church Coöperation and Reunion, through its chairman, Rev. W. H. Roberts, D.D., presented its Report, which was accepted. The several parts of the Report were acted upon as follows:

Part I, on Union with the Reformed Presbyterian Church, General Synod, was deferred in order to hear from the Reformed Presbyterian Church, General Synod.

Part II, on Comity and Coöperation, was adopted.

Part III, on General Federation, was approved.

Part IV, on Presbyterian Federation, was referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures.

The closing paragraphs and resolution of the Report were adopted.

It was ordered that the Report be printed as a whole in the Minutes in connection with the action to be taken on Part IV.*

The announcement of the Committees on Synodical Records in to-morrow morning's Warsaw Times was authorized.

The Assembly adjourned, and was closed with prayer by the Moderator, with special intercession in behalf of the General Assemblies from whom telegrams of fraternal greeting were received during the day.

MONDAY, May 22, 8 o'clock P.M.

A popular meeting was held in the interests of the Freedmen, and addresses were delivered by Rev. David G. Wylie, D.D., Rev. D. J. Sanders, D.D., Rev. H. T. McClelland, D.D., Rev. Messrs. Brodie, Bascomb, Tucker and Carlile.

TUESDAY, May 23, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with devotional exercises.

The Minutes of yesterday's sessions were read and approved.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures presented a Report referring papers, which was adopted, and is as follows:

The Committee on Bills and Overtures respectfully reports upon additional papers placed in its hands by the Stated Clerk.

It is recommended that the Overtures from the Presbyteries be referred as follows:

To the Special Committee on Church Coöperation and Union:

Overtures Nos. 60 to 62 and 87, from the Presbyteries of Omaha, New York, South Florida and Pueblo, referring to Union with the Cumberland Presbyterian Church.

To the Standing Committee on Theological Seminaries:

Overtures Nos. 84, 85 and 95, from the Presbyteries of Steuben, Peoria and Des Moines, concerning Sabbath-school Training in our Theological Seminaries.

To the Special Committee on Sabbath Observance:

Overture No. 93, from the International Federation of Sunday Rest Associations.

To the Standing Committee on Church Polity:

Overture No. 88, from the Presbytery of Steuben, on Biennial Sessions of the Assembly.

Overture No. 89, from the Presbytery of Springfield, as to the Constitutional Interval of Time between Licensure and Ordination.

Overture No. 90, from the Presbytery of Springfield, as to Ordination of Ministers by other than the Installing Presbytery.

Overture No. 91, from the Presbytery of Pueblo, on Seating Elders as Members of Presbyteries who are neither Principals nor Alternates.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures presents the following recommendations upon papers which have been referred to it:

Overtures Nos. 39 to 42, from the Synod of Minnesota and the Presbyteries of Boisé, Dayton and La Crosse, request that the Home Mission Board be so constituted as to embrace a special department called an Evangelistic Department, with authority to commission evangelists and perform similar duties. It is recommended that since the Assembly has already appointed a Special Committee on Evangelistic Work for the ensuing year, it does not appear wise at this time to add this work to that of the Board of Home Missions, and that the Overtures be referred to that Board with instruction to confer with the Evangelistic Committee, consider if such action be wise or feasible, and report to the next Assembly. Meanwhile, the Board of Home Missions is directed to take into serious and prayerful consideration the needs of the weaker churches in country and towns with reference to evangelistic services.

Overture No. 51, from the Presbytery of Pendleton, on Abbreviations after Ministers' Names in the Statistical Reports of Presbyteries, proposes that the initials H.M. be used for a minister in charge of a Home Mission church, but not installed as pastor, and H.M.P. for a minister installed as pastor of a Home Mission church. We recommend that the former part of the proposal be approved, the initials H.M. seeming appropriate, after the analogy of the initials F.M. for foreign missionaries, but that the latter part be not approved, there appearing no adequate reason for distinguishing between pastors of home mission churches and pastors of other churches.

Overture No. 58, from the Presbytery of Newton, asks that the Assembly take some positive and energetic action looking toward a concerted movement for the preserving of the Christian American Sabbath. The resolutions already adopted in connection with the Report of the Permanent Committee on Sabbath Observance seems to meet the purpose of the Overture, and it is recommended that no further action be now taken.

Overture No. 64, from the Synod of Ohio is as follows:

"The Synod of Ohio respectfully overtures the One Hundred and Seventeenth General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America to appoint a Special Committee, which shall make full investigation of the question of Men's Societies, and report to the One Hundred and Eighteenth General Assembly, with the view to the formation of a Men's Order, or Brotherhood, within the Presbyterian Church, which shall be distinctively Presbyterian in name and purpose, and providing for Presbyterial, Synodical and National Conventions, for the purpose of bringing Presbyterian men together in the interests of the Presbyterian Church, and in the interest of winning men to Christ." It is recommended that a Committee of five be appointed to report as desired, and that the Stated Clerk be instructed to place at its disposal such information as comes to his office in the regular Reports of the Presbyteries.

Overture No. 65, from the Presbytery of Syracuse, is as follows:

"The Presbytery of Syracuse hereby respectfully overtures the General Assembly to amend the rules for the preparation of the Statistical Report, so that Rule 4 shall read: 'Place after the name of every minister an abbreviation denoting his occupation, except that the names of ministers without charges shall be inserted without any designation whatever.'" It is recommended that Rule 4 be so changed.

Overture No. 66, from the Presbytery of Westminster, is as follows:

"The Presbytery of Westminster, in session at Bethany Church, Lancaster, Pa., April 12, 1905, would respectfully overture the General Assembly to inquire if it be true that the Presbytery of Nassau persists in keeping upon its roll of ministerial members one or more persons who are not in accord with the doctrines of our Church, and who publicly denounce many of those doctrines which we believe essential and lie at the very foundations of the Christian religion." It is recommended that no action be taken, Section 76 of the Book of Discipline indicating that the primary inquiry belongs properly to the Synod of New York, to which judicatory the Presbytery of Nassau is immediately inferior.

However, your Committee proposes that the following Minute be adopted, viz.:

Resolved, That, in view of the many forms of modern unbelief which are at once insidious in their approach, unblushing in their insolence and disastrous in their results, this General Assembly solemnly calls upon all its Presbyteries and ministers and people to be loyal to all the great doctrines of our historic faith, and while according generous respect to the varying views of others who are one with us in acknowledging Jesus Christ as Divine Saviour and Lord, at the same time also to guard with jealous care and loving pride the integrity and purity of that faith which we solemnly believe to be taught in Holy Scripture, which by the blessing of God has made Presbyterianism so great a power for good in the past, and which in its soundness and sustained vigor is to be its peculiar trust and honor in the time that is to come.

Overture No. 68, from the Presbytery of Wellsborough, is as follows:

"Shall the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly be authorized and instructed to prepare a preface to the Constitution of the Church, in which shall be placed matter of a historical nature which shall plainly and briefly set forth the origin of the Westminster Standards, their adoption by the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., and the particulars in which they have been amended from time to time; the Preface contemplated to be somewhat similar to, and to take the place of, the Historical Summary now printed in the editions of the Constitution (Revised Edition, August, 1903), the same to be presented to the next General Assembly."

It is recommended that the Stated Clerk be instructed as desired, to report to the next Assembly.

Overture No. 71, from the Presbytery of Bloomington, is as follows:

"Whereas, We believe it to be the duty of the Christian Church to be interested in the material as well as in the spiritual needs of her members;

"Whereas, The diaconate, the oldest and only institution in the Church having in view the supply of material help, has in many churches been abolished, and in others turned from its original purposes;

"Whereas, In lieu of this nothing is left for many of our members to do in times of financial distress but to apply for help to the associated charities or beneficiary lodges, for which the Church is not unjustly reproached;

"We respectfully overture the General Assembly of 1905, which convenes at Winona Lake, to urge upon the churches the importance of maintaining and of liberally supporting the diaconate for its original purpose.

"Also, that a Committee be appointed to consider the feasibility of organizing the beneficiary work of the Church on the basis of mutual financial aid, the gratuitous reception of financial aid being objectionable to so many of our people."

It is recommended that the Assembly record its sense of the importance of the matter to which the overture refers in its first four paragraphs, and enjoins upon its churches renewed attention to the diaconate as the best agency for caring for the needy of the Church.

It is recommended that the last paragraph be referred to the Committee on Men's Societies already ordered.

Overture No. 74, from the Presbytery of Dayton, is as follows:

"On account of the limited time between the close of the Church year and the meeting of the Presbyteries, the Reports on many essential matters are necessarily imperfect, and do not afford a proper basis for careful consideration. Therefore we respectfully ask the Assembly to consider the question of making the Church year close with the calendar year, as in our foreign missionary fields, so that all Reports may be in the hands of the proper Committees of the Presbyteries and the Assembly in ample time for careful examination."

It is recommended that the Stated Clerk be instructed to investigate the feasibility and wisdom of the change, including correspondence with the benevolent Boards of the Church as to the effect of such a change upon their Reports, and report to the next Assembly.

There has been referred to this Committee a telegram reading as follows:

Northern General Assembly, Dr. Wm. Henry Roberts, Stated Clerk, Winona, Ind.:

General Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, Colored, appointed a Committee of seven to confer with a like Committee of your General Assembly looking to union.

C. L. Davis, Stated Clerk.

This telegram has already been acknowledged by the Assembly, and it is recommended that it be now referred to the Committee on Coöperation and Union already charged with such relations.

Paper No. 92, the Annual Report of the American Section of the Executive Commission of the Alliance of the Reformed Churches holding the Presbyterian System has been placed in our hands. It is recommended that the Report be published in the Appendix to the Minutes of the Assembly. Accompanying it is a document of great interest and importance relating to the decrease in candidates for the ministry. It is recommended that it be referred to the Board of Education and published in the Appendix to the Minutes. In the Report itself attention is called to the near occurrence of the Reformation anniversaries, notably the setting apart of "the first Sabbath of next November as a day of special thanksgiving for the blessings resulting to so many churches and countries from the movement which we call the Reformation of the Sixteenth Century." We recommend that the day be so set apart, and that the Stated Clerk be instructed to call attention to it in a suitable manner as the time approaches.

It is matter for special comment that the newly formed Presbyterian Church of Mexico has been received into the Alliance, and it is recommended that the Stated Clerk be instructed to convey to the Stated Clerk of the General Synod of that Church our fraternal greetings, the more warmly because it is so largely the outgrowth of the mission work of this Assembly in Mexico.

It is recommended that the matter of the apportionment for our share of the expenses of the Alliance be referred to the Finance Committee of the Assembly.

Overture No. 77, from the Presbytery of Nassau, asking that the Brief Statement of the Reformed Faith be adopted and used as the Creed of our Church. It is recommended that this be answered in the negative.

Overture No. 86, from the Presbytery of Steuben, asks for additional blanks for Report of Systematic Beneficence. It is recommended that no action be taken, since all important matters seem sufficiently covered by blanks now in use.

Overture No. 94, being a paper from the Anti-Saloon League, is herewith returned as requiring no action under the rules of the Assembly.

Paper No. 96, being a Memorial from the Presbytery of Baltimore in which protest is made against the action of the last Assembly in dropping from the Committee on Coöperation and Union the names of Rev. Dr. John R. Davies and Mr. Elisha H. Perkins.

It is manifestly improper for this Assembly to take action in criticism of a past Assembly, and it is believed the purpose of the Memorial will be served by its being read in presence of this Assembly, and by our making record of our conviction that no reflection was intended upon the zeal and faithfulness of these much-beloved brethren.

For the Committee,

CLELAND B. MCAFEE, Chairman.

The Committee reported also on the Memorial of Justice John M. Harlan, Commissioner from the Presbytery of Washington City, concerning a Presbyterian church building suitable to the religious conditions in the National Capital.

The Report was placed upon the Docket, and made the first Order for to-morrow morning.

The Judicial Committee, through its Chairman, Mr. Carroll Robbins, presented a Report, which was accepted and adopted. It is as follows:

Your Judicial Committee would respectfully report as follows:

Two judicial cases have been submitted for our consideration—

1. The appeal of Owen Riedy against a decision of the Synod of Texas;

2. The appeal of George H. Marsh against a decision of the Synod of South Dakota.

In the case of Riedy against the Synod of Texas, the appellant has failed to file a proper appeal and specifications. The papers are therefore not in order, and we recommend the dismissal of the appeal.

In the case of George H. Marsh against the Synod of South Dakota, the appeal is taken by George H. Marsh as the representative of the Presbytery of Black Hills.

As the case is in order, we recommend that a Commission be appointed to try the case.

On behalf of the Committee,

CARROLL ROBBINS, Chairman.

The Judicial Committee was appointed the Commission to try the above case.

The Standing Committee on Home Missions, through its Chairman, Rev. John F. Hendy, D.D., presented its Report, which was accepted, and after addresses by the Chairman, Rev. John Dixon, D.D., Assistant Secretary of the Board, Rev. Charles Stelze, Superintendent for Workingmen, and Rev. William O. Forbes, was adopted. It is as follows:

Your Committee would respectfully report that they have given careful and conscientious consideration to the Annual Report of the Board of Home Missions for the years 1904–5. We have also examined the Minutes of the Board for the same year, together with the Report of the Superintendent of Schools, the Report of the Secretary of Young People's Work, and the Report of the Woman's Board of Home Missions.

A painstaking study of these profoundly interesting Reports has revealed to the mind of your Committee, as nothing else could do, the magnitude of the work committed to the Home Board, the far-reaching influence of the work, and the splendid executive skill with which this vast and complicated work is administered.

In the brief space allotted to the Report of your Committee it would manifestly be impossible to even summarize the several official documents placed in our hands for examination. These printed Reports will be in the hands of all our pastors and Sessions within a few weeks, and we trust their thrilling story will inspire the whole Church with new and greater zeal in the vital work of our country's evangelization.

The personnel of the Home Mission Board is a matter justly claiming the attention of the General Assembly. The Board is composed of ministers and laymen whose name and whose praise are known and heard throughout our widely extended communion. The high personal and professional character of these gentlemen, the statesman-like skill with which they solve the difficult problems constantly arising, the many valuable hours gratuitously and cheerfully bestowed upon the work of this Board, in our judgment, challenge the admiration and gratitude of the entire Presbyterian Church.

Your Committee is glad to be able to put on record its sincere testimony to the fidelity, zeal and administrative skill of the several officers of the Board, its honored Secretaries and Treasurer. No benevolent cause, we are persuaded, is served by better or more capable men than these. The stewardship committed to them is a vast and responsible one, but the Church will make no mistake if she pronounces on these loyal servants her "well done."

During the year just now closed ten soldiers of the Home Mission army have been dropped from the rolls of the Church militant.

Their names, as we confidently trust, are now enrolled among the countless hosts of the Church triumphant. With loving sympathy for the bereaved, our Church desires to record once more the names of these her sons who have passed through glory's morning gate; they are:

Rev. Thomas MacGuire, Seattle, Wash.
Rev. Ernest Schuette, D.D., Madison, Wis.
Rev. William MacLean, Cogswell, N. D.
Rev. William Douglass, Cleveland, Wash.
Rev. William J. Hill, Huron, S. D.
Rev. Samuel Acheson, Towner, N. D.
Rev. Jacob V. Hughes, Castlewood, S. D.
Rev. Isaac Baird, Walnut Creek, Cal.
Rev. Albert Aston, Gilroy, Cal.
Rev. Alexander Moss Merwin, Pasadena, Cal.

The force of workers on the field bearing the commission of the Home Board is 1201; if we add to these the 970 missionaries employed by the eleven Synods who supervise their own local work, we have a grand total of 2171 ministers engaged in the truly apostolic and evangelistic work. It is an almost startling fact that more than two-fifths of our Presbyterian ministers now in active work are home missionaries, and no less significant is the other fact that about one-half of our Presbyterian churches receive missionary aid.

If the record of a single year's work of these 2200 missionaries of Christ could all be mapped out before us, as on some broad canvas, how it would make the blood tingle, and ofttimes start the unbidden tear! The mission of these men is to present to their fellows the Gospel for a world of doubt—the Gospel for a world of sin—the Gospel that reclaims, renews, transforms, sanctifies.

The Home Board comes to the Assembly for the seventh successive year without debt. The Report of the Treasurer furnishes a clear and full statement of the Board's financial condition. That Report has been audited and approved by Mr. John H. Allen, of New York, an accredited public auditor. During the ecclesiastical year there came to the treasury from all sources the munificent sum of $867,016.70. Adding to this the balance on hand from the previous year we have an aggregate of $870,196.96. The entire expenditures of the Board for the past year were $866,189.56. On April 1, 1905, there remained in the treasury a balance of $4007.40. We are glad to note a material advance of $46,410.50 in the receipts of last year as compared with the receipts of the year preceding. Indeed, the Report now in our hands discloses the largest receipts and the largest expenditures for current work in the entire history of the Board.

The special attention of the General Assembly is called to the fact that the Board of Home Missions is a residuary legatee in the estate of Mr. Charles B. Beck, deceased. The large landed interests of that estate have recently been sold, and sold at prices beyond the most sanguine anticipations. The receipts of the Board from the Beck estate amount to over $100,000.

It is proposed with this fund as a basis to create a "Reserve Account," and to invest the same in approved securities. The wisdom of the Board in creating this "Reserve Fund" meets with the fullest approval of your Committee. It must be remembered that for several months every year the income of the Board is altogether inadequate to meet the current expenses. As a result the Board is obliged to borrow large sums in order to pay the missionaries' salaries. Having an ample "Reserve Fund," it is hoped that the interest accruing from it will fully offset the amount paid for bank interest on temporary loans. The experience of the Board in the matter of legacies shows a very wide variation, from year to year, in the amount received by the Treasurer. This fluctuation in the amount received from legacies often causes no small embarrassment to the Board. The uncertainty makes it difficult to adjust the income to the expenditures. To eliminate this difficulty as far as possible is one of the purposes of the Board in proposing the establishment of the "Reserve Fund." It will act as a sort of beneficent balance wheel. Your Committee cordially approve the plan of a Reserve account for the equalization of legacy receipts, as submitted by the Home Board in its Treasurer's Report, and also approve the proposal of the Board for the initial investment of said fund.

The average annual income from legacies the past twenty years, according to carefully compiled estimates, has stood somewhere between $130,000 and $140,000. The plan herein proposed will call for an appropriation of not less than $130,000 nor more than $140,000 per year for the first three years from this augmented fund.

The attention of the General Assembly must be called to the vast importance of the work of the Home Board among the non-English-speaking peoples that year by year crowd to our shores. Probably one million immigrants, most of them speaking languages differing from ours, will flow in upon us this present year. The supreme agency in transforming them from being aliens into intelligent and vigorous American citizens and American Christians is the simple Gospel of our Lord and Master. The Gospel must needs be first of all presented in their own tongue. To do this vast work effectually a round million of dollars would not be too much to put annually in the hands of the Home Board.

Your Committee are highly gratified to note the encouraging progress made by the Department of the Board now under the care of Rev. Charles Stelzle—we refer to the department that has oversight of the work for workingmen and labor unions in general. This phase of our work is at once timely and effective. The amount of work done and the good results so often following have abundantly justified the Board in establishing the office filled so acceptably by Mr. Stelzle. It is reassuring to be informed that the gap between organized labor and the Christian Church is not growing wider, but is narrowing. Workingmen are studying afresh the whole situation. Ministers are now admitted to many labor unions; and, on the other hand, labor unions are sending delegates to ministers' meetings, where, for the first time, perhaps, they learn that rich and poor meet together because they have one common Maker, one common Lord.

Appreciating the increasing importance of the industrial problem, and realizing that the labor question is fundamentally a moral and religious question, and that it will never be settled permanently upon any other basis, we recommend that the Presbyterial Home Mission Committees appoint Subcommittees for the purpose of making a systematic study of the entire problem in their respective localities.

These Committees shall coöperate with the newly organized Workingmen's Department of the Board of Home Missions, thus establishing in connection with the organized Presbyterianism of every city in America a Board of experts who may be able to inform the churches with respect to the aims of organized labor, and to inform the workingmen concerning the mission of the Church.

These Committees shall also assist in the already successfully inaugurated plan of securing for the churches fraternal relationships with workingmen in their organizations; become responsible for the distribution of the literature issued by the Board both for the membership of the Church and for the great mass of workingmen outside of the Church; and to push aggressively whatever methods may bring about a more cordial relationship between the Church and organized labor.

The Forward Movement of the Board has met with the Church's approval. Many local congregations have in this way come into more vital touch with the work of the home missionaries, and have had a broader outlook on the ever-increasing need of men and means for our country's evangelization. Some congregations have taken the helpful step of adopting a missionary of their own. Even individuals have been found with the patriotic Christian spirit to send substitutes to represent them on the firing line. Others in this Forward Movement have contributed funds for permanent improvements and enlargements in mission buildings.

In reviewing the almost limitless mission of the Home Board, special interest must attach to the development of our work in the young neighbor Republic of Cuba and in our own island of Porto Rico. The problems in those two countries are strikingly similar. Dr. J. Milton Greene, our Church's ambassador to Cuba, reports a decided advance along all the line of effort. He reports an ever-growing appreciation and responsiveness on the part of the Cuban people. Of course, infidelity and Romanism have both burnished afresh their weapons for attack, and yet we are assured that the evangelical movement in Cuba is commanding an ever-growing respect, that it is reckoned as a power truly militant, a power that is contributing effectively to the moral, intellectual, social and spiritual regeneration of Cuba. The formation of the Presbytery of Havana last year was truly an epoch in Cuban history. It has no precedent in the annals of that island. That Presbytery is composed of six churches, seven ministers and four licentiates. This unique event has already had a unifying, solidifying, inspiring effect upon the entire work of the Church in Cuba.

Going a little farther east we come to our own island possession of Porto Rico. Throughout the entire island, our honored Secretary, Dr. Thompson, tells us, there is daybreak everywhere. The work of the past year seems to outdistance even the wonderful progress of the five preceding years. Six years ago there was but one Protestant church in the entire island of Porto Rico. To-day Secretary John Willis Baer, just returned from the island, informs us there are more natives of Porto Rico to be found at the Protestant services than in all the Roman Catholic churches. The Presbyterian banner waves over fifty stations in Porto Rico. Our missionaries tell us that the Gospel of the Lord Jesus is not only revolutionizing individual lives—even more—it is transforming entire communities.

The testimony of Secretary Baer concerning the progress of the work in the island has already thrilled our entire Church. One brief paragraph cannot be repeated too often: "I have no hesitancy," says the Secretary, "in saying that there has not come, to my personal knowledge, a field where God has used men and women to His own glory, showing definite results more certainly, than in the beautiful island of Porto Rico. From the day the Spanish flag fell from the masthead and Old Glory took its place, there has been but little opposition to the American Idea and the Gospel of Christ. Both have been welcomed, adopted, adapted."

The work of the Home Board in the vast region of Alaska is prosecuted with characteristic energy and wisdom. It is an exceedingly difficult field for the missionary, and difficult for the Board to handle, owing to the rapid changes taking place in towns and mining camps. Fifteen organized churches are now reported in Alaska as compared with seven ten years ago. In the past decade the number of churches in Alaska has increased one hundred per cent., the number of church members fifty per cent.

Your Committee call attention to the excellent literature issued by the Home Board. Pastors will find it helpful and stimulating for their people. Up to a recent time the publications of the Board were limited to leaflets and pamphlets, but this year four new books were published with special reference to the needs of young people's organizations and the general study of missionary topics. With such admirable helps for the study of missionary topics pastors will do well to organize mission study classes among their young people.

The work of our Young People's Societies calls for grateful recognition on the part of the General Assembly. The offerings of our Sunday-schools and Young People's Societies during the past year amounted to $95,000—a material increase over the preceding year.

Your Committee has reviewed with sincere pleasure and gratitude to the great Head of the Church the splendid work of the women of our denomination in behalf of the schools under their supervision. The enthusiasm and prayerfulness with which that work has been maintained and developed is well calculated to bring joy to the heart of our entire Church.

They have planted the mission field with Christian schools. In Alaska, in Utah, in New Mexico, among the mountain population of the South, in Cuba and Porto Rico they have carried forward this blessed work. To the Freedmen schools these Christian women have afforded aid to the munificent amount of $74,000. They have also begun work during the past year among the foreign populations of our own country.

In the schools supported by the Woman's Board there have been 903 hopeful conversions during the past year. There has been a gain of 1535 scholars in the Sunday-schools, and a gain of thirty-one Sunday-schools over the preceding year. The total receipts of the Woman's Boards for the year just closed reached the splendid sum of $474,839—being an advance of $15,400 over the year 1903–4. Having discharged all their own financial obligations and then given $74,000 for work among the Freedmen, there still remained the sum of $6806 to be covered into the treasury of the Home Board for its evangelistic work. The principle of self-support is properly emphasized in all the schools under the care of the Woman's Board. As a result the tuition fees, which in 1894 aggregated $19,000, have now increased to the comfortable sum of $63,000. The normal and collegiate school at Asheville, North Carolina, whose annual current expenses are $22,000, now receives $20,000 annually from its own pupils.

Mention must be made of the efficient services of the Advisory Committee of eighty ladies, who meet every week regularly for consultation. As for the devoted, tender and wise leadership of the Board's beloved and honored President, Mrs. Darwin R. James, the whole Church recognizes it with deepest gratitude.

A fresh study of this great question serves to convince your Committee that the work of this honored and beloved Board stands as the prime agency of the Presbyterian Church for the upbuilding of our Lord's kingdom in this great American Republic. The conservation and strengthening of the priceless legacies of civil liberty and a pure form of religion in our own land, emphasize in an unmistakable way the call for largely increased offerings to this thrice-loved and honored Board.

Your Committee respectfully submit the following resolutions for the consideration of the General Assembly:

1. That the Minutes of the Board of Home Missions for 1904–5 be approved.

2. That the following members of the Board, whose terms of office expire at this meeting of the General Assembly, be reëlected for the term of three years, viz.: Ministers—Rev. Thomas A. Nelson, D.D., Rev. George L. Spining, D.D., Rev. Wilton Merle Smith, D.D.; Laymen—John E. Parsons, H. Edwards Rowland, A. Noel Blakeman, Calvin B. Orcutt.

That the Rev. Albert Edwin Keigwin be chosen to fill the unexpired term of the Rev. Robert Mackenzie, D.D., resigned, and the Rev. Henry Sloane Coffin to fill the unexpired term of the Rev. Howard Agnew Johnston, D.D., resigned.

3. That the excellent literature furnished by the Board receives our hearty approval, and we urge pastors to give it the widest possible distribution.

4. That in our judgment the work of the Home Board for the coming year requires at least $900,000 from its friends and supporters. This means an advance of fifteen per cent. over the offerings of last year. The Assembly makes an urgent plea for the increase of fifteen per cent. in all our offerings. Let this be our watchword—an increase of fifteen per cent. in our offerings for the Home Board.

5. The General Assembly once more expresses its hearty appreciation of the splendid services rendered to the Church by the Woman's Board of Home Missions. The magnificent sum of almost half a million dollars laid as an offering on the altar of God the past year by these daughters of the King tells its own eloquent story. Our whole Church through this General Assembly extends to Mrs. Darwin R. James, the honored President of the Woman's Board, its grateful tribute for her long and faithful services.

6. That on the Sabbath preceding Thanksgiving Day our Sabbath-schools be requested to make an offering for the mission school work under the care of the Woman's Board of Home Missions, and that on the Sabbath preceding February 22d the Sabbath-schools be requested to make an offering for the evangelistic work of the Board of Home Missions.

7. That since the demand for new work is so urgent, Presbyteries are enjoined to use all diligence in bringing up to self-support churches which for years have been receiving aid. At least, let the amount asked be reduced year by year.

8. That the attention of the Church be called afresh to the urgent spiritual needs of our foreign population, as that population is massed not only in our great cities and manufacturing centres, but also in the mining districts of our country, and that special effort be put forth by our Home Board to meet their pressing needs.

9. In view of the ever-increasing need of more men and more money in the great Home Mission field, because of the rapid expansion of our population, and knowing that the present force of officers is inadequate to overtake this ever-expanding work, your Committee recommend that the Board be authorized to appoint a general Field Secretary, whose special duty it shall be to visit the various fields, especially in the West, for the purpose of stimulating offerings, developing local resources, and counseling with Synods and Presbyteries in the development and adjustment of their work.

10. That the Assembly hereby approves of the "Reserve Account" plan for the equalization of legacy receipts, as submitted by the Board in the Report of the Treasurer.

11. The work in behalf of workingmen and labor unions, as committed to the hands of Rev. Charles Stelzle by the Home Board, meets with the heartiest commendation of this General Assembly. On that promising work we invoke God's largest blessing.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

JOHN F. HENDY, Chairman.

The following paper was adopted:

Whereas, The Hierarchy of the Mormon Church claims to be "the only legal government that can exist in any part of the universe, (and that) all other governments are illegal and unauthorized," asserting as a part of their inspired teachings that "the day will come when the United States Government will be uprooted or brought under subjection to the Mormon power"; and

Whereas, They have already gained absolute political control of three States, with the confident hope of controlling two others at an early day; and,

Whereas, The Hierarchy is living in violation of the laws and Constitution of the State of Utah, has announced its purpose to continue in disobedience to the civil authority, and has proclaimed the Mormon Church a polygamous community by confirming at their annual Conference in April the score of polygamous Prophets, Seers and Revelators; and

Whereas, Apostle Reed Smoot, now a member of the United States Senate, has by his public vote in the Mormon Conference sustained again and again this treasonable organization; therefore,

Resolved, That this General Assembly unite with other Christian and patriotic bodies in requesting the Senate of the United States, in the exercise of its Constitutional powers or prerogatives, to purge itself of all complicity with the crimes of the Mormon Hierarchy by expelling the Apostle Senator Reed Smoot from membership in the Senate.

The Assembly took recess and was closed with prayer.

TUESDAY, May 23, 2.30 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

It was ordered that all lectures preceding the opening of the sessions of the Assembly close five minutes before the opening of the session.

The Standing Committee on Colleges, through its Chairman, Rev. John Bancroft Devins, D.D., presented its Report, which was accepted, and after addresses by the Chairman, Rev. E. C. Ray, D.D., Acting Secretary and Treasurer, Rev. J. Stuart Dickson, Secretary, Rev. Robert Mackenzie, D.D., President of the Board, Rev. J. Addison Henry, D.D., Rev. James D. Moffat, D.D., and Rev. Guy W. Wadsworth, D.D., was adopted. The Report is as follows:

The Standing Committee on Colleges respectfully reports as follows:

The Committee has read with great pleasure the Twenty-second Annual Report of The College Board, and also its written Minutes for the year just closed. For clearness, exactness and beauty the Minute book deserves special commendation.

Coöperation is the keynote of the Annual Report. That word illustrates the work of the year. It forms the basis of the new policy adopted by the Board. It has been the prevailing thought of the educational conferences held in connection with the present Assembly. It will be the watchword for the coming years.

The Board comes to the Assembly with a new Constitution, with a membership largely new, and having before it problems not always easily solved. Dr. Herrick Johnson, of the McCormick Theological Seminary, of Chicago, the retiring Moderator of the General Assembly in 1883, secured at Saratoga that year the organization of the Board of Aid for Colleges and Academies. This he did through his knowledge of the needs of the West, due to the strong affection which he had for the noble men engaged in the newer educational institutions, largely west of Chicago, and by his strong personality. His efforts were backed by other giants in that Assembly, Howard Crosby among the number, and the educational work in the West, too long delayed by the Presbyterian Church, was started. Dr. Johnson was the only President of the Board of Aid, except for the last year before the Board was removed to New York, when Dr. J. G. K. McClure, of Lake Forest, filled that office most acceptably. Dr. Johnson has properly been elected President Emeritus of the new Board. Long may he live to enjoy that honor, one richly deserved.

Dr. Edward C. Ray, the faithful Secretary of the Board during more than half its term of existence, and for the greater part of that time its Treasurer as well, came into the Board fitted by training and the study of Western institutions, and most assiduously has he performed the arduous duties of his office. Extremely sympathetic by nature, the burdens resting upon the College Presidents and Faculties were his burden as well, and sleepless nights passed by them were shared equally by the Secretary in Chicago. Through appeals, correspondence, personal interviews, addresses in Presbytery and Synod and Assembly, he aimed for years to arouse the Church from what our Moderator is pleased to term "its period of backsliding." Bound by constitutional rules and Assembly instructions which he followed with a conscientious literalness, even though it should mean the straining of friendship or the loss of personal popularity, he sought to increase the pittance doled out by the Church which gloried in its history as a College Building Church, while it sat, to quote again from our Moderator's address on Sunday last, "watching its colleges starve." The confidence which the Church has in Dr. Ray and its appreciation of his worth to The College Board are evinced by the fact that he has been made Office Secretary by direction of the General Assembly, and Assistant Treasurer.

The old Constitution, adapted for a Board organized principally to give aid, was not sufficiently elastic for the work of the Church of the present day, and very properly it has been recast, its best parts retained and new ones added. The offices have been moved to New York and the Board is largely made up of new men. The reorganized Board has a strong and representative membership, men who share the spirit of the old Board and of the Assembly in the work of Christian education, and who wish to carry out the purpose of the Church to the best of their ability. The present Board is made up of men from the West and from the East, and is thereby as representative as the Assembly could make it. The order of the Assembly that the Board should be enlarged in sphere of operation and executive force has been faithfully carried out. The record of the year's work is largely one of the record of that enlargement.

The Board has chosen an ideal President. No man in our Church is better fitted to direct the management of The College Board than Dr. Robert Mackenzie. An Eastern man going to the Pacific coast for his training and early experience in Christian effort, and especially in Christian education, he has returned to the East, and shares the prime of his life between an important city pastorate and The College Board.

The executive force of the Board has been enlarged by adding a Secretary and a Treasurer. The latter is an eminent banker, not a member of the Board. The Secretary, the Rev. James Stuart Dickson, D.D., the pastor of a successful Philadelphia church, with a Princeton training, has been in office less than three months, but he has already visited nearly every one of our colleges and he has now a firm grasp on the situation. The new Secretary has remarkable executive ability. He has gripped the affection and has been assured of the loyal support of every College President and officer with whom he has come into contact on the field and at the conferences held here last week. He has already laid the deepest, widest and strongest foundation possible for his future usefulness in this cause. The Board has been extremely wise in the selection of its Secretary.

The year just closed has been, in some sense, a transition period. In the words of the Report: "As the foundation on which a lofty structure is to rise must be laid deep and strong and right, so the Board has deemed it no loss of time to spend the year in foundation work." We commend this wise foundation laying as good policy.

Notwithstanding the transition period, the Board is to be congratulated, and the Church as well, upon the fact that increased contributions have been received from churches and individuals. The receipts from churches and church organizations for the year are $138,603.97; from individuals $216,467.70; from legacies $34.179.88, making, with other receipts from securities, a grand total of $429,749.28! Shall we not now cease speaking of The College Board as "one of the small Boards"?

Encouraging as is the work of the year past, the time has come for an advance. Last year the sum asked from the churches was $150,000; this figure was nearly reached. With the new outlook, with new officers, with the new courage evident in the colleges and in the Church, the goal must be set farther off; we suggest that the churches be asked this year to contribute to this Board $200,000, aside from the sum given for endowment. Millions, not tens or hundreds of thousands, must be the figure used when we speak of endowment, and in using that term we are not chimerical.

What Harvard and Columbia and Princeton ask chiefly from their alumni, the Presbyterian Church asks from its members; it will not ask in vain.

In carrying out its new policy of coöperation The College Board announces three methods by which it can serve the Church:

1. Coöperation with Givers.

The Board will endeavor to awake, inform and stimulate the Church in behalf of the Presbyterian colleges. Information for churches and individuals and the safeguarding of funds given for Christian education are two of the ways in which the Board can carry out this form of coöperation.

2. Coöperation with Colleges.

The Board does not seek to dominate colleges nor to carry them —it seeks to coöperate with them. To use its clear-cut expression, it aims to be "The Voice of the Colleges to the Church and the Hand of the Church to the Colleges." May every church in our denomination hear that Voice and may every member of our communion in the coming year touch that Hand.

The Board does not intend to be crutches to bear the whole weight of dependent institutions; it seeks rather to be a help to those who need financial aid, while seeking to stimulate them to self-support and endowment.

To receive this aid, however, the college must satisfy the Board:

(1) That systematic Bible study is a part of the curriculum required for graduation;

(2) That the financial administration is conservative and safe;

(3) That the officers of the institution have used every effort to secure funds from the vicinage, since a college to have a hopeful future must ordinarily be based on the affection, prayer and giving of those who should know its work and its worth; and

(4) That it carries adequate insurance upon its property.

Coöperation will be given heartily to colleges that are evidently needed, that have promise of growth and stability, that do educational work of a high grade, and that seek to form Christian character, influencing students toward Bible study, saving faith, right living and consecration to service. What higher aim could colleges or givers have or desire?

Concerning academies, the policy of the Board is in full accord with the spirit of the Church—coöperation with existing academies in securing funds for current expenses for a term of years, and coöperation in any local movement, so far as possible, in providing for the permanence of academies. At the same time it does not see its way clear at present to encourage a general appeal for endowment for academies.

3. Coöperation with Colleges and Givers to secure coöperation between them.

In order to make this coöperation effectual two or three things are necessary: It must not be coöperation on paper merely, nor even well wishing, though emphasized by a smile and a hand-grasp. The hand must have a heart in it. The hand must contain the heart offerings of churches and individuals. The Board expects every church to make an offering for the cause this year.

Is not that a faith worthy of Trafalgar? What Nelson said England expected and what England received from every man that day, the officers of The College Board say they expect from every Presbyterian church. Shall their faith be honored? But giving to Christian education by Christians should not be a duty simply; for the coming year may our giving to this Board be not an ordeal but an opportunity. Small gifts and legacies are sought for emergency aid, and large gifts and legacies from individuals are desired for use in the discretion of the Board, or to use according to the expressed wishes of the stewards of wealth whose hearts the Lord shall touch.

A former Assembly has requested the Board to have all gifts for Christian education within our Church either passed through its treasury or reported to it, that its Reports may show from year to year what sums and from what sources are given to this cause.

The Board has interpreted this direction to mean gifts made to institutions for Christian education within our Church, rather than gifts made by members or adherents of our Church. It seems to your Committee that it would be well to know, so far as possible, what sums are given by our Church members and adherents for educational purposes, other than those contributed to Presbyterian institutions. It would seem just, for instance, in case a church gives a thousand dollars for denominational college work and a member of that church gives a similar amount to an undenominational college, to have both facts recorded. On the blank asking for statistical information the Stated Clerk might secure that information.

It seems to your Committee that the amount of money expended by other Boards of the Church in Christian education should be reported to The College Board—not that a dollar may be diverted from other Boards for this agency, but that the Church may know what its people are doing toward denominational education. Money given to aid other schools or academies or colleges, under whatever direction it may be expended in this land or in other lands, is as much a contribution to Christian education as though it were given directly through the treasury of The College Board. This is a part of the information which the Board may properly gather and report for the Church.

Several special directions were given to the Board a year ago:

1. The holding of a College Conference in connection with this Assembly.

The officers of the Board and the representatives of more than forty institutions who took part in this conference unite in asserting that it marks an advance step in the history of Christian education. Every man had the fullest opportunity to express his own views or to speak for his college. The most delightful spirit of harmony prevailed throughout the entire discussion. The hearts of men who have not always seen eye to eye warmed toward one another in a true spirit of brotherly love. The conference has fully justified the wisdom of the last Assembly in directing that it should be held. It is significant of the spirit that prevailed that with the opportunity to nominate two members of the Board for election by this Assembly, the conference unanimously recommended the reëlection of Messrs. Severance and Synnott as men eminently fitted for places on the Board.

2. Religious conditions in State Universities. Much study has been given to this subject by the Board, and a Conference of Representatives of Presbyterianism in the State Universities was called to meet at Winona Lake. Presbyterian pastors in State University towns and Presbyterians connected officially with State Universities, and others deeply interested in the spiritual welfare of Presbyterian young people in State Universities, have met here on two afternoons with the officers of The College Board and the members of your Committee, and had a helpful face-to-face discussion of the vital interests at stake. The gravity and at the same time the delicacy of the situation are fully comprehended by the Committee. We recommend that the whole matter be referred to the Board for further consideration and report.

3. To confer with the Board of Education, to ascertain whether a union of the two Boards could be effected with material advantage to the cause of Christian education.

The conference was held, and after a full discussion and interchange of opinion it was decided that "under existing circumstances a union of the two Boards is not feasible."

In accepting this Report, however, The College Board expresses the conviction that unification of the educational work of the Church as represented in these two Boards is highly desirable, and that every reasonable effort should be continued to bring about such union.

The following are the recommendations offered for adoption:

(1) That the Minutes of the Board be approved.

(2) That the Assembly expresses its gratitude for the divine blessing that has attended the work of this Board during the score of years and more in which it has been aiding deserving institutions; its officers and members have done valiant service and deserve the hearty thanks of this body.

(3) That the Board be commended for the spirit in which it has carried out the directions of the last Assembly; and especially for the admirable policy which it has adopted.

(4) That the Assembly extends its cordial welcome to the new Secretary of the Board, the Rev. James Stuart Dickson, and bids him Godspeed as he enters upon his work, giving courage to officers and teachers and students in our institutions and stimulating churches and individuals in their endeavor to promote Christian education.

(5) That the Assembly rejoices in the spirit of coöperation already manifest between the officers and faculties of the colleges and the officers of this Board.

(6) That the College Conference and the Conference with Representatives of State Universities, held in connection with this meeting of the Assembly, have been productive of such good results that similar conferences should be called by the Board for next year; where practicable it would be well to hold conferences of this character in connection with the meetings of Synods this fall.

(7) That the heroism and efficiency of the teaching forces in the colleges, the character-building institutions approved by this Board, should meet with a corresponding spirit of consecration from our churches.

(8) That the cause of Christian education and the representatives of The College Board are heartily commended not only to the pastors and officers of our churches, but also to individual givers.

(10) That the Board confer with the Stated Clerk as to the feasibility of changing the Statistical Blank so that it may be learned, where possible, how much money is given by Presbyterians for education in institutions not connected with our Church, as well as the amount given for denominational work.

(11) That the Boards of Home Missions, Foreign Missions, Freedmen and Education be requested to report to the Stated Clerk at the end of the fiscal year the amount expended by them in Christian education. The figures thus secured shall be sent to the Treasurer of The College Board and printed in the Report of that Board in a separate table under the heading, "Gifts through other Boards of the Church to Christian Education in connection with the Presbyterian Church," and a record of these gifts shall appear in the schedule of "Gifts for Christian Education within our Church."

(12) That $200,000 be the sum which the churches are asked to give to The College Board this year, in addition to gifts from individuals and gifts for endowments.

(13) That the following members of The College Board be reëlected: Ministers—J. Ross Stevenson, D.D., James G. K. McClure, D.D., LL.D., J. Addison Henry, D.D.; Laymen—Louis H. Severance, Henry L. Smith, Thomas W. Synnott and John H. MacCracken, Ph.D., and that James H. Post be elected to succeed W. H. Swift. Mr. Swift, after twenty-two years of faithful service, has signified that it will be impossible for him to continue in office, owing to impaired health. We take this opportunity of expressing our sincere appreciation of the long-continued service of Mr. Swift, which dates from the very inception of the Board.

In order that certain of the members named may serve this very important cause we recommend that Standing Rule 16 (Minutes of 1904, p. 349*l*) be suspended for one year in favor of this Board, in so far as regards the words "or a member of any other benevolent Board of the Church."

In behalf of the Committee,

JOHN BANCROFT DEVINS, Chairman.

A proposed amendment to No. 7 of the Standing Orders and Rules was referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures.

The Special Committee on Vacancy and Supply, through its Chairman, Rev. Edward H. Curtis, D.D., presented its Report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

The Special Committee on Vacancy and Supply, appointed by the last General Assembly, would respectfully submit the following Report:

The action of the Assembly appointing the Committee was as follows:

"That a Special Committee on Vacancy and Supply be constituted, consisting of nine members, five ministers and four ruling elders, and that the following compose the Committee, the Moderator to select out of their number the Chairman of the Committee: Ministers—E. H. Curtis, D.D., A. B. Meldrum, D.D., W. P. White, D.D., James E. Moffatt, D.D., and R. N. Adams, D.D.; Elders—George E. Sterry, Louis H. Severance and Robert N. Willson.

"That this Committee, through the Stated Clerk, be instructed to make thorough investigation of any and all existing methods, however and wherever conducted within the bounds of our Church, and of the methods of other denominations which may have been found to be effective.

"That they prepare a plan of adjustment, comprehensive enough to cover the entire field of our Church, making it harmonize with existing local organizations to the fullest extent possible, consistent with efficiency, and that they report the same to the next Assembly" (Minutes, 1904, pp. 197, 198).

In considering the difficult and delicate problem entrusted to our care, your Committee found the following facts clearly evident:

1. That the problem of unemployed ministers and vacant churches has been before the Assembly in some form for over thirty years.

2. That the problem has been universally acknowledged to be of grave and serious moment to the best interests of our beloved Church.

3. That various plans of adjustment and various methods of dealing with the practical questions involved have been presented from time to time, either to fail of adoption on the ground of inexpediency and impracticability, or to be found inoperative and insufficient, through neglect of Presbyterial and Synodical Committees, or through some radical defect in the plan proposed.

4. That the failures of all past attempts to satisfactorily meet the difficulties of the situation and remedy the serious evils confessedly existing have brought about a widespread feeling of discouragement, and have fostered a conclusion only too prevalent, that the problem is practically insoluble, on account of the limitations of our knowledge, the imperfections of our Form of Government, and the frailties and mistakes of human nature.

These facts have been constantly before your Committee, and we have therefore endeavored to approach our task with becoming humility, with a spirit as far removed as possible from overconfidence, and with a desire to profit by the experiences and investigations of those who have preceded us in this field of effort.

One thing at the outset is perfectly clear, that the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America must not admit its inability to deal with any difficulty, however great, or any problem, however complex. Study, investigation, effort must be continued until some plan is found, and put into faithful execution, which will at least greatly relieve the present deplorable situation and very materially lessen the number of unemployed ministers and vacant churches. In 1901 certain changes were made in our Form of Government by the addition of Sections II, III, IV to Chapter XXI (Of Vacant Congregations, Assembling for Public Worship). It is not yet clear how far the additional sections will accomplish the end sought. It is possible that other changes may yet be required, looking toward an enlargement or a more definite statement of the Presbyterial powers of control.

To study existing conditions is to reach the conclusion that there is either some inherent weakness in our Form of Government, or that Presbyteries grievously fail in understanding and exercising the Constitutional powers already granted. Nominally we deplore independency. Practically we have independency, through the manifest disposition of ministers and churches to disregard and evade Presbyterial control.

There is a question, very closely related to the problem of unemployed ministers and vacant churches, with which your Committee has not ventured to deal directly, viz., the question of devising some method by which pastors and churches desiring a change can effect such change with the least possible friction, avoiding the humiliation of the pastor on the one hand, and the distraction and division of the congregation on the other. The union of pastor and people is not "for better, for worse, for richer, for poorer, till death us do part." There is a growing restiveness under bonds ecclesiastical. Whatever may be the Presbyterian ideal as to life-pastorates or long pastorates, it is admitted that changes must frequently occur for the good of the pastor and the good of the people, and that it is of the highest importance that these changes be brought about without the evils of candidating, and without throwing the pastor into the discredited ranks of unemployed ministers, or the congregations into the list of vacant churches. The large number of eager applicants for every vacant pulpit that is at all desirable reveals a deplorable condition of things in the Presbyterian Church of to-day. Some method ought to be devised by which a worthy and acceptable minister may pass from one field of labor to another without placing himself in a long list of competitors, and without importuning ministerial friends and "influential" pastors and professors for letters of recommendation which are too often written perfunctorily or reluctantly, and whose value is therefore discredited by church Sessions and church Committees. It can hardly be doubted that when this problem is solved by the adoption and operation of some new plan, yet to be discovered, it will go far toward solving the other problem of "unemployed ministers and vacant churches." The plan proposed by your Committee is in a measure tentative. It does not propose the election of another Secretary, nor the creation of a new Board. It assigns the general care of the work to the Board of Home Missions, with the proviso "that the Board shall act only in an advisory capacity," and "shall appoint one of its officers to have charge of the work under the direction of the Board, etc." This will avoid the creation of a new agency, and will involve the minimum of expense. Experience alone will show whether this work of general care and superintendence will prove too great a burden for any existing officer of the Home Board, and will therefore require the whole time and the whole strength of some specially appointed Secretary. Your Committee has not hesitated to avail itself of the labors of preceding Committees having this matter in charge. Some features of the plan we propose are identical with corresponding features of the plan proposed by the able Committee of 1891.

From the figures in Exhibit A we learn that for the year ending April, 1904, there was an increase of ministers without charge; a decrease of 65 in the number of honorably retired, and of 13 in the number of evangelists. This would seem to indicate one of two things: a growing reluctance on the part of our unemployed ministers to be placed in either of these categories, or an unusual mortality in the ranks of our honorably retired veterans and evangelists. It is difficult at present to know how many of our ministers marked "W. C." are "competent for and desire permanent service." If the plan proposed by your Committee is adopted and carried into immediate effect, it will be possible to get exact data from the lists, which Presbyterial Committees are enjoined to prepare, as to what portion of our unemployed ministerial force is actually available for regular service.

From EXHIBIT B we learn that for the year ending April, 1904, there was an increase of 31 in the number of vacant churches, 1271 in 1904 as against 1240 in 1903, an unsatisfactory condition most certainly, in that it shows an increase rather than an abatement of the evil we deplore. Many of these vacant churches, it is true, have only a nominal existence, for EXHIBIT C shows that nearly 400 churches report a membership ranging from 10 downward, and 1071 churches are to be counted as reporting a membership between 10 and 25. This will explain in part the large number of vacant churches, the membership of over 1400 churches being so small as to furnish an uninviting field and afford the most meagre support to the pastor or stated supply. Many of our unemployed ministers are doubtless unwilling to take charge of these small congregations and live upon starvation salaries. The above remark is abundantly justified when we see, by EXHIBIT D, that 1056 churches make no report of amount of money raised for congregational expenses, and 1710 report the amount contributed for the above purpose as $300 or under. This clearly indicates the necessity of a still larger grouping of weak churches under the care of one minister, even if this grouping necessitates something akin to the circuit-riding of the Methodist Episcopal Church. It only remains to be added that "the situation as to ministerial supply" is still "most serious." While there is a gratifying increase in the number of candidates for the ministry (101 more in 1904 than in 1903), there has been a falling off of 14 in the number of theological students and of 14 in the number of graduates. The prayers and efforts of the Church must continue in the direction of relieving a situation so perplexing and disquieting.

With this preliminary statement of existing needs and conditions, your Committee submits for your adoption the following:

PLAN OF VACANCY AND SUPPLY.

1. Each Presbytery shall appoint a Committee, either an existing Standing Committee or a new one, under the provisions of Chapter XXI of the Form of Government, as amended in 1901, to have supervision of all vacant churches within its bounds, except as otherwise arranged for by the Presbytery; the term of service of members to be not less than three years.

2. It shall be the duty of this Committee to prepare and keep a list of the vacant churches in the Presbytery, and of such of its unemployed ministers as are competent for service and not relieved from the active work of the ministry; and also to endeavor to arrange for the supply of these churches from its list of available ministers, and from such other sources as may be suggested by correspondence; all details of adjustment, such as the amount to be paid supplies, the sum to be contributed by the churches, and the duration of assignments to particular churches, being left to each Presbytery.

3. It shall be the persistent aim of the Presbytery and its Committee to bring the vacant churches to the full support of this arrangement for temporary supply. But if, in the judgment of the Presbytery, pecuniary aid is needed beyond the amounts contributed by the vacant churches themselves, the Presbytery, through its Committee, may apply for aid to the Board of Home Missions, or in the case of churches belonging to self-supporting Synods, to the Home Mission and Sustentation Committees of such Synods.

4. In each Synod there shall be a Committee on Vacancy and Supply, preferably to be composed of the Chairmen or other representatives of the Presbyterial Committees within the bounds of the Synod, whose duty it shall be to report annually to the Synod on the work in its charge, to unify the work within the Synod's bounds, to bring about better relations of supply and demand, and to furnish such information to the Presbyterial Committees as may contribute to their knowledge and efficiency.

5. When a Synod has a Synodical Missionary or Superintendent of Home Missions, he shall be the medium of correspondence on Vacancy and Supply, under the direction of the Synodical Committee, and shall perform such other duties as the Committee shall require. In all other cases the Synodical Committee shall appoint one of its own members to perform the duties above mentioned.

6. For the purpose of establishing a medium of communication between the several Presbyteries and Synods, the general care of the work of vacancy and supply shall be assigned to the Board of Home Missions, with this proviso, that the Board shall act only in an advisory capacity, except in the matter of applications for pecuniary aid. The Board shall appoint one of its assistant secretaries to have charge of the work under the direction of the Board, who shall be the medium of correspondence between the Board, and the Committees and officers of Presbyteries and Synods having in charge vacancy and supply. Any additional expenses incurred by the Board in the discharge of this particular duty shall be paid out of its funds.

7. The Board of Home Missions, and each of the self-supporting Synods through the Board, shall present an Annual Report to the General Assembly on Vacancy and Supply, and these Reports shall be referred to the Standing Committee on Home Missions.

The Committee expresses its appreciation of the value of the supplementary number of the Minutes of the General Assembly, issued by direction of the Assembly in January of each year. It recommends that the publication of this supplementary number be continued. It also recommends that the Stated Clerk be empowered to print, in his discretion, the lists of names of unemployed ministers desiring service, and of vacant churches.

In behalf of the Committee,

EDWARD H. CURTIS, Chairman.

Rev. John Fox, D.D., Secretary of the American Bible Society, addressed the Assembly in behalf of the work of the Society, and the following Minute was adopted:

The General Assembly has learned with interest of the intention of the American Bible Society to celebrate in some fitting way the ninetieth Anniversary of the organization of the Society. Such an event deserves indeed to be recognized by all Churches that have shared in the benefit of its ninety years of labor. We direct the Moderator and executive officers of this Assembly to take such steps as may be possible to secure an appropriate recognition of this anniversary at the next General Assembly in May, 1906, in accordance with the suggestion of the Society, and also that they have power to appoint a delegate thereto.

This Assembly laments that there should be any possibility of the work of the Society being lessened or hindered at this time by reason of a lessening of its receipts. We therefore renew and emphasize the recommendations of previous Assemblies that all our churches take annual collections for the treasury of the Society, and further, that Standing Committees be appointed and maintained in all our Presbyteries with whom the executive officers of the Society may communicate in their discretion, so that our people may be kept informed as to the needs of the Society, and may increase their contributions to its great and sacred work.

The following telegram was received from the General Synod of the Reformed Church in the U. S., in session at Allentown, Pa.:

ALLENTOWN, PA., May 23, 1905.

To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, Winona Lake, Ind.:

The General Synod of the Reformed Church in the United States sends greeting. Read Ephesians iv. 3-6.

JOHN P. STEIN, Cor. Sec.

The Moderator and Stated Clerk were authorized to reply.

The Assembly adjourned, and was closed with prayer.

TUESDAY, May 23, 8 o'clock P.M.

A popular meeting was held in the interests of Home Missions, and addresses were delivered by Rev. Charles L. Thompson, D.D., Henry W. Jessup, Esq., and Rev. Drs. Cook, Wishart, Greene and Matthews.

WEDNESDAY, May 24, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with devotional exercises.

The Minutes of yesterday's sessions were read and approved.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures presented the following Report, which was adopted:

The Committee on Bills and Overtures presents the following additional Report:

There has been referred to the Committee the section of the Report of the Committee on Coöperation and Union numbered IV, on Presbyterian Federation. This section is submitted to the Assembly not for present approval, but for consideration, and this consideration does not bind any future Assembly to the adoption of the proposed Plan of Federation when completed and presented. It is recommended that the section referred be published with the remainder of the Report in the Minutes of the Assembly.

The Plan of Federation set forth therein provides for a permanent Council of Reformed Churches in the U. S. A. holding the Presbyterian System, its members being elected according to a simple ratio by the Churches which are party to it, and for submission to this Council by the supreme judicatories represented in it of such matters as they may deem wise. It is recommended that our Committee on Coöperation and Union be continued for the future consideration of the Plan as desired, and the Committee is expected to continue to guard the Plan from usurpation of rights now held by our Assembly or other courts, notably in the provision for the withdrawal of any Church from the Council if it deems wise, as provided in paragraph 16 of the present proposal. Your Committee see in the Plan an effort to express the wish of the Churches of Christ to stand shoulder to shoulder in the one task of advancing the Kingdom of God, which is the duty of each and therefore of all.

There was referred also to this Committee an amendment to No. 7 of the Standing Rules and Orders, and it is recommended that the Rule read hereafter as follows:

7. That the Standing Committee on Home and Foreign Missions have each two hours, and those on Education, Publication, Church Erection, Ministerial Relief, Freedmen, Temperance, Colleges and Young People's Societies have each one and a half hours; that the Chairman of the Standing Committees on Home Missions and Foreign Missions be allowed only one-half hour for the presenting of his Report and such remarks as he may wish to make, and that the Chairman of other Committees be allowed twenty minutes for the same purpose; that the Secretary or other official representative of the cause be allowed one-half hour for his address or statement, and that the remainder of the time allotted be assigned to Commissioners and to agents from the field. This Rule to be altered only by direct vote of the Assembly. It shall be the duty of the Stated Clerk to communicate this Rule to the Chairmen of the Standing Committees upon their appointment.

The Report of the Committee on Church Coöperation and Union, as approved and adopted* by the Assembly, is as follows:

The Committee on Church Coöperation and Union respectfully reports to the General Assembly as follows:

The Committee was appointed by the General Assembly of 1903 and continued by the Assembly of 1904. The latter Assembly increased the Committee from eleven to fifteen members, reappointed nine members, in addition made the Moderator a member and also authorized him to appoint the six new members. The membership of the Committee as enlarged was as follows: Ministers—William H. Roberts, D.D., LL.D., Chairman; J. Addison Henry, D.D., Robert F. Coyle, D.D., LL.D., W. N. Page, D.D., Wilton Merle Smith, D.D., Charles A. Dickey, D.D., LL.D., D. P. Putnam, D.D., Reuben H. Hartley, D.D., Francis L. Patton, D.D., LL.D., James D. Moffat, D.D., LL.D., S. J. Niccolls, D.D., LL.D., John De Witt, D.D., LL.D.; Elders—Reuben Tyler, E. S. Wells, Louis H. Severance, H. C. Gara.

Two changes have occurred in the membership of the Committee. Rev. Wilton Merle Smith, D.D., tendered his resignation owing to pressure of pastoral duties; the resignation was accepted, and the Moderator appointed in his place the Rev. William J. McCaughan, D.D. The Committee further suffered a serious loss through the sudden death, on March 26, 1905, of the Rev. Douglas P. Putnam, D.D., Professor in Lane Theological Seminary, Cincinnati, Ohio. Dr. Putnam rendered the Committee prompt, earnest and faithful service, and his death is a cause of deep regret. The Moderator appointed the Rev. William McKibbin, D.D., to the vacant place on the Committee.

The Committee has held one meeting during the year, that at Pittsburgh, Pa., from November 29 to December 1, 1904, inclusive.

The members absent were Drs. Niccolls, Patton and De Witt, who were detained by unavoidable circumstances.

The results of the deliberations of the Committee are submitted under four different heads:

I. Union with the Reformed Presbyterian Church, General Synod.

[Deferred in order to hear from the General Synod.]

II. Comity and Coöperation.

The Committee have considered the Overtures referred to them by the last General Assembly, viz., Overture No. 42, from the Synod of North Dakota, on the Annulment of the Comity Compact with the Congregational Church, and Overture No. 69, from the Presbytery of Pembina, on the Undue Multiplication of Churches in small communities. The Committee recommend that no action be taken upon these Overtures, for two reasons: first, that the subjects referred to in them have been substantially dealt with by the approval of the Report of the Committee to the Assembly of 1904 in the matter of rules of Comity and Coöperation between the several Evangelical Christian Denominations; and second, because the Inter-Church Conference on Federation, which is reported upon in another place, may have a practical relation to these matters.

III. General Federation.

The General Assembly of 1904 authorized the Committee to appoint fifty representatives to a General Conference of the Protestant Christian Churches of the U. S. A., to meet in New York City in November, 1905, the purpose of the Conference being "to organize, if deemed advisable, a National Federation, and to consider such other matters as may properly come before the Conference." The Committee would report in this connection, first of all, that this movement has gone forward with the cordial support of a large number of the Christian Churches of the U. S. A. Eighteen different denominations have chosen delegates. The list of these as reported to May 1, 1905, is as follows:

The Annual Missionary Convention (1904) of the Baptist Churches (North).

The General Conference of the Free Baptist Churches (1904).

The Missionary Convention of the Disciples, held at Omaha (1902).

The National Council of the Congregational Churches (1904).
The General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church (1904).
The General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church (South) (1902).
The General Conference of the African M. E. Church (1904).
The General Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church (1904).
The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. (1904).
The General Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church (1904).
The General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church (1904).
The General Synod of the Reformed Church in America (1904).
The African M. E. Zion Church.
The Christian Connection.
The Evangelical Association.
The United Evangelical Church.
The Moravian Church.

Lutheran and other bodies, holding their national meetings before the opening of the Conference, will be asked to join in its deliberations, and the "Commission on Christian Unity" of the Protestant Episcopal Church has been invited to be present in its official capacity.

The "Inter-Church Conference on Federation" is assured. For the first time in the history of the Christian Church in America delegates representing Churches whose aggregate church membership is over SEVENTEEN MILLIONS will meet together for mutual counsel, with a view to ascertaining whether any plan of federation between them is feasible regarding matters of common interest.

An Executive Committee for the Conference has been appointed, and the Stated Clerk of this Assembly was tendered and has accepted the position of Chairman. The place of meeting is Carnegie Hall, New York City, and the date November 15–20, 1905.

Your Committee reaffirms its conviction that this coming Conference is vitally related to the spiritual welfare of the Church and nation. The Protestant Churches of the U. S. A. are largely one in spirit, devoted to one Lord, and hold in common essential evangelical doctrine.

IV. Presbyterian Federation.

The Assembly's Committee met from November 29 to December 1, 1904, in the First United Presbyterian Church, Pittsburgh, Pa., with the Committees of six other Presbyterian and Reformed Churches of the U. S. A. These Committees had all been appointed for the purpose of considering the subject of the closer relations of the Churches which they represented. The names of the Churches and the members of the Committees present are:

Reformed Presbyterian Church, General Synod: Rev. J. D. Steele, D.D., Chairman; Rev. Thomas Watters, D.D., Rev. David McKinney, D.D.

Reformed Church in America: Rev. Edward B. Coe, D.D., Chairman; Rev. J. Preston Searle, D.D.

Presbyterian Church in the United States: Rev. G. B. Strickler, D.D., Chairman; Rev. C. R. Hemphill, D.D., Rev. S. M. Neel, D.D., Rev. J. H. McNeilly, D.D., Rev. W. E. Boggs, D.D., Rev. J. R. Howerton, D.D., Rev. J. F. Cannon, D.D., Capt. C. N. Roberts, Hon. Charlton H. Alexander, Mr. T. Harrison.

United Presbyterian Church: Rev. T. B. Turnbull, D.D., Chairman; Rev. J. G. D. Findley, D.D., Rev. A. G. Wallace, D.D., Rev. J. W. Witherspoon, D.D.

Cumberland Presbyterian Church: Rev. William H. Black, D.D., Chairman.

Reformed Church in the U. S.: Rev. J. H. Prugh, D.D., Chairman; Rev. Cyrus Cort, D.D., Rev. David B. Lady, D.D.

Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A.: Rev. Wm. Henry Roberts, D.D., Chairman; Rev. J. Addison Henry, D.D., Rev. Robert F. Coyle, D.D., Rev. W. N. Page, D.D., Rev. W. J. McCaughan, D.D., Rev. C. A. Dickey, D.D., Rev. D. P. Putnam, D.D., Rev. R. H. Hartley, D.D., Rev. J. D. Moffat, D.D., Mr. Reuben Tyler, Mr. E. S. Wells, Mr. L. H. Severance, Mr. H. C. Gara.

The Committee from the Reformed Church in the U. S. was present at the Conference by invitation. The General Synod of that Church meets once in three years, and representation of the Church was made possible through the kindness of Rev. Dr. J. H. Prugh, President of the Synod, and on the understanding that the representatives were present unofficially.

After serious and prolonged deliberation, characterized throughout by a thoroughly fraternal spirit, the following paper was adopted by the Conference, and is herewith submitted to the Assembly for consideration:

Plan of Federation.

1. Every Church entering into this Federation retains its distinct individuality, its own creed, government and worship, as well as every power, jurisdiction and right which is not by these Articles expressly and exclusively delegated to the body hereby constituted.

2. For the prosecution of work that can be better done in union than separately an Ecclesiastical Council is hereby established, which shall be known by the name and style of "The Federal Council of the Reformed Churches in the United States of America holding the Presbyterian System."

3. The Federal Council shall consist of at least four representatives, ministers or elders, from each of the constituent Churches, for each one hundred thousand communicants or fraction thereof up to three hundred thousand, and where a Church has more than three hundred thousand communicants, then four representatives, ministers or elders, for each additional two hundred thousand communicants or fraction thereof. These persons shall be chosen with their alternates, under the direction of their respective supreme judicatories, in such manner as those judicatories shall respectively determine.

4. The Federal Council shall exercise only such authority as is conferred upon it by these Articles, or such as may hereafter be conferred upon it by the Federated Churches. It shall not interfere with the creed, worship or government of the Churches, and, in particular, all matters of discipline shall be left to the exclusive and final judgment of the ecclesiastical authorities of the Churches concerned.

5. The Federal Council shall promote the coöperation of the Federated Churches in their Foreign Missionary work, and also in their general work in the United States of America, in connection with Home Missions, Work among the Colored People, Church Erection, Sabbath-schools, Publication and Education; and may initiate movements having this coöperation in view subject to the approval of the Churches concerned. The Council may also advise and recommend in other matters pertaining to the general welfare of the Kingdom of Christ.

6. The Federal Council shall have power to deal with differences which may arise between the Federated Churches, in regard to matters within the jurisdiction of the Council, which the constituted agencies of the Churches concerned have been unable to settle, and which may be brought to the attention of the Council by the supreme judicatories of the parties thereto; and such differences shall thereupon be determined by the Council or by such agencies as it may appoint. If determined by an agency, such as a Committee or Commission, there shall be the right of appeal to the Council for final decision. Every final decision shall be transmitted by the Council to the supreme judicatories of the Churches concerned for their action.

7. The Federal Council shall have power to deal with any other matters of interest common to any two or more of the Federated Churches, which may be referred to it by the supreme judicatories of the Churches concerned for its action, with such authority in the premises and under such conditions as may be agreed upon by the Churches which make the reference.

8. The Federal Council shall have power to open and maintain a friendly correspondence with the Presbyterian and other Evangelical Churches for the purpose of promoting concert of action in matters of common interest; but nothing in this Article shall be construed as affecting the present rights of correspondence of the Federated Churches.

9. The Federal Council shall give full faith and credit to the acts, proceedings and records of the duly constituted authorities of the several Federated Churches.

10. The officers of the Federal Council shall be a President, Vice-President, Stated Clerk, Treasurer, and such other subordinate officers as may be necessary.

11. The Federal Council shall meet in regular session at least biennially, and on its own adjournment, at such time and place as may be determined. In the conduct of its meetings it shall respect the conscientious views of its constituent members. The President shall call special meetings at any time when requested so to do by a majority of the representatives of each of two or more of the constituent bodies. Thirty days' notice of such meetings shall be given to all the members, and only such business may be transacted as is specified in the notice.

12. The incidental expenses of the Council shall be met by a fund to be provided by a pro rata apportionment on the basis of the representation of each Church in the Council. The expenses of the representatives shall be paid by their respective Churches. All the expenses involved in the settlement of any difference between the Churches shall be borne equally by the Churches concerned.

13. When the representatives of one-half of the Churches, at a meeting of either the Council or its agencies, request a unit vote by Churches upon a pending motion, the vote shall be so taken.

14. The Federal Council shall have power to make such regulations and By-Laws as shall be deemed necessary for the conduct of its business.

15. After this Federation shall have been constituted, any Church holding the Reformed Faith and Presbyterian System may be received into the Federation by a majority of the representatives of the Churches, voting by the unit rule, and upon its adoption of the Articles of Federation.

16. Any Church in the Federation may withdraw therefrom on notice officially given, and on its observance of the same constitutional steps as were followed in its adoption of these Articles.

17. Any amendment to these Articles proposed to the Federal Council shall, before its adoption, be approved by the Council, and receive the consent of two-thirds of the Federated Churches acting in accordance with their respective Constitutions. When the Council shall have been notified of such consent it shall declare the amendment to be a part of the Plan of Federation.

The Conference also adopted the following resolution:

Resolved, That the several Committees request their supreme judicatories to authorize the continuance of the Conference on this subject, and to transmit their action to the Executive Committee for consideration by the Conference.

It is to be specifically noted that the Plan is submitted for consideration, not for approval. It was felt that it was highly desirable to secure such careful consideration on the part of the General Assemblies and General Synods interested as would enable the Joint Committees finally to submit for approval a Plan generally acceptable.

The Committee requests that all modifications and amendments of the Plan of Federation be referred to it, with such directions as may appear to the Assembly appropriate.

The Committee would further report that an informal meeting of two sessions was held, at Pittsburgh, with the Committee on Closer Relations with other Presbyterian and Reformed Churches of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States. The whole subject of the relations of the two Churches was considered in a frank, considerate and kindly spirit. A large part of the time of the sessions was given to devotional exercises. It was understood that nothing but the fact of this informal and thoroughly fraternal meeting should be reported to the Assembly. The Committee records its gratification over the brotherly spirit manifested by all the members of the two Committees.

The Committee submits the following resolution for adoption by the Assembly:

Resolved, That the Committee on Church Coöperation and Union be and hereby is continued, to report to the Assembly of 1906 upon all of the subjects entrusted to it.

Respectfully submitted,

The Order of the Day, the Report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures on the Memorial of Justice John M. Harlan, was taken up. The Report was adopted, and is as follows:

Whereas, The National Capital is a field of commanding and strategic importance for the assertion and vindication of the doctrines and mission of the Church of Christ; and

Whereas, It is the high duty and privilege of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America to do its full share in the effort to seize and sanctify the opportunity offered at the seat of the National Government for a larger evangelism and for the more secure building up of the Church and State; therefore,

Resolved, That, while recognizing that the whole matter presented for the action of the Assembly in the Memorial of Mr. Justice Harlan, in which he proposes "a plan for establishing a church large enough and sufficiently endowed to enable it, in the name of our common Presbyterianism, to do a full share of the work of influencing and guiding the life of the nation at its governmental centre," properly belongs in its origin and development to the Presbytery of Washington City, this Assembly, without in anywise committing itself in advance, does appoint a Committee, consisting of three ministers and three elders, who shall be authorized to advise with the Presbytery of Washington City; and in the event of that Presbytery's favorable consideration of the whole movement, to define more clearly and to develop more fully what is desired in a Report which the Committee shall make to the Assembly of 1906 for its approval or disapproval.

The Standing Committee on Foreign Missions, through its Chairman, Rev. George N. Luccock, D.D., presented its Report, which was accepted, and after addresses by Rev. A. W. Halsey, D.D., Secretary of the Board, Rev. J. Walter Lowrie, Rev. Thomas C. Winn, Rev. George Marshall, Rev. C. A. R. Janvier and Rev. Carl P. Metzler, (the speeches of Commissioners having been limited by vote to ten minutes each), the resolutions appended to the Report were adopted. The two resolutions in the body of the Report were adopted, and the Report was then adopted as a whole. It is as follows:

The Standing Committee on Foreign Missions respectfully presents the following Report to the Assembly:

We shall be using the Master's method of kindling fervor for world evangelization if we begin by lifting up our eyes and looking upon

The Field.—That was never more fascinating, never whiter unto the harvest, nor more mandatory in its call for laborers, never more than now needing the thoughtful and prayerful interest as well as loyal support of the home people behind the missionaries. In this evangelistic Assembly, in the catholic zeal of this era of broadening fellowship, there should be no spirit of national narrowness. The evangelistic hope magnified from this platform should sweep the whole inheritance of Christ, and be satisfied with no self-dedication less than that needed for bringing to Him His uttermost possession. We have heard good news from the Pacific coast. And the reported results are worth all the time, money and men put into the campaign. Let us not forget that beyond the Pacific coast, beyond the Pacific sea, are spoiling fields, waiting, harvest-ripe, where proportionate outlay of men and money would bring even greater glory to the Name that is above every name.

Look upon these fields! By the aid of the careful Reports presented by the Board, look upon these fields! To summarize such reviews would be unfair. They themselves are but summaries. To read them is just to be properly respectful to the noble army of men and women whose heroic warfare in the far countries for Christ is therein but barely indicated. We plead for the reading of the printed Reports.

In addition to them this Assembly is to be congratulated on having to-day, fresh from the first Secretarial or official visit of any kind to the Africa Mission, Dr. Halsey, whose stimulating story it shall presently be our pleasure to hear.

We note, with gratitude to God, that of the 837 missionaries, death in the past twelve months has removed but four. The sixty-three new missionaries of the year, owing to resignations from ill health and other causes, give a net gain of but thirty-six, a reinforcement far from being commensurate with need and opportunity. However, the anxieties of the field have advanced to more serious embarrassments than just lack of missionaries, although, because of increased cost of living, that problem is more difficult than ever before. The sensitive spot in the missionary situation is to-day where the field presents an opportunity so great as to call for more laborers than all the foreign missionary societies in the world can ever send. The forces to meet this situation must be raised up from the field itself. The missionary function is rapidly becoming that of organizing and developing a native Church. It is not that there is less need of foreign missionaries; that need was never greater. It is rather that conditions in the heathen world have become such that mission work now can and must be projected on a scale impossible without such resources as can come alone through a strong native Church. These new conditions are the natural result and reward of the patient seed sowing of the earlier missionaries, both developed and complicated by the great international movements of recent years. What opportunity for Christian statesmen! And for the Christian capitalist! The field of diplomacy reaches to the ends of the earth, and in every cabinet are Christian men. The scope of trade is worldwide, and in every great syndicate are Christian men. Henceforth, in the larger outlook of world evangelization, the Church may reckon not alone on her missionaries on the field, but as well on her statesmen and her captains of industry, and expect of them that they shall see to it that the work of martyr pioneers shall not be nullified by either disheartening diplomacy or a corrupting commerce. Our unique political relations to our own southern continent involve us in a special evangelistic responsibility. We who stand beside neighbor countries and say to other world powers, "hands off," should thereby feel morally committed to "lay hands on," in the ordination by Presbytery of a force adequate to evangelize these nations, than whom none in all the benighted world are in greater spiritual darkness.

It is a pleasure to recognize and commend the fidelity and efficiency of our missionaries. The work of individuals cannot, of course, be brought to special notice here. In a large way, the whole force is rising nobly to the occasion. Very commendable are the courage and the high spirit of consecration manifest in many places already ripe for it, in a readiness to enter into proper union movements leading to the much-desired development of native resources and organization, which the conditions of the times imperatively demand. We greatly rejoice in their spirit of Christian fellowship and coöperation.

The Office.—To deal wisely with the situation abroad and inspire the Church at home to respond to her great opportunity, it must be evident, requires great ability and fidelity in the office charged with the responsibility of administration. It would be ungrateful not to consider and acknowledge the debt which the Church owes to men who, taking valuable time and attention from their own important affairs, give cheerfully, in the Board's semi-monthly meetings and numerous Committee conferences, many hours of uncompensated toil to problems of world evangelization. In this connection we observe in the Board's Report earnest words of appreciation, in which we heartily join, of the long and distinguished services of Dr. Paxton and Mr. Ide, recently deceased.

We feel, in the growing gravity of our problems, that the Church is most happy in its able, alert and resourceful administrative leaders. Our Secretaries are not only careful students of the work of the missionaries, but keep themselves abreast of political development. They have shown themselves abundantly able to take care of the missionary cause against the most subtle and plausible criticism. If there are a few timid people who fear that the missionaries are responsible for the heathen man's hatred of the foreigner, let them send to No. 156 Fifth Avenue for pamphlet discussions of any of these charges against missionaries. Such reading will be found profitable for reproof, for correction, and for instruction in facts. And indeed every phase of missionary topic is helpfully and inspiringly treated in leaflets to be had for the asking—the latest news from the front in most stirring form. Too little use is made of this source of missionary enthusiasm. The Board is to be commended for increasing its Home Department force. Fully recognizing the excellent work done under the name of the Forward Movement, we welcome also the announcement of projected advance work along still broader lines. We note with satisfaction the appointment of Dr. Bradt, with headquarters in Chicago, to share with Mr. McConaughey, with headquarters in New York, and with a third co-worker, yet to be appointed, with headquarters in San Francisco, the task of developing in individuals and local churches a wider interest in missions. We also repeat with warm approval the Board's emphatic acknowledgment of the value and permanent need of the work done by the Woman's Boards. With a record of nearly eight million dollars in thirty-five years, and with the splendid work of organization in the churches, through an intelligent interest in missions awakened and widely diffused, with consequent stimulated giving in church collections and enlargement in the spirit of prayer beside family altars for this cause, the work of the Woman's Boards is above all praise and worthy of all imitation. The record of the year just closed is in keeping with the best traditions of these thirty-five years.

In reviewing the administration of the great trust which the Church has committed to the Board, as their stewardship is indicated by the written records, we are impressed with the delicacy of its problems, with the care and thoroughness of consideration, with the far-reaching import of their decisions, and with the practical wisdom and harmony with fundamental Gospel principles of the conclusions reached. We heartily approve of the Board's attitude of reserve toward the question of the theological qualifications of missionaries, and endorse its positive decision to leave the prerogatives of Presbyteries to the Presbyteries.*

We also receive with great gratification the Report of the Board's action concerning the Union Movement in Korea, which is formally endorsed in a subjoined recommendation. The logic of present-day providences in mission lands is leading inevitably toward national churches, as the best possible method of reaping the ripening harvest. It would surely be contrary to the spirit of Christ and New Testament precedent to build such national churches on the foundation of our own divisions, of whose occasions even we ourselves have been largely healed.

The Home.—But it must not be supposed that the trend toward larger expectation from resources developed on the fields themselves means lessened responsibility to us. Precisely the opposite is the truth. The larger scale on which the Board is providentially compelled to project its work abroad creates, as never before experienced, the need of developing the spirit of consecration to this great cause in the home. Both men and money must come from the home. Back of the Church is the home. Here is the source of all our supplies. And indeed the support given in the year just closed has been wonderfully encouraging. It is noteworthy that the money received and distributed during the past year has been the largest in the history of the Board. The total receipts were $1,189,759.40, with a total expenditure of $1,188,420.32. The year's income has paid its own bills and reduced last year's deficit of $40,690.39 to $38,762.98. Worthy, likewise, of special mention is the growing disposition of men of great wealth to make large individual gifts for the work of this Board. It is a beautiful token of the wideness of true evangelism that a single contribution of fifty thousand dollars for world evangelization came from the same liberal hand that has so royally sustained the work of the Assembly's Evangelistic Committee.

Rejoicing, as we do, in all such princely gifts, we earnestly counsel against the danger of relying upon them as the main source of income. Not only does the work need every available gift, both large and small, but it needs the moral and spiritual backing that comes from diffused interest and distributed responsibility. The smaller churches have their full share of privilege and praise. Sabbath-schools, Young People's Societies, every group within the Church, must be stimulated to do its best. But back of all these is another institution upon the enlistment of whose enthusiasm the solution of the problem must wait. By some method, wisely conceived and persistently pursued, every family must be touched and stirred to missionary enthusiasm. We remember with great humiliation that a third of the churches in our large Presbyterian fellowship gave nothing to missions. That is bad, very bad, but other things are worse. Most of these non-contributing churches are small. Some of them have less than a score of members. Dozens of them are without stated preaching. There is another fact of thirds that cuts deeper. That a third of our Presbyterian churches, many of them very poor, have given nothing to Foreign Missions is not so humiliating as that in our best churches a third of the families, many of them very rich, have given nothing to mediate the blessings of the covenant to the nations. Is not here the proper point of aggression in the great needs of the campaign of world evangelism before us? God made the family the unit of the covenant. The family is still the unit of the covenant in its aspect of pledging God's chosen to be a blessing to all the world. The Master's method, quite in line with that, is to make the children of the kingdom the good seed for the world expansion of the kingdom. In nature and in grace the hope of extension is in the seed. By what process God drew from the virgin soil its first fruit tree, bearing seed after its kind, is as mysterious as the divine procedure whereby the Word became flesh and dwelt among men. In both cases, the kingdom inaugurated by God's creative word was to be propagated through the seed. God might have said to the seed of the first tree, "The kingdom of vegetation is in you." God did say to the children of the covenant, "The kingdom of heaven is in you." Without the fidelity of that fruit-tree seed to its function as the depository of life, no orchard could ever bloom or red-cheeked apple gladden the eye of the husbandman. Forests might be cleared, prairies subdued, but the richest alluvial would not shoot a blade. A seed is the depository of life. Its function is to transmit life. Being found in fashion as a seed, the one honest and obedient course open to it is diffusion of life. Except in the fidelity of the children of the kingdom to their function as the seed of the kingdom, the world is without hope. No new Christ for Africa or China. One Mediator of the covenant between man and God, once manifested for the sufferings of vicarious sacrifice. Henceforth the kingdom of heaven is to be propagated through the life that is in the seed. The kingdom of God, in its most aggressive march, waits upon the fidelity of Christian children to their high calling. The great objective of the Home Department is the home of the Christian. When Foreign Missions becomes a subject of family conversation and plans, we shall have both men and money in abundance. A certain godly mother has in part solved the problem of Sabbath afternoon in the home by reading missionary biographies and other interesting matter bearing on missions. Children do become interested and enthusiastically respond to efforts to entertain and instruct them in the great field of missionary experience. After one such Sabbath afternoon reading a little seven-year-old daughter cried, "Oh, mother, when I grow up I will tell those people about Jesus." Had you been in that mother's place, would a certain foreboding of possible future trial have tempted you to close the book and turn the child's thoughts into other channels? Do you not suppose that Mary, while the Holy Child Jesus was yet in arms, when pondering the strange things said about Him, felt the first thrust of pain from the sword which, it was predicted, would one day pierce her soul because of Him? Why should any father or mother fear and draw back from a passionate interest in missions on the part of a child? If God made the Law a thing to be drilled in by family instruction, by family conversation, by answering child questions, by inscriptions on door-posts, by frontlets before the eyes, does He care less for home instruction in the great world movement of the Gospel?

With the workers on the fields rising to their responsibility, with the administrative leaders in the office wisely meeting and solving their problems, and with the home remembering its covenant duty, God's kingdom will come.

We offer the following recommendations:

1. That the records of the Board, which we have examined with care, be approved.

2. That the following members of the Board, whose term expires with this Assembly, be reëlected: Rev. George Alexander, D.D., Rev. John F. Patterson, D.D., Rev. J. Ross Stevenson, D.D., Mr. Warner Van Norden, Mr. John T. Underwood, and Mr. D. W. McWilliams; and that to fill the vacancies caused by the death of the Rev. William M. Paxton, D.D., LL.D., and Mr. Henry Ide, and the resignations of the Rev. John R. Davies, D.D., and the Rev. John Balcom Shaw, D.D., the following be elected: Rev. Cleland B. McAfee, D.D., in the class of 1903–1906, Rev. Stanley White, in the class of 1904–1907, Rev. W. P. Stevenson, D.D., in the class of 1904–1907, and Mr. Albert J. Pitkin, in the class of 1905–1908.

3. That the Assembly renew the expressions of former Assemblies recognizing the efficiency, the value and the large success of the Women's Boards and Societies of Foreign Missions.

4. That the Assembly has learned with gratification of the large and eminently successful conference preceding the opening of this Assembly, and instructs the Board to arrange a similar conference for the day and evening preceding the opening of the next Assembly.

5. That the Sunday-schools be urged, as heretofore, to make special foreign missionary offerings on Christmas and Easter Sabbaths.

6. That we hail with gratification the increasing disposition of individuals of means to make special gifts to this great work, and we urge upon all our members, rich and poor, to give more proportionately and systematically to this cause.

7. That the Church be asked to contribute for this year one and a half million dollars to this cause, this sum being a reasonable and conservative estimate of the amount actually needed for the proper equipment and extension of our existing work.

8. That the Assembly record its approval of the plan to organize in Korea a Union Presbyterian Church, in conjunction with the missionaries and Korean Christians connected with the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. (commonly known as the Southern Presbyterian Church), the Presbyterian Church of Canada and the Presbyterian Church of Australia, and that the missionaries of our Church in Korea be and hereby are authorized to unite with the missionaries and Korean Christians of any or all of the other Churches named in all necessary steps to this end.

9. On the clear understanding that the phrase "general fitness" includes those matters lying on the borderland of doctrinal belief which, while not affecting doctrinal soundness and therefore not ordinarily coming within the scope of Presbyterial inquiry, may seriously affect a man's fitness for the foreign field, we approve the Board's declaration of policy and methods as to the theological qualifications of missionaries, which is as follows: "The Board reaffirms its adherence to the principle set forth in its action of May 6, 1902,,that it has no ecclesiastical functions, and that all questions relating to ministerial standing or soundness in the faith must be authoritatively and finally settled by the Church courts. Accordingly, in any case where evidence is brought before the Board tending to show doctrinal unsoundness on the part of a ministerial appointee or candidate, it shall be promptly referred for investigation to the Presbytery to which he is responsible. The Board, however, while affirming the principle of the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of the Church in matters of orthodoxy, does not consider itself precluded thereby from reconsidering at any time the general fitness of an appointee for the arduous and responsible service of the foreign missionary, and of assuring itself by proper and reasonable inquiries of his probable usefulness in the field. The Board directs that this action shall be especially reported to the next General Assembly for approval, modification or reversal. In order to prevent embarrassing complications and possible disappointments, it is further Resolved, That in the case of a candidate who has not received his training in the Presbyterian Church, or whose educational advantages have not been such as to insure an intelligent acquaintance with the Standards of the Church, action upon his application shall ordinarily be deferred until the candidate has been examined and licensed by Presbytery."

10. We note with satisfaction the readiness of the Board to give cordial response to appeals from the Mission stations for endorsement of reasonable union movements, properly conserving essential truth. In particular, we heartily commend and approve the action of the Board, as being in line with established precedents, in endorsing under fitting safeguards the movement for the North China Union Colleges, with the understanding that there shall be no teaching in the Seminary which is inconsistent with those conceptions of Scripture truth that are held by the Presbyterian Church.

In behalf of the Committee,

The Standing Committee on Publication and Sabbath-school Work, through its Chairman, Rev. W. Y. Chapman, D.D., presented its Report, which was accepted, and after addresses by Rev. Alexander Henry, Secretary of the Board, Franklin L. Sheppard, Esq., Rev. Vaclav Losa, Rev. John F. Pollock, D.D., and others, was adopted. The Report is as follows:

It may be of interest to state that in preparing this Report your Committee divided itself into three sections, according to the three departments of the Board's work. These sections were determined as nearly as possible by assigning the members according to personal preference. And this Report is a compilation, after careful revision by the whole Committee, of the Reports of the three sections or Subcommittees. In this manner, we believe, more adequate consideration has been given to each department than by attempting to consider all the departments by the whole Committee.

1. THE SABBATH-SCHOOL AND MISSIONARY DEPARTMENT.—The work of this department of the Board is increasing in importance and in difficulty from year to year, as the myriads of foreigners land upon our shores. The Board needs more and more the earnest support of the whole Church in its efforts to take care of these needy people, that they may be supplied with Christian instruction by all available means. The Board's Report sets forth the States and Territories in which a great work has been done, and the number of Sabbath-schools under the care of the various Presbyteries, so that your Committee need not burden its Report with a repetition of such facts and figures. The Minutes of the Board on this subject are well kept, and it appears that the members of the Board give due diligence to the meetings of this department.

The workers were instrumental in the organization and reorganization of Sabbath-schools out of which eighty-two Presbyterian churches have grown, and eighteen of other denominations. The Assembly's attention is called to the summary of seventeen years' work in the Board's Report, bringing out the significant fact that during this period 892 Presbyterian churches have grown from these missions, an average of fifty-two new churches every year. In addition, 495 churches of other denominations have grown from our work. The special attention of the Assembly is called to the fact that our churches and Sabbath-schools fail to meet the demands of this missionary enterprise, and a considerable balance of the necessary funds comes from the Business department of the Board. It is extremely desirable that our churches and Sunday-schools be made to realize their responsibility for adequately providing for this most important work.

2. The Editorial Department.—This department of the Board's work has received the faithful attention of the members of that department. Meetings have been regularly held to attend to the work assigned to it. Among the new books that have been published during the year, the special attention of the Assembly has been called to two publications. The first is the Westminster Teacher Training Course. This work has been prepared by the coöperation of men in different denominations, and besides being used in our Church will also be used under a different name by the Southern Church, the Cumberland Presbyterian, the United Presbyterian and the Reformed (German) Churches. And the use of this work by these Churches promises a better training of Sabbath-schools for their important work and for the increase of the sentiment of unity among those who have so much in common.

The second work is the Historical Geography of Bible Lands, by John B. Calkins, M.A., with an Introduction by Rev. Robert A. Falconer, LL.D., Litt.D., Principal of Presbyterian College, Halifax, N. S. This book is scholarly, and is worthy of a place in the library of all our ministers and Sabbath-school teachers. Attention is also called to our deservingly esteemed Lesson Helps, and to the improvements which the Board promises for another year, viz., a four-years' course of Supplementary Lessons, the issue of a Teachers' Edition of the Junior and Primary Quarterlies, and enlargement of the Senior Quarterly. The other publication deserving special notice is that excellent weekly Forward, equal, if not superior in many respects, to the Youth's Companion as a home and family paper. It is but just to say that all those who are engaged in the production of our papers and Lesson Helps are worthy of our confidence, especially our Dr. Miller, the responsible editor of these publications, whose writings on subjects of practical theology are esteemed in other Churches on both sides the ocean.

An Overture from the Presbytery of Lehigh, requesting the General Assembly to use its authority with the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work, to secure obedience to previous recommendations of the Assembly regarding literature for our work among the peoples of foreign speech, has been put into our hands. The Commissioners of the Presbyteries of Pittsburgh and Allegheny also appeared before your Committee with a similar request. Your Committee invited the members of the Board present, together with Secretary Henry, to appear before us, and a fair and thorough consideration of the whole subject was given. It appears that the Presbyteries of Pittsburgh and Allegheny, feeling aggrieved at the tardiness of the Board in obeying the instructions of the Assembly and realizing the urgent and ever-increasing demand for a Christian periodical in the Bohemian tongue, to counteract the pernicious literature copiously current in that language, resolved that they would undertake the publication of such periodical, and divert to that use such funds as would ordinarily be directed to the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work. The Board's representatives before us gave an explanation of the delay, and convinced your Committee that it arose from no lack of interest in the cause of this foreign mission work at home. Your Committee believes that a satisfactory adjustment of this difficulty shall be reached, and the great need be speedily supplied.

Your Committee has also considered Overtures from the Presbyteries of Lehigh and Northumberland on the special needs of the anthracite coal fields, and urgently invite special contributions to the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work in order that a number of colporteurs may be sent into this field, and that the means may be used to diffuse among the people of strange speech living in these regions those principles of the Gospel of Christ on which our free institutions depend. Your Committee feel that it is impossible to overestimate the importance of this work.

3. The Business Department.—The Board, in this department, reports the most prosperous year of their history. The sales of the books, tracts and periodicals during the fiscal year amounted to $617,846.30, on which a profit of $40,347.49 was earned, being nearly sixteen per cent. on the capital, and in addition the Business department paid $15,000 as rental on that part of the Witherspoon Building which it occupies. Of the year's profit, the Missionary department reaped the splendid result of $26,898, or two-thirds of the entire profits, while the remaining third has been added to capital. The Board is not primarily a money-making concern, but its business is conducted on sound business principles, under the management of Mr. John H. Scribner and the guidance of its Business Committee, of which Mr. John H. Converse is Chairman.

Your Committee believes that the Board is beginning a very promising year. The venerable Secretary, Dr. Craven, realizing his increasing feebleness, after seventeen years of faithful and devoted service, tendered his resignation to take effect upon his becoming eighty years of age, and his resignation was accepted during the year. Your Committee believes that the Church is to be congratulated on the election of Rev. Alexander Henry to succeed Dr. Craven. His experience as a member of the Board and his prominence in national and international Sabbath-school affairs peculiarly fit him for the position. The services of the Rev. Dr. Worden are hereafter to be directed more especially to the teacher-training and field work of the department.

Your Committee offers the following recommendations:

1. That the following-named ministers and elders, whose terms of office will expire next month, be reëlected to serve for three years: Ministers—Rev. J. Harvey Lee, Rev. Frank Lukens, Rev. John B. Laird, D.D., Rev. Robert Hunter, D.D.; Elders—Robert N. Willson, Henry T. Shillingford, George Stevenson, Bernard Gilpin. Also, that the election of Rev. Robert Hunter, D.D., to fill the vacancy made by the resignation of Rev. Charles R. Erdman; the Rev. J. Harvey Lee, to fill the vacancy made by the resignation of Rev. J. Stuart Dickson,; Rev. W. H. Miller, D.D., to fill the vacancy made by the resignation of Rev. Alexander Henry, be confirmed.

2. That the Board's grateful and appreciative reference to the long and faithful services of Dr. Craven and his election as Secretary Emeritus be approved.

3. That the election of Rev. Alexander Henry to fill the place of Secretary of the Board be confirmed.

4. That the decision of the Board, that the transference of its Missionary department to the Board of Home Missions is inexpedient and unadvisable, that the Plan of Coöperation agreed upon between the two Boards (see pages 6 and 7 of the Report) be approved, and that all possible efforts be used to make such plan effective.

5. That the Board be instructed to enter directly and before July 1, 1905, into negotiations with the Chairmen of Committees on Foreign Work in Presbyteries which are more immediately concerned with the foreign-speaking population, so that the crying needs of these morally and spiritually destitute peoples may be met in the soonest and wisest and most practical way; and particularly that the Board initiate a conference with representatives of the Presbyteries of Pittsburgh and Allegheny, that the urgent demands of said Presbyteries for an adequate Christian periodical in the Bohemian language may be supplied at the earliest possible moment, by such means as the Board and said Presbyteries may agree upon.

6. That the Board, in conformity with its general rule, engage no colporteurs, especially in the well-organized part of our field, without the recommendation of the Presbyteries within whose bounds they are to serve, and that the salaries of such laborers also be recommended in each case by the Presbytery.

7. That inasmuch as a considerable percentage of the funds used to maintain the present missionary work of the Board are derived from the profits of the Business department, and because our churches and Sabbath-schools are in danger of leaning too much upon that support, and thereby miss the reflex benefit of an adequate maintenance of the great cause committed to them, every means be used by our pastors and superintendents to educate our churches and Sabbath-schools as to the facts and the needs, and urge them to support as fully and entirely as possible the mission work of the Church. And that the effort be made this year to raise not less than $150,000.

8. We recommend, as in past years, the observance of the second Sabbath of June as Children's Day, and the last Sabbath of September as Rally Day, and that special effort be made to secure on Rally Day a large offering to be devoted to the work among our foreign-speaking peoples.

9. That the Minutes of the Board and its several Committees be approved.

10. That the judgment of the Board that it is inexpedient to change the corporate title be approved.

11. That the Board be instructed to establish as soon as possible a mission agency at Ellis Island, to meet incoming strangers.

Respectfully submitted,

W. Y. CHAPMAN, Chairman.

The Special Committee on Sustentation, through Rev. Henry E. Mott, D.D., of the Committee, presented its Report, which was amended and adopted, and is as follows:

The Special Committee on Sustentation, appointed by the Assembly of 1902, and continued by the Assemblies of 1903 and 1904, respectfully submits the following Report:

The resolutions of the Assembly of 1904 continuing the Committee, and indicating its sphere of action, are as follows:

"Resolved, That the Assembly hereby approves of the preparation of a Plan of Sustentation for ministers who are honorably retired by action of Presbytery, either at the age of 70 or at disability prior to such age duly certified, and also for the widows of ministers.

"Resolved, That the Special Committee on Sustentation be and hereby is continued, that to said Committee all the details of such Plan are hereby referred, report to be made to the next General Assembly, and that the Board of Relief be directed to coöperate with the Committee when requested so to do" (Minutes, 1904, p. 219).

The Committee has held three meetings during the ecclesiastical year, and also several meetings of subcommittees. One of the members, Mr. William H. Parsons, of New York City, departed this life in March, 1905. Mr. Parsons was deeply interested in the ministry and its welfare, gave himself earnestly to the work of the Committee, and rendered one of his last services to the Church he loved at a meeting of the Committee, though at the time seriously weakened by illness. The Committee gives expression to its deep sense of the loss which the Church has suffered in the death of this faithful, devoted and capable ruling elder.

The Assembly also referred to the Committee the matter of an apportionment on the churches pro rata, according to membership, sufficient to meet properly the needs of the Board of Relief. There were before the body Overtures from the Synods of Pennsylvania, California and Indian Territory, drawing attention to the subject. These Overtures the Assembly answered in the affirmative, and directed "that an immediate apportionment be made among the churches sufficient to meet the needs of the Board, said apportionment to be determined by the Committee on Sustentation" (see Minutes, 1904, pp. 106, 107). The Committee for important reasons was not able to give attention to the subject thus entrusted to it until November, 1904. After consultation with the Secretary of the Board of Relief, a request was sent to each minister and church Session recommending contributions to the Board of Relief for the year ending March 31, 1905, in accordance with the following Plan:

A. Churches paying salaries of $800 and less, to give at least ten cents per communicant.

B. Churches paying salaries of $800 to $1200, to give at least fifteen cents per communicant.

C. Churches paying salaries of $1200 and upward, to give at least fifteen cents per communicant, and in addition one per cent. on the salaries of their ministers.

D. Churches hitherto contributing to the Board of Relief sums considerably beyond the apportionment above suggested to continue their generous support of the Board.

This apportionment was believed to be equitable and within the reach of every church. The provision in the apportionment for churches of Class C, asking one per cent. of pastors' salaries in addition to fifteen cents per communicant, is simply a method of furnishing the churches with an appropriate advanced standard of contributions. The one per cent. on salaries, however, is a charge upon the church, not upon the minister, and would increase the apportionment by $20 where the salary was $2000 per annum, and in a like proportion for other salaries. A church of 300 members paying $2000 salary would contribute at least fifteen cents per communicant, or $45 plus $20, or $65 in all.

In connection with this apportionment, it is to be especially noted that 56 churches contributed last year $25,000, or more than one-quarter of the total contributions from all the congregations for the Board of Relief. These churches, referred to above as Class D, continue to manifest this year as in past years their generous interest in this most worthy cause, and the hope is entertained that their contributions and their number will be increased.

The Plan of Apportionment of the Committee was contained in a letter signed by all the members and transmitted by the Secretary of the Board of Relief to the churches. The letter appears at length in the Annual Report of that Board. The Committee are gratified to be able to announce that the Plan has produced good results, and recommends that it be referred for further consideration and action to the Standing Committee on Ministerial Relief of this Assembly.

The Committee has carefully considered the matter of a fixed provision for honorably retired and disabled ministers, and the widows of deceased ministers, referred to them by the General Assembly. They regard the present provision by our Church as not only uncertain, but insufficient to meet the actual necessities of those servants of the Church who, after long years of arduous and faithful service, have through age or infirmity been compelled to relinquish the active work of the ministry, without any means of support other than the Church provides.

This fact has been brought to the attention of several General Assemblies, notably those of 1887 and 1901. The Assembly of 1887 appointed a Special Committee, known as the Centennial Committee, one of whose specific duties was the increase of the Permanent Fund of the Board of Relief. Of this Committee the Rev. George P. Hays, D.D., was Chairman, and the result of its work was the addition within eighteen months of more than $600,000 to the funds of the Board of Relief, and a widespread increase of interest in the work of the Board. Since 1887, the Permanent Funds of the Board have increased from $365,538 to $1,641,943. The Assembly of 1901 was led to take a special interest in the needs of honorably retired and deceased ministers, through the Report of its Standing Committee on Ministerial Relief, of which the Rev. Henry Elliott Mott, D.D., was Chairman. The result was that a Special Committee was appointed, charged with the duty of formulating some equitable and efficient method or plan, by which the imputation would be effectually removed which rests upon our Church of treating less justly, not to say humanely, its disabled and honorably retired servants, and those who have shared with them their burdens and privations, than do secular governments and right-minded business corporations. That Committee, in its Report to the General Assembly of 1901, emphasized the need of such a method or plan, and recommended that the "Board of Ministeral Relief" be commended to the churches for additional endowment to the amount of one million dollars. The recommendation, so far, has failed of any results; and largely so, we believe, through the lack of a definite and business-like method of carrying it into effect, and not from any disposition upon the part of the membership of our churches to ignore the moral obligation resting upon them in this matter of making proper provision for the support of the honorably retired and disabled ministers.

Your Committee feels that the Church, in this regard, is attempting to meet the exigencies of present-day conditions by methods that have, in a large measure, lost their effectiveness, viz., by circular letters and appeals made at Presbyteries, Synods and Assemblies, the echoes of which rarely reach the ears of the congregations. This is largely due, in the judgment of your Committee, to the fact that so many of our ministers feel a delicacy in urging the claims of a cause in which their own personal interests are involved.

The failure in this direction cannot be charged to any delinquency on the part of our "Board of Relief" as now constituted. They have done and are doing, we believe, the best they possibly can under the existing methods. But the fact still remains that a large number of our churches do not contribute anything to this cause, and that those who do contribute do so, with rare exceptions, in amounts wholly inadequate to meet the just obligations of our Church to its aged and honorably retired and disabled servants.

The Committee, as directed by the Assembly, has examined the schemes of Ministerial Sustentation of other Churches, especially that in force in the Presbyterian Church in Canada. That Church has no such agency as our Board of Relief, but provides, through two independent Committees, for the needs of aged ministers and of the widows and orphans of deceased ministers respectively. The Aged and Infirm Ministers' Fund has been established since 1877, collects an annual rate from the ministers who are members of it, but meets the larger portion of the expense from bequests, individual gifts and church collections. The rates for ministers are somewhat similar to those contained in the exhibit appended to this report. The results reached by your Committee are substantially along the same lines as those followed by the Canadian plan.

In view of the considerations stated, your Committee submits the following plan for information solely, with the recommendation that suggestions in connection therewith be invited from individuals and from the Presbyteries, the same to be forwarded to the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly for transmission to the Committee.

PLAN—PRINCIPLES AND RULES.

1. The adequate maintenance of the aged and disabled ministers of the Presbyterian Church, and the dependent families of the same, is to be regarded as much a moral obligation upon the Presbyterian Church at large as the payment of salaries by particular churches.

2. A Permanent Fund is hereby created, to be known as the Annuity Fund, which shall be sustained by annual congregational contributions and donations for its own distinctive work, bequests and ministers' rates as hereinafter provided.

3. This Annuity Fund shall be devoted to the support of aged and disabled ministers and the widows and minor orphans of the same, according to the provisions hereinafter recited.

4. Classes of annuitants: (a) Aged ministers are those ministers who have reached the age of seventy years and have served in the ministry of the Presbyterian Church thirty years. Every such minister becomes by virtue of these facts an annuitant, and the Presbytery of which he is a member shall issue him a certificate to that effect entitled "Annuity Certificate," subject to the rules of the Fund.

(b) Disabled ministers are those under seventy years of age, who have served the Presbyterian Church at least five years and are either physically or mentally incapacitated for the active service of the ministry, as judged by the Presbytery of which each is a member, and upon such judgment the Presbytery shall issue him a certificate to that effect entitled "Certificate of Disablement," subject to the rules of the Fund.

5. Every minister of the Presbyterian Church shall pay into the treasury of the Annuity Fund, until he becomes an annuitant, an annual sum according to the table of rates attached hereto marked "Exhibit A." He shall become by right of such payments a participant of the Annuity Fund.

(a) When a minister who is a contributor to the Fund transfers his relation to another denomination, or gives himself to another vocation, unless it be a cognate work within the bounds of our own Church, he shall be entitled to receive one-half the amount paid by him into the Fund, and forfeit all claims to further benefit.

(b) The ministers' rate or premium shall be paid yearly in advance from date of registry, or, if the minister so elects, he may make payment either quarterly or semi-annually, subject to the rules of the Fund.

6. Annuity payments: (a) Upon reaching the annuity age of seventy years every minister of the Presbyterian Church who has complied with the requirements of the Fund shall receive during his life the sum of five hundred dollars ($500) annually, the same to be paid in quarterly installments.

(b) Every minister seventy years of age, who has served the Presbyterian Church less than thirty years, and who has complied with the requirements of the Fund, shall receive during his life the sum of one hundred dollars ($100) annually, and in addition thereto ten dollars ($10) for each year of service, not exceeding in the aggregate five hundred dollars ($500) per annum.

(c) Every minister under the age of seventy and certified as disabled shall receive an annuity during disablement of one hundred dollars ($100) annually, and in addition thereto ten dollars ($10) for each year of service over five years in the Presbyterian ministry, not exceeding in the aggregate five hundred dollars ($500) per annum.

(d) Provision for the widows, so long as they remain widows, and the minor orphan children, collectively as a family, of aged and disabled ministers of the Presbyterian Church, shall be made upon the basis of three-fifths the amount paid to the above classes respectively, as heretofore stated.

7. Whereas the rates fixed for ministers are on the actual cost basis according to the experience of the Presbyterian ministers of the U. S. A., and according to the standard table so far as it relates to their wives, without any provision for the cost of administration or unknown contingencies, it is ordered that the Fund be valued on the basis of said experience and tables at the end of each quinquennial period, and, if necessary, a readjustment be made in the rates so as to maintain the absolute solvency of the fund, and thus guarantee to every minister payment in full of the amount provided.

Explanation of the Plan.

1. The calculations of the General Assembly's Committee on Sustentation have been based on—

(a) The tables published in the Assembly Minutes for 1904, pp. 216–218. These tables were compiled from the experience of 5,862 Presbyterian ministers, were examined and classified by a competent Actuary, and are entirely reliable.

(b) The answers returned by the Stated Clerks of Presbyteries to a communication sent by your Committee to each Presbytery asking (1) The number of ministers on the roll seventy years of age or over; (2) The number of such ministers who had been thirty years or over in our ministry; (3) The number of ministers now in active service, and (4) the number of ministers under seventy years of age incapacitated by infirmity or disease. The result of the correspondence is given below.

2. Ministers shall pay twenty per cent. of the annual rates into the Annuity Fund (see column (b) of "Exhibit A"), and the Church at large eighty per cent. of such annuity rates, by collections, donations and bequests. The rate named for each minister is based upon the experience of Presbyterian ministers as given in the table cited above.

3. The standing of the Annuity Fund will be as follows:

It has been found that one in nine of the ministers of the Presbyterian Church living at any given time is seventy years of age or over. This means 820 in the Church at present.

The number of disabled ministers is approximately 370, of which thirty-one are under the age of 61.

The number of dependent families is now approximately 515.

4. Your Committee sees no way in which the end sought for—provision for the support of all aged and disabled ministers—can be entirely attained at once. If the Annuity Fund should be constituted immediately, if 7,000 ministers should be connected with it, and if no ministers should be admitted over the age of sixty years, the annual outlay required would amount to $1,018,412. The assets to meet this expenditure would be the one-fifth to be paid annually by the ministers, $203,682, and the churches would be called upon to raise annually the sum of $814,730. Of the total sum required to constitute the Annuity Fund, viz., $1,018,412, the sum of $445,911 represents the annuities to widows. Two considerations are, however, of weight in connection with the solution of the financial part of the problem. The first is that the Canadian plan already referred to, which is on similar lines, is in successful operation; the second, that any plan adopted by this Church is as applicable to 1,000 as to 7,000 ministers, and the lesser involves only one-seventh the financial outlay of the larger number.

Resolutions Recommended.

1. That the Assembly hereby approves the principles of the plan as set forth in this Report.

2. That the Committee be continued, or a new Committee be appointed, to consider the suggestions to be received in connection with the plan above printed; to revise the plan where deemed necessary; to carefully examine again the plans of other Presbyterian Churches, and to present a final report to the next Assembly.

3. That the report of the Committee be printed separately, and that a copy be sent through the office of the Stated Clerk of the Assembly to each Presbytery and to each Synod.

4. That the Board of Relief be directed to coöperate with the Special Committee on Sustentation when asked by that Committee so to do.

In closing this Report, the Committee cordially recommends that the thanks of the Assembly be again tendered to Mr. L. G. Fouse, and to other persons who assisted, for the very large amount of voluntary, exacting and skillful labor performed in connection with the work of this Committee.

In behalf of the Committee,

HOWARD DUFFIELD, Chairman.

The Committee was continued to report to the next Assembly.

The Committee on Correspondence with the Alliance of the Reformed Churches, through its Chairman, Rev. Joseph W. Cochran, D.D., presented its Report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

Your Committee, created in 1903, in response to the request of the Alliance of the Reformed Churches, looking toward the establishing of summer preaching stations for American tourists, has been compelled this year to centre its efforts upon the developing of a very interesting work at Frankfort-on-the-Main, Germany. Correspondence was entered into last year with the American colony of that city, which pledged its most earnest efforts in providing, first of all, a preaching service for the summer months, and if the way was clear, to carry on, in addition, a permanent work, and eventually organize an American church. Under instructions from the General Assembly, your Chairman began services on the first Sunday of July, 1904, in the Hotel Imperial, Frankfort. The room was crowded with American residents with their families and a few tourists. The hunger of these voluntary exiles was manifest, and the eyes of all were filled with tears as the Gospel was preached to them in their own tongue for the first time in many years.

The American colony at Frankfort consists of a nucleus of about fifteen American families, all of whom appear to be intensely interested, especially the women, upon whom the details of the work have fallen. Through their zeal services have been continued every Sunday since last July. A spirit of prayer and work has been manifest from the very start. There is a large outer circle of German-Americans who may be counted on to provide means, if not personally active in the work. The coöperation of the Hon. Richard S. Guenther, American Consul-General, and the Hon. Mr. Schwartz, British Consul, has been much appreciated. The following ministers were secured by your Committee to supply the pulpit during the summer: Rev. L. Y. Graham, D.D., of the Olivet Presbyterian Church, Philadelphia; the Rev. William Carter, D.D., of the First Presbyterian Church of Kansas City; the Rev. C. T. Edwards, D.D., of the Presbyterian Church of Portville, N. Y., and the Rev. James I. Good, D.D., professor in the Theological Seminary of the Reformed Church, Philadelphia, Pa.

During the winter season the colony has struggled hard to maintain services, and despite many discouragements, no Sabbath has passed unsupplied. Mr. Mackay, a theological student of Berlin University, removed to Heidelberg University during the winter semester, for the expressed purpose of supplying the work until April 1. The colony extended a call to the Rev. Dr. Loyal Y. Graham, of Philadelphia, who, though intensely attracted to the work, felt compelled to decline. The Rev. Ernest W. Shurtleff, D.D., pastor of the First Congregational Church, Minneapolis, was then overtured to undertake the work. He was induced to resign his pastorate, and entered upon the new work April 1, 1905.

The salary is but a bare living wage, as the colony is weak in numbers though great in zeal. The colony proposes to raise two-thirds of the minister's salary and pay all the incidental expenses, asking, very modestly, that the Assembly's Committee should grant them aid to the extent of at least $500. All funds coming to the Committee have been and are to be expended in this way. Liberal subscriptions from those interested are earnestly solicited. Your Committee confidently looks forward to the time when this work in Frankfort will be given the same recognition as similar enterprises in Paris, Berlin and Leipsic. A modest church building is very much needed, as there are obvious disadvantages in holding services in a hotel. The immediate need, however, is to support the minister on the field, who will organize a Sunday-school, prayer meeting and in the end a duly constituted church.

Your Committee has been in correspondence and personal conference with the Rev. Dr. William H. Roberts, American Secretary of the Alliance, and the Rev. James I. Good, D.D., Chairman of the Committee of the Alliance on Work on the European Continent. As reported last year, Dr. Good has been interested in opening preaching stations in behalf of the Reformed Churches at several points in Europe. He succeeded last summer in inaugurating an encouraging work at The Hague. The attitude of the Reformed and Lutheran pastors to the work of your Committee is heartily sympathetic. The attitude of the Established Church in Germany to the independent Protestant bodies is, however, precisely similar to the attitude of the Anglican Church to the Nonconformist bodies of England.

In conclusion your Committee would recommend:

1. That the work at Frankfort be commended to the liberality of our churches and individual givers.

2. That the Committee be continued, with power to fill vacancies and with authority to take steps looking toward a continuous and organized work in behalf of the American colonies in the cities of Europe, report to be made to the next Assembly.

JOSEPH W. COCHRAN, Chairman;
S. S. PALMER, EDWARD D. EMERSON,
CAMPBELL COYLE, EDWARD C. STRINGER.

A paper with reference to the Seventy-fifth Anniversary of New York University was referred to the Standing Committee on Colleges.

A Supplementary Report of the Committee on Education was made the first Order for to-morrow morning.

The Report of the Committee on the Next Place of Meeting was made the second Order for to-morrow morning.

The Report of the Standing Committee on Benevolence was made the second Order for to-morrow afternoon.

The Assembly adjourned, and was closed with prayer.

WEDNESDAY, May 24, 8 o'clock P.M.

A popular meeting was held in the interests of Foreign Missions, and addresses were delivered by Rev. George Alexander, D.D., Rev. Joshua C. Garritt, D.D., and Rev. Messrs. Hillis, Johnston, Whittemore and Brokaw.

THURSDAY, May 25, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with devotional exercises.

The Minutes of yesterday's sessions were read and approved.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures reported, recommending the adoption of a resolution of the Sunday Rest Association which had been committed to them. It was adopted, and is as follows:

Resolved, That this General Assembly unites in the request made by the Executive Committee of the Sunday Rest Association of America to the Postmaster-General of the United States, that the order permitting the opening of the money order and registry departments of post-offices, where local postmasters may choose to put the public servants in charge of these at work on Sundays, be reversed, and that the former order in force up to 1901 be restored; and that the Stated Clerk be directed to send a copy of this action to the President and to the Postmaster-General.

The Standing Committee on Education presented the following Supplementary Report, which was adopted:

With respect to the Overture from the Presbytery of Westchester, which was referred to this Committee, asking that the Board of Education be authorized to grant scholarship aid to candidates for the ministry in certain seminaries within its bounds not having the approval of the General Assembly, your Committee would report that it does not deem it wise to recommend an amendment to the instruction hitherto given the Board of Education by the General Assembly, and recommends an answer in the negative.

The Committee of Canvass upon the Vote of the Presbyteries on Overture No. 7, sent down by the last Assembly, through its Chairman, Rev. Robert P. Kerr, D.D., presented its Report, which was accepted and adopted, and is as follows:

Your Committee, to which was referred the answers of the Presbyteries to the Overture No. 7, sent down by the Assembly of 1904, proposing an amendment to Constitutional Rule No. III, regulating the application of persons seeking to be taken under the care of Presbyteries as candidates for the Gospel ministry, beg to report that we have canvassed the answers from the Presbyteries, and find that of the whole number of 241 Presbyteries, 6 have not reported, 4 reported no action, 15 voted in the negative, 216 voted in the affirmative.

Alphabetically arranged lists of the Presbyteries, showing the action or non-action of each, are herewith appended, and are as follows:

The following Presbyteries voted in the affirmative: Aberdeen, Adams, Alaska, Albany, Allegheny, Alton, Arizona, Athens, Atlantic, Austin, Baltimore, Bellefontaine, Benicia, Birmingham, Black Hills, Blairsville, Bloomington, Boisé, Boston, Boulder, Box Butte, Brooklyn, Buffalo, Butler, Butte, Cairo, Canadian, Cape Fear, Carlisle, Catawba, Cayuga, Cedar Rapids, Central Dakota, Central Washington, Champlain, Chemung, Chester, Chippewa, Choctaw, Cimarron, Cincinnati, Clarion, Cleveland, Columbia, Columbus, Corisco, Corning, Council Bluffs, Crawfordsville, Dakota (Indian), Dayton, Denver, Des Moines, Detroit, Dubuque, Duluth, East Florida, Ebenezer, Elizabeth, Emporia, Erie, Fairfield, Fargo, Flint, Fort Dodge, Fort Wayne, Freeport, French Broad, Genesee, Geneva, Grafton, Grand Rapids, Great Falls, Gunnison, Hainan, Hangchow, Hastings, Havana, Helena, Highland, Hodge, Holston, Hudson, Huntingdon, Indianapolis, Iowa, Iowa City, Jersey City, Kalamazoo, Kansas City, Kendall, Kia-michi, Kingston, Lackawanna, La Crosse, Lake Superior, Lansing, Larned, Lehigh, Lima, Logansport, Long Island, Los Angeles, Louisville, Lyons, Madison, Mahoning, Manila, Mankato, Marion, Mattoon, Maumee, Milwaukee, Minneapolis, Minnewaukon, Monmouth, Monroe, Morris and Orange, Mouse River, Muncie, Nanking, Nassau, Nebraska City, Neosho, New Albany, Newark, New Brunswick, New Castle, Newton, New York, Niagara, Ningpo, Oakland, Niobrara, North River, North Texas, Northumberland, Oakes, Oklahoma, Olympia, Omaha, Osborne, Otsego, Ottawa, Ozark, Parkersburg, Peking, Pendleton, Peoria, Petoskey, Philadelphia, Philadelphia North, Pittsburgh, Platte, Portland, Porto Rico, Portsmouth, Puget Sound, Redstone, Rio Grande, Riverside, Rochester, Rock River, Sacramento, Saginaw, St. Clairsville, St. Cloud, St. Lawrence, St. Paul, San Francisco, San José, Santa Barbara, Santa Fé, Schuyler, Sequoyah, Shanghai, Shantung, Shenango, Sioux City, Solomon, Southern Dakota, Southern Oregon, Southern Virginia, South Florida, Spokane, Springfield, Steuben, Steubenville, Stockton, Syracuse, Topeka, Transylvania, Trinity, Troy, Union, Utah, Utica, Walla Walla, Washington, Washington City, Washita, Waterloo, Weihsien, Wellsborough, Westchester, West Jersey, Westminster, Wheeling, White River, White Water, Willamette, Winnebago, Winona, Wooster, Yadkin, Zanesville—216.

The following Presbyteries voted in the negative: Binghamton, Bismarck, Chicago, Chillicothe, Grande Ronde, Hannibal, Huron, Kittanning, Knox, McClelland, Pueblo, Red River, St. Louis, Vincennes, Wyoming—15.

The following Presbyteries report "No action": Canton, Eastern Persia, Pembina, Siam—4.

The following Presbyteries have not reported: Chile, Chinan, Kearney, North Laos, Western Africa, Yukon—6.

We therefore find that the proposed amendment is approved by the required majority, and do recommend that the General Assembly declare it adopted as per Overture hereunto appended.

Overture on Section 1 of Constitutional Rule No. III:

Shall said section be amended so as to read—

Every applicant seeking to be taken under the care of Presbytery as a candidate for the ministry shall file his application at least three months before the meeting of Presbytery, addressing the same to the Chairman of the Education Committee of the Presbytery, in the care of the Stated Clerk, in order that the Committee may have ample time to make a careful investigation of his Christian character, physical and mental qualifications and his previous education; and no person shall be received by Presbytery as a candidate for the ministry who has not been recommended by the Session of the church of which he is a member, under whose care he shall have been for a period of at least six months. And no exception shall be made to this rule without a unanimous vote of Presbytery? (Minutes, 1904, pp. 62, 63.)

Respectfully submitted,

ROBERT P. KERR, Chairman.

The Moderator officially declared that said amendment to Constitutional Rule No. III had been adopted.

The Standing Committee on Theological Seminaries, through its Chairman, Rev. John A. Marquis, D.D., presented its Report, which was accepted, and after an address by Rev. Robert Scott Inglis, was adopted. It is as follows:

The Standing Committee on Theological Seminaries respectfully presents to the Assembly the following Report:

The Seminaries have had a good year. Twelve such institutions are in connection with the General Assembly. At least one-half of this number report substantial additions to their money resources during the year, and what is still better, more than one-half report an encouraging increase in the number of their students. Not for five years has the roll of theological students in our Church been as high as it is now. The enrollment at the close of the year showed 662 names, an increase of forty over the year preceding. There is a consensus of hope expressed in the Reports your Committee has examined which presages a better era and a larger place for these institutions in the near future than has ever been their lot in the past. All the Seminaries have forwarded to the Assembly detailed Reports of their condition and work, giving an exhibit of financial standing, students in attendance, studies pursued, scholarships provided, and the enlargement needed to meet the demands of the future. These Reports will be printed in full in the Appendix to the Assembly's Minutes, and need not be reviewed here.

There are some features, however, in the history of the past year to which your Committee feels attention should be called.

It is worthy of note that every one of our Seminaries closed the year without a deficit.

McCormick has been royally remembered again by its old-time friend and benefactor, the McCormick family—this time in the gift of one million dollars as an addition to the endowment fund. This has enabled the establishment of a new Chair, entitled "The Science and Art of Preaching," to which Rev. Herrick Johnson, D.D., LL.D., has been assigned, and the creation of the office of President, to which Rev. James G. K. McClure, D.D., LL.D., has been elected.

The Seminary of Kentucky reports the dedication of two halls during the year for the use of the students, and a new library building now in process of erection.

Auburn has established a system of Oriental scholarships for the use of Japanese students, and also three Social Service scholarships, requiring the holders to spend the summer vacation in sociological studies, especially in connection with settlement work in the large cities.

Western, Omaha and Newark have opened departments for training workers among the foreign population. The last named, Newark German, is seeking an additional endowment. In its polyglot department, instruction is already given by capable instructors in three foreign languages, namely, German, Italian and Hungarian, and the course in these tongues has been arranged to cover a period of ten years, beginning with the preparatory grade, and extending through the collegiate and theological courses.

Not a few of our Seminaries are making praiseworthy attempts to enlarge their course of training, so as to include instruction in modern methods of Church work. San Francisco has established what may be called a "Ministerial Clinic," the purpose of which is to introduce the students to the life and work of well-equipped churches in the community. Every Sunday, and sometimes during the week, students are sent to the city to visit the services of both Protestant and Catholic churches, with a view to studying at first hand the methods of their management. Reports of these visits are made to the Faculty the following evening, and an hour is spent in discussing them. In the same way the young men are brought into touch with the mission work of the city, and are given an experience of its problems which cannot fail to be of large value to them in their ministry.

Special attention is called to the need of our youngest Seminary —Omaha. While having demonstrated both the wisdom and need of its founding, it is still in the period of struggle. It occupies the centre of a wide and necessitous field, the demands of which are increasing much more rapidly than the ability of the Seminary in its present financial stress to meet them. We again commend this promising institution to the prayers, sympathy and financial support of the Church.

San Francisco is another Seminary occupying a field of vast and strategic importance. Its President is now engaged in a campaign to raise money for the endowment of two Chairs and the establishment of a much-needed library fund. The movement deserves the coöperation of every friend of the Church on the Pacific coast.

We repeat the commendation given last year to the Theological Departments of Lincoln and Biddle Universities. They have a special claim on our benevolence, and deserve the support of all who believe in an educated ministry for the colored people.

The Literary Department of the German Seminary of the Northwest, located at Dubuque, Ia., has been erected into "The German Presbyterian College of the Northwest." It is believed that this change will enable it to take better care of the collegiate work necessary to qualify students to enter the Theological Department. This Seminary also reports the completion of a $100,000 endowment fund, and has in contemplation the erection of a new building adequate to the needs of the students.

Western Seminary reports the inauguration of Rev. David Gregg, D.D., LL.D., as President, and the installation of the Rev. David S. Schaff, D.D., in the Chair of Church History.

Your Committee submits to the consideration of the Assembly the following recommendations:

1. That the election of all Directors reported to the Assembly as elected during the past year be confirmed.

2. The Assembly notes with sorrow the loss by death of the venerable Rev. William M. Paxton, D.D., LL.D., the senior member of the Faculty of Princeton, and of Rev. Douglas P. Putnam, D.D., who had just entered on his work at Lane.

3. That the Assembly approves the election or transfer of the following professors in the following-named Seminaries:

Auburn.—The election of Rev. Allen Macy Dulles, D.D., to the Chair of Theism and Apologetics.

Lane.—The election of Rev. William McKibbin, D.D., to the Presidency and the Chair of Systematic Theology.

The election of Rev. Douglas P. Putnam, D.D., to the Chair of Homiletics and Pastoral Theology.

The election of Rev. Edward Mack, D.D., to the Chair of Hebrew and Old Testament Literature.

The election of Rev. Selby I. Vance, D.D., to the Chair of Church History.

McCormick.—The transfer of Rev. Herrick Johnson, D.D., LL.D., from the Chair of Sacred Rhetoric and Pastoral Theology to the new Chair, entitled "The Science and Art of Preaching."

The election of Rev. James G. K. McClure, D.D., LL.D., to the office of President, and of Rev. Samuel Dickey, M.A., to the Chair of New Testament Literature and Exegesis.

German Northwest.—The transfer of Rev. Ferdinand Urbach to the Chair of Biblical and Ecclesiastical History, and the election of Rev. Henry Schmidt, Jr., to the Chair of Systematic Theology.

Lincoln.—The election of Rev. James Carter to the Chair of Church History.

Omaha.—The election of Rev. Charles Herron, D.D., to the Chair of Ecclesiastical History and Missions.

4. That the action of last year be reaffirmed, namely:

That the Faculties and governing Boards of our Seminaries be urged to train young men in and for evangelistic work, that the students may have practical lessons in opening the Bible and leading souls to Christ. To this end we urge that the English Bible be made the subject of special study in all our Seminaries.

5. There have been referred to this Committee Overtures Nos. 1–38, 84, 85 and 96, each asking "that the Assembly recommend to each of the Theological Seminaries of the Church to provide such instruction for their students in the principles and methods of modern Sabbath-school work, as will prepare the young men for leadership and coöperation in the activities of the Sabbath-school, more especially in connection with administration, teacher-training and evangelistic work." The adoption of this Overture is recommended.

In behalf of the Committee,

JOHN A. MARQUIS, Chairman.

The following official telegram was received from the General Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church:

FRESNO, CAL., May 24, 1905.

General Assembly Presbyterian Church U. S. A., Winona Lake, Ind.:

The Cumberland Presbyterian General Assembly, acknowledging and replying to your telegram, have to announce that we find and declare that a constitutional majority of our Presbyteries have voted approval of the basis of reunion and union, and we pray the peace and blessings of God upon the reunion.

J. B. HAIL, Moderator.
J. M. HUBBERT, Stated Clerk.

Upon the reading of this telegram the Assembly united in singing the Doxology.

The Standing Committee on Young People's Societies, through its Chairman, Rev. Mark A. Matthews, D.D., presented its Report, which was accepted, and after addresses by the Chairman, Rev. Hugh B. MacCauley, Secretary of the Permanent Committee, and others, was amended and adopted. It is as follows:

The Standing Committee on Young People's Societies of the General Assembly would respectfully report as follows:

There has been put into our hands the Report of the Permanent Committee on Young People's Societies of the General Assembly, which contains an account of the Committee's work for the year, an outline of the Christian Study Course for the second and third years, a summary of statistics, an argument concerning the financial support of the Committee, and certain recommendations, together with the Treasurer's Report in the form of an appendix. Also we have received and read the Minutes of the various meetings of the Permanent Committee and of its Subcommittees held during the past year. Realizing the importance of the matters involved, your Standing Committee has held several prolonged and fully attended meetings, and our decisions have been reached with unanimity.

We report that we find the Minutes of the Committee to have been well kept, and the Treasurer's accounts to be in good order, and heartily commend them.

We would express our approval of the pioneer work which the Committee has been carrying on. While commending the attention paid to this work by those members of the Committee who were able to attend the meetings, we feel that the thanks of the Church are specially due the Rev. Hugh B. MacCauley, D.D., Secretary of the Assembly's Permanent Committee, for his persistent and self-sacrificing labors in the furtherance of their plans.

We do not deem it necessary at this time to dwell at length upon the particulars of this work, as they have already been spread before you in the Report of the Permanent Committee, which has been distributed throughout the Assembly and is now in your hands. We do, however, wish to emphasize certain features.

We think the Committee has done well in carrying on the Study Course during the past year; and has been fortunate in having the aid of the various Presbyterian journals, thereby saving to the Church expense for the printing of extra literature. These journals have been very liberal in their gift of space and deserve our thanks. We note in this connection what the Committee says about providing a course which is not too difficult for the average young people in our Church, and also the desire of the Committee not to infringe upon plans that are already being prosecuted in the Sabbath-schools. They have also done well to indicate to us what their idea is concerning the second and third year of this Study Course.

The statistics furnished by the Committee are valuable so far as they go; but as only 135 Presbyteries reported, it is evident that only a part of our Church has been heard from, and it is to be hoped that next year, with larger facilities and greater interest on the part of reporting Presbyteries, something like complete returns may be presented to the next General Assembly. But we also give it as our opinion that the problem of Young People's Work in our Church is an exceedingly varied one—far greater than matters which pertain principally to education and statistics. There is an inspirational work to be done which shall kindle a new enthusiasm in the members of our societies. There is an encouragement to be furnished to pastors who are perplexed and even despondent over the difficulties of the situation in their own churches. There is a creating of interest to be accomplished within the Church at large in her Young People's Work. There is needed a reviving of zeal and enthusiasm among the young people themselves which shall transform discouraging situations into opportunities for service.

These general suggestions will call to the mind of pastors and elders present not only similar conditions which confront them at home, but many other facts not mentioned by us. We believe that the Assembly will agree with its Standing Committee in the assertion that the present problem of Young People's Work is one of the most important in all our organized activities.

Now, it must be evident that the present Permanent Committee, composed as it is of busy pastors and elders, eminently successful though they be in their own fields of labor, must in the nature of things find it impossible to do more than touch the fringe of the subject. The amount of time they can give to this labor is limited. Their financial facilities are most meagre. This problem really demands the full time of some one who can give his entire attention to its solution and who shall receive from the Church a support both moral and financial, that shall be adequate.

The attention of the Assembly is once more called to the fact that we have a grand field in these Young People's Societies—let us thank God for it! We read in the Report that with only 135 Presbyteries reporting, there is a sum total in our Senior, Intermediate and Junior Societies of over 91,000 members. If these alone were our field it would still be a magnificent one, and in the providence of God would call for a forward step. We therefore offer the following recommendations:

1. That the Assembly rejoices in the work already inaugurated by the Assembly's Permanent Committee on Young People's Work, and adopts their recommendations as follows:

(a) That the thanks of the Assembly be tendered to the journals which, without charge, printed Outlines and opened their columns to the Study Course programmes, to wit: The New York Observer, The Westminster, The Presbyterian, The Presbyterian Banner, The Herald and Presbyter, The Interior; also that the Assembly approve of the provision by the Boards of Home and Foreign Missions of the free pages in the Assembly Herald in behalf of our Committee.

(b) That the Assembly approve of a comprehensive plan to include all Study Courses now operating in our Church, and direct the Permanent Committee on Young People's Societies to arrange for a conference to that end with the parties engaged in that work, and to report to the next General Assembly.

(c) That the Outlines of the second and third year of the Christian Study Course, as shown in the Report of the Permanent Committee on Young People's Societies, be adopted and recommended for study among all our churches.

(d) That the Assembly direct the Board of Publication to publish and furnish to the Permanent Committee on Young People's Societies, without charge, all circulars and other printed matter for carrying on this work deemed necessary by the Committee, not to exceed $500, and also to obtain and handle the necessary text-books for the Study Course work as approved by the Assembly and conducted by the Committee.

(e) That the Assembly recommend to all our Young People's Societies that, so far as possible, they arrange to forward their offerings in quarterly payments, and send in their Reports in time to enable the Sessions to forward their Reports to Presbyteries on or before March 20, the required date.

(f) That the Assembly approve of a single system for reporting on Young People's Work, and direct the Permanent Committee on Young People's Societies to confer with our various Boards and agencies as to this matter, and to report to the next General Assembly.

(g) That the attention of all our pastors and Sessions be called to the new column for reporting conversions, added to our statistical blank, as a reminder of the importance to the Church of the early consecration and training of our young people.

(h) That the Assembly elect Rev. A. Edwin Keigwin, of New York, and Elder Von Ogden Vogt, of Boston, Mass., to fill the vacancies caused by the resignation of Rev. J. Ross Stevenson, D.D., of New York, and Elder William L. Amerman, of New York, whose term of office will expire in 1906; and also to reëlect for the full term of three years Rev. Charles Wood, D.D., of Philadelphia, Pa., Rev. John Timothy Stone, of Baltimore, Md.; Elder George R. Camp, of Philadelphia, Pa., instead of Elder Richard H. Wallace, of Philadelphia, Pa., who withdrew on account of his health, and Elder A. E. MacDonald, of Chicago, Ill., who have served but two years and are, therefore, eligible for reëlection.

2. That the Assembly cordially endorses the Christian Endeavor movement as represented within our Church, and all other Young People's organizations fostered by our various congregations, and encourages them in their efforts toward aggressive work.

3. That the whole subject of the employment of a Secretary for Young People's Work be referred to the Board of Publication and Sabbath School Work and the Permanent Committee on Young People's Societies, to report fully to the next Assembly.

(4) That the Permanent Committee be authorized and directed to collect the funds necessary for the expenses of their work from the Young People's Societies and friends of this work in the churches.

5. That the Assembly request all journals of our Church to aid the Committee by opening their columns to its work.

In behalf of the Committee,

MARK A. MATTHEWS, Chairman.

The Committee on Next Place of Meeting reported, and after discussion the Report was amended and recommitted.

The Assembly took recess, and was closed with prayer.

THURSDAY, May 25, 2 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

Rev. S. Monnier, Corresponding Delegate from the Reformed Church of France, was introduced by the Standing Committee on Correspondence, and addressed the Assembly.

The Moderator responded to his address.

The Report of the Committee on Correspondence was made the first Order of the day for to-morrow morning.

The Report of the Special Committee on Judicial Commissions was made the second Order for to-morrow afternoon.

The following telegram was received from the General Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church:

FRESNO, CAL., May 24, 1905.

REV. W. H. ROBERTS, D.D., Stated Clerk Presbyterian Assembly, Winona Lake, Ind.:

Our Committee on Fraternity and Union receives an addition of nine members, with instructions to consider all further steps necessary to consummate the union and confer with your Committee, and report at next meeting of our Assembly a year hence.

J. M. HUBBERT, Stated Clerk.

The Special Committee on the Reprinting of the Minutes presented a Report, which was approved, and is as follows:

The Special Committee on the Reprinting of the Minutes, consisting of the Stated and Permanent Clerks, reports progress in the work of inquiry as to the existence of early documents which may be of value in connection with the Records of the Church, and asks to be continued.

Respectfully submitted,

WM. H. ROBERTS,
WM. B. NOBLE.

The Special Committee on the Digest presented a Report, which was approved, and is as follows:

The Special Committee on the Digest of the Acts and Deliverances of the General Assembly reports that the work of compilation, with a view to a new edition, is being carried forward in the office of the Stated Clerk, according to the directions of the Assembly.

Respectfully submitted,

WM. H. ROBERTS,
WM. B. NOBLE.

The Special Committee on Editions of the Constitution presented a Report, which was approved, and is as follows:

The Special Committee on Editions of the Constitution reports that the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work has issued during the year, under the supervision of the Committee, a new edition of the Constitution.

Respectfully submitted,

WM. H. ROBERTS,
WM. B. NOBLE,
E. R. CRAVEN.

The Special Committee on the Indebtedness of the Witherspoon Building presented a Report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

The Special Committee on the Indebtedness of the Witherspoon Building, Philadelphia, Pa., respectfully reports to the General Assembly as follows:

The Committee recognizes the great desirability of the removal of this indebtedness, and its Chairman has been in conference with the Business Committee of the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work, which equally with the Committee is entrusted with this undertaking. The Business Committee of the Board, after due consideration, advised that it was wise to await the election of a new Secretary for the Board, prior to action by the Assembly's Committee. In this conclusion your Committee concurred.

The Committee requests to be continued, asks that the Business Committee of the Board be directed to coöperate with it, and that any and all action taken for the discharge of the indebtedness be the result of joint action by the two Committees.

Respectfully submitted,

WM. H. ROBERTS,
Chairman.

The Standing Committee on Church Erection, through its Chairman, Rev. John Clark Hill, D.D., presented its Report, which was accepted, and after addresses by the Chairman and Rev. J. Milton Greene, D.D., was adopted. It is as follows:

The work of this Board is essential in our well-matured schemes for making the Gospel effective among men. It is work that does not seem to have very much sentiment about it, for it deals largely with brick and mortar, clapboards and shingles. Still, there is much in it that does quicken the emotions of those whom it directly touches on the fields. It quickens their zeal and encourages their work when their hopes of a church building are realized and a comfortable home for a houseless pastor secured.

It is essential. It is necessary. It has been the means of building hundreds of churches and manses which, but for the timely aid of this Board, would not have been erected. Nearly 8000 appropriations for churches and manses have been made during the sixty-one years since this work was started.

The formal Report of the Board to this Assembly does not differ much from those of previous years. The same careful and clear elaboration of detail is seen year after year in the story the Board brings up for our consideration.

The Report records the death of one of its most valued and faithful members, the Rev. John Reid, D.D., who died in Brooklyn, New York, on the 18th of December, 1904. Appreciative recognition is made of his services.

The financial operation of the Board involves the handling of an income during the year amounting to $185,665.83. The working capital for all purposes now amounts to $664,800. This capital is made up of a number of distinct funds, each of which is controlled by the terms of the original deed of gift or a will, but all of them are in accord with the purposes of the Board and none impose conditions that would in any degree hinder its free operations.

All money that is either granted or loaned to churches is secured by mortgage and protected by insurance until it is repaid. The amount thus covered now amounts to about $2,400,000. A large proportion of this is, of course, unproductive, but even in the case of grants, many of the churches so aided, sooner or later, refund in whole or in part the money furnished by the Board.

Compared with recent years, it is regretted that the advance in gifts from the churches is not commensurate with the increase of the total number of communicants.

The number of churches aided this year is 215, and the amount of the appropriations $153,669.78. During the year there have been reported as completed, without debt, 192 churches and manses of an aggregate value estimated at $614,110. The total receipts in all departments have been $203,080.08, and the disbursements $199,980.73.

The total of appropriations and of churches aided is smaller than for several years, a result which, in view of the unusual demand for two years previously, was possibly to have been expected. It is probable, however, that a more potent reason for the decrease is the inability, owing to lack of funds, of the Board of Home Missions to enter upon new work. So closely are related the interests and work of these two Boards that any enforced check in the progress of the one immediately affects the other. If the Home Board, for lack of men or means, does not enter upon new fields, the Board of Church Erection finds the demands upon it decrease; if, on the other hand, the Board of Erection, for lack of funds, is unable to respond to the calls upon it, the young churches organized by our home missionaries languish and are in danger of dying. The appropriations this year have reached thirty-six States and Territories, Minnesota having received the largest number. They have also extended to 114 Presbyteries.

The Board is looking forward to a year of unusual activity in church building, and consequently a large increase in the number of applications for grants and loans. The general agricultural, manufacturing and commercial prosperity is increasing the demand in the new towns for churches and manses.

But the field of the operations of the Board must now be enlarged, for by the action of the General Assembly the islands of Porto Rico and Cuba have been assigned as a field of action to the Home Missionary Board, and by a necessary sequence to the Board of Church Erection. Yet if any effective advance is to be made in these attractive regions, it calls for a larger proportionate outlay than is required in our home communities upon the continent. For example, responsive to such considerations, our General Assembly has already erected the Presbytery of Havana and our Home Board has organized upon the island a number of Presbyterian churches. The most important of these is naturally the one in Havana, the regenerated and attractive capital city, now not only a place of winter resort for hundreds of visitors from this country, but also inviting constant additions to its permanent American colony. Of this church the Rev. Dr. J. Milton Greene is the pastor, maintaining services both in English and Spanish, and he writes most hopefully of the growth and its promise. But an adequate church building is absolutely needed, and for this he is appealing through the Board of Church Erection to the American Church of which his congregation is a member. The appeal has not been unheard. A generous friend has already promised $25,000 for the building, but as yet the land is unprovided and lots in eligible locations are very expensive. At least $15,000 is needed that the promised building may have a site upon which to stand. For this, contrary to its usual custom, this Board asks special gifts. In view of this inevitable enlargement of the area of operations the Board ought to be enabled by its constituency to meet promptly and generously these new demands.

There is no good reason why any church holding regular services of worship should ever fail to make an annual offering to this Board. We have nearly 8000 churches on our roll. A very safe estimate would place, say, 2000 of these on the list of those that are without regular services or have only a name to live. There are certainly 6000 churches from which annual offerings may be reasonably expected, and yet even the Boards of Home and Foreign Missions and Ministerial Relief, the three receiving offerings from the largest number of churches, do not reach even 5000. There are at least 1000 delinquent churches. That's certain! The place that this Board holds in the affections of the churches is evidenced by the fact that it stands next to the Missionary and Relief Boards in the number of churches sending offerings.

The failure of these thousand non-contributing churches indicates a lamentable lack of loyalty on the part of their ministers, elders and deacons. This Board stands in the same relations to the churches as all the others, and while its work does not call forth nor require such large sums of money as do some of the others, yet it is work that is absolutely necessary and ought not to be so systematically ignored as it is by so many.

This Committee desires to make it clear to the Assembly and the churches that the important work of building manses is apparently not thoroughly appreciated. There is available for the building of manses, by loans without interest, only about $85,000, all of which is always in use. This fund cannot be increased by the annual offerings of the churches, and in order to increase it there must needs be special gifts. This can often be done by the suggestions of pastors who may be consulted by those making wills, and by special reference to this special work when instructing their congregations as to the general operations of the Board.

Your Committee recommends that the Assembly pass the following resolutions:

1. That we unite with the Board in its expressions of regret on the death of Dr. Reid.

2. That we approve the records of the Board and heartily commend the faithfulness of the executive officers.

3. That the following members of the Board, whose term of office has expired, be reëlected, viz.: Ministers—Rev. Ford C. Ottman, Rev. Robert F. Sample, D.D., Rev. Charles J. Young, D.D.; Elders—William N. Crane, Everett J. Esselstyn, George E. Sterry.

4. That the Rev. Joseph Dunn Burrell, of the Presbytery of Brooklyn, be elected to fill the vacancy in this class caused by the death of Dr. Reid.

5. That the Assembly approves and heartily recommends to the churches and individual donors the enterprise of building a Presbyterian church in Havana, Cuba, for the congregation of which the Rev. J. Milton Greene, D.D., is pastor, and authorizes the Board of Church Erection to secure special gifts to the extent of $15,000 to purchase a lot on which to erect the building.

6. That the Assembly calls the attention of churches contemplating asking for aid to the propriety of consulting with the Board before they are committed to an undue expense in building.

7. That the Assembly call special attention to the urgent necessity of increasing the funds available for manses, and that pastors he urged to endeavor to secure special gifts for this purpose, both by actual contributions and by suggesting that provision be made in wills. All of which is respectfully submitted.

On behalf of the Committee,
JOHN CLARK HILL, Chairman.

The Standing Committee on Benevolence, through its Chairman, Rev. Charles E. Bronson, D.D., presented its Report, which was accepted, and after addresses by the Chairman and Rev. D. G. Wylie, D.D., Chairman of the Special Committee on Systematic Beneficence, was adopted. It is as follows:

The Committee on Benevolence comes before the Assembly with glad hearts to report for the first time in ten years an advance. To the eight Boards the total gifts a year ago were $2,700,000; this year, $3,200,000, a gain of one-half a million—21 cents a member gain; $2.94 per capita, total. It is high-water mark, but $200,000 should be deducted, because from sources hitherto unreported.

Let us lay aside, for the moment, this year's returns. We have only the totals, and for purposes of analysis must recur to the admirable Report of our Special Committee. This Report shows conditions which we lay upon the prayerful attention of the whole Church. "Statistical lies" there may be, but the following are cold facts.

I. For ten years our membership has been increasing, and the wealth of that membership in far greater ratio. But our benevolence has been stationary. There is something wrong with the benevolence of the Church, and benevolence is the surest test of piety. Not merely prayers, hymns, exhortations, but gifts to God are also accurate measures of devotion. The moment Zaccheus was converted, the half of his goods he gave to the poor, and if he had injured any man he restored him fourfold. Back of all evangelism, all missions and efforts to extend Christ's kingdom lies this great question of proportionate giving. You will never solve those till you solve this. Eight thousand churches should make 64,000 offerings to the Boards; 32,000 were received. For example, 4065 churches made some contributions to the great Board of Home Missions; nearly 4000 made no gift whatever. Glance over your Reports. Year after year, between 3000 and 4000 churches make no effort to give to the various Boards of our Church. The number of giving churches is too small. Once more: Those who are giving are not increasing their gifts. For ten years the income from each church has not varied $1.50 per year, nor the average fluctuation for each Board been over $25,000. This, in a word, is the condition: Half the churches not giving; those who are giving, not increasing.

II. What is the remedy? In reply we ask, Where is the responsibility?

1. Is it God's? Has He failed to give us wherewith we might give to Him? No Church in the world's history has had the wealth of the American Church. And that Church never had so much wealth as to-day. At the same time He has been multiplying opportunities, opening new doors, and His calls to us daily growing louder, clearer. The responsibility is not upon our Lord.

2. Is it the Board's? Is there any scheme which sanctified common sense or inspired ingenuity could suggest which they have not employed? Have not the Secretaries grown gray and bald in their strenuous anxiety? Have they not bombarded us with circulars, bulletins, appeals? Are there not forward movements, special objects? No; the responsibility is not theirs.

3. Once more: Is it the people's? Has our unprecedented prosperity so hardened the Presbyterian heart that when the offering is called for the plate returns empty? Never.

4. Where, then, does the guilt, we will not say, but the key to the redemption of the Church lie?

Between these clamant causes of God and the indifferent, non-contributing membership stand God's ministers and elders, and upon their shoulders this Committee would lay the burden of our stationary benevolence.

What is the remedy? Evidently two new measures:

a. We must increase the number of contributing churches. Surely one-half the number of our great family are not paupers. We realize that a large number of these unresponsive churches are pastorless, small in numbers, poor. But no serious man will deny that there are hundreds, perhaps thousands, which never have the chance to make an offering for outside work, and which might be redeemed. Did you ever see the plate go around and come back empty? Anywhere? Definite, enthusiastic, persistent work by Synodical and Presbyterial Committees and pastors and Sessions could greatly increase the number of contributing churches, and the responsibility is upon these officers.

b. The second remedy for this condition is to increase not only the number of contributing churches, but the number of givers, and the amounts they are contributing, in the churches now.

To this end there must be an entire change of method. The present haphazard way of making offerings to the Lord must be revolutionized. The same givers are giving in the same old way and the same old or only slightly increased amounts.

1. Pastors and Sessions must teach the Biblical principles of benevolence, and when they do it, they must not sprinkle rose water upon their sermons and put on their kid gloves. Christians, and all that they have, belong to God, not a tithe merely. Every Christian is to lay aside for God's special work some definite, proportional sum which shall be sacredly used for religious work. Does one say, "I cannot beg"? We do not ask it. But the man who dare not say unto God's people, "How much owest thou unto thy Lord?" is not worthy to be God's ambassador. The Gospel is not simply to tell lost sinners how to be justified, but also unsanctified saints, "Pay that thou owest," and God's greatest blessings will never rest upon any Church, however orthodox, which ties up His purse-strings. There will never be a great revival.

Will any man say that one-fifth of a cent a day from the living members of our churches measures our obligations to Foreign Missions? Or eight-tenths of one cent a day from living members for all our Boards? Is God satisfied with that?

Teach right principles: the sacred rule of three: Proportionally, Periodically, Prayerfully GIVE.

2. Increase the number of givers in each church, and the amounts they now are giving. Only 40 per cent. of any congregation are present at an ordinary service. To take our annual offering whatever the weather, and make no effort to reach delinquents, is criminal negligence, and yet this is the average system. No business in the world is conducted on such unbusiness-like lines as the Lord's greatest business. Why not introduce into this great effort to redeem the world the same system, energy and directness we employ every day everywhere else? Every member of the body of Christ is to help give the Gospel to every creature.

Christians must not only be taught, but be trained; not merely know, but do. If there be one other fact which ten years of our Reports show, it is the lack of any system of giving by average Christians. Here, again, the responsibility is not on the Boards. nor is it upon the membership. It is ours—pastors and elders.

There must be the unalterable determination, as the goal of ceaseless effort, that every member of every church make a proportional, definite offering to the Lord. 13,000 of the 32,000 total offerings made were under $5, and 1100 churches gave $1 or less, while only 1100 of the 64,000 possible offerings were of $100 or over—i.e., 100,000 of our members are giving most of our gifts, and 900,000 of our members are taking shelter behind them. Take out from the average church the offerings of ten members and you break the backbone of its benevolence. Vast multitudes of our own members are not giving, and we are making no serious inroads on their indifference; yea, if ten years of Reports are true, we are making no honest efforts to do so. If ever there is a rising tide in the stream of our benevolence, it will be when pastors and Sessions take hold of the matter in dead earnest and ask, lovingly, tenderly, every member of Christ's flock to lay their own gifts on His altar. We must get every church to give, and every member in the giving churches.

Your Committee recommends the adoption of the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That the amounts contributed by self-supporting Synods and Presbyteries be tabulated with the returns of the Boards of Home Missions in the Report of the Special Committee on Systematic Beneficence.

Resolved, 2. That every pastor be requested to preach, and every Session to hold conferences and prayer meetings upon Systematic Giving, and also to take such steps as seem suitable to get an offering for the Lord from every member of the Church. That Presbyteries and Synods hold popular meetings upon this great subject at their annual meetings, and that the Committee of Arrangements at the next General Assembly be requested to arrange for a popular meeting at that Assembly to bring this important matter prominently to the attention of the Church, and that the consideration of this topic be presented as early in the session of the Assembly as possible.

Resolved, 3. That the Special Committee on Systematic Beneficence be requested to gather from the Presbyteries and Synods statistics of methods adopted in successful congregations, and that illustrations of these methods be presented in their Report.

Resolved, 4. That the churches be recommended to discourage making gifts to peripatetic beggars, and we urge our ministers and members to discharge, first of all, their sacred obligations to the great causes which depend wholly upon our offerings, and which promise great fruitage and enduring permanence.

Resolved, 5. That the theological seminaries be directed to instruct their students on the subject of Systematic Giving, and that the Special Committee obtain reports from them as to their complying with this recommendation.

Resolved, 6. That the Assembly heartily commends the work of the Special Committee, recommending its continuance and the appropriation of $1000, or so much of it as may be needful for its use.

Resolved, 7. We report with deep regret the death of Mr. S. P. Harbison, of Pittsburgh, a valued and useful member of this Committee, who illustrated in his life the principles of Christian benevolence for which he labored assiduously. His loss will be deeply felt.

Resolved, 8. We recommend the following names as members of the Special Committee for the ensuing year: David G. Wylie, 10 West Ninety-sixth street, New York; William H. Hubbard, Secretary, 35 Franklin street, Auburn, N. Y.; George P. Williams, Chalmers Martin, C. T. Shaw, William R. Richards, William P.

Finney, Charles E. Bronson; Elders — John Sinclair, W. L. Amerman, John Stewart, W. W. Smith, Hon. H. B. Lilliwa, C. P. Turner, Laird H. Simmons.

In behalf of the Committee,

CHARLES E. BRONSON, Chairman.

The Report of the Committee on Synodical Records was made the first Order for Saturday morning.

The Report of the Finance Committee was made the second Order for to-morrow morning.

It was resolved that the Assembly meet to-morrow morning at 8.30 o'clock.

The Order of the Day having arrived, the Special Service of prayer and thanksgiving in relation to the Evangelistic Work, the Assembly spent the remaining one and a half hours of the afternoon session in appropriate exercises.

The following was adopted:

Whereas, God has so abundantly blessed Evangelistic Work during the past year;

Resolved, That the General Assembly, recognizing the moving of God's spirit in our country at this time, calls upon the churches to respond to the manifest indications of Providence by a greater effort than ever during the coming year, by faithful preaching of the Word, and by prayer and personal work on the part of all members of our churches, to reach the unsaved and bring souls to Christ.

Resolved, That Presbyteries and Synods, through their Evangelistic Committees, arrange for such action on the part of their churches as may be necessary.

The Assembly adjourned, and was closed with prayer.

THURSDAY, May 25, 8 o'clock P.M.

A popular meeting for Laymen was held, and addresses were delivered by Justice John M. Harlan, John H. Converse, LL.D., U. S. Commissioner H. B. F. McFarland, and others.

FRIDAY, May 26, 8.30 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with devotional exercises

The Minutes of yesterday's sessions were read and approved.

The Standing Committee on Finance, through its Chairman, Mr. Robert Wardrop, presented its Report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

The Standing Committee on Finance respectfully submits the following Report:

Your Committee has examined the financial statement of the Trustees of the General Assembly for the year ending March 31, 1905, which statement has been examined and certified to by a public accountant as being correct. The Report shows funds in the hands of said Trustees as follows:

RECEIPTS.

The Report of your Trustees shows that they have received in trust $964,264.74, of which $957,511.80 has been invested in mortgages and first-class securities, and $6752.94 is still uninvested.

During the year new bequests to the amount of $4870.57 have been received.

Investments to the amount of $79,836.50 have been paid off during the year, but have been replaced by new investments to the amount of $87,290.63. The income account shows receipts of $42,656.94, and expenditures of $42,487.75.

There are two vacancies on the Board of Trustees; one caused by the failure of Mr. George T. Harris to accept his election, and the other caused by the death of Rev. William M. Paxton, D.D. Your Committee suggests that the vacancies be filled by the election of Mr. William H. Scott, of Philadelphia, and your Stated Clerk, Rev. William H. Roberts, D.D.

The Report of Rev. William H. Roberts, D.D., Stated Clerk, as Treasurer, shows receipts for the year $62,319.03, and expenditures $57,906.40.

His accounts with the Boards and Special Committees show receipts $2831.42, expenditures $2854.82.

Your Committee recommends an assessment of six and one-half cents per member to cover the expenses of the ensuing year—three and one-half cents for mileage, one and one-half cents for entertainment and one and one-half cents for Contingent Fund.

Your Committee further recommends that the Stated Clerk be authorized to pay a sum not exceeding one thousand dollars to the Committee on Systematic Beneficence, and that he be also authorized to pay the sum of $765 to the Presbyterian Alliance.

Your Committee renews the expression of the deep obligation of the Church to the Trustees for their long and efficient service, and to the Stated Clerk for the fidelity and ability with which during so many years he has acted as Treasurer of the Assembly.

Respectfully submitted on behalf of the Committee,

ROBERT WARDROP, Chairman.

The Standing Committee on Correspondence, through its Chairman, Rev. Alfred H. Fahnestock, D.D., presented its Report, which was accepted, and is as follows:

The Standing Committee on Correspondence respectfully reports as follows:

The credentials of the Rev. Dr. Monnier, the Delegate of the Reformed Church of France, were presented yesterday, and he was duly heard by the Assembly.

There has been received by us a letter to the Stated Clerk from the Waldensian Church of Italy, certifying that the Rev. Francesco Rostan has been appointed the "Deputy" from that Church to convey greetings to this Assembly. Your Committee recommends that the Rev. Francesco Rostan be presented to and heard by this Assembly at this time, and that the Moderator reply to his message.

There has also been put into our hands a certification by the Rev. William H. Roberts, D.D., the American Secretary of the "Alliance of the Reformed Churches throughout the World holding the Presbyterian System," that the Rev. James D. Moffat, D.D., is accredited as the Delegate to this Assembly from the Executive Commission of the Alliance. Your Committee would recommend that Drs. Moffat and Roberts be heard at this time.

A letter has been received from the Rev. Samuel Schwarm, Delegate of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in the United States of America. It is recommended that an appropriate reply be sent by the Moderator and Stated Clerk. It is also recommended that, as requested by the General Synod of the Lutheran Church, this Assembly send a Delegate to the Synod, which will meet at Pittsburg, Pa., June 14, 1905; and that the Chairman of this Committee be such Delegate.

Respectfully submitted in behalf of the Committee,

ALFRED H. FAHNESTOCK, Chairman.

Rev. Francesco Rostan, Corresponding Delegate from the Waldensian Church of Italy, was then introduced by the Committee, and addressed the Assembly. The Delegates from the Alliance of the Reformed Churches holding the Presbyterian System also addressed the Assembly. The letter of fraternal salutation from Rev. Samuel Schwarm, D.D., Corresponding Delegate of the General Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in the United States of America, was read. To all these the Moderator made an appropriate response.

U. S. Commissioner H. B. F. McFarland, of the District of Columbia, having been introduced by Justice John M. Harlan, addressed the Assembly, conveying to it the greetings and congratulations of His Excellency, Theodore Roosevelt, President of the United States. The Moderator, by authority of the Assembly, sent the following message to the President in response.

WINONA LAKE, INDIANA, May 26, 1905.

To Theodore Roosevelt, President of the United States:

The Presbyterian General Assembly, in session at Winona Lake, Indiana, thankfully acknowledge your message of greeting, conveyed by the Hon. H. B. F. McFarland, and assure you of cordial sympathy and support in all your efforts to promote national and international righteousness, and of our prayers that you may have the Divine guidance and assistance.

JAMES D. MOFFAT, Moderator.
WM. H. ROBERTS, Stated Clerk.

The Judicial Commission upon Judicial Case No. 2 reported its finding in the case for record in the proceedings of the Assembly; and it was ordered that the finding be entered upon the record. It is as follows.

The Judicial Commission appointed by the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church of the U. S. A. to try Judicial Case No. 2 reports for record its final judgment as follows:

Rev. George H. Marsh, appellant, vs. the Synod of South Dakota, appellee—No. 2.

This appeal being regularly issued and coming on to be heard on the judgment, the notice of appeal, and the specifications of errors alleged, and the record in the case from the beginning, and the reading of so much of said record as was not read having been omitted by consent, and the parties thereto having been heard before the judicatory in argument, and opportunity having been given to the members of the judicatory appealed from to be heard, they having been heard, and opportunity having been given to the members of this judicatory to be heard, and they having been heard, as provided by the Book of Discipline, and this Judicial Commission of the General Assembly sitting as a judicatory in such case on appeal having sustained the following specifications of error, to wit, all of said specifications save and except the ninth specification of the grounds of appeal, to wit, that the Commission of the Synod did not take its vote without debate, and the tenth specification of the grounds of appeal, to wit, "that said Synod did err in 'hastening to a decision,'" which were not sustained, on consideration whereof this judicatory finds said appeal should be and is hereby sustained, and that said Synod of South Dakota, the judicatory appealed from, erred in not sustaining on the law and the evidence the charges and the judgment in this case in the Presbytery of Black Hills, and that said final judgment of the Synod of South Dakota is erroneous, and should be and is hereby reversed, and said Synod is directed to affirm the judgment of the Presbytery of Black Hills, and this case is remanded to the Synod of South Dakota to carry this judgment into execution; and it is further ordered that the Stated Clerk of this General Assembly transmit a certified copy of the judgment in this case to the Stated Clerk of the Synod of South Dakota, to be made a part of the record in this case.

Respectfully submitted by the Judicial Commission,

CARROLL ROBBINS, Chairman.

The Judicial Committee presented the following Supplementary Report, which was adopted:

To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, U. S. A., May, 1905:

Your Judicial Committee would respectfully report as follows:

The complaint of Rev. George H. Marsh against the Synod of South Dakota has been submitted for our consideration.

The complaint is in proper form; but since your Committee has of necessity examined into the merits of the same while sitting as a Judicial Commission in the trial of the appeal between Rev. George H. Marsh, appellant, and the Synod of South Dakota, appellee, and the appeal and complaint relate to the proceedings in the conduct of one and the same case, and your Committee believe that the matters involved in this complaint are fully disposed of by the judgment in the appeal case, they would recommend that said complaint be dismissed.

Respectfully submitted on behalf of the Committee,

CARROLL ROBBINS, Chairman.

The Special Committee on Forms and Services, through its Chairman, Rev. Henry van Dyke, D.D., presented its Report, which was accepted.

Pending its consideration the hour of recess arrived, and after ordering that the afternoon session should be held from 2.00 to 4.30 o'clock, the Assembly took recess and was closed with prayer.

FRIDAY, May 26, 2 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The Stated Clerk, on behalf of a Commissioner from the Presbytery of New Castle, presented to the Moderator a gavel made from wood 220 years old, which had been a portion of the church building in which Rev. Francis Makemie ministered.

The Moderator responded to the address of presentation.

A letter from Rev. Edward Baech and wife was read, conveying to the Assembly their thanks for the sympathy expressed to them in their bereavement.

The Report of the Special Committee on Forms and Services was taken up, and the following was adopted:

Resolved, That this Assembly, having received the Report of the Committee on Forms and Services, and approving the principles which have guided the Committee in following their instructions to prepare a Book of Service proper for voluntary use in Presbyterian churches, herewith recommit the Book to the Committee with the following instructions: To revise the form for baptism in order to safeguard the doctrine of the Reformed Churches regarding the force of baptism, the birthright church membership of children of believers, and the covenant engagement of believers to be the Lord's; to add further suitable prayers to those now provided for family worship; to add forms of service, according to the instructions of the Form of Government, for the ordination and installation of ruling elders and deacons, the licensing of candidates to preach the Gospel, the laying of the cornerstone and dedication of a church, and if it be found wise, the Psalter as now published in the Hymnal.

For the purpose of further review and revision of the work, the Assembly orders the addition to the Committee of five members, of whom the Moderator shall be one, the remaining four to be active pastors; the entire Committee to be instructed to secure the opinion and counsel of pastors who may be available in the work of revision and completion of their work.

In case the enlarged Committee reach definite and satisfactory completion of their work during the present year, we authorize the publishing of the Book of Worship by the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work, in order that the churches may have opportunity to consider and test the same, the Committee to make full report to the next Assembly.

In case the Committee do not reach definite and satisfactory completion of their work before the meeting of the next Assembly, they are instructed to report the work to that Assembly for further action.

The following additional resolutions were adopted unanimously, in connection with the Report:

Resolved, That the words "For Voluntary Use in the Churches" shall be inserted on the title-page of the Book of Worship when issued by the Board of Publication.

Resolved, That the version of the Scriptures to be used in the Book of Worship be left to the discretion of the Committee.

The Report, as modified by the above, was approved, and is as follows:

Your Special Committee on Forms and Services (appointed by the General Assembly of 1903, continued by the General Assembly of 1904, and ordered to carry on their work along the lines of their report of progress, which was approved by the Assembly) feel that it is most important that a definite outline of the task committed to them, and of the principles laid down for their guidance, should be kept clearly in view. They are sincerely desirous to avoid all danger of confusion and misapprehension, and to have a good understanding throughout the whole Church of the precise nature of the Book which the General Assembly is trying to provide, in an orderly way, for those Presbyterians who want it. The Committee have therefore ordered the Chairman to embody in the report to you the same general statement which was laid before the Assembly last year, and earnestly to beg your careful attention to this part of the Report. It is frank and full. It tells the whole story of the way in which the Committee was appointed, the object set before them, the instructions given to them, and the methods by which, for two years, they have been working hard at their difficult task. The plain purpose of making such a statement is to win the confidence and practical sympathy of the brethren, without which the Committee feel that their labors would be futile, and to prevent, as far as possible, unnecessary misunderstandings in regard to the "Forms and Services," which are now submitted to you.

The General Assembly of 1903, in answer to Overtures from the Presbytery of Denver and the Synod of New York, and on the recommendation of the Committee on Bills and Overtures after consultation with representatives of the Board of Publication, unanimously passed the following resolutions:

"Resolved, 1. That a Committee of eleven be appointed by the Moderator, in conference with the Editorial Committee of the Board of Publication, to take into consideration, and if possible to prepare, in harmony with the Directory for Worship, a Book of Simple Forms and Services, which shall be proper and helpful for voluntary use in Presbyterian Churches in the celebration of the Sacraments, in marriages and funerals, and in the conduct of public worship.

"Resolved, 2. That in the preparation of these voluntary services the Committee be instructed to draw from the Holy Scriptures and the usage of the Reformed Churches; to avoid those forms which savor of ritualism; to embody sound doctrine in the language of orderly devotion, and to keep ever in mind the end of Presbyterian worship, which is that all the people should join in the service of God as He is revealed in Jesus Christ.

"Resolved, 3. That this Committee shall report to the next General Assembly, and shall submit whatever work they have been enabled to complete to the Assembly for approval and disposition" (Minutes, 1903, p. 113).

We have read our instructions as follows, and have endeavored to obey them faithfully in all that we have done:

NEGATIVELY.—1. We are not empowered, (nor should we be willing,) to prepare a required liturgy, to be imposed upon our churches by authority. The liberty of worship which now exists is not to be abridged. All that may be done in the preparation of forms is to be offered for "voluntary use."

2. We are forbidden to work in any way which is not in harmony with the Presbyterian doctrine of worship. We are not to follow other Churches (which may hold a different doctrine), nor to borrow forms in which sacerdotal or prelatic theories are embodied or implied. We are to make "a book proper for use in Presbyterian churches."

3. We are forbidden to use "those forms which savor of ritualism." All rites and ceremonies which are unscriptural in spirit or artificial in form, as well as those which seem to lay the chief emphasis of worship upon certain outward acts, or to disregard the spiritual priesthood of all believers in Christ, are to be avoided.

These negative conditions, setting bounds to our work, we have gladly recognized and scrupulously observed. Even in regard to words which are in familiar use, such as "absolution," "altar," and the like, we have preferred to avoid those which are open to an interpretation not in harmony with the Reformed Faith and practice.

POSITIVELY.—We find in our instructions two things which are to be done: First, the general subject of Forms and Services in our Church is to be considered. Second, if possible, a Book of Simple Forms and Services is to be prepared, along certain lines, and submitted to the General Assembly for approval and disposition. On the first of these points we are ready to present a full Report. On the second point we have to present a Report which represents about 95 per cent. of the work entrusted to us. The necessary omissions will be explained later.

I. The general consideration of the subject of methods and forms of public worship in the Presbyterian Church must include, first, an historical study, and second, a careful investigation of present conditions and needs.

1. Historically, we observe, what every intelligent Presbyterian knows, that the use of forms of service was practically universal among the early Calvinistic or Reformed Churches. In Switzerland, in Germany, in France, in Italy, in Holland, in Scotland, and in England service-books were prepared for the use of the various congregations by the leaders of the Reformation. In these books are found directions for the order and conduct of public worship and the administration of the Sacraments, and prayers expressing, in language drawn for the most part from the Holy Scriptures and the fathers of the primitive Church, the desires and petitions of an assembly of Christians holding the Reformed Faith. The Genevan Liturgy of John Calvin, the "Book of Common Order" of John Knox, the Calvinistic Liturgy of the Church of Strasburg, the Christian Ordinances of the Netherlands Congregations, the Liturgy of the Palatinate, the "Prayers on the Psalms," published in the Scottish Psalm-book of 1595, "Hermann's Consultation," compiled by Bucer and Melanchthon —these and many other books of like character, afford ample proof that the use of orderly forms and services, not only for the conduct of public worship, but also for the guidance of families in their daily prayers, is historically in harmony with Presbyterian principles. It was with such a form that Calvin celebrated his last communion; the reading of such a prayer cheered John Knox in his dying hour; and Admiral Coligny was engaged in repeating the beautiful liturgy of the Reformed Church in France when he was murdered on the morning of St. Bartholomew's Day.

In most of the Reformed Churches, holding the same faith and order with us, the use of these ancient service-books, modified to meet present needs, still continues. The chief reason why a Directory for Worship was substituted for "the Book of Common Order," at the Westminster Assembly, was "to meet the preferences of the English Puritan divines," which the Scotch Presbyterians were willing to do on all points not essential to the faith.

The Directory for Worship, adopted by our Church in 1788, and amended in 1789 and in 1886, while it disapproves "of confining ministers to set or fixed forms of prayer," says nothing against their voluntary use, or the preparation of an order of service which shall be helpful to the congregation in public worship. On the contrary, it protests against "mean, irregular and extravagant effusions" (Chap. I, 4); it speaks of prayer and praise as "the more important duties" not to be interfered with by unduly long sermons (Chap. VII, 4); and it gives such careful directions for the conduct of public services in an orderly manner, as naturally to suggest that a collection of good and proper forms would be helpful in the carrying out of these directions.

2. Coming now to the consideration of the present condition and needs of worship in our Presbyterian Churches, your Committee desired first of all to know the facts, and, second, to come into touch with the general feelings and wishes of the whole Church, as far as possible.

The opinion is prevalent that there has been a movement among Presbyterians in the direction of a more thoughtful and beautiful worship; and that this movement, beginning in the Sabbath-schools with various "exercises," and proceeding among the churches with "orders of service" and more or less elaborate forms, has become so widespread as to need recognition, wise guidance, and some measure of prudent restraint. This prevalent opinion your Committee shared. But we wished to know certainly whether the opinion was in harmony with the facts.

Therefore we sent out a letter of inquiry to the churches, including as many as the facilities at our disposal would enable us to reach without laying too heavy an expense upon the Assembly's fund, and covering as far as possible the different regions of our country. To this letter a great many valuable replies have been received. By the diligence and skill of the Stated Clerk, Dr. Roberts, these replies have been tabulated, and we are enabled, for the first time in the history of our Church, to present you with facts instead of impressions, in regard to the present condition of public worship among Presbyterians.

From 26 Synods, 2001 ministers report for their churches as follows:

		Per Cent.
Sunday-schools:
Using Responsive Service	1673	83+
Using Lord's Prayer	1740	86+
Using the Creed	746	37+
Churches:
Using Lord's Prayer	1432	71+
Using Psalter responsively	1377	68+
Using Creed regularly or occasionally	1017	51+

Furthermore, of these 2001 ministers, 1774, or 88 per cent., say that "there is room for improvement in the orderly and reverent conduct of worship generally." 1888, or 94 per cent., say that "the people should participate." 1752, or over 87 per cent., say that "a more general, voluntary agreement in regard to the parts of public worship and their order would be a help in this direction." A book of forms is used as follows: marriages 1627, funerals 1619, baptisms 1503, Lord's Supper 1457; and 1634, or over 81 per cent., say that they "feel the need of such a book."

These figures show beyond question: first, that the movement toward an order of service with responsive features is already going on in three-fourths of our churches; second, that nine-tenths of our ministers desire improvement and better order in the conduct of worship generally in our Church; third, that almost all of our ministers wish the people to take part in the service; fourth, that nearly nine-tenths of our ministers wish for more unity in Presbyterian worship, if it can be voluntarily brought about; and finally, that more than four-fifths of them feel the need of a book of forms.

Another set of statistics, drawn from the same documents, refers to the actual orders of service used in the different churches. Here only the returns from the three large Synods of Illinois, Pennsylvania and New York have been tabulated, because from them we can easily understand the state of affairs in the whole Church.

The Report includes 150 churches in Illinois, 427 in Pennsylvania, and 450 in New York—about 1000 churches in all, of which 873 open the service with the singing of "Praise God, from whom all blessings flow," 947 use an invocation, 722 use the Psalter responsively, 494 use the Lord's Prayer, 51 use the Ten Commandments, 908 regularly have an offering, 683 sing an anthem, and 985 close with the Benediction.

A bewildering variety prevails in the arrangement of the different parts of the service. It is evidently difficult for the stranger within the gates of one of these Presbyterian churches to know when to rise up and when to sit down. To meet this difficulty the orders of service are usually printed from week to week, in the form of a time-table, and distributed in the pews on Sunday. The expense of this printing, the rustling of these papers, and the confusing variations of these services might be avoided (at least for a considerable number of churches,) if a book could be prepared that would embody the different parts of worship in common use, arranging them in a logical order which would be generally acceptable, and leaving a reasonable freedom of choice in regard to certain elements of the service. At the same time the book would not in any way interfere with those churches which still preferred to print a separate order of service. It seems perfectly clear to your Committee that such a book is greatly needed at the present time. In our judgment there is no reason why it should not be prepared and offered to the Church. We have therefore felt encouraged to go forward with the second part of the task which you have committed to us.

II. The preparation of "a Book of Simple Forms and Services, which shall be proper and helpful for voluntary use in Presbyterian Churches in the celebration of the Sacraments, in marriages and funerals, and in the conduct of public worship."

In entering upon this task we were careful to follow the guidance of the Assembly's resolution in regard to the method and purpose of our work. The positive instructions given to us embrace three points:

(1) We are "to draw from the Holy Scriptures and the usage of the Reformed Churches" in the preparation of the forms of service. Here we find not only a guide for the spirit and manner of our work, but also a rich treasure-house of materials lying ready to our hand.

The doctrine of the Reformed Churches in regard to worship has always been distinctively Scriptural. Our Catechism teaches that the Scripture "forbids the worshiping of God by images, or in any other way not appointed in His Word" (Shorter Catechism, 51). The Confession of Faith, while conceding that "there are some circumstances concerning the worship of God . . . . which are to be ordered by the light of nature and Christian prudence," insists at the same time that this should be done "according to the general rules of the Word, which are always to be observed" (Confession, I, 6).

We turn, then, to the Bible to learn what are the proper parts of common worship, there recognized and appointed. We find clear warrant for certain great features of divine service by assembled worshipers.

The singing of praise, either with or without the accompaniment of instrumental music (Eph. v. 19; Col. iii. 16; Ps. xxxiii. 2–3, lxxxi. 1–2).

The offering of prayer, either in set forms or in free utterance (Deut. xxvi. 5–15; Matt. vi. 9; 1 Kings viii. 22–53; Acts xx. 36).

The repetition of sentences of adoration, thanksgiving, or supplication, either in unison or responsively, and the consent of the people in prayer or praise by the audible Amen (Acts iv. 24; The Psalms, passim, cvi. 48; 1 Chron. xvi).

The reading of Holy Scripture (Deut. xxxi. 10; Jer. xxxvi. 8; Col. iv. 16; Luke iv. 16).

The public confession of faith in God and Christ (1 Kings viii. 33; Luke xii. 8; 1 Tim. vi. 12; Heb. x. 23).

The bringing of offerings to God for His service (1 Cor. xvi. 1–4).

The preaching of the Word (Neh. viii. 8; Acts xxviii. 23, xx. 7; Luke iv. 21–22).

The pronouncing of a blessing upon the people in the name of God (1 Kings viii. 14; 2 Cor. xiii. 14).

The Sacraments of Baptism and the Lord's Supper.

Here we have the great and permanent elements of Christian Worship; and out of these elements, with due allowance for the minor circumstances "which are to be ordered by the light of nature and Christian prudence," we are to prepare our book of forms and services according to the usage of the Reformed Churches.

Turning to the records of that usage, past and present, in England, Scotland, Switzerland, Holland, France, Germany and America, we find a vast and precious store of forms, rich in sacred associations, breathing the spirit of perennial devotion—prayers and praises uttered in the language of Holy Scripture, or compiled from the service-books of primitive Christianity, or composed by the fathers of the Reformation and other men of like faith under the guidance of the Holy Spirit. These treasures of the devout congregation, these memorials of saintly fellowship and communion, are ours to use. This example of free harmony and orderly liberty in the service of the sanctuary is ours to follow. Under such influences, and in spiritual regions so abundantly filled with all manner of things that are pure and lovely, and of good report, your Committee have labored with inward joy and a deepening sense of the rich inheritance of the Church to which we belong. We have had no temptation nor desire to wander into strange territories or to follow unfamiliar guides. And we are confident that from such great wealth of precious things, too long forgotten and too little used, it must be possible to bring back something which will be profitable and helpful to many of our churches.

(2) We are instructed also "to embody sound doctrine in the language of orderly devotion." The importance of this injunction has impressed us greatly. The manner in which the services of religion are conducted has an immense, unconscious, and continual influence upon the vital elements of belief in the hearts of the worshipers. The great truths and historic facts of Christianity may be expressed in statements of doctrine; but unless they come to expression also in the common exercises of devotion, they are almost certain to sink out of the living consciousness of the Church. It is true that the language of devotion is different from the language of definition. It is simpler, warmer, less intellectual and more emotional. It falls naturally into an utterance reflecting the deep colors of experience, and moving rhythmically under the impulses of the quickened heart. But the facts which enter into this experience, and the truths which quicken the heart to penitence, prayer, and praise, are none other than those which enter into the body of the faith. Devotion, in order to be sincere and helpful, must translate the elements of our belief into the music of confession and petition, adoration and thanksgiving, intercession and benediction, joyful vow and solemn sacrament.

Consider how necessary it is that the Sacraments of Baptism and the Lord's Supper should be administered in forms which will always remind the participants of the true meaning of these "outward and sensible signs of inward and spiritual grace" (Larger Catechism, 163). How can we hope to keep alive the interest and faith of the people who follow the Presbyterian order in these sealing ordinances, unless we use a service in which the faith of our Church is embodied? Services arranged under merely æsthetic influences, to gratify the craving for outward beauty,—services carelessly conducted, under the impulse of varying moods and altogether at the mercy of circumstances,—may easily bring the Sacraments, on the one hand, into neglect and contempt; or, on the other hand, into an artificial and superstitious method of observance.

The same thing is true of the parts of common worship on the Lord's Day. Take, for example, the public Confession of Sin, which our Directory for Worship enjoins. It is the faith of our Church that sin is not a mere mistake, a chance error, an occasional wandering from the right way, but the fruit of a sinful nature which is in us all. This belief is fundamental to our conception of Christian doctrine. Unless it is to die out of our religious life it must find expression in our worship. In a Church like ours Confession of Sin must include, at some time, in some place in the great service of the Lord's Day, a clear utterance of the deepened penitence which comes from the sense of a sinful nature, and of our absolute dependence upon the grace of God in Christ for our salvation.

Thus we have felt as a Committee the responsibility of the task laid upon us; and we have tried faithfully to perform it in a way which shall be true at all points to the faith which is sincerely held by the disciples of Christ in the Presbyterian Church.

(3) We are further instructed to keep ever in mind in all our work "the end of Presbyterian worship, which is that all the people should join in the service of God as He is revealed in Jesus Christ."

The needs, the convenience, the natural and reasonable preferences of the people, in matters where there is room for choice in method and arrangement—these are the things to be remembered, if an order of service is to be prepared for worship which is designed to be popular, in the right sense of the word. A service, however bare, which is adapted to the use of the minister and choir only, answering one to the other in antiphonal grandeur, though it may have prevailed for a season in many of our churches, does not in our judgment promote the end of Presbyterian worship.

In regard to the forms for the Sacraments and for marriages and funerals, there will be little opportunity for variations. But in the longer forms, especially those for morning and evening service on the Lord's Day, it is most desirable that the people should have, first, a more general agreement in regard to the parts of the service, and their order, and, second, as much freedom of choice as possible in regard to the material of the different parts. Of course, the whole matter is optional; there is no compulsion or restriction; on the title-page of any book to be prepared there must stand (in our judgment) the words "For Voluntary Use in Presbyterian Churches." But over and above this general rubric we feel that there is need of considerable opportunity for variations, in different congregations and on particular occasions, in any form of service which is to be generally acceptable; and this liberty should be expressed, where it is possible, within the service itself.

Unity in the broad outline of the common worship; agreement upon certain simple and universal elements of the service, like the Psalter and the Lord's Prayer and the Creed, which are already part of the standards of our Church; liberty within the broad outline to vary the use of certain forms, the place of certain hymns, the time of the offering, and so on; order without monotony; variety without confusion—these are the features that we have sought to bring into our work, in the hope of preparing a book which might really help the people to join in the service.

It will be seen that such a programme involves a great deal of labor. To make a book merely to suit our own personal tastes would have been easy. But this was not what we wanted to do. Our desire was to make a book which would suit others, and which would be serviceable for actual use, at least in a great many churches, if not in all.

A collection of books containing the material most likely to be of use was put in the hands of each member of the Committee. We divided the Committee into three Subcommittees, assigning to each the duty of making a first draft of certain services. When a Subcommittee had finished the first draft of a service, it was presented to the General Committee, which has held five meetings during the past year, each of them occupying two entire days. The work of the Subcommittees was subjected to the most minute and searching criticism. Word by word and line by line it was gone over. The members of the Committee, representing different sections of the country and different points of view, had no diffidence in expressing their judgments. Many of the forms were sifted and revised five or six times. The work was sometimes exasperating, often exhausting, always profitable.

The abundance of the material increased the difficulty of choice. It was not possible to include all of the beautiful prayers which have become familiar in different parts of the Church. We had to content ourselves with a selection of those which seemed to be best, and most fitted for use in churches of our own faith and order.

We found it necessary also, in some cases, to abbreviate or to amend certain forms, in order to bring them into closer harmony with the living faith and the practical needs of our churches. For example, the spirit of missions, the evangelistic impulse, the interest in civic and social welfare and temperance, the desire for the triumph of the kingdom of Christ, demanded a clearer and stronger expression than we could find in the historic liturgies. It is to be added that "Prayers for our Country," as we found them, were evidently adaptations of ancient prayers in which a fundamental distinction between "the rulers" and "the people" was taken for granted. It seemed to us needful to write new prayers recognizing God's goodness to our country in establishing the commonwealth according to the people's will and giving us officers whose authority is a public trust. Adaptations of this character are vital: and in our judgment necessary to express the true spirit of the Presbyterian Church.

Suggestions which came to us from many parts of the Church were gratefully received and thoughtfully considered. In many cases they were most valuable. To give a small illustration: it was pointed out to us that the proportion of prayers beginning with the address "Almighty God" was too large: the words became monotonous: they emphasized unduly a single attribute of the divine nature. The changes necessary to correct this fault have been made. We were asked also to add a number of prayers suitable for use in Family Worship; and to prepare a Brief Form which could be used by a company of Christians desiring to worship together where there was no church service or no minister present. Both of these additions seemed to us likely to be useful, and they have been made.

Thus we have labored, slowly, carefully, even painfully, at the task committed to us. Owing to circumstances it has been impossible for the Subcommittee entrusted with the first draft of the Forms for the Ordination and Installation of Ruling Elders and Deacons, the Licensing a Candidate to Preach the Gospel, the Laying of the Corner stone and Dedication of a Church, and of a Litany, to complete its work in time for revision by the General Committee. These forms are therefore omitted for the present; but, if it be your will, they can be added, and inserted at the proper places, without deranging the order of the work already done. The Psalter, also, will have to be inserted; and the Committee favor doing this in the form in which it is now given in The Hymnal, with a few additions. With these exceptions, the book which is now printed (not published) as a part of this Report, and submitted for your consideration and approval, is sufficiently complete to enable you to judge of it and pass upon it as a whole. It contains Forms and Services for the following occasions:

Morning and Evening Worship on the Lord's Day.

Public Worship on Land or Sea (where there are no regular Church Ordinances).

The Lord's Supper.

The Baptism of Infants.

The Baptism of Adults.

The Reception of those Baptized in Infancy to the Lord's Supper.

The Solemnization of Marriage.

The Burial of the Dead.

The Ordination of a Minister. And a

Treasury of Prayers for general and special uses.

Your Committee desire to call attention, by way of illustration, to certain points which may help to make clear the spirit and purpose of the book.

Morning and Evening Services.—There is considerable room for variation within the general order,—as much as is compatible with a practicable unity. The forms as printed suggest an order which seems generally advisable. The rubrics make provision for such modifications as may be desired in any church. In all the prayers it is left to the minister's discretion whether he will use any of the forms given in the book or not. For the "long prayer" in Morning Service a general rubric is given, according to the Directory for Worship, which the minister may follow in his own words, or he may use one or more of the forms which are arranged for his convenience in "The Treasury of Prayers." For the principal prayer in the Evening Service a brief, comprehensive form is given, (less than five minutes long,) which may be used as it stands, or taken as a model.

Sacramental Services.—These services embody, in the addresses, prayers, and rubrics, the instructions given in the Westminster Directory for Worship and the amended Directory for Worship of our own Church. Passages from the Confession of Faith, the Larger Catechism, and John Knox's Book of Common Order are carefully wrought into the service. The faith of the Reformed Church in regard to the Sacraments is expressed in the language of devotion. The Lord's Supper is presented not as a sacrifice offered by a priest, but as our commemoration of Christ's sacrifice offered once for all upon the cross. The oblation of the sacrament is our offering of praise to God for this great gift, and the consecration of ourselves, through Christ, according to the Holy Scripture. The last prayer of the service is a petition for holy living, for the prosperity of the Church, for the success of missions, for the salvation of the lost, and for the heavenly fulfilment of the communion of saints. The faithful and reverent presentation of such thoughts in the Communion Service must tend to make it not only more comforting, but also more strengthening, to all who take part in it.

The Order for the Baptism of Adults is made on similar principles; and it is so arranged that at a certain point it may be combined with the service for the reception of those baptized in infancy to the Communion. Thus the covenant relation of baptized children to the Church is emphasized; and at the same time an orderly method is provided for them to confirm in public the vows made by their parents in their behalf.

The Marriage Service.—The Westminster Directory and our own Directory for Worship, combined and arranged, offer full material for a simple, dignified, beautiful and truthful marriage service. It seemed to the Committee, after long study and careful labor, far better to use this material than to attempt an alteration of the marriage service in the Protestant Episcopal Book of Common Prayer. That service, familiar and in many respects admirable, still remains open for use by all who desire it. But for our own book, it is best to have a service drawn directly from our historic Standards, and closely conformed to the teaching of Scripture in regard to the sacred relation of marriage.

THE TREASURY OF PRAYERS.—In this part of the book some of the rich treasures of Christian devotion are gathered from the records of the past, and arranged in such a form as to make them serviceable to any who may wish to use them in public or private worship. New prayers have been added for occasions and for objects in regard to which the Committee were unable to find existing forms that seemed both true and fitting. In conducting divine worship on special days, such as New Year's Day, Thanksgiving Day, and Christmas, it does not seem needful to have an entirely distinct service. It is better to use the usual order of service with such Scripture readings, psalms, hymns, and prayers as are appropriate to the particular season. The prayers given in the Treasury are not intended to restrict or narrow the free spirit of devotion, but rather to enrich and deepen it.

With these words of comment and explanation we lay before you the work which we have done, to the best of our ability, in obedience to the instructions of the General Assembly. We beg you to remember the extreme difficulty and delicacy of the task laid upon us; the impossibility of following individual tastes and local customs; the necessity of giving up personal preferences, (which the Committee itself has experienced in its deliberations,) in order to reach a common ground of unity; the futility of attempting to do such work as this hastily or by extemporaneous suggestion; and finally, the great desirableness of a book which shall have the prime qualities of general usefulness and practicability. We ask you to read with care the forms and services here presented, in the light of what has been said about their aim and purpose and the method of their preparation. And then, if you find them proper and helpful, we ask you to approve them "for voluntary use in Presbyterian churches."

The Standing Committee on Temperance, through its Chairman, Rev. William C. Alexander, D.D., presented its Report, which was accepted, and after addresses by the Chairman, Mr. William C. Lilley, Chairman of the Permanent Committee, Prof. Charles Scanlon, Field Secretary, and others, was amended, and adopted. It is as follows:

* Since the Report was signed, one of the Committee, the Rev. Douglas P. Putnam, D.D., has been removed by death. Feeling deeply, as they must this sundering of their fellowship with one who brought to every meeting the encouragement of his deep interest in the work and the helpfulness of his wise counsel, the Committee must also rejoice that he was spared until the work had so nearly reached its completion, and that he expressed his most cordial approval of all the Forms and Services herewith presented and his hearty concurrence in this Report.

Your Committee on Temperance has examined the Report of the Permanent Committee, and they find in it many things to commend and calculated to encourage those who are devoting themselves to work along this line.

We observe, first, a marked advance in the amount of money contributed to this object, the sum of $5785.98 having come into its treasury during the past year, a sum more than double that contributed in any one year since the existence of the Committee.

This amount has enabled the Committee to carry out the recommendation of the last General Assembly in maintaining temperance missionaries. In the line of this work two men have been employed. One of them, Rev. R. W. Holman, is a colored man seeking to effect the emancipation of his colored brethren from the awful thraldom of drink. A fine tribute has come to the Committee of the results of this work in the assurance of deeper interest among the colored people of the South, and a plea for continued effort in this direction by a member of the Committee from that locality.

The Committee has, in addition to this, employed Prof. Charles Scanlon, of the Presbytery of Minneapolis, and late of McAlester College, as Field Secretary, who has proven himself to be the right man in the right place, he having appeared before a number of Synods and in many of our churches with great acceptance.

Much literature has been sent out. Two new tracts have been added to the list formerly printed, and nearly 3,000,000 pages circulated at no cost to those receiving the same.

There has been hearty coöperation with other agencies working along the same lines of seeking to secure prohibition of the sale of liquor in the new Territories which were so vigorously asking to be admitted to Statehood. Owing to the failure of the bills admitting these Territories as States, nothing permanent was accomplished in this direction. No legislation of a national character was passed last year bearing on the temperance work, unless the appropriation of $1,833,500 for the extension and equipment of recreation homes in lieu of the canteen be so designated.

The Committee has aided in preventing a license of the opium traffic in Manila. The traffic on the islands is to be wholly banished after three years. In regard to the opium traffic in China, your Committee has labored with other workers to secure its abolishment, and have the assurance of the Secretary of State that he would call the attention of the President to the matter when the readjustment of treaties comes up at the close of the Russo-Japanese war.

It has been very difficult to gather reliable data to form a narrative of work, owing to neglect of Presbyterial Chairmen to fill out blanks.

The reports received during the past year, while less in number, show the work has been carried on in all sections of the land, and that literature is much needed in foreign languages to meet the demand among our foreign populations.

Temperance Day has been growing in favor, and is more largely observed and more pledges have been signed than formerly. Some progress has been made in the way of appointment of Temperance Committees in local churches.

As a result of correspondence with other bodies, two sister denominations have been influenced to adopt lines of work similar to that of our Permanent Committee. Recognition should be taken of the hard work done by the Chairman and Treasurer, giving much valuable time to the work, and cheerfully offering it all to the Church.

Much has been done in the way of securing the exclusion of certain liquor advertisements from leading magazines.

Much advance is to be noted in the way of improved scientific instruction in public schools, and the Committee append a Supplementary Report as a result of the work of five gentlemen who consented to act in conjunction with those who already constitute the Advisory Board of Scientific Temperance Investigation. It is noteworthy that the temperance cause has made great gain in the Southland.

If we are looking for dark things they can be found, but in this great work there are signs of the times which speak of progress. But very much yet remains to be done. If a great revival of evangelism should sweep over our country as it has in Wales, we should no doubt find many saloons closing their doors, as they have beyond the sea, for want of patrons. We feel that the General Assembly should heartily approve all means and measures tending to the working out of this greatly to be desired consummation. There are ample indications of an increase of interest in this great work and an urgent demand that a decided vigorous step forward be taken in the work by our Church.

We therefore recommend as follows:

1. That the General Assembly authorize its Permanent Committee on Temperance to address a memorial to the President, asking that by diplomatic communication with the British Government, our Government exert its influence toward securing for China release from the British opium treaty.

2. That an earnest protest be made against the great injustice done by the Federal Government in permitting the Federal tax receipt to be issued to persons engaged in the illicit sale of alcoholic liquors in prohibition States and communities; also against such Interstate Commerce regulations as permit the importing of liquors into prohibition States or local option districts, thus defeating the expressed will of the people.

3. That the General Assembly recommend again the observance of a Temperance Day on the third Sabbath of October, or at such other date as may be found most convenient.

4. That the Permanent Committee on Temperance may receive a share of miscellaneous or undesignated offerings wherever possible equal to one per cent. of the whole amount.

5. That the General Assembly instruct its Permanent Committee to coöperate with other bodies in petitioning Congress to prohibit liquor selling in all Government buildings and upon all Government premises, and also on all ships of the navy, where it is now excluded only by an order of a former Secretary.

6. That we ask the General Assembly to make requisition on its Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work for printed matter for the use of its Permanent Committee on Temperance to the value of $1000 (see charter of the Committee).

7. That the Permanent Committee be empowered to coöperate with other bodies to secure such legislation as will make it a penal offense to prepare or offer for sale any patent or proprietary medicines without a label attached on which shall be plainly printed the percentage of alcohol in said medicine.

8. That the Stated Clerk be instructed to confer with the Committee as to the insertion of a column in the Minutes of the General Assembly for the contributions to the Assembly's Permanent Committee on Temperance; and that the churches be called upon to make annual contributions to the same.

9. That the terms of service of the following members of the Permanent Committee having expired, viz., Rev. J. P. Calhoun, D.D., Rev. A. R. Van Fossan, Mr. R. V. Johnson, and Paul H. Gaither, Esq., it is recommended that the first three above named be elected to succeed themselves, and that Mr. Robert A. McKinney be elected to succeed Mr. Gaither, who desires to be excused from further service.

10. That the Assembly urges the management of our educational institutions to discourage, and as far as practicable to prohibit, the use of liquor by their students and at all social functions.

11. That the General Assembly instruct its Committee to coöperate in securing the passage of a bill similar to what was known as the "Gallinger-Stone amendment," passed by the United States Senate when the bill for Statehood for Oklahoma and other Territories shall come before that body.

12. That the Permanent Committee be instructed to send the deliverances of the General Assembly on Temperance to all the churches.

13. That the Permanent Committee on Temperance be recommended to the churches for not less than $10,000 for the work of the coming year.

14. That after having carefully examined the books and papers of the Treasurer and Secretary of the Permanent Committee on Temperance, which we find well kept and plainly written, we recommend their approval, and the adoption of their Report to the General Assembly.

A communication with reference to the appointment of a Presbyterian Woman's Committee on Temperance having been received, after due consideration it seemed best to the Committee to suggest no action, on the ground that the Permanent Committee on Temperance is not a Board of the Church, and therefore the way is not at present open for the appointment of such a Committee.

15. That the Permanent Committee be permitted to name twenty-four persons throughout the various Synods who shall be Advisory Members of the Committee.

16. That we deprecate the policy wherever in existence in the administration at colleges or universities which permits undergraduates to drink intoxicating liquor at any place of resort.

Overture No. 69, from the Presbytery of Mahoning, was referred to your Committee. We would report and recommend no action.

Respectfully submitted in behalf of the Committee,

WILLIAM C. ALEXANDER, Chairman.

The following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That this Assembly discourages the use of tobacco in all forms, and especially the manufacture and sale of cigarettes.

The Moderator announced the following Committee to confer with the Presbytery of Washington City concerning the erection of a Presbyterian church building suitable to conditions at the National Capital: Justice John M. Harlan, Chairman; Ministers—Francis L. Patton, D.D., Henry C. Minton, D.D., John Balcom Shaw, D.D.; Ruling Elders—John S. Kennedy and John H. Converse, LL.D.

The Report of the Special Committee on Judicial Commissions was made the first Order of the Day for to-morrow morning.

The Report of the Committee of Canvass on the Vote of the Presbyteries on the Overtures on Judicial Commissions was made the second Order.

The Reports of the Committees on Synodical Records were made the third Order.

The Supplementary Report of the Committee on Colleges was made the fourth Order.

It was Ordered, That a Committee of five ministers and two elders be appointed to consider the advisability of reframing the Statistical Tables in the Minutes.

The Assembly adjourned until 8.30 o'clock to-morrow morning, and was closed with prayer.

As additional members of the Special Committee on Forms and Services: Ministers—James H. Snowden, D.D., William B. Jennings, D.D., W. Robson Notman, D.D., William R. Taylor, D.D., and in place of Douglas P. Putnam, D.D., deceased, John Clark Hill, D.D. The Moderator was also added to this Committee by order of the Assembly.

The Committee of Canvass on Overture No. 1, sent down by the Assembly of 1904, presented its Report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

The Committee of Canvass on Overture No. 1, sent down by the Assembly of 1904, respectfully reports as follows:

The text of the Overture reads:

Overture No. 1.—(a) Shall Chapter xiii of the Book of Discipline, entitled "Of Judicial Commissions," so far as it applies to Judicial Commissions of Presbyteries and Synods, be changed to read as follows:

I. CONCERNING JUDICIAL CASES IN PRESBYTERIES AND SYNODS.

118. A Presbytery or a Synod may elect from the ministers and ruling elders subject to its jurisdiction a Judicial Commission, which shall be composed of not less than seven members for a Presbytery and not less than eleven for a Synod, a majority of which members shall be ministers. The electing judicatory may transmit to such Commission any judicial case for hearing and decision.

119. The Commission shall elect from its members a Moderator and a Clerk; and, in the case transmitted to it, shall have the powers prescribed by, and conduct its proceedings according to, the Constitution and rules governing the trial of such cases before the electing judicatory, to which, also, it shall make a report.

120. The quorum of the Commission shall consist of not less than two-thirds of the members elected to it, provided that at least one-half the quorum shall be ministers.

121. The meetings of the Commission shall be held at such times and places as the electing judicatory shall direct; or if no directions shall be given, then at such times and places as the Commission shall determine.

122. The decision of the Commission, sitting in any case at the same time as the electing judicatory, shall be promptly reported to the judicatory, and shall, from the time of the rendering of the report, be held to be the final judgment of the judicatory. The decision of the Commission, sitting in any case during an interval between the meetings of the electing judicatory, shall, from the time of the announcement of the decision, be held to be the final judgment of the judicatory.

123. The Clerk of the Commission shall keep a full and correct record of the proceedings and decision of the Commission; shall with the Moderator certify in writing such record to be full and correct; and shall forthwith transmit a certified copy of the decision to each party in the case, and file the certified record with the Stated Clerk of the electing judicatory.

124. The Stated Clerk of the electing judicatory, upon the request of the Commission in any case, or upon its failure to report the certified record of such case when called for by the judicatory, shall forthwith report the certified record to the judicatory; and shall preserve it as a part of the records of the same, and shall include it in the records sent up to the next superior judicatory for review.

(b) In addition, and as a part of Overture No. 1, shall Chapter ix of the Book of Discipline be amended by adding at the close of Section 94, pertaining to Appeals, the following provision, to wit:

When a judicial case has been decided by a Judicial Commission of an inferior judicatory, sitting during an interval between the meetings of the electing judicatory, an appeal from the judgment of such Commission may be taken and prosecuted before a superior judicatory, in the same manner as if the judgment had been rendered by the judicatory.

(c) In addition, and as a part of Overture No. 1, shall Chapter x of the Book of Discipline, pertaining to Dissents and Protests, be amended by striking out in Section 107 the phrase "under the provisions of Section 120 of this Book," and by adding at the close of Section 107 the following provisions, to wit:

And provided, that when a judicial case has been decided by a Judicial Commission, sitting during an interval between the meetings of the electing judicatory, any member of such judicatory or of the Commission may, within ten days after the rendering of the judgment by the Commission, file his dissent from or protest against the judgment with the Clerk of the Commission; and the Commission or any member thereof may, within twenty days after the rendering of the judgment, similarly file an answer to any protest; and the Clerk of the Commission shall enter upon the record all dissents, protests and answers, or shall forward the same to the Stated Clerk of the electing judicatory to be so entered by him.

Section 107 would then read as follows:

107. No one shall be allowed to dissent or protest who has not a right to vote on the question decided; and in judicial cases no one shall be allowed to dissent or protest who did not vote against the decision; provided, that when a judicial case has been decided by a Judicial Commission, any member of the judicatory to which the decision is reported may enter his dissent or protest or his answer to any protest, in the same manner as if the case had been tried before the judicatory itself and he had voted thereon; and provided, that when a judicial case has been decided by a Judicial Commission, sitting during an interval between the meetings of the electing judicatory, any member of such judicatory or of the Commission may, within ten days after the rendering of the judgment by the Commission, file his dissent from or protest against the judgment with the Clerk of the Commission; and the Commission or any member thereof may, within twenty days after the rendering of the judgment, similarly file an answer to any protest; and the Clerk of the Commission shall enter upon the record all dissents, protests and answers, or shall forward the same to the Stated Clerk of the electing judicatory to be so entered by him.

The vote of the Presbyteries is as follows:

Affirmative: Aberdeen, Albany, Allegheny, Arizona, Atlantic, Austin, Benicia, Birmingham, Bismarck, Blairsville, Bloomington, Boisé, Boston, Box Butte, Brooklyn, Buffalo, Butler, Cairo, Canadian, Carlisle, Catawba, Cayuga, Cedar Rapids, Central Dakota, Chemung, Chester, Chicago, Chippewa, Choctaw, Cimarron, Cincinnati, Cleveland, Columbia, Columbus, Corisco, Corning, Council Bluffs, Crawfordsville, Dakota (Indian), Denver, Des Moines, Detroit, Dubuque, Duluth, East Florida, Ebenezer, Elizabeth, Emporia, Erie, Fairfield, Fargo, Flint, Fort Dodge, Fort Wayne, Freeport, French Broad, Genesee, Grafton, Grand Rapids, Grande Ronde, Great Falls, Hainan, Hangchow, Hastings, Havana, Helena, Hodge, Holston, Hudson, Huntingdon, Iowa, Iowa City, Jersey City, Kalamazoo, Kansas City, Kearney, Kendall, Kiamichi, Kingston, Kittanning, Lackawanna, La Crosse, Lansing, Larned, Lehigh, Lima, Logansport, Long Island, Los Angeles, Louisville, Lyons, Madison, Mahoning, Manila, Mankato, Marion, Mattoon, Maumee, Milwaukee, Minneapolis, Minnewaukon, Monmouth, Monroe, Morris and Orange, Muncie, Nassau, Nebraska City, Neosho, New Albany, Newark, New Brunswick, New Castle, Newton, New York, Niagara, Ningpo, Niobrara, North River, North Texas, Northumberland, Oakes, Oakland, Oklahoma, Osborne, Otsego, Ottawa, Ozark, Parkersburg, Peking, Pendleton, Peoria, Petoskey, Philadelphia, Philadelphia North, Pittsburgh, Platte, Portland, Porto Rico, Puget Sound, Riverside, Rock River, Sacramento, Saginaw, St. Clairsville, St. Lawrence, St. Paul, San Francisco, San José, Santa Barbara, Santa Fé, Sequoyah, Shanghai, Sioux City, Solomon, Southern Dakota, Southern Oregon, Southern Virginia, Spokane, Springfield, Steubenville, Stockton, Syracuse, Topeka, Trinity, Troy, Union, Utah, Utica, Walla Walla, Washington, Washington City, Washita, Waterloo, Weihsien, Wellsborough, Westchester, West Jersey, Westminster, Wheeling, White River, White Water, Willamette, Wooster, Yadkin—184.

The following Presbyteries voted in the negative: Adams, Alton, Athens, Baltimore, Bellefontaine, Binghamton, Black Hills, Boulder, Butte, Cape Fear, Central Washington, Champlain, Chillicothe, Clarion, Dayton, Gunnison, Hannibal, Highland, Huron, Indianapolis, Knox, Lake Superior, McClelland, Mouse River, Olympia, Omaha, Pembina, Pueblo, Red River, Redstone, Rochester, St. Cloud, Schuyler, Shenango, South Florida, Steuben, Transylvania, Vincennes, Winnebago, Winona, Wyoming, Zanesville —42.

The following Presbyteries report "No action": Canton, Eastern Persia, Geneva, Portsmouth, Rio Grande, St. Louis, Shantung, Siam—8.

There have been no answers received from the following: Alaska, Chile, Chinan, Nanking, North Laos, Western Africa, Yukon—7.

The total number of Presbyteries is 241, and the provision of Chapter 24 of the Form of Government, Section i, requires that a majority of all the Presbyteries approve in writing of amendments or alterations of the Form of Government. A majority of the Presbyteries is 121, and inasmuch as 184 Presbyteries have voted in the affirmative the Overture has been adopted, and it is the duty of the Moderator to make due declaration of the fact in the following terms, viz.: I hereby declare that Overture No. 1, sent down by the Assembly of 1904 to the Presbyteries, being an amendment to Chapter xiii, Chapter ix and Chapter x of the Book of Discipline, and found in the Minutes of the Assembly of 1904, pages 169–171, has been constitutionally adopted as an amendment to the Book of Discipline, and is now a part of the Constitution of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN F. PATTERSON, Chairman.

The Moderator announced that Overture No. 1, on Judicial Commissions, sent down by the Assembly of 1904, had been constitutionally adopted.

The Committee of Canvass on Overture No. 2, sent down by the Assembly of 1904, presented its Report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

The Committee of Canvass on Overture No. 2, sent down by the Assembly of 1904, respectfully reports as follows:

The text of the Overture reads:

Overture No. 2.—Shall Chapter xiii of the Book of Discipline, entitled "Of Judicial Commissions," so far as it applies to Judicial Commissions of the General Assembly, be changed to read as follows:

II. CONCERNING JUDICIAL CASES IN THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

125. The General Assembly shall elect a Commission, which shall be called "The Permanent Judicial Commission of the General Assembly," and shall be composed of eight ministers and seven ruling elders, of whom not more than two shall belong to the same Synod. At the first election fifteen persons shall be elected, five to serve for one year, five for two years, and five for three years, and thereafter five persons shall be elected annually to serve for three years. The terms of the members of the Commission shall begin with the close of the General Assembly at which they are elected. No person having served a full term shall be eligible for reëlection to the term next ensuing. Any vacancy may be filled by the General Assembly at any meeting thereof by the election of a person for the unexpired term. The General Assembly may transmit to this Commission any judicial case for hearing and decision.

126. The Commission shall annually elect from its members a Moderator and a Clerk, and, in the cases transmitted to it, shall have the powers prescribed by, and conduct its proceedings according to, the Constitution and rules governing the trial of such cases before the General Assembly, to which, also, it shall make reports.

127. The quorum of the Commission shall consist of not less than eleven members, of whom at least six shall be ministers.

128. The meetings of the Commission shall be held at such times and places as the General Assembly shall direct, or, if no directions shall be given, then at such times and places as the Commission shall determine.

129. The decision of the Commission in any case shall be held to be the preliminary judgment in that case, and shall be binding upon each party therein until the date of the final judgment of the General Assembly; provided, that the General Assembly may modify or suspend the preliminary judgment in any case remitted by it for further hearing.

130. The Clerk of the Commission shall keep a full and correct record of the proceedings and preliminary judgment of the Commission in each case transmitted to it; shall with the Moderator certify in writing such record to be full and correct; and shall forthwith transmit a certified copy of the preliminary judgment to each party in the case, and file the certified record with the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly.

131. The Stated Clerk of the General Assembly, upon the request of the Commission or upon its failure to report the certified record of any case when called for by the General Assembly, shall forthwith report the certified record to the General Assembly, and shall preserve it as a part of the records of the same.

132. The preliminary judgment in any case may be reviewed by the General Assembly to which it has been reported, and may be affirmed, reversed, modified, suspended or remitted for further hearing. On such review, if the case be not remitted, the decision of the General Assembly shall be held to be its final judgment. If the case be not reviewed by the General Assembly to which it has been reported, or if it be reviewed and no decision be reached, then at the dissolving of the same the preliminary judgment of the Permanent Judicial Commission shall be held to be the final judgment of the General Assembly.

133. The necessary expenses of the Commission shall be provided for by the General Assembly.

The vote of the Presbyteries is as follows:

Affirmative: Aberdeen, Albany, Allegheny, Arizona, Atlantic, Austin, Benicia, Birmingham, Bismarck, Blairsville, Bloomington, Boisé, Box Butte, Brooklyn, Butler, Cairo, Canadian, Carlisle, Catawba, Cayuga, Cedar Rapids, Chemung, Chester, Chicago, Choctaw, Cimarron, Columbus, Corisco, Corning, Council Bluffs, Crawfordsville, Dakota (Indian), Denver, Des Moines, Detroit, Duluth, East Florida, Ebenezer, Elizabeth, Emporia, Fairfield, Fargo, Flint, Fort Dodge, Fort Wayne, Freeport, French Broad, Genesee, Grafton, Grand Rapids, Great Falls, Hainan, Hangchow, Hastings, Havana, Helena, Hodge, Holston, Huntingdon, Iowa City, Jersey City, Kalamazoo, Kansas City, Kendall, Kiamichi, Kingston, Lackawanna, Lake Superior, Lansing, Larned, Lima, Logansport, Los Angeles, Louisville, Lyons, Madison, Mahoning, Manila, Mankato, Marion, Mattoon, Maumee, Milwaukee, Minnewaukon, Monmouth, Morris and Orange, Muncie, Nassau, New Albany, Newark, New Brunswick, New Castle, Newton, Niagara, Ningpo, Niobrara, North River, North Texas, Northumberland, Oakes, Oakland, Oklahoma, Otsego, Ottawa, Ozark, Parkersburg, Peking, Pendleton, Peoria, Petoskey, Philadelphia, Philadelphia North, Pittsburgh, Platte, Portland, Porto Rico, Pueblo, Puget Sound, Red River, Riverside, Sacramento, Saginaw, St. Clairsville, St. Paul, San Francisco, San José, Santa Barbara, Santa Fé, Sequoyah, Shanghai, Sioux City, Solomon, Southern Dakota, Southern Virginia, Spokane, Steuben, Steubenville, Stockton, Trinity, Troy, Union, Utah, Utica, Walla Walla, Washington, Washington City, Washita, Waterloo, Weihsien, Wellsborough, Westchester, West Jersey, Wheeling, White River, White Water, Willamette, Wooster, Yadkin, Zanesville.—159.

The total number of Presbyteries is 241, and the provision of Chapter 24 of the Form of Government, Section i, requires that a majority of all the Presbyteries approve in writing of amendments or alterations of the Form of Government. A majority of the Presbyteries is 121, and inasmuch as 159 Presbyteries have voted in the affirmative, the Overture has been adopted, and it is the duty of the Moderator to make due declaration of the fact in the following terms, viz.: I hereby declare that Overture No. 2, sent down by the Assembly of 1904 to the Presbyteries, being an amendment to Chapter xiii of the Book of Discipline, and found in the Minutes of the Assembly of 1904, pages 171–173, has been constitutionally adopted as an amendment to the Book of Discipline, and is now a part of the Constitution of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN F. PATTERSON, Chairman.

The Moderator announced that Overture No. 2, on Judicial Commissions, sent down by the Assembly of 1904, had been constitutionally adopted.

The Committee of Canvass on Overture No. 3, sent down by the Assembly of 1904, presented its Report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

The Committee of Canvass on Overture No. 3, sent down by the Assembly of 1904, respectfully reports as follows:

The text of the Overture reads:

Overture No. 3.—(a) Shall the following provisions be added to Chapter xiii of the Book of Discipline, entitled "Of Judicial Commissions," to wit:

III. CONCERNING NON-JUDICIAL OR ADMINISTRATIVE CASES AND REFERENCES.

134. A Presbytery or a Synod may transmit to any Judicial Commission elected by it any non-judicial or administrative case founded on complaint, or any reference, or any case arising under Chapter xiv of the Book of Discipline, entitled "Of Differences between Judicatories," with such powers as the transmitting judicatory shall confer upon the Commission.

(b) In addition, and as a part of Overture No. 3, Shall Chapter x, Section viii of the Form of Government, pertaining to the Presbytery, be amended to read as follows:

VIII. The Presbytery has power to receive and issue all appeals, complaints and references that are regularly brought before it from church Sessions, provided, that cases may be transmitted to Judicial Commissions as prescribed in the Book of Discipline; to examine and license candidates for the holy ministry; to ordain, install, remove and judge ministers; to examine and to approve or censure the records of church Sessions; to resolve questions of doctrine or discipline seriously and reasonably proposed; to condemn erroneous opinions which injure the purity or peace of the Church; to visit particular churches for the purpose of inquiring into their state and repressing the evils that may have arisen in them; to unite or divide congregations, at the request of the people, or to form or receive new congregations; and, in general, to order whatever pertains to the spiritual welfare of the churches under their care.

(c) In addition, and as a part of Overture No. 3, Shall Chapter xi, Section iv of the Form of Government, pertaining to the Synod, be amended to read as follows:

IV. The Synod has power to receive and issue all appeals, complaints and references that are regularly brought before it from the Presbyteries, and to decide finally in such cases all questions that do not affect the doctrine or Constitution of the Church, provided, that cases may be transmitted to Judicial Commissions as prescribed in the Book of Discipline; to review the records of Presbyteries and to approve or censure them; to redress whatever has been done by Presbyteries contrary to order; to take effectual care that Presbyteries observe the Constitution of the Church; to erect new Presbyteries and to unite or divide those which were before erected; generally, to take such order with respect to the Presbyteries, Sessions and people under their care as may be in conformity with the Word of God and the established rules and may tend to promote the edification of the Church; and finally, to propose to the General Assembly for its adoption such measures as may be of common advantage to the whole Church.

(d) In addition, and as a part of Overture No. 3, Shall Chapter ix of the Book of Discipline be amended by adding to Section 83, appertaining to Complaints, the following provision, to wit:

When a non-judicial or administrative case has been decided by a Judicial Commission of an inferior judicatory, sitting during an interval between the meetings of such judicatory, a complaint against the decision of the Commission may be entered and prosecuted before a superior judicatory, in the same manner as if the decision had been rendered by the inferior judicatory; and if at least one-third of the members of the Commission recorded as present when the decision was made join in such complaint, the execution of the decision of the Commission shall be stayed until the final issue of the case by the next superior judicatory.

The vote of the Presbyteries is as follows:

Affirmative: Aberdeen, Albany, Allegheny, Arizona, Atlantic, Austin, Benicia, Birmingham, Bismarck, Blairsville, Bloomington,

The text of the Overture reads:

Overture No. 4.—(a) Shall the following provisions be added to Chapter xiii of the Book of Discipline, entitled "Of Judicial Commissions," to wit:

III. CONCERNING NON-JUDICIAL OR ADMINISTRATIVE CASES AND REFERENCES.

135. The General Assembly may transmit to the Permanent Judicial Commission any non-judicial or administrative case founded on a complaint, or any reference, or any case arising under Chapter xiv of the Book of Discipline, entitled "Of Differences between Judicatories," with such powers as the General Assembly shall confer upon the Commission.

(b) In addition, and as a part of Overture No. 4, Shall Chapter xii, Section iv, of the Form of Government, pertaining to the General Assembly, be amended to read as follows:

IV. The General Assembly shall receive and issue all appeals, complaints and references that affect the doctrine or Constitution of the Church, and are regularly brought before it from the inferior judicatories, provided, that cases may be transmitted to the Permanent Judicial Commission of the General Assembly, as prescribed in the Book of Discipline. The General Assembly shall review the records of every Synod and approve or censure them; it shall give its advice and instruction in all cases submitted to it, in conformity with the Constitution of the Church; and it shall constitute the bond of union, peace, correspondence and mutual confidence among all our churches.

authorizing changes in the numbering of the Sections of the Book of Discipline, and found in the Minutes of the Assembly of 1904, page 175, has been constitutionally adopted.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN F. PATTERSON, Chairman.

The Moderator announced that Overture No. 5, on Judicial Commissions, sent down by the Assembly of 1904, had been constitutionally adopted.

The Special Committee on Judicial Commissions, through Rev. Hugh B. MacCauley, D.D., presented its Report, which was accepted and adopted. The Report is as follows:

The Special Committee on Judicial Commissions appointed by the General Assembly of 1903 (see Minutes, 1903, p. 121), and continued by the General Assembly of 1904 (see Minutes, 1904, p. 166), would respectfully present the following Report:

The last General Assembly, upon the recommendation of this Committee, sent down to the Presbyteries five Overtures pertaining to Judicial Commissions, as follows:

(1) Concerning Judicial Cases in Presbyteries and Synods.

(2) Concerning Judicial Cases in the General Assembly.

(3) Concerning Non-judicial or Administrative Cases and References in Presbyteries and Synods.

(4) Concerning Non-judicial or Administrative Cases and References in the General Assembly.

(5) Concerning Editing.

This Committee was continued by the last General Assembly with a twofold object: (1) to continue the effort of improvement, if it should appear that any Overture was lost and the answers of the Presbyteries warranted further effort; and (2) to make a report on related matters to the next Assembly. In order that the Committee might be furnished with the material for forming a decision, the Presbyteries were requested "to forward to the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly their answers to these Overtures on or before February 1, 1905," and this Committee was "instructed to receive from the Stated Clerk a statement of the answers of the Presbyteries to the Overtures sent down."

Many of the Presbyteries did not act upon the Overtures until their stated spring meeting, and accordingly sufficient replies were not in hand by February 1, 1905, to indicate beyond a doubt what was the decision of the Church. Shortly after the time of the stated spring meetings the answers from the Presbyteries showed that all the Overtures were adopted. About that time the Committee took up its work. It was not found necessary for it to hold any meeting. The Subcommittee of three, appointed the preceding year, prepared a preliminary draft of report, and the work was submitted to all the members of the Committee and fully completed by correspondence.

Our Report falls into two sections:

I. Further Effort at Improvement.

In our Report of last year your Committee said: "It is our strong persuasion, now that the question of amendment is again before the Church, that it is very desirable that the movement should be continued until a satisfactory conclusion is reached." This also was the opinion of one of the answering Presbyteries. The Presbytery of New Brunswick, at a very full meeting, in voting affirmatively for all the Overtures, also appended to their answer the following suggestions for the consideration of the Assembly and of your Committee, to wit:

1. To make some arrangement for filling temporarily any vacancy in the membership of the Permanent Judicial Commission that may occur in the interval between two General Assemblies; and,

2. To preserve the right of the General Assembly beyond all question to create, at its own discretion, Special Judicial Commissions as heretofore.

Although no Overture was lost, we felt that the nature of the answer from this Presbytery, in view of its very thorough consideration of the subject, warranted us in making further effort at improvement. We think that both these suggestions would be valuable improvements. They may be considered as pertaining to matters of emergency, which should always be provided for.

1. Vacancies.—In regard to the matter of vacancies, we note that there is a margin of only four between the full membership of the Permanent Judicial Commission and its quorum. It is conceivable that there might occur in the course of a year as many as five vacancies in the Commission, thereby preventing it from transacting any business. This contingency would be easily provided for by authorizing the Moderator of the General Assembly to fill the vacancy by appointment until the next ensuing General Assembly. This, also, is the rule of the General Assembly concerning the filling of a vacancy in any of its Special Committees. We propose an Overture to that effect to be sent down to the Presbyteries.

2. Special Judicial Commissions.—The other suggestion of the Presbytery is still more important, that pertaining to the election of Special Judicial Commissions. Only time and experience will tell just how or when the General Assembly will invoke the aid of the Permanent Judicial Commission. Probably the Commission will be required to meet at the same time as the General Assembly; but when no case is to come before the General Assembly the expense of convening the Commission ought to be avoided.

It is held by some that, according to the Book of Discipline as now amended by the adoption of the Overtures, the General Assembly will have no power, even in emergency, to transmit a case to a Special Judicial Commission. There are others, however, who hold that the General Assembly still has that power, and, indeed, possesses all powers of Church government, except those that are withheld from it by the express language of the Constitution of the Church or by necessary implication in construing that language. Because of this difference of opinion we think it very desirable that all doubt upon the question, so far as the language of the Book of Discipline is concerned, should be removed by an express recognition of the power of the General Assembly to create Special Judicial Commissions. We are further confirmed in our opinion by the fact that the plan thus far adopted does not provide for emergency. A case might be pending before the General Assembly needing to be promptly disposed of, and yet the Permanent Judicial Commission be absent; or the Commission might be present and be unable to adjudicate such case, by reason of some contingency now unforeseen. It must be evident to all that we must provide for emergency. Accordingly, we propose an Overture to be sent down to the Presbyteries. As a part of this Overture we have added the two related changes required in the Book of Discipline and in the Form of Government, so that the vote will affect all the parts that should be considered together.

3. Dissents and Protests.—Under the same head of improvement, but owing to a different cause, we suggest another change. We call the attention of the General Assembly to the fact that the adoption of Overture No. 3 or No. 4 (see Minutes, 1904, pp. 173–174), concerning non-judicial or administrative cases and references, will require, in behalf of simplicity and consistency, a slight change in Section 107 of the Book of Discipline. That section was amended as a part of Overture No. 1 (see Minutes, 1904, p. 171), and belongs to Chapter x of the Book of Discipline, concerning Dissents and Protests. The said Section 107, as it now reads, relates to Dissents and Protests that are connected only with judicial cases before Judicial Commissions. In view of the fact that each of the Overtures Nos. 3 and 4, as adopted, permits the transmission to Judicial Commissions of non-judicial cases and references, it is evident that the scope of Dissents and Protests should now be widened. Accordingly we propose that in Section 107 the word "judicial," where it occurs before the words "case" and "cases," be stricken out.

II. Related Matters.

According to our instructions, we also report upon "related matters." Under this head we submit to the Assembly some rules pertaining to the Permanent Judicial Commission.

1. As the Permanent Judicial Commission is an elective body, it will be necessary to have a rule of the General Assembly concerning nominations and elections. The same would be true if there were any Special Judicial Commission. So we suggest that whatever nominations shall be made by the Commissioners, the Judicial Committee of the General Assembly shall also be charged with the duty of making suitable nominations for the Judicial Commissions of the Assembly.

2. We think there should be a rule requiring that notification be given the Permanent Judicial Commission as to whether their attendance at an approaching General Assembly will or will not be required. When no case is to come up to the General Assembly the Permanent Judicial Commission should not be expected to be present, thereby avoiding all unnecessary expense. Accordingly, we propose a rule for judicatories to the effect that, whenever a case is to be taken from an inferior judicatory to the General Assembly, the Stated Clerk of the inferior judicatory shall, at least twenty days previous to the meeting of the General Assembly, send a notice to the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly concerning such case; but if no such notice shall be received, it shall be the duty of the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly to notify forthwith the Chairman of the Permanent Judicial Commission that the services of the Commission will not be needed at the approaching General Assembly. In this connection, however, we note that the Book of Discipline provides that a written notice of a complaint or of an appeal may be lodged "with the Clerk of the superior judicatory before the close of the second day of its regular meeting next ensuing the date of the reception of said notice." Accordingly it is conceivable that the Permanent Judicial Commission, having received such notice as is mentioned above, might be absent from the General Assembly and yet a case might arrive there. This is one of the contingencies that might arise, but it would be fully met and at no expense by providing also for Special Judicial Commissions. Therefore all the more, we think, that this rule now proposed should be adopted.

We have now, as we understand it, reached the end of our task. Our aim has been to make improvements in the method of judicial procedure. One idea has always been uppermost, and that is that the General Assembly is the only Supreme Court in the Church, and that it alone has the power of final review and decision.

The Committee recommends the adoption of the following resolutions:

Resolution No. 1. That the following Overtures be sent down to the Presbyteries for action, in accordance with the provisions of Chapter xxiv, Sections 1 and 6, of the Form of Government.

OVERTURE NO. 1.

Shall Chapter xiii of the Book of Discipline, entitled "Of Judicial Commissions," be amended by adding to Section 125, pertaining to the Permanent Judicial Commission, the following provision, just before the last sentence, to wit:

If a vacancy shall occur during an interval between two General Assemblies it shall be filled by appointment by the Moderator of the General Assembly until the next ensuing General Assembly.

The section would then read (amendment being in italics) as follows:

125. The General Assembly shall elect a Commission, which shall be called "The Permanent Judicial Commission of the General Assembly," and shall be composed of eight ministers and seven ruling elders, of whom not more than two shall belong to the same Synod. At the first election fifteen persons shall be elected, five to serve for one year, five for two years, and five for three years, and thereafter five persons shall be elected annually to serve for three years. The terms of the members of the Commission shall begin with the close of the General Assembly at which they are elected. No person having served a full term shall be eligible for reëlection to the term next ensuing. Any vacancy may be filled by the General Assembly at any meeting thereof by the election of a person for the unexpired term. If a vacancy shall occur during an interval between two General Assemblies, it shall be filled by appointment by the Moderator of the General Assembly until the next ensuing General Assembly. The General Assembly may transmit to this Commission any judicial case for hearing and decision.

OVERTURE NO. 2.

(a) Shall Chapter xiii of the Book of Discipline, entitled "Of Judicial Commissions," be amended by adding the following provisions, to wit:

134. Nothing in this chapter shall be so construed as to prevent the General Assembly from electing, at its own discretion, Special Judicial Commissions which shall be subject to the rules, so far as they apply, that pertain to the Permanent Judicial Commission.

(b) In addition, and as a part of Overture No. 2, shall Chapter xiii of the Book of Discipline, entitled "Of Judicial Commissions," be amended by striking out in new Section 135 (see Minutes, 1904, p. 174) the phrase "the Permanent Judicial Commission," and substituting the words "any Judicial Commission elected by it"?

The section would then read (amendment being in italics) as follows:

135. The General Assembly may transmit to any Judicial Commission elected by it any non-judicial or administrative case founded on a complaint, or any reference, or any case arising under Chapter xiv of the Book of Discipline, entitled "Of Differences between Judicatories," with such powers as the General Assembly shall confer upon the Commission.

(c) In addition, and as a part of Overture No. 2, shall Chapter xii, Section iv, of the Form of Government, pertaining to the General Assembly, and lately amended (see Minutes, 1904, p. 174), be further amended by striking out the phrase "the Permanent Judicial Commission of the General Assembly," and substituting the words "Judicial Commissions"?

The section would then read (amendment being in italics) as follows:

IV. The General Assembly shall receive and issue all appeals, complaints and references that affect the doctrine or Constitution of the Church, and are regularly brought before it from the inferior judicatories, provided that cases may be transmitted to Judicial Commissions of the General Assembly as prescribed in the Book of Discipline. The General Assembly shall review the records of every Synod and approve or censure them; it shall give its advice and instruction in all cases submitted to it, in conformity with the Constitution of the Church; and it shall constitute the bond of union, peace, correspondence and mutual confidence among all our churches.

Overture No. 3.

Shall Chapter x of the Book of Discipline, entitled "Of Dissents and Protests," be amended by striking out in Section 107 the word "judicial" wherever it occurs before the words "case" and "cases":

The section would then read as follows:

107. No one shall be allowed to dissent or protest who has not a right to vote on the question decided; and no one shall be allowed to dissent or protest on any question who did not vote against the decision; provided, that when a case has been decided by a Judicial Commission, any member of the judicatory to which the decision is reported may enter his dissent or protest or his answer to any protest, in the same manner as if the case had been tried before the judicatory itself and he had voted thereon; and provided, that when a case has been decided by a Judicial Commission, sitting during an interval between the meetings of the electing judicatory, any member of such judicatory or of the Commission may, within ten days after the rendering of the judgment by the Commission, file his dissent from or protest against the judgment with the Clerk of the Commission; and the Commission or any member thereof may, within twenty days after the rendering of the judgment, similarly file an answer to any protest; and the Clerk of the Commission shall enter upon the record all dissents, protests and answers, or shall forward the same to the Stated Clerk of the electing judicatory to be so entered by him.

OVERTURE NO. 4.

Shall the Committee of the General Assembly to Supervise the Publication of the Editions of the Constitution make such changes in the numbering of the sections of the Book of Discipline as shall become necessary by the adoption of any of the three preceding Overtures?

Resolution No. 2. That the following rule be adopted and be added to the Standing Orders of the General Assembly, to wit:

The election of members of Judicial Commissions of the General Assembly shall take place on the morning of Tuesday, the fifth day, as the first Order of the Day, in the following manner:

It shall be the duty of the Judicial Committee of the General Assembly to report to the Assembly on Monday, the fourth day, suitable nominations for all members of Judicial Commissions of the General Assembly, from which nominations, together with any others regularly made by the Commissioners at the same time as those made by the Judicial Committee, the necessary number of persons shall be elected.

Resolution No. 3. That the following rule be adopted and be added to the Standing Orders of the General Assembly, to wit:

The Permanent Judicial Commission shall have authority to adopt rules pertaining to its own method of procedure, and shall report the same to the General Assembly, provided that such rules shall not be inconsistent with the Constitution of the Church or the rules adopted by the General Assembly.

Resolution No. 4. That the following rule be adopted and be added to the Rules for Judicatories, to wit:

Whenever a case is to be taken from an inferior judicatory to the General Assembly, the Stated Clerk of such inferior judicatory shall, at least twenty days before the meeting of the General Assembly, send a notice concerning such case to the Stated Clerk of the Assembly, who shall forthwith notify the Chairman of the Permanent Judicial Commission, unless the General Assembly shall have ordered otherwise, that the services of the Commission will be needed at the approaching Assembly; but if no such notice shall be received by the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly, he shall forthwith notify the Chairman of the Permanent Judicial Commission that the services of the Commission will not be needed at the approaching Assembly.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN W. DINSMORE, Chairman;

W. BEATTY JENNINGS, WILLIAM M. LANNING,
HENRY L. NAVE, DANIEL R. NOYES, HUGH B. MACCAULEY, ELL TORRANCE.

The election of the Permanent Judicial Commission was postponed until the next Assembly.

The Standing Committee on Colleges presented a Supplementary Report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

I. Two Overtures have been referred to your Committee (Nos. 52 and 53), from the Presbytery of Corning and the Synod of Iowa, concerning "Continued aid and encouragement to academies," which read as follows:

"The Presbytery of Corning hereby overtures the General Assembly to consider very carefully our academies, established and fostered by our Board of Aid, in their relation to the Christian education of our young people, especially of our Western States.

"We very respectfully urge the General Assembly to instruct the College Board not only to aid our Christian academies in their current expenses, but also to encourage them in securing a sufficient endowment.

"We most earnestly request that the encouragement of the past may be the continued policy of the Board. We further ask the General Assembly to consider the action of the Synod of Iowa of October, 1904, an attested copy of which is hereby appended:

"'Resolved, That the Synod of Iowa deprecates the action of the General Assembly by which the impression was given out that our academies would no longer receive the support and encouragement of past years. We therefore urge upon the College Board and upon the next General Assembly the most careful consideration of the work which our academies are doing, and in view of their respective work in plain promise for the future, continue aid until such time as moderate endowment may enable them to continue and expand in usefulness.'"

Your Committee recommends that the following statement be adopted as the answer of the Assembly:

In the Annual Report of the College Board, under Policy of the Board, on page 17, appear two sections which show that the Board plans to do exactly what the Presbytery of Corning and the Synod of Iowa desire to have done.

Section 3 reads:

"3. The Board does not see its way clear to encourage a general appeal for academies, but will coöperate in any local movement, so far as may be in its power."

Section 4 is as follows:

"4. Regarding existing academies, the Board will enter into each case separately to determine which of the following courses will be wise:

"(a) To proceed in a movement for permanence, in view of the peculiarity of the locality and the history of the institution, with reference to the previous understanding of the community.

"(b) To coöperate in securing funds for current expenses for a fixed term of years, until local plans can be made for endowment or other methods of permanence.

"(c) To plan for the discontinuance of the institution upon favorable terms."

II. The Standing Committee having received a paper from the Assembly, introduced by an alumnus of the New York University, calling attention to the approaching anniversary of that institution marking its completion of seventy-five years of history, present the following Minute for adoption:

The General Assembly takes note of the announcement that the New York University is to celebrate in October of this year its seventy-fifth anniversary.

The Assembly recognizes the fact that this institution is notable among the universities situated in our chief cities for its large indebtedness for existence and maintenance to members of the Presbyterian and Reformed Churches.

The Assembly expresses its appreciation of the splendid record already made by the New York University, and bids its Chancellor, Council and Faculties Godspeed as they uphold a high standard of education under Christian auspices in our metropolis.

The Assembly hereby appoints a Committee of five to represent this body at the coming celebration and to convey the sincere congratulations of the General Assembly; the Moderator, Vice-Moderator and the Stated Clerk of the Assembly to be members of this Committee. The other two members shall be appointed by the Moderator.

Respectfully submitted in behalf of the Committee,

JOHN BANCROFT DEVINS, Chairman.

The Moderator announced the two additional members of the Deputation to the Seventy-fifth Anniversary of the New York University, the complete deputation being as follows: Rev. James D. Moffat, D.D., Hon. John M. Harlan, LL.D., Rev. William H. Roberts, D.D., Rev. John Bancroft Devins, D.D., and Hon. M. Linn Bruce.

The Committee on Polity, through its Chairman, Rev. Stephen Phelps, D.D., presented its Report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

Overtures Nos. 43 to 50 and 88, asking for Biennial Sessions of the General Assembly, from the Presbyteries of Columbia, Geneva, Indianapolis, La Crosse, Mahoning, Nassau, Otsego, Redstone; and as follows:

"The Presbytery of Geneva would respectfully overture the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America as follows: To amend the Form of Government, Chapter xii, Section 7, by striking out the words 'every year,' and inserting in their place the words 'every two years.'"

The following Presbyteries; Atlantic, Black Hills, Gunnison,

Iowa, Olympia and Zanesville, refuse to unite with the Presbyteries given above in asking for Biennial Assemblies.

It is recommended that these Overtures for Biennial Assemblies be answered in the negative. Adopted.

Overture No. 54, from the Presbytery of Arizona, for an Interpretation of Constitutional Rule No. 1:

"The Presbytery of Arizona respectfully requests the General Assembly to answer a question of interpretation of Constitutional Rule No. 1, to wit: When a local evangelist has fulfilled all the conditions of the rule, what is the next step to be taken with a view to his ordination? Is it then the duty of Presbytery to proceed to the usual examination for licensure, or shall Presbytery declare that, by virtue of his having fulfilled the conditions of the rule, he has the 'rank of licentiate,' and is fully ready to ask for the examination with a view to ordination?"

The General Assembly of 1898 considered a similar Overture and answered: "That compliance with the provisions of Constitutional Rule No. 1 does not exempt a local evangelist from the necessity of formal licensure prior to ordination, and that he should be examined before Presbytery, first for formal licensure, and then, later, again for ordination, in accordance with the provisions of the Form of Government, Chapter xiv" (Minutes, 1898, p. 130). It is recommended that the same answer be given by this Assembly. Adopted.

Overture No. 63, from the Synod of Colorado, as to the Proper Bounds of the Synod:

"The Synod of Colorado begs leave to call the attention of the next General Assembly to the fact that by the action of the last General Assembly, as recorded on page 177 of the published Minutes, there are certain sections of the State of Wyoming which belong to the two Synods of Colorado and Utah respectively, and to three Presbyteries, Wyoming, Utah and Kendall. The Synod of Colorado overtures the General Assembly to take such action as will properly locate the churches of Evanston and Cokeville."

Your Committee recommend that the churches of Evanston and Cokeville be transferred to and placed under the care of the Presbytery of Wyoming, in the Synod of Colorado, since they are geographically within the bounds of that Presbytery. Adopted.

Overture No. 67, from the Presbytery of New Albany, as to Ruling Elders and the Confession of Faith:

"Does the failure of a candidate for ordination to the office of ruling elder to read the Confession of Faith invalidate his ordination, although the candidate may answer the second question, 'Do you sincerely receive and adopt the Confession of Faith of this Church as containing the system of doctrine taught in the Holy Scriptures' in the affirmative?"

It is recommended that the following answer be made: The minister ought to see to it that the candidate for ordination as elder has sufficient knowledge of the Confession of Faith to answer the question referred to intelligently before he is ordained; yet if a man has been ordained as an elder who has not such sufficient knowledge, this fact does not invalidate his ordination. However, such elder should be required to read and study the Confession. Adopted.

Overture No. 70, from the Presbytery of Manila, asking the Assembly to erect the Synod of West Kwantung:

"The Presbytery of Manila, on advice received from the Synod of Central and Southern China, voted to join with the Presbyteries of Canton and Hainan in the following Overture:

"The Presbyteries of Canton, Hainan and Manila respectfully ask that the Assembly constitute them the Synod of West Kwantung, in order to greater convenience of meeting and transacting of business and the more adequate oversight of the Church within their bounds."

The following action is recommended, in accordance with the consent and advice of the Synod of Central and Southern China:

Be it enacted, 1. That a new Synod be and is hereby erected, to be called the Synod of West Kwantung.

2. That the territory covered by this Synod be the same as that now covered by the Presbyteries of Canton, Hainan and Manila.

3. That said three Presbyteries, together with the ministers and churches now constituting them, without disturbing their Presbyterial relations, be and hereby are transferred from the Synod of Central and Southern China to this new Synod of West Kwantung.

4. That the Synod of West Kwantung be directed to meet at Canton, China, on the 15th day of September, 1905, at 7.30 o'clock P.M.; and that Rev. Henry V. Noyes, D.D., the senior missionary, forty-one years resident in China, be appointed to convene the Synod, preach the opening sermon, and preside until the Synod shall have been duly organized. Adopted.

Overture No. 73, from the Synod of Tennessee, as to Church Members on the Reserve Roll:

"The Synod of Tennessee hereby respectfully and earnestly overtures the General Assembly to take some action that will limit and guard the permission to place names of church members upon a reserved roll. We are sure that great loss is coming to our Church in this way. We fear there is not proper and persistent pastoral care and oversight used in these cases by ministers and Sessions. We pray your honorable body, therefore, to define more clearly and carefully the conditions and circumstances that will justify a Session in taking such action." The following answer is recommended: The Reserve Roll is authorized by Section 49, Book of Discipline. It is for non-resident members only. It must not be confounded with Section 50, Book of Discipline, which applies to resident members who neglect Church ordinances, and who have no place on this Reserve Roll. Under neither rule and on neither roll should any name be entered until after the most careful and earnest efforts to restore to Christian faithfulness. Adopted.

Overture No. 75, from the Presbytery of Black Hills, on Striking from the Roll the Name of a Deposed Minister:

"The Presbytery of the Black Hills hereby overtures the General Assembly, requesting to know whether the action of deposing a minister from the ministry carries with it the striking of said minister's name off the roll without further action by Presbytery, or not." Answer: It would be well for the Presbytery, in deposing a minister, to make the striking of the name from the roll a part of the action; yet, strictly speaking, deposition carries with it the removal of his name from the roll. Adopted.

Overture No. 82, from the Presbytery of South Florida, asking for the erection of the Synod of Florida. Answer: After conference with all the Commissioners to this General Assembly from the Presbyteries of East Florida and South Florida, who by our invitation all met with the Committee, it was determined to recommend the Assembly to defer the action asked for in the Overture, in the hope that by another year, through the possible entering of the Presbytery of Havana into the movement for the new Synod, the way might be more clear for consummating it. Adopted.

Overture No. 89, from the Presbytery of Springfield, asking: Is the practice of licensing and then ordaining candidates for the ministry at the same meeting of Presbytery in accordance with the provisions of the Form of Government? If not, how much time shall elapse between licensure and ordination? Answer: Though such a practice is not commended, except in rare circumstances, it does not violate any specific rules of the Form of Government. Adopted.

Overture No. 90, from the Presbytery of Springfield, asking: Is it in accordance with the provisions of the Form of Government for a Presbytery to ordain a candidate for the ministry after a call has been extended to him by a church in another Presbytery? Answer: The last sentence of Section 10, in Chapter xv, of the Form of Government, requires that in such case the Presbytery shall dismiss the candidate to the care of the other Presbytery before ordination. Adopted.

Overture No. 91, from the Presbytery of Pueblo, as follows: Can Presbytery, at an adjourned meeting, enroll and seat as a presbyter an elder whose credentials show that he was not elected or appointed to represent his church at the regular meeting, either as principal or alternate? Answer: The adjourned meeting is a continuation of the stated meeting. The Session should represent itself at the stated meeting; but if it have failed to do so, it then ought to represent itself at the adjourned meeting, and its representative should be enrolled as such. Adopted.

Your Committee further report that a communication from the Rev. H. R. Marsh, M.D., a Commissioner to this General Assembly from the Presbytery of Yukon, has been referred to us. In this communication, for reasons therein stated, Dr. Marsh requests that he be transferred, by action of the General Assembly, from the Presbytery of Yukon to the Presbytery of Bloomington. We recommend that this request be granted, and the necessary instructions to make this effective be given to the Presbyteries involved. Adopted.

Your Committee also recommend that the Overtures Nos. 78–81, from the Presbytery of Wellsborough, proposing amendments to the Directory for Worship as to the Administration of Baptism and the admission of baptized persons into the full communion of the Church, be referred to the General Assembly's Special Committee on Forms and Services. Adopted.

Respectfully submitted on behalf of the Committee,

STEPHEN PHELPS, Chairman.

The Committee on Mileage, through its Chairman, Mr. George W. Wishard, presented its Report, which was accepted and adopted, and is as follows:

The Committee on Mileage respectfully presents the following Report:

They have carefully examined and audited the accounts of each Commissioner (except those from the Presbytery of Bellefontaine, which has not contributed to the Mileage Fund), and the same have been paid by the Stated Clerk.

The number of Commissioners on the roll is 680. The whole number of Presbyteries is 241; Presbyteries not represented, 6. The Presbyteries exempt from payment of the apportionment for mileage are Foreign Mission, Indian and Freedmen, and in addition advisory members representing Missions, making a total of thirty-five. The Freedmen and Indian Presbyteries, however, do contribute to the Fund.

The Presbytery of Bellefontaine has not contributed to the Mileage Fund.

The Presbyteries of Bellefontaine and Clarion have not contributed to the Entertainment Fund.

The receipts and disbursements, as shown by the Treasurer's book, are as follows:

RECEIPTS.

From Apportionments, Mileage Fund		$31,302 98
" "	Entertainment Fund	15,553 49
" "	Contingent Fund	15,990 80
			$62,847 27

DISBURSEMENTS.

Mileage Bills	$25,069 75
Balances on hand:
Mileage Fund	6,233 23
Entertainment Fund	15,553 49
Contingent Fund	15,990 80
		$62,847 27

The Committee repeats the recommendations of the Committee of the last Assembly, as follows:

1. That the Assembly again urge upon all Presbyteries to contribute in full to the Mileage, Entertainment and Contingent Funds.

2. That the apportionment for next year be six and one-half cents for each communicant, distributed as follows: To the Mileage Fund, three and one-half cents; to the Entertainment Fund, one and one-half cents; to the Contingent Fund, one and one-half cents.

3. That the Stated Clerk, as Treasurer of the General Assembly, be authorized, at his discretion, to pay Commissioners such further sums as may be considered justly due to them, by reason of their having underestimated railroad charges or other necessary expenses in returning home.

4. That the General Assembly extend its thanks to such railroads and other transportation companies as have carried Commissioners at reduced rates.

Respectfully submitted,

GEORGE W. WISHARD, Chairman.

The Committee on Next Place of Meeting presented its Report, which was amended and recommitted.

The Committee on Next Place of Meeting respectfully report that invitations have been received from the Presbyterian churches and Presbyterian Union of Des Moines, Ia.; the First Presbyterian Church, Philadelphia, Pa.; the First Presbyterian Church, Saratoga Springs, N. Y., and the Broad Street Presbyterian Church, of Columbus, O. These invitations are sustained by the Presbyteries of the localities in which the several churches are situated, and also by other important bodies. The Assembly is to be congratulated upon the interest displayed in its meeting by churches and communities so widely separated from each other. All the invitations, further, contain proffers of hospitality which are to be highly appreciated.

After careful consideration the Committee recommends that the invitation from the Presbyterian churches and Presbyterian Union of Des Moines, Ia., be accepted, and that the next General Assembly be held in the Central Presbyterian Church or other convenient place at said city of Des Moines, Ia.

The invitation of the Presbyterian churches and Union of Des Moines, Ia., is accompanied by the pledge to furnish, without charge, an appropriate building for the sessions of the Assembly and for the popular meetings, provision for the entertainment of the officers of the Assembly without charge, and comfortable entertainment for the Commissioners at the rate of $1.50 per day; also to meet the ordinary business expenses of the Assembly. It is understood that reasonable rates will be secured for such Commissioners as may desire to be entertained at hotels.

The following resolutions are submitted for adoption:

Resolved, 1. That the Committee of Arrangements for the next Assembly be composed of: Ministers—John W. Day, D.D., Chairman; Charles L. Reynolds, Murdoch MacLeod, Enoch B. Linn, Alexander W. McConnell, S. D. McFadden and the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly; Ruling Elders—Stephen H. Sibley, C. A. Dudley, R. W. Marquis, J. B. Johnston, J. A. Hosmer, D. B. Brown, William B. Harrison, and that the Committee have power to add to their number.

Resolved, 2. That the Stated Clerk transmit the hearty thanks of the Assembly to the churches, Presbyteries and other organizations and individuals who have united in the several invitations for the meeting of the Assembly of 1906.

Respectfully submitted,

JAMES D. MOFFAT, Chairman.

The Joint Committee of the Board of Home Missions and the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work presented its Report, which was accepted, adopted, and is as follows:

The Boards of Home Missions and of Publication and Sabbath-school Work of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, to which were referred Overtures Nos. 9–11, from the Presbyteries of Boulder, Butte and Great Falls, on the transfer of the Missionary Department of the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work to the Board of Home Missions; Overture No. 12, from the Presbytery of New Brunswick, on closer relations between the Board of Home Missions and the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work; and Overtures Nos. 13 and 14, from the Presbyteries of Philadelphia and Philadelphia North, opposing the closer relations between the Board of Home Missions and the Missionary Department of the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work, respectfully report:

That, after having considered a Report made to them by their representatives who had had the matter under consideration, the said two Boards respectively adopted the following as the answer which, in their judgment, should be made to the Overtures before mentioned:

I. These Boards deem it inexpedient and unadvisable, under the existing conditions, that the Missionary Department of the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work should be transferred to the Board of Home Missions.

II. It is, however, the judgment of these Boards that the work committed to them requires that closer relations and effective coöperation be established between them, and to accomplish this result the Boards ask the General Assembly to approve the following plan of coöperation:

(a) That each Board shall appoint three members or officers who shall constitute a Joint Committee, to meet at least twice a year at regular intervals for conference concerning the fields.

(b) That in order to bring about effective coöperation upon the fields where missionary work is done, the Home Mission Committee and the Committee on Sabbath-school and Missionary Work of the Presbyteries be instructed by the Presbyteries to confer with reference to the needs of the territory covered by the respective Presbyteries, and with reference to the wise and economical prosecution of missionary work therein.

(c) That inasmuch as a vast field of opportunity is opened before our Church in its missionary work among the foreign population of our country, these two Boards be directed to coöperate earnestly in this great work and in every practicable way to combine to carry it forward.

On behalf of the Board of Home Missions,

D. Stuart Dodge, President.
C. L. Thompson, Secretary.

On behalf of the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work,

Robert N. Willson, President.
Alexander Henry, Secretary.

The Joint Committee on the Psalms in Metre reported that its work had been completed, and that the result of its work will be submitted in print for the approval of the Assembly. The Report was approved, ordered printed in the Appendix, and the representatives of the Assembly were reappointed.

The Standing Committee on Narrative, through its Chairman, Rev. Charles Combrink, presented its Report, which was amended and approved.

The Ministerial Necrology for the past year was read by the Stated Clerk, and Rev. Thomas C. Kirkwood, D.D., upon invitation of the Moderator, led the Assembly in prayer.

The Narrative and Necrology were ordered to be printed in the Appendix.

The following recommendation contained in the Narrative was adopted:

Whereas, The reports submitted to the Committee on Narrative are incomplete and seem to show serious defects in the method of submitting Sessional reports to Presbytery, and Presbyterial reports to the Assembly, we recommend that the Assembly appoint a Committee to consult and coöperate with the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly in investigating the whole matter of the Narrative of the State of Religion, and that the Committee present its findings and recommendations to the Assembly of 1906.

The Records of the following Synods were approved without exception: Baltimore, California, Catawba, Colorado, Illinois, Indiana, Indian Territory, Iowa, Kansas, Kentucky, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Montana, Nebraska, New Jersey, New Mexico, New York, North Dakota, Ohio, Oregon, Pennsylvania, South Dakota, Tennessee, Utah, Washington, West Virginia, Wisconsin.

The Committee on the Records of the Synod of Atlantic presented the following Report, which was adopted:

The Committee on the Records of the Synod of Atlantic respectfully reports to the General Assembly that the said Records have been carefully examined, that they are neatly and correctly kept, and their approval is recommended with the following exceptions:

1. That the ecclesiastical standing of Rev. W. L. Lingle, accorded a seat as a corresponding member, is insufficiently indicated (p. 11).

2. That the record of the morning session of Synod, Saturday, October 29, does not show that the session was opened with prayer (p. 27).

3. That the record of the judicial case of appeal and complaint from McClelland Presbytery, referred to on pages 12, 21, 27, 28, 32, 33, 48, 49, are incomplete in that they nowhere indicate the nature of the appeal and complaint or the contents of specifications, referred to as "specifications 1–9" and "1–3," and the Committee recommends that the Synod of Atlantic be instructed to so correct the Minutes that they shall clearly reveal the nature of the case and the findings of the judicatory.

The Committee on the Records of the Synod of Texas presented the following Report, which was adopted:

The Committee on the Minutes of the Synod of Texas reports that it has examined the Records, and recommends their approval with the following exceptions:

1. On pages 103 and 110 the names of certain laymen are recorded as having been invited to sit as corresponding members.

Our Form of Government does not provide for the seating in our judicatories as corresponding members of persons other than ministers.

2. On pages 102 and 103 the names of newly arrived members and of members appointed on certain Committees are recorded without any titles or designations to determine whether they were ministers or ruling elders.

3. Many of the acts of Synod are not recorded clearly and intelligibly.

The Permanent Clerk was authorized by unanimous consent to cast the ballot of the Assembly for the following as Trustees of the General Assembly: Mr. William H. Scott and Rev. William H. Roberts, D.D. The ballot was cast as directed, and these gentlemen were declared duly elected.

The Permanent Clerk was authorized by unanimous consent to cast the ballot of the Assembly for the following as members of the Board of Church Erection: Ministers—Ford C. Ottman, Robert F. Sample, D.D., Charles J. Young; Elders—William N. Crane, Everett J. Esselstyn, George E. Sterry; and to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Dr. John Reid, Rev. Joseph Dunn Burrell, of the Presbytery of Brooklyn. The ballot was cast as directed, and the above-named persons were all declared duly elected.

The Stated Clerk presented the following Reports, which were accepted and approved:

The Stated Clerk would respectfully report to the Assembly as follows:

1. That the Moderator of the Assembly of 1904, Rev. J. Addison Henry, D.D., in conjunction with the Stated Clerk, and in view of the approaching two hundredth anniversary of the organization of the supreme judicatory of this Church, the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., addressed letters announcing the fact to the Moderators and Stated Clerks of the following General Assemblies:

The General Assembly of the Church of Scotland;

The General Assembly of the United Free Church of Scotland;

The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Ireland;

The General Synod of the Presbyterian Church in England; and

The General Assembly of the Calvinistic Methodist or Presbyterian Church of Wales.

This action was necessary in view of the fact that the Assemblies and Synod just named meet during the present month or early in the next month, and that therefore there was no proper or sufficient interval of time for correspondence with them on the subject after action by the Assembly.

Notices of this approaching commemoration have also been sent by the Stated Clerk to the General Assemblies and General Synods of the Presbyterian and Reformed Churches in the U. S. A. and Canada. The approval of this action is respectfully requested.

2. Since the last Assembly the Presbytery of East Oregon has been dissolved, and the Presbyteries of Grande Ronde and Pendleton have been erected by the Synod of Oregon.

3. A letter has been received from the Rev. Kali Churn Chatterjee, the Stated Clerk of the late Synod of India, stating that the said Synod, with its Presbyteries, was received into the Presbyterian Church of India, December 19, 1904. The action of the Assembly of 1904 directing the dismission of this Synod to the Presbyterian Church of India has therefore been completed.

4. A letter has been received from the Rev. Arthur H. Ewing, Clerk of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in India, requesting this General Assembly to enter into relations with that Church by means of corresponding members. It is recommended that the attention of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in India be drawn to Standing Rule No. 15 of this Assembly, by which the several missions of this Church in India are entitled to be represented by advisory members, and have been thus represented in this General Assembly. It is also recommended that the Moderator and Stated Clerk send a fraternal message to the General Assembly of the Church in India, conveying our congratulations and best wishes.

Respectfully submitted,

WM. H. ROBERTS, Stated Clerk.

The Stated Clerk also submitted a preliminary statistical exhibit for the Church for the year ending March 31, 1905, for the information of the Assembly.

The following resolutions were severally adopted:

Resolved, That the Stated Clerk be directed, as usual, to publish the Minutes of the General Assembly.

Resolved, That the General Assembly is responsible only for the expenses of its Commissioners and officers in connection with its annual meetings.

Resolved, That the Stated Clerk be authorized to furnish the Minutes to such Presbyteries only as have paid in full their quotas to the Contingent Fund.

Resolved, That the Stated Clerk forward a copy each of the Minutes and Reports to the ruling elders who are Commissioners to this Assembly; Provided, That the ruling elders forward to the Clerk their post-office addresses and that the Presbyteries which they represent have paid their full quotas to the Mileage and Contingent Funds.

Resolved, That the Stated Clerk prepare a new edition of the Manual for the use of the next Assembly.

Resolved, That the Moderator be authorized to fill by appointment any vacancies which may occur, by resignation or otherwise, in any of the Special Committees.

Resolved, That the Stated Clerk be authorized to pay the usual bills and salaries.

Resolved, That the Stated Clerk be authorized to distribute in the customary manner seven thousand copies of the Reports of the Boards, the expense to be borne by the Boards, and that he be empowered also to edit the Presbyterian Handbook.

Resolved, That, as customary, all matters connected with railroad rates and arrangements for the next meeting of the Assembly be committed solely to the Stated Clerk.

The following Report of the Delegates to the Liverpool Council of the Alliance was presented by the Stated Clerk, and was approved.

On behalf of the Delegates to the Eighth Council of the Alliance of the Reformed Churches throughout the world holding the Presbyterian System, their attendance is reported at Liverpool, England, June 27 to July 5, 1904. The Delegates were most hospitably entertained by the Presbyterian and other citizens of Liverpool, and the Council was in all particulars successful.

JAMES D. MOFFAT,
WILLIAM H. ROBERTS.

It was understood that the expenses of Delegates to the Councils of the Alliance, the Inter-Church Conference on Federation, and all similar gatherings are not a charge against the funds of the Assembly.

The Standing Committee on Leave of Absence presented its Report, which was accepted, and ordered to be printed in the Minutes. It is as follows:

The Standing Committees having completed their business were severally discharged, viz.: Bills and Overtures, Judicial Committee, Church Polity, Home Missions, Foreign Missions, Education, Publication, Church Erection, Theological Seminaries, Ministerial Relief, Freedmen, Colleges, Correspondence, Benevolence, Narrative, Leave of Absence, Temperance, Young People's Societies, Mileage and Finance.

The following resolution of thanks was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the thanks of the Assembly are due and are hereby tendered to the Rev. James D. Moffat, D.D., Moderator, for the rare combination of tact, courtesy, promptness, grace and uniform fairness manifested in the discharge of the functions of his high office.

Additional resolutions of thanks were presented and adopted as follows:

Resolved, 1. That the thanks of the Assembly are presented to the Vice-Moderator, also to the Stated, Permanent and Temporary Clerks, for their efficient services, so indispensable to the prompt and orderly transaction of the business of the Assembly.

Resolved, 2. That the grateful acknowledgments of the Assembly are due and therefore tendered to Rev. S. C. Dickey, D.D., Chairman of the Committee of Arrangements; to the President and other officers of the Winona Assembly and Schools, and those associated with them, for their liberality in paying all expenses incurred by the Committee of Arrangements, and their thoughtful attention to all details essential to our comfort and well-being, thus making our sojourn in this beautiful grove on the shore of Winona Lake most enjoyable.

Resolved, 3. That the thanks of the Assembly are tendered to the corporations and persons following: The State Bank of Warsaw for banking facilities; the Pennsylvania and Big Four Railroad Companies, also the Central Traffic and other Railroad Associations for reduced rates to all members of the Assembly; the Western Union Telegraph Company, Post-office officials and employés; the Presbyterian Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work, for the use of Hymnals; Dr. F. L. Marshall, Prof. Owens, Mr. E. F. Yarnelle, Miss Grace C. Roberts, The Winona Ladies' Quartette, and all others who have materially assisted in the delightful services of praise; the faithful ushers; the Warsaw Times for the full and accurate reports of all the proceedings of the Assembly; and the members of the Press, both religious and secular, who have reported the proceedings of the Assembly.

Resolved, 4. That we hereby express gratitude to our heavenly Father for His gracious care over us, and the manifest presence and power of the Holy Spirit in the deliberations of this Assembly; the evident fruits of which have been wisdom, peace and harmony, and all in loving loyalty to the great Head of the Church, our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

Appropriate addresses were delivered by Rev. Solomon C. Dickey, D.D., Chairman of the Committee of Arrangements; Rev. Charles Little, D.D., Chairman of the Hospitality Committee, and the Moderator.

The Minutes of to-day's sessions were read and approved.

The Roll was called, and the following members were found absent without leave:

APPENDIX.

I. Narrative, Necrology, Correspondence, etc.

NARRATIVE.

OF THE STATE OF RELIGION WITHIN THE BOUNDS OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA FOR THE YEAR ENDING MARCH 31, 1905.

The Standing Committee on Narrative would respectfully present the following report:

Your Committee has carefully considered the large number of Presbyterial reports placed in its hands. It confesses its inability, owing to the varied nature of the replies, to make a report that is at once brief and comprehensive, but hopes that the most salient features of our religious conditions have received due attention and the most important features proper emphasis.

Owing to the absence of a few Presbyterial reports and the almost universal testimony of the Presbyteries that some of the churches have failed to send reports we shall not attempt to give statistics, but must content ourselves with a general survey.

I. Church Services.—In the matter of church services, there is a wonderful unanimity of testimony. From East and West, North and South there come reports that the churches have been regularly supplied with preaching. This is somewhat surprising. But the Committee surmises that it is the vacant churches, which, as a rule, are most negligent in the matter of sending in reports, and so are not heard from in the Presbyterial Narratives. There are localities where the supplies are inadequate and in most of the Presbyteries more or less numerous ministerial changes have left some of the pulpits vacant for longer or shorter periods. But the testimony of more than two hundred Presbyteries that their pulpits have been regularly supplied is evidence that God hath not left Himself without abundant witnesses in Christian America.

While the pulpit has done its part it is not so clear that the pew has been as faithful. The vast majority of the churches have two preaching services, besides the Sabbath-school and the Young People's Meeting. Whether so many services are too severe a strain on the "perseverance of the saints," or whether they do not appreciate their privileges, it is not the part of the Committee to point out. But the fact remains that the attendance at church services is by no means what it should be. Some Presbyteries report the attendance as "fair," while others with more definiteness say that the attendance at the services is from fifty-five to sixty-five per cent. of the numerical strength of the Church. Such a condition of affairs suggests serious reflections. The story of the grateful leper comes to mind with the pertinent inquiry, "Where are the other nine?" And still more serious is the question, "Where are the unsaved?" Is there an explanation here of the disproportion between the membership of our churches and the reported accessions on profession of faith? One Presbytery voices a conviction that as well grounded in a study of the reports of many churches when it says: "The cold, heartless neglect on the part of God's own people of the services of God's house cannot be made to look even decent or respectable."

While it is a mistake to always estimate success by numbers, yet we may well ponder the question, How shall they believe on Him of whom they have not heard, and how shall they hear if they neglect church attendance? But in fairness to other communities and Presbyteries, it must be said there are churches where the attendance equals or exceeds the membership of the congregations.

Quite as varied are the answers to the questions concerning the attendance of the children at our regular church services. From the churches among the Indians come the reports of good attendance. In some few communities churches are mindful of their duty and opportunity, and in all such places God honors his Covenant, and there are large accessions to the Church from the Sabbath-school. But in too many of our churches not only do the children habitually absent themselves, but no effort seems to be made to secure their presence. Attendance at the Sabbath-school exhausts their ecclesiastical endurance and the family pew is a thing of the past. It should not be so. No mill can produce lumber without logs. Unless we train up the child in the way he should go, the probabilities are that he will not go that way. We know the assertion is sometimes made by parents that they are unwilling to compel attendance for fear of awakening repugnance, which will lead to non-attendance in adult life. But we believe it is the exception where non-attendance in youth is followed by habitual attendance in after life. Of the number of young men who are regular in church attendance how many were left to do as they pleased in the matter during childhood's formative period? Unfortunately our children (especially our boys) are graduating from the Sabbath-school at an early age; they have no habits of church attendance, and soon the cry is raised that the church cannot hold its young people. Where does the fault lie? We believe it is in the home. The Committee on Christian Education has already pointed out the growing need of vital religion in the household. Impressions gathered from many sources seem to indicate a growing neglect of the family altar and the home instruction of youth in the truth of God's word. We urge upon parents to use their influence, their authority if need be, to secure the regular attendance of the children at the church services. We believe in special services and special attractions for children, but we would emphasize parental responsibility. We have heard many reasons why our young men are not seeking to enter the ministry. Permit us to add another we have not not heard suggested, viz.: It is in part due, we believe, to bad training and bad habits of childhood. The child that is permitted to absent itself habitually from church services at the age of seven to seventeen will never learn to love the church which is the House of the Living God, and the young man who does not love the church, either will not seek to enter the ministry or will enter it from false motives.

Little more encouraging is the condition of the prayer meeting. Although a regular midweek meeting is generally observed, the attendance seems to range from six per cent. to forty per cent., or in a few exceptional cases even fifty per cent. of the churchmen worship. Such a proportion may be enough to save Sodom, but it is not enough to bring down the walls of Jericho. But there is one encouraging feature: the replies received show the churches are conscious of the importance and value of the prayer meeting. The need of the times is that the whole Church should attain this consciousness, and that all members should be found in their places at the midweek services.

II. SABBATH-SCHOOLS.—Sabbath-schools seem to be universally maintained, and are for the most part church or denominational schools. The Sabbath-schools are the recruiting stations of the Church. At least half to sixty per cent. of the additions to our churches on profession of faith comes from them. In view of this our Sabbath-schools should have the best of talent and equipment. But it is evident they do not have it. Although the need of better teachers is widely felt, little is done to train them, and teachers' meetings are an uncertain factor in most Presbyteries. Libraries exist in a few sections, but they are small and but little used.

The Shorter Catechism is ceasing to be a part of our regular instruction, although a few Presbyteries report that it is taught in some churches.

III. Societies.—There seems to be no lack of organization in our churches. Efforts to promote physical, social, intellectual and spiritual culture through the organization of special societies seem to be on the increase.

Societies for men are being organized for various objects: societies of the Brotherhood of Andrew and Philip for the purpose of personal work, and other organizations of a more elastic character for athletic, social and temporal objects are reported from various sections, but the relation of some of the latter to definite church work seems rather vague. A far greater number of churches report one or more societies of women, whose objects in general are missionary work and church aid along various lines. The enthusiasm and consecration of the women seem to be on the increase, and their gifts have enabled the fulfillment of many beneficent plans.

The existence of young people's societies seems gratifying in its universality among the churches. While there has been no marked increase in the number of the members, the societies have been deepening the spiritual life of young Christians and training them for higher usefulness in the Master's service in coming years.

The relation of these societies to the governing body of the church (the Session) is often vague and undefined. While there is no antagonism reported, there seems in some Presbyteries a hesitation in affirming the relation of superiority and asserting the right of the Sessional control that should prevail.

IV. Spiritual Conditions.—When we come to the subject of spiritual conditions and special services there would seem to be peculiar reasons for gratitude to God and renewed activity. The spirit of Gospel evangelism has taken strong hold of the Presbyterian Church. Pastors and people have entered heartily into the plans of the Evangelistic Committee, and the result has been a great increase in the number of conversions. From many of our larger cities come the reports of gracious revivals and large accessions to the churches. Equally encouraging reports come from the smaller churches that are remote from the large centres. Many Presbyteries have reported that in fully half their churches there have been encouraging revivals; the story of the mighty meetings in the Southern, Central and Western States stir our hearts, but we should not forget that the aggregate of the smaller meetings will tend to the strengthening of the churches in needy fields. Already the reports show more than 66,000 persons received on profession of faith, and the reports of Presbyteries not yet heard from will make this a great year in Presbyterian history.

There would seem to be no new difficulties confronting the Church. Some of the difficulties mentioned are common to all fields. From some Presbyteries come replies that the work is hindered by social attractions, worldliness, indifference, Sabbath desecration, etc. The emigration of young men to city communities and the exodus of people from city centres to suburbs are a grave problem in a few localities, and one Presbytery has summed up the whole situation by saying, "The world, the flesh and the Devil." The seeds of the forbidden fruit have been scattered broadcast throughout the world, and there is no field so fair but the Devil has coveted it; no field so barren and unproductive but he has laid claim to it, and stands ready to oppose our progress.

V. Benevolence.—All degrees of loyalty to the Boards are revealed in the answers of Presbyteries. In general the stronger churches contribute to all the Boards. But we would make no invidious comparisons, believing that many of the so-called "weak" churches deserve the commendation bestowed on the poor widow, and that many of the so-called "strong" ones are negligent and careless. When we consider the wealth of our great Presbyterian Church and contemplate the meagre gifts to the Boards, we are impelled to the belief that there is a lack of systematic effort in presenting the claims of the Boards to the attention of the people. It is not enough formally to open the doors of the treasury that the people, out of their lavish abundance, may give that which involves no sacrifice and brings little of blessing. We need to remind our people to bring the whole tithe into the storehouse as the condition of the opening of the windows of heaven.

In many respects this has been one of the best years our Church has known within the past decade. At home and abroad, in all departments of church work, there has been enlarged activity and corresponding increased results. We find many grounds for thanksgiving for the blessings received and for strengthened faith in the ultimate triumph of good over evil. If now and then there has been a pessimistic tone in our report it was because we would point out lines of possible improvement in the future. Inasmuch as at this time the fundamental doctrines of our holy religion are, in many quarters, insidiously and persistently attacked, in order to fortify our Church against the dangerous teaching so prevalent, your Committee recommends that the Assembly charge all our ministers to faithfully instruct their people in the essential doctrines of the Scriptures, viz.: The doctrine of the Holy Trinity; the divinity of our Lord Jesus Christ; the full inspiration and credibility of the Holy Scriptures as the word of God, the only infallible rule of faith and practice; and salvation through the efficacious grace of the sovereign and merciful God who sent His Son to be our propitiation, that we might receive the remission of our sins through His blood and so have peace with God.

Your Committee also recommends that the Assembly suggests the formation of classes of adults in all our congregations for the study of the Scriptures and the Standards of the Church, and that, in connection with the study of the Bible, the young be taught the Shorter Catechism, in order that our people may be grounded in the truth and enabled to withstand all attacks upon their faith, and that the Presbyterian Church may maintain its historic position as a doctrinal Church and a defender of the truth of God.

Furthermore: Whereas the reports submitted to the Committee on Narrative are incomplete and seem to show serious defects in the method of submitting Sessional and Presbyterial reports to the Assembly, we recommend that the Assembly appoint a committee to consult and coöperate with the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly in investigating the whole matter of the Narrative of the State of Religion, and that the committee presents its findings and recommendations to the Assembly of 1906.

Respectfully submitted in behalf of the Committee,

CHARLES E. COMBRINK, Chairman.

WM. HENRY ROBERTS, Stated Clerk.

CORRESPONDENCE.

REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMISSION OF THE ALLIANCE OF THE REFORMED CHURCHES THROUGHOUT THE WORLD HOLDING THE PRESBYTERIAN SYSTEM.

PHILADELPHIA, PA., May 6, 1905.

To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A.:

FATHERS AND BRETHREN:—The Western or American Section of the Executive Commission of the Alliance of the Reformed Churches holding the Presbyterian System respectfully presents to your venerable body its Annual Report.

The Commission has held during the past ecclesiastical year three meetings, the first at Liverpool, England, on July 5, 1904; the second at Pittsburg, Pa., November 15 and 16, 1904, and the third at Nashville, Tenn., March 28 and 29, 1905. The meeting at Liverpool was the first meeting of the Commission as re-constituted by the Eighth General Council of the Alliance, which met at Liverpool, England, from June 28 to July 5, 1904. The meeting at Pittsburgh was held in the Grace Reformed Church, the Rev. John H. Prugh, D.D., pastor, and had as distinctive features a popular meeting in that church on Wednesday evening, November 16, and the generous hospitality of the ladies of the congregation. At the meeting at Nashville, Tenn., the members of the Commission were the guests of the Presbyterian churches of the city, both of the Cumberland Presbyterian and the Southern Presbyterian denominations. The popular meeting on Wednesday evening, March 28, was largely attended, and the Presbyterian laymen of the city united in tendering a banquet to the Alliance on the evening of March 29. The meeting, as a whole, was one of the most satisfactory in the history of the Alliance.

It gives the Commission great pleasure to report that the Eighth General Council of the Alliance, held at Liverpool, England, was eminently satisfactory, both as to attendance, character of the sessions and general influence. The city of Liverpool, through the Lord Mayor and the Town Council, tendered to the delegates a most bountiful hospitality, a hospitality which was rendered yet more acceptable by the many kindnesses of the Presbyterian and other Christian people of the city. The Proceedings of the Council have been published in a volume at a moderate price, and a copy of the same is herewith submitted to the Assembly.

The following matters are respectfully submitted to you for deliberation and such action as may be deemed appropriate:

1. CANDIDATES FOR THE MINISTRY.—The matter of the decrease in the number of candidates for the ministry has attracted the attention of the Christian churches generally in this and other countries. So momentous is this decrease that the Commission felt the duty incumbent upon it to appoint a committee to consider the entire subject. This committee reported at the Nashville meeting and the report is herewith submitted, with the request that such action be taken as to your honorable body may seem appropriate.*

2. EVANGELIZATION OF THE COLORED PEOPLE.—The Commission has also given considerable attention to mission work among the colored population of the United States. Several of the Churches of this Alliance are engaged in the work, and it is earnestly urged that measures be taken looking to a larger coöperation in this important sphere of Christian effort by the several Churches of the Alliance in the United States.

3. SABBATH-SCHOOL WORK.—There is need, in the opinion of the Commission, for definite instruction of the children and youth of our Churches in the Presbyterian Doctrine, Government and History. There should also be emphasis laid upon the nurture of the children of Christian parents for full membership in the Church and for holy living. These needs should receive full and serious attention, for they are vital to the welfare of our Reformed Churches.

4. EUROPE.—The needs of the weaker Reformed Churches on the continent of Europe are still great, and every effort should be made for their welfare. The greatest need of that historic continent is a revival of spiritual religion. We are glad to state that successful efforts are being made by three of the American Churches in the establishment of regular Sabbath services for the American colonies in the principal cities, as, for instance, The Hague and at Frankfort.

5. REFORMATION ANNIVERSARIES.—The Liverpool Council took action with a view to commemorating historic events and persons connected with the Reformation of the Sixteenth Century as follows:

"Attention has been called to the observance by the Reformed and Lutheran Churches of the European continent and elsewhere of the first Sabbath of November as a day of special thanksgiving for the blessings resulting to so many Churches and countries from that great religious revival which we call the Reformation of the Sixteenth Century.

"Such commemorative thanksgiving exercises are fitted to render most important services in our own day to the different Reformed and Presbyterian Churches of the world. They would also form another link between the Churches of the European continent and those located in other parts of the world.

"We, therefore, recommend the observance of such Reformation Day by the different Churches of this Alliance and would point out that the present is a most opportune season for arranging for such commemoration, since the birth of John Knox occurred in 1505, the death of Theodore Beza, colleague and successor of Calvin, in 1605, and the birth of Calvin himself in 1509."

6. PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH OF MEXICO.—The Council received into the Alliance this latest born of the Presbyterian Churches, and it is recommended that a fraternal message be sent to its General Synod through the Stated Clerk, Rev. William Wallace, D.D., Saltillo, Mexico. We rejoice in the prosperity of the work in Mexico, and hope that the near future will see a great advance in every element of Christian progress.

7. ABSENTEE AND ASSOCIATE CHURCH MEMBERS.—A report on these matters is respectfully submitted for consideration, and if the way be clear for action. One of the troublesome problems of the day is that connected with the hundreds of thousands of evangelical church members whose names are on the rolls of congregations located in communities in which they do not now reside, or who are statedly absent from their homes for long periods of time.

8. REPRESENTATION AND EXPENSES.—The Council adopted recommendations on these important matters to which the Commission has given and is giving serious attention, and the results will be submitted in the next Annual Report.

9. APPORTIONMENT.—It is respectfully requested that provision be made for the payment of the apportionment of your Church for the annual expenses of the Alliance. The amount is $765, and should be sent to the Treasurer, F. K. Hipple, LL.D., President Real Estate Trust Co., Philadelphia, Pa.

The Alliance has appointed as a delegate to carry to your venerable body fraternal greetings the Rev. James D. Moffat, D.D., LL.D.

Invoking the blessing of God upon your deliberations, and the outpouring of His blessing upon you and all your work for Christ, we are in behalf of the Western or American Section of the Commission of the Alliance,

Yours fraternally and respectfully,

RALPH EARL PRIME, Chairman;
WM. HENRY ROBERTS, Secretary.

ALLIANCE OF THE REFORMED CHURCHES THROUGHOUT THE WORLD HOLDING THE PRESBYTERIAN SYSTEM.

WESTERN OR AMERICAN SECTION.

Report of a Special Committee on Candidates* for the Ministry.

This Committee was appointed over a year ago at a meeting of the Section held in Toronto. It made a partial report at Pittsburg last November, and was continued. It now seeks to present its final report to this Section.

That the work of the Committee might be as thorough and reliable as possible, a circular letter was sent out to about a hundred persons who could give useful information, and about fifty replies were received. These letters were sent not only to men in the Churches of this Alliance, but also to leading men in other Churches, and the Committee thanks all who gave the information without which this report could not have been made what it is.

This letter asked mainly for two things: First, for certain statistics, covering the decade from 1894 to 1904, in regard to the number of candidates, licensures and ordinations during this period. Secondly, inquiry was made in regard to (1) the causes for the decline in numbers, (2) the remedies to be applied, (3) the sufficiency of ministers now available, and (4) the adequacy of the present methods of ministerial training.

The Committee also made inquiry as to conditions in some of the other Protestant Churches; and the replies received go to show that, while the decline has not been so great as in some of the branches of this Alliance, there is not any marked increase anywhere.

Taking a general view of the conditions both in Europe and America, the conclusion is forced upon us that the number of young men now seeking the Gospel ministry in the Protestant Churches is not as great as it was ten years ago, and that the supply is not at all adequate. In Germany there has been a great falling off, and the same is true in Britain, with little prospect in either land of much increase for some years to come. We merely mention this fact, without any discussion of it, to show that the conditions in America are not peculiar to us here, but somewhat general in Protestantism.

Without further preliminary, the statistics for the decade may now be given from seven of the Churches of this Section of the Alliance. We cannot give the figures in full, so we condense in such a way as to give general results. This we shall do by stating the number of candidates, licensures and ordinations ten years ago (1894) and now (1904). Then we shall add the figures for the first five years of the decade, and for the second five years, and make comparisons on this basis alone.

I. Presbyterian Church U. S. A.

In 1894: C.† 1434; L. 336; O. 261.
In 1904: C. 870; L. 200; O. 224.
For the first five years of the decade:
C. 6694;‡ L. 1577; O. 1429.
For the second five years:
C. 4349; L. 1093; O. 1196.

*The term "candidate" is used in different senses by the various Churches of the Alliance. It sometimes means any man who is in college or seminary under care of Presbytery. It sometimes denotes only those who are in their theological course of study. And it sometimes means those who are licensed but not yet ordained. This diversity of usage has been perplexing.

† C. stands for candidates; L. for licensures; and O. for ordinations in these statistics.

‡ These figures may seem large compared with licensures and ordinations. This arises from the fact that the same men are counted more than once during their course of studies in a seminary for five years.

The number of ministers received from other Churches is large, being 105 in 1894 and 94 in 1904, and 726 for the whole decade. The average number of deaths annually was about 140. The decline in the number of candidates began in 1896, and has continued.

II. Presbyterian Church U. S.

In 1894: C. 445; L. 49; O. 55.
In 1904: C. 315; L. 53; O. 57.

For the first five years of the decade:
C. 1924; L. 324; O. 324.

For the second five years:
C. 1523; L. 265; O. 265.

The average number of deaths was about 32 a year. The number of ministers from other Churches was only about 10 annually. The decline in numbers began in 1896, and still continues, with a slight increase last year (1904) over the year before (1903).

III. Cumberland Presbyterian Church.

In 1894: C. 239; L.* 266; O. 60.
In 1904: C. 175; L.* 169; O. 49.

For the first five years of the decade:
C. 1455; L.* 1409.

For the second five years:
C. 1177; L.* 1099.

The number of ordinations was not given. Ministers received from other Churches averaged about 14 a year and the deaths about 30. The decline began in 1897, and continued till last year, when there was an increase of 3 over the year before.

IV. United Presbyterian Church.

In 1894: C. 109; L. 54; O. 38.
In 1904: C. 84; L. 40; O. 33.

For the first five years of the decade:
C. 630: L. 225; C. 196.

For the second five years:
C. 456; L. 186; O. 179.

The deaths were about 18 per annum, and receptions from other Churches only about 5 a year. The decline began in 1897, and has continued.

V. The Reformed Church in America.

In 1894: C. 57; L. 16; O. 15.
In 1904: C. 42; L. 18; O. 16.

For the first five years of the decade:
C. 316; L. 93; O. 92.

For the second five years:
C. 255; L. 94; O. 90.

The deaths were about 14 annually, and those received from other Churches averaged 15. The decline in this body began in 1898.

VI. The Reformed Church in the United States.

The statistics for this body are not very complete, but they agree in the main with those already given.

In 1894: C. 300.
In 1904: C. 192.

* The number of licentiates on the roll is here given, rather than the number of licensures each year.

The deaths and receptions from other Churches not given. The decline began in 1896. There are now 100 more churches and 100 fewer candidates than ten years ago.

VII. The Reformed Presbyterian Church.

In 1894: C. 15; L. 3; O. 4.
In 1904: C. 10; L. 4; O. 6.

For the first five years of the decade:
C. 106; L. 28; O. 22.

For the second five years:
C. 67; L. 21; O. 21.

Deaths have averaged only about 2 a year, and very few ministers were received from other Churches. The decline began in 1898.

VIII. The Presbyterian Church in Canada.

For this Church definite statistics are not in hand, but we have some general information. The whole number supposed to be in preparation for the Gospel ministry in colleges and theological schools is something over 300, perhaps 325; and it has been at about that figure for nearly the whole decade.

From the information we have it would seem that in the Church in Canada there is no actual decline in numbers, that any variation has been only temporary, and that the increase in the number has not kept pace with the growth of the Church.

A concluding summary of statistics may be made which presents the facts as a whole for these Churches, leaving out of account the Canadian, which has had so little change in numbers as not to materially affect the conclusions to which these figures bring us.

The totals in 1894,	C. 2619
" " " 1904,	" 1688
Decrease,	931
The totals in 1894,	L. 524
" " " 1904,	" 384
Decrease,	140
The totals in 1894,	O. 439
" " " 1904,	" 379
Decrease,	60

This is a decline of 931 candidates, 140 licensures and 60 ordinations. This is serious, when the growth of the Churches is taken into account.

So far as the Churches of this Section of the Alliance are concerned, the statistics given justify the inference that there has been a falling off of from 30 to 60 per cent. in the number of men available for the ministry during the past decade. It is further evident that it will be some time yet before there is any marked change for the better, since there does not seem to be a very great increase in the number of students in college who have the ministry in view.

The Other Churches.

Only brief allusion can be made to conditions in other Churches. The Southern Baptists report about 1000 men in college and seminary, but their statistics are confessedly incomplete, and it seems that more of their men are now taking college and seminary courses than ten years ago. The result may be that, while a larger number are in college and seminary than ten years ago, the actual supply of ministers may not be increasing as rapidly as the denomination is growing.

Practically the same is true of the Baptists in the North. They report a larger number taking a full course of training in college and seminary, without any unusual increase in the men available for actual pastoral work.

Among the Congregationalists the decline is seriously felt, especially in the Eastern seminaries. Indeed, their condition is fully as serious as ours in the decline in numbers and in the difficulty of filling vacant places with good available men.

Among the Methodists, alike in this country and Canada, the number of candidates seems to be about stationary, with little to spare for the growth of the Church. From the Episcopal and Christian or Campbellite bodies we have no information which is of any real value in this discussion; but we know that when any important place in any of these Churches becomes vacant and needs a minister the right man seems hard to find.

The Causes of the Decline.

In reply to the inquiry as to the causes for this reduction in the number of young men who are devoting themselves to the Gospel ministry, many very valuable answers have been received. These replies are so varied that it is impossible to give them all, and very difficult to do justice to them in any summary.

Nearly all of the responses agree in making the low tone of the Churches in spirituality and consecration, together with the generally secular temper of the present age, the broad underlying reason for the relatively small number of young men who now devote their lives to the Gospel ministry. This is, no doubt, correct, so that the decline of which we are now speaking is a symptom of the general condition of the Churches. Of the score or more of expressions of this general cause we give a compact summary under classified headings.

1. Ten specify the current materialism of our day, together with the strenuous commercialism into which our young men are thrust in early life.

2. Five mention the doctrinal unrest of our day in regard to many of the verities of the Christian faith and the lack of earnestness on the part of Christians.

3. Five lay stress on the decline of family religion and home piety, whereby things sacred fail to be held in high esteem.

4. Five speak of radical or destructive criticism and naturalistic evolution as playing its part.

5. Five think that the meagre salaries of ministers, compared with the incomes of those in other occupations, has its effect.

6. Four call attention to the fact that various other lines of Christian service, such as the Y. M. C. A. and lay workers of various kinds, enlist some men who might otherwise go into the ministry.

7. Four lay much stress on the low estimate which, in public esteem, is now often placed upon the minister's office. Its divine dignity is frequently but little recognized.

8. Four call attention to the lack of earnest prayer to the Lord of the harvest to send forth the laborers into the field.

9. Failure to be faithful in preaching to declare the whole counsel of God, and the tendency to preach on other topics than the Gospel, is noted by four as a cause of present conditions.

10. Three make much of the decline in spirituality of ministers and people, and the consequent formalism and worldliness in the Church.

11. Three also lay some store by the "dead line," which limits the prospects of long usefulness and leaves a dreary outlook for old age, as a cause for the decline.

12. Three also suggest that the fault, in part, lies with ministers in failing to preach on the claims of the ministry, so as to bring these before parents and their sons in a formal way.

13. Three mention the influence of some things in the average college life of our time which do not draw men toward the Christian ministry.

14. Three, in like manner, call attention to the popularity of scientific pursuits, and that many fields of profitable life-work are now opened up in this way, in teaching or in professional pursuits.

15. Two call attention to the fact that the drift from the country, whence most of our ministers come, to the city has its effect.

16. Two specially mentioned the lack of strong, positive faith in religious matters, and deep conviction touching the need of the Gospel and its preaching to save men.

17. Two mention the elevation of the standard of education for the ministry, and the large, varied and exacting demands made on the minister of to-day.

18. One calls attention to the increased cost of securing an adequate education as a hindrance to some, and another thinks that the financial aid given to students is hurtful.

The Remedies.

Touching the remedies which the replies suggest, we have time only to mention a few of the many which lie before us.

Of course, the remedy which would completely cure all the phases of the evil is a genuine and profound spiritual revival which would awaken a deep sense of the reality of divine things, and would lead men to place the emphasis of life upon the spiritual and eternal.

Some of the suggestions made are as follows :

1. Ministers should bring the call to the Gospel ministry, both publicly and privately, before their people, and especially before worthy and capable young men who are Christians.

2. Ministers, by their preaching, ought to seek to elevate the whole spiritual tone of their people, and thus produce a soil and an atmosphere which will bring forth both Church members and ministers for the next generation.

3. The home can do much to remedy things. Let parents cultivate earnest piety in the home, and point their sons, in a right way, to the ministry as life's noblest calling.

4. The development of the Church colleges which largely supply young men for the ministry, and the retaining in such colleges of a distinctly religious sentiment.

5. The visitation of our colleges by competent men, seminary professors and others, who can lay the claims of the ministry properly before Christian young men in college.

6. The cultivation of a proper Scriptural esteem for the Christian Church, and for the office of the Christian ministry—that he is not a hireling, but a servant of God, under Christ, for the highest welfare of the people.

7. Careful deportment upon the part of ministers that they may not belittle the sacred office in the eyes of any young men.

8. By giving the ministry an adequate support, and providing suitably for the old age of ministers who are laid aside from active service.

9. To insist on a high standard of ministerial qualifications, not only on the side of general literary and Biblical culture, but on the side of deep spirituality and seriousness of temper.

10. By a return to strong, comprehensive Biblical and spiritual preaching, which will show to young men of noble parts and earnest spirit that the preacher's message is worthy of the best that is in any man for his life-work.

11. By doing all in our power to bring about a revived state of the Church, to deepen the sense of the sinfulness of men, of the absolute need they are in of the Gospel, and to emphasize that the Gospel is the only hope and help of our lost, undone race.

12. To lay more stress on the heroic side of the minister's life and service—that it calls for self-denial and sacrifice, and elicits all that is noble, heroic and Christlike in the life of a man to be a worthy minister or missionary of the cross of Jesus Christ.

13. Courage in declaring the whole counsel of God, faithfulness in private personal dealing with men, and a ministerial bearing which may commend the Gospel ministry to our best young men.

14. To be earnest in prayer to God for the reviving and quickening of the Church, and definite and importunate in prayer for more godly young men for the ministry. The Church on its knees will soon be the Church revived and supplied with a noble army of ministers and missionaries.

Conclusion.

Nearly all the replies assert that there were not too many ministers of the right sort ten years ago, and that the number now is not adequate. A few say that the number of men in their Church is sufficient, but generally the cry is for more and better men.

In regard to the present forms and methods of training, opinions are generally to the effect that the theological seminaries are on the right line in their method of training, but that they should take care to have that training practical, and constantly adapted to the changing conditions in which the ministry must serve.

The Committee thus presents the result of its labors before the Commission. It does so in a hopeful spirit, even though some of the facts presented may discourage. Things have often been worse in the history of the Church, and the Lord has revived His people, and raised up noble, consecrated and heroic men to carry the Gospel on its errand of life and salvation to all the ends of the earth. Our confident hope and assurance is that He will do so yet again, and sooner, perhaps, than we think, so that we, in our Reformed Churches of the Presbyterian faith and order, may be made glad by seeing manifold tokens in all our borders of the power of the Gospel of the grace of God among the children of men.

Second Address and Appeal to the Christian Public.

The representatives of the fifteen Churches composing the Inter-Church Conference on Marriage and Divorce, who during the past three years have held several meetings for the consideration of the important subjects entrusted to them, issue to the Christian public this second Address and Appeal.

The latest meeting of the Conference was held at Washington, D. C., January 25th and 26th, 1905, and the action taken by its members with absolute unanimity was along two distinct and separate lines, civil and ecclesiastical.

In the matter of the relation of the State to the subject of divorce, the Conference has cordially accepted the guidance of the American Bar Association. That Association, at its meeting in 1900, approved an Act respecting Divorce which had been drawn up by the Commissions on Uniform Laws appointed by about thirty of the States of the Union. The Act, so far as the first five sections are concerned, was adopted by the Conference, and highly approved as a decided step forward towards securing unity of legal procedure in the several States, in order to check and control hasty divorces and prevent the possibility of procuring fraudulent divorces for the purpose of remarriage. The Conference recommends the amendment of the sixth section of the Act in the direction of the greater safety of society and the more complete protection of the home, and the proposed amendment is printed along with the Act in the Appendix to this Address.

The members of the Conference are happy to make known their high appreciation of their reception at the White House by the President of the United States, on the afternoon of January 26th, 1905, and of his prompt and frank expression of sympathy and readiness to co-operate in measures which might tend to the preservation of the sanctity of marriage, the safety of the family, and the sacredness of the home. With the most cordial outspokenness the President pledged his help to further these objects which the Conference aims to serve, and, at the suggestion of the Conference, with characteristic promptness he sent a message to Congress within four days, asking that the Census Bureau be "authorized by appropriate legislation to collect and publish statistics and laws pertaining to the subject of divorce from 1886 to the present time." This legislation has been enacted.

The Conference also authorized the Chairman to prepare a second Address and Appeal, and adopted the following Resolutions:—

"Resolved, That a copy of such Address and Appeal be sent to the President of the United States, to the Governors of all the States and Territories, and to the clergy of all Churches represented in the Conference, asking their aid and influence for the passage in the District of Columbia and in the States and Territories of such an Act as that recommended by the American Bar Association, the sixth section being amended so as to provide that if action is to be taken on the subject of remarriage, the innocent party shall not marry again within a year from the date of the decision allowing the divorce, and that a just discrimination shall be made between the innocent and the guilty party; And providing further, that the final decree shall not be entered until six months after such decision; such six months, if allowed, to form part of the year.

"Resolved, That the Chairman ask the consideration by the American Bar Association of such an amendment.

"Resolved, That a copy of the Address and Appeal be sent to the Chief Justices of the highest Courts of the District of Columbia, and of all the States and Territories, respectfully asking them to call the attention of their Courts having jurisdiction of divorce to the fraud often practiced upon them by false or insufficient evidence in respect of residence and cause for divorce, and by collusion between the parties, and requesting them to endeavor to have all requirements of law in their States or Territories rigidly observed in cases coming before them."

Further than this, the Conference by a unanimous vote adopted the following Resolution bearing upon the ecclesiastical part of this momentous question, and tending to secure unity of action among the Churches as to the religious side of marriage:—

"Resolved, That it is the judgment of this Conference, and hereby it is recommended to the ecclesiastical bodies represented in the Conference for their approval, that ministers should refuse to marry divorced persons, except the innocent party in a case where the divorce has been granted on Scriptural grounds, nor then until assured that a period of one year has elapsed from the date of the decision allowing the divorce."

It will be noticed as to this Resolution that the Conference recommends first, that remarriage after divorce be allowed by the Church only to the innocent party divorced; and, second, that even in such cases, it is recommended that the time-limit as to remarriage be fixed at one year, in order to avoid the securing of a divorce from one person for the sake of immediate remarriage to another, thus helping to prevent the indecent haste which has increased the scandal of divorce cases, and also affording time for thoughtfulness and possible reconciliation between the parties to the suit.

In issuing this statement of the action taken by the Conference, action more strong and practical than ever before, its members once more earnestly appeal to the Christian conscience of America to rouse to a realization of the grave conditions which exist now among us, and ask all Christians to bestir themselves to the formation of such public opinion and such religious convictions as will check and arrest the dangerous, downward tendencies which so threaten the most sacred institutions of humanity. We make the impressive declaration of President Roosevelt our own, that if the nation shall "solve every other problem in the wisest possible way it shall profit us nothing if we shall have lost our own national soul; and we will have lost it, if we do not have the question of the relations of the family put upon the proper basis."

REPORT OF THE INTERDENOMINATIONAL COMMITTEE ON A UNIFORM VERSION OF THE PSALMS IN METER.

To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., to meet in Winona Lake, Ind., May 18, 1905:

The Joint Committee on a Uniform Version of the Psalms in Meter beg leave to report that they have held two meetings during the ecclesiastical year now closed, one at Silver Bay, Lake George, N. Y., in August, 1904, and one at the Presbyterian Building, New York City, in April, 1905, and they are glad to report that the new version has been completed. They hoped to be able to present with this report printed copies of the completed work, but this has been found impracticable; but an Editorial Committee, consisting of the Chairman and Secretary, with Principal Scrimger of Montreal and Prof. Davis of Princeton, are engaged in putting the work through the press. The copies thus issued are for examination and criticism or approval before being issued in final form. You are, therefore, respectfully requested to arrange at this session of your judicatory for the examination of the work, by committee or otherwise, with a view to criticism or approval by your body, and to send such criticisms to the Secretary by January 1, 1906. Until the work and matters connected with its publication are finally disposed of the Joint Committee will need to continue in existence, and you are invited to appoint representatives as formerly.

The Committee also ask the usual grant of $15 for the current year. Its prompt remittance to the Secretary, Rev. Prof. J. D. Steele, 74 West 103d Street, New York City, will expedite the matter of printing the Psalter and provide fifty copies for the Church remitting the same. These copies will be bound in paper, and extra copies can be ordered through the Secretary, as above, at a cost of from 12 to 20 cents apiece, according to the number it is found the Churches may desire printed. Please indicate to the Secretary immediately after your meeting the number of copies you may desire.

The Joint Committee was not constituted with a view to selecting the needed music, although that matter was constantly before them; but while as a rule each Psalm has but one version, the variety of meter adopted is such that the rich treasure of sacred music in the Church is now available for Psalm singing, and the effectiveness and acceptability of the Psalms will depend more upon the music used than upon any perfection the lines may possess.

It will, therefore, be necessary for the Churches, jointly or otherwise, to have selected for each Psalm the best attainable music. If this be done as competently as the importance of the matter demands, Psalm singing will become more popular by far than at present.

From the beginning of their work the Joint Committee have rejoiced in a unity of spirit and aim and method, and with gratitude to God they now present to the Churches in His name the result of their five years of labor.

MEMORIAL FROM THE AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY.

To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A.:

DEAR BRETHREN:—The Board of Managers of the American Bible Society would respectfully call the attention of the General Assembly to the fact that in May, 1906, the Ninetieth Anniversary of the organization of the Society will occur. The exact date of the organization was May 8, 1816, and on May 8, 1906, or in close connection therewith, it is the purpose of the Board of Managers to have appropriate public recognition of this highly significant event.

The translation and circulation of the Scriptures is so indispensable that it seems most appropriate for all the churches to give thanks at this time for what it has been permitted to the founders and continuators of this Society to do in disseminating God's Holy Word. We, therefore, respectfully request your venerable body that, if it meets your approval, you will commend to the churches of your communion the propriety of coöperating with such measures as may hereafter be devised for a suitable recognition of this Ninetieth Anniversary, and if at the next meeting of the General Assembly some services could be arranged of an appropriate character it would be highly gratifying and encouraging to us.

We take this occasion to express our sincere thanks to the ministers and churches of your body for their prompt and generous response to our appeals to them for help in a grave financial emergency in the history of the Society. Through their aid, and that of others no less generous, we have been enabled to close the year without debt, though with some curtailment of our work. The continuing decrease in receipts from legacies, however, compels us to ask once more that annual collections from Presbyterian churches may be continued and increased in amount, so that we may not be compelled still further to shorten our work at home or abroad.

On behalf of the Board of Managers,

Very sincerely yours,

JOHN FOX,
WILLIAM I. HAVEN,
EDWARD P. INGERSOLL, } Secretaries.

It will be noticed that but five of these matriculants lack the degree of Bachelor of Arts and four of the five are foreigners, three being Japanese and one Italian. Though without a Western degree, two of the Japanese have had a regular course of education in their own country. The Italian student was trained in Nyack Bible Institute for three years. R. W. Mark studied at Mount Hermon School for nearly four years.

Twenty-three of these matriculants, having already completed the theological course at the institutions named, were admitted to graduate studies: J. A. Aasgaard, from the United Norwegian Lutheran Seminary; M. L. Bethel, from Lincoln University; W. A. Condon and W. T. Mabon, from Xenia Theological Seminary; T. Coyle, from Union Theological Seminary, N. Y.; C. De Leeuw, from the Christian Reformed Theological School; E. L. Eagleson, T. N. McQuoid, J. Nelson, H. P. Smith and W. S. Wallace, from Allegheny United Presbyterian Theological Seminary; W. F. Galbraith, from Union Theological Seminary, Va.; A. V. C. P. Huizinga, from Yale Divinity School; W. H. Leslie, from the Western Theological Seminary; A. L. Mackay and G. P. Tattrie, from the Presbyterian Theological College, Halifax; D. G. Malan and J. G. Perold, from Stellenbosch Theological Seminary, South Africa; B. M. Paul, from the Reformed Presbyterian Seminary, Philadelphia; R. A. Rinker and A. N. Stubblebine, from Ursinus School of Theology; A. Russell, from the Presbyterian College, Montreal; and H. Senouye, from San Francisco Theological Seminary.

One was enrolled with the Senior Class: F. W. Evans, on dismission from the Western Theological Seminary.

Four were enrolled with the Middle Class: W. A. Clemmer, from Heidelberg Seminary; E. T. Ferry, from Manitoba College; E. G. Wood, from McCormick Theological Seminary; and G. W. Arms, Jr., who completed the work of the Junior year under instruction of this Faculty before matriculation.

Three were granted permission to pursue a partial course: A. M. Forrester, K. Mori, and G. A. Scarinci.

The classified enrollment has been:

Fellows,	3
Other Graduate Students,	31
Senior Class,	49
Middle Class,	50
Junior Class,	53
Special Students,	3
Total,	189

The Stone Lectures were delivered by the Rev. George Frederick Wright, Professor in Oberlin Theological Seminary. His subject was "The Historical Character of the Old Testament, Interpreted and Supported by Recent Scientific Investigation." Mr. John R. Mott, General Secretary of the World's Student Christian Federation, was the Students' Lecturer on Missions, and spoke on "The Pastor and Modern Missions." Through the liberality of friends of the Seminary, a course of lectures was obtained from the Rev. Dr. William Imbrie, Professor in the Meiji Gakuin, Tokyo, on "The Founding and Establishment of the Church in Japan." Also the Rev. James B. Ely, of the Presbyterian Evangelistic Committee of Philadelphia, lectured before the Seminary on "Principles and Problems in Evangelistic Work."

On invitation by the Faculty, or by the Students' Religious Association with the approval of the Faculty, addresses on missionary themes were delivered by the Rev. J. Walter Lowrie, of Paotingfu; Mr. Hotchkiss, of the Friends' Mission in Africa; the Rev. Lacy L. Little, a missionary of the Southern Church in China; the Rev. Dr. Charles L. Thompson, Secretary of the Board of Home Missions; the Rev. Dr. Samuel G. Wilson, of Tabriz, Persia; the Rev. Charles R. Watson, Secretary of the United Presbyterian Board of Foreign Missions; the Rev. William L. Schmalhorst, of Valapariso, Chili; the Rev. Robert H. Milligan, of Gabun, West Africa, and others. On the Day of Prayer for Colleges, the Rev. Charles R. Erdman, of Germantown, addressed the Seminary at the meeting in Stuart Hall in the forenoon and preached in the evening.

On April 13th a service was held by the Seminary in Miller Chapel commemorative of the life and work of John Knox. By invitation of the Faculty the address was delivered by the President of the Board of Directors.

Classes in the English Bible were conducted during the greater part of the year. Rev. S. S. Mitchell, D.D., served for a part of the first term, and Rev. W. W. White, D.D., throughout the second term. Dr. White directed studies in the prophecy of Jeremiah, and in the Gospels according to Matthew and John. Many students heard the lectures with greater or less regularity as guests, and fifteen pursued one or both courses and submitted to the examination.

Rev. David J. Burrell, D.D., LL.D., was continued for another year as Lecturer on Homiletics.

The degree of Bachelor of Divinity was conferred upon the following students, who have done approved work under the Faculty of Instruction:

Oswald Thompson Allis, a Bachelor of Arts of the University of Pennsylvania;

Hugh Brown, a Master of Arts of Princeton University;

Henry Peter De Pree, a Bachelor of Arts of Hope College;
Humphrey Gilbert Gratz, a Bachelor of Arts of Dalhousie College;
James Frederick Horn, a Master of Arts of Princeton University;

II. AUBURN THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

REPORT OF THE GOVERNING BOARDS.

THE Governing Boards of the Theological Seminary of Auburn, in the State of New York, report as follows for the year ending May 11, 1905, to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America:

The Rev. Allen Macy Dulles, D.D., has been elected to a new Chair of Theism and Apologetics and has accepted the election. Prof. J. Richard Street, Ph.D., and Rev. Edward J. Humeston have been employed during the past year as Instructors in Religious Pedagogy and Elocution respectively.

A number of Oriental Scholarships have been founded, yielding an income of $300 a year, together with the free occupancy of a room in Morgan Hall. These will be awarded to Japanese students of special attainments and promise. Three Social Service Scholarships have been founded and are awarded to men of high attainments in the department of Sociology. The recipients of these Scholarships spend the summer vacation in studying social conditions and rendering service in connection with Settlement Work in the large cities. In this way the students particularly interested in Sociology have the opportunity of concentrating their classroom work in the Seminary year and their practical work in the summer. Two of the appointees, this summer, go to New York and one to Chicago. It is expected that other similar Scholarships will be founded as needed.

The Silliman Clubhouse, mentioned in our last report, has been in operation for a year and has proven to be a valuable addition to the Seminary equipment. The social life of the students finds most delightful expression in this House.

During the past year there have been forty-four lectures and addresses by twenty-eight speakers, supplementing the curriculum.

I. THE GOVERNING BOARDS OF THE SEMINARY.

THE OFFICERS of the Board of Commissioners for the ensuing year are:

Rev. CHARLES N. FROST, President.
Rev. HALSEY B. STEVENSON, Stated Clerk.
Rev. ROBERT CLEMENTS, Temporary Clerk.
Rev. EDMUND G. RAWSON, Assistant Clerk.

III. WESTERN THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

1. ANNUAL REPORT OF DIRECTORS.

THE Board of Directors of the Western Theological Seminary, Allegheny, Pa., present to the General Assembly the following as their Seventy-eighth Annual Report.

Since the last Annual Report the following students have been matriculated:

TO THE JUNIOR CLASS.

Samuel Blacker, student of Royal University of Ireland.
John Watson Christie, a graduate of Princeton University.
William Warden Dinsmore, a graduate of Franklin College.
William Carl Ferver, a graduate of Westminster College.
William Elliott Fulton, a graduate of Washington and Jefferson College.
Clarence Edwin Houk, a graduate of Northeastern Ohio Normal College.
Athanas Toleff Hristoff, student of Collegiate and Theological Institute, Samokov, Bulgaria.
James Way Huey, student of Washington and Jefferson College.
Joseph Kardoss, a graduate of Gymnasium Halas, Hungary.
George Willis Kaufman, a graduate of Grove City College.
Samuel Mayne, student of Royal University of Ireland.
George Crawford Miller, a graduate of Missouri Valley College.
Paul James Golden Miller, a graduate of Princeton University.
Michael Myers McDivitt, a graduate of Washington and Jefferson College.

Adam Gyula Schodl, a graduate of Gymnasium, Budapest, Hungary.

William Jacob Snyder, a graduate of Grove City College.

Gilbert Wright Stewart, a graduate of Washington and Jefferson College.

Clarence Burchfield Wible, a graduate of Washington and Jefferson College.

Francis Ives Woollett, a graduate of Washington and Jefferson College.

Charles Edward Bovard, a graduate of Grove City College, and Harry Andrew Rhodes, also a graduate of the same institution, were admitted to the Middle Class on letters of dismissal from Princeton Theological Seminary.

Howard Claberg Cooper, a graduate of Wooster University, and Walter Pringle McConkey, a graduate of Grove City College, were admitted to the Middle Class on letters of dismissal from McCormick Theological Seminary.

John William McIver and Kenneth Edward MacLeod, graduates of Franklin College, were admitted to the Senior Class on letters of dismissal from McCormick Theological Seminary.

Three ministers were enrolled as post-graduate students:

Larimore C. Denise, a graduate of Omaha Theological Seminary.

Harry Wentworth McCombs, a graduate of Western Theological Seminary.

William Franklin Slade, a graduate of Bangor Theological Seminary.

Three of the matriculants of the year were engaged in special studies: William Mathias Brichta, Marshall Blain Lytle and Franklin Lawson Teets.

Mr. Frederick Walter Evans was at his own request dismissed to the Senior Class of Princeton Theological Seminary, and Mr. Joseph Stephen Goehring to the Middle Class of McCormick Theological Seminary.

The total attendance for the year has been fifty-five, distributed in the various classes as follows:

Graduate students, two; post-graduate, three; Seniors, fifteen; Middlers, twelve; Juniors, nineteen; Special, four.

These students represent twenty-one institutions and twelve different States and countries. The special attention of the Assembly is again called to the presence of foreign students in our Seminary. During the past year there were enrolled one Bulgarian, three Bohemians, two Hungarians and one Ruthenian.

Denominations other than our own were represented as follows: One Baptist, one Congregationalist, one Cumberland Presbyterian and three Methodists.

Our two graduate students have been pursuing post-graduate studies at the University of Leipsic under the direction of the Faculty.

Special attention is directed to the interesting courses of lectures which were delivered to the students by visitors:

Elliott Lectureship:

Rev. Hugh Black, The Practice of Self-Culture.

Missionary Lectures:

Mr. John Willis Baer. Home Missions.

Rev. John A. Eakin, D.D., Presbyterian Missions in Siam.

Rev. William Imbrie, D.D., The Founding of the Church of Christ in Japan.

Rev. W. C. Johnson, Christianity in Equatorial Africa.

Rev. A. P. Kelso, The India of To-day.

Rev. Charles Stelzle, The Church and the Workingman.

Rev. S. Edward Young, D.D., How to Get an Audience.

Rev. S. G. Wilson, Persia.

Prof. Boyd, who is in charge of the Department of Music, has furnished two unique extra-curriculum exercises. One was an instrumental concert rendered by the orchestra of the North Avenue Methodist Episcopal Church. Its purpose was to illustrate Sunday-school music. The second was a vocal concert by the Cecilia Choir. The numbers given indicated the development of church music along certain lines. The Cecilia Choir also had charge of the Commencement music.

The Post-graduate Scholarship of $400 was awarded to Mr. John Stewart

Kunkle, of the Senior Class, as he had maintained the highest average grade in all departments.

Two members of the Graduating Class are under the appointment of the Board of Foreign Missions. Mr. John Morton Espey goes to Shanghai, China, and Mr. John Stewart Kunkle goes to Canton, China.

Rev. David S. Schaff, D.D., Professor of Ecclesiastical History and History of Doctrine, was inaugurated on the evening of November 4, 1904. Rev. David S. Kennedy, D.D., the President of the Board of Directors, presided. Dr. Christie read the Scriptures, Dr. Biddle offered prayer, Dr. W. S. Fulton delivered the Charge, and Dr. Schaff delivered the inaugural on "The Closing Century of the Middle Ages."

Rev. David Gregg, D.D., LL.D., was inaugurated as President of the Seminary on May 3, 1905. The services were held in the new First Presbyterian Church, Pittsburgh, at 2.30 P.M. Dr. Kennedy presided, Dr. Lindsay read the Scriptures, Dr. O. A. Hills offered prayer, Dr. Moffat dedelivered the Charge, and Dr. Gregg delivered his inaugural on "Ministers that are Worth While." In the evening of the same day a banquet was given under the auspices of the Presbyterian Union of Pittsburgh and Allegheny at the Schenley Hotel, and Drs. Patton, Stewart, McKibbin and Marquis brought greetings and good wishes from Princeton, Auburn, Lane and McCormick Seminaries.

The outlook of the Seminary for the coming year is most hopeful, and generous plans are on foot for the securing of funds with which to provide more modern and commodious accommodations for the work of the Seminary and for the endowment of the President's Chair.

The closing exercises of the Seminary were held this year on the evening of May 4th, in the First Presbyterian Church, Allegheny, Pa. Rev. Dr. Kennedy presided, Dr. Fulton welcomed the Graduating Class into the Alumni Association, Dr. Ketler delivered the address and the diplomas were delivered to the students by Dr. Gregg, the President.

The following students, members of the Graduating Class, received the diploma of the Seminary:

Report of Examiners Lane Seminary, May, 1905.

Examiners were present from the Synod of Ohio and from various Presbyteries in the Synods of Ohio and Indiana.

Attention was given to the examination of the different classes in the Seminary on the part of the examiners, and with an impression of high appreciation of the work done by the students, evincing on their part diligence in study and research.

Examiners were moved to receive with no less a degree of appreciation the part of professors in their manner of teaching, and their success in awakening in the students an interest in their studies.

From our observation of the work of both professors and students, through which all honor is given to the Word of God and to the System of Faith held by the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, we would most heartily commend Lane Seminary to the confidence of that Church, and ask her aid in increasing the ranks of the student body.

The new men called at the beginning of the present year to fill the vacant chairs have shown by their work during the year the wisdom of their choice. Of them, one who promised much of interest in and for the Seminary was called to his heavenly reward after but a few months of service, and our sympathy is extended to the Seminary and bereaved family in the loss sustained by the death of Prof. Douglas P. Putnam.

(Signed) David R. Moore, Chairman.
W. J. Dempster, Secretary.

Since the last meeting of the General Assembly the following brethren have been elected to Chairs in the Seminary:

Rev. William McKibbin, D.D., LL.D., to the Presidency of the Seminary and to the Chair of Systematic Theology.

Rev. Douglas P. Putnam, D.D., to the Chair of Homiletics and Pastoral Theology.

Rev. Edward Mack, D.D., to the Chair of Hebrew and Old Testament Literature.

Rev. Selby F. Vance, D.D., to the Chair of Church History.

Prof. Edwin B. Evans has given instruction in Elocution.

The year would have been one of almost unbroken encouragement had it not pleased Divine Providence to take from us most suddenly Rev. Douglas P. Putnam, D.D., who died March 25, 1905.

Dr. Putnam had entered upon his work with rare enthusiasm, quickly winning the confidence and affection of his students, and disclosing exceptional ability as a teacher. His winning personality, excellent judgment, strong faith, unfailing cheerfulness, marked unselfishness, and abounding zeal made him a co-laborer whose loss it is difficult to measure, and whose place it will not be easy to fill.

JOHN STITES, Treasurer.

Louisville, Ky., May 2, 1905.

We, the undersigned Finance Committee of the Presbyterian Theological Seminary of Kentucky, would respectfully report that we have examined the books, accounts and vouchers of John Stites, Treasurer of said Seminary, and find the same correct in every particular.

He has also exhibited to us the bonds, stocks and other securities held for the Seminary, as shown by the list hereto attached, and we have found all securities called for in said list and by said books on hand and in the proper box in the safety vault to the credit of the Seminary.

HARRY C. WARREN, Chairman;
F. C. NUNEMACHER.

V. GENERAL STATEMENT.

The student body of the past year has been of a high character. The members of the Faculty bear testimony to their faithful pursuit of the work before them, and of their active and helpful participation in the mission work of the city.

During the year the Seminary was favored by a special course of three lectures delivered by Dr. J. W. Beardslee, of Holland, Mich. The subject of these lectures was the "Inter-Biblical Period," and was of interest and value to the students.

Haldeman Hall and Refectory Hall are now in use, having been dedicated with impressive ceremonies October 13, 1904.

These buildings are beautiful, convenient and highly satisfactory. They are lighted with electricity, heated with steam, and provided liberally with bathrooms and modern conveniences. The rooms for students are of good size, well lighted and ventilated, and completely furnished with new furniture of uniform character. The furnishings of the rooms were in most instances provided by individuals, ladies' societies and churches.

The new Library Building, the cornerstone of which was laid October 28, 1904, is now in process of erection and will soon be ready for use. It is the central building of the new group and will contain a reception room, a large room suitable for the ordinary social gathering of the students, a reading room with reference books, a librarian's room and a stock room for 32,000 volumes. It is erected by Mr. James R. Barret, of Henderson, Ky., in memory of his wife, Lucy Stites Barret.

The Board at its annual meeting May 2, 1905, received notice of an additional gift of five thousand dollars from Mr. Barret to be used toward the completion of the library.

The Board looks forward to the erection of additional buildings in the near future.

With a rich blessing on the past as a pledge for the coming days, the Directors and Faculty hopefully look to the opening of the next year's work.

Respectfully submitted,

J. MCCLUSKEY BLAYNEY, President.

WM. IRVINE, Secretary.

The Fellows.

Nettie F. McCormick Fellowship in Old Testament Hebrew:

Mr. James H. Northup, having finished his work, has returned to this country; Mr. William Fleming Scoular will finish his studies in Berlin this summer, and Mr. Frank Edmund Nurse began his work in Berlin last fall.

T. B. Blackstone Fellowship in New Testament Greek:

Mr. Arthur Alexander Hays and Mr. James Milton Vance will finish their course this semester.

Mr. John F. Lyons will pursue his studies in Scotland and Germany.

The Seminary Life.

The Faculty report shows that the missionary and evangelistic spirit of the students has been, as in former years, a feature of the institutional life. With insistence upon the importance of close attention to the studies of the curriculum, the students have been encouraged to engage in definite religious work in the city.

The lectures of the year greatly increased the interest in missions, and the meetings of the Student Volunteers deepened and made personal the impressions and arguments from missionaries and secretaries. The Seminary is represented in the foreign field by Mr. J. S. Smith, of Chili, and thus the great work of world evangelization is brought into intimate connection with the institution.

The students who have offered themselves to the Board of Foreign Missions this year, and who have been accepted, have been assigned as follows:

Mr. J. R. Jones to the Central China Mission.
Mr. A. C. Reischauer to East Japan, Tokio.
Mr. E. L. Johnson to Pekin, China.
Mr. P. P. Faris to the West Shantung Station.
Mr. H. A. Whitlock to the Punjab.

The Home field has called for the services of the remaining twenty-six.

Gifts.

The Trustees record with thanks the fact that Mrs. C. B. Farwell has promised to the Scholarship Fund the sum of $2500, of which $1,000 has already been paid.

Mrs. William Blair has made a like promise of $2500, of which $100, the interest for one year, has already been paid.

Colonel D. C. Smith, of Normal, Ill., contributed $2000 to the endowment of the Bernardine Orme Smith Fellowship, in addition to his former contributions to the same object.

IX. PROFESSORSHIPS AND ENDOWMENT.

Dr. Johnson carried on the full work of his department until January 1st, and no successor having been obtained he consented to continue instruction in Sacred Rhetoric and Pastoral Theology until the close of the year.

Dr. Hobson was absent on leave during the first semester, but at the opening of the winter term returned and resumed his work.

Prof. Dickey was elected to the full professorship of the Chair of New Testament Literature and Exegesis, and granted one year's leave of absence for travel and study in Europe.

The Executive Committee reported that they had established, in accordance with the resolution of last year, a new Chair entitled "The Science and Art of Preaching." Prof. Herrick Johnson, D.D., LL.D., was assigned to this Chair.

Additional generous gifts from the McCormick family add one million dollars to the endowment funds of the Seminary and are gratefully acknowledged.

Rev. James G. K. McClure, D.D., LL.D., was unanimously elected as President of the Seminary.

Respectfully submitted,

SAMUEL J. NICCOLLS, President.

CHARLES M. HOWE, Secretary.

5. Special Features of the Year.

a. Opening Address.

The session for 1904–1905 opened according to notice and appointment on Wednesday, September 21st, and the address on that occasion was delivered by Prof. MacIntosh on "Theology the Ally of Science," being the complement and sequel to his inaugural on "Science the Ally of Theology." There was a large and interested assemblage of friends of the institution.

b. Bible and Missionary Conference.

The signal success of the Conference in 1903, conducted by the Rev. J. Wilbur Chapman, D.D., Secretary of the Assembly's Committee on Evangelistic Work, made it necessary for the Faculty to arrange for another series of meetings this year.

Accordingly, at the Seminary, which all declared to be the one fitting place, there was held, October 24th, 25th and 26th, a reunion of ministers, elders, Sabbath-school teachers and Christian workers. Many came from a distance; all waited with joy and profit; and all went away refreshed and instructed.

The programme was as follows:

Monday.—6.00–8.00 P.M.: "Round Table Conference."

Tuesday.—6.30 A.M.: Hill Top Service.

9.00–12.00 A.M.: (a) Devotional Exercises. (b) Bible Study, Dr. Gray. (c) "The Dynamic Secret of the Holy Scriptures." (d) "Life and Work on Home Mission Fields." Open discussion.

2.00–5.00 P.M.: (a) Bible Study, Dr. Gray. (b) "The Seminary's Message to the Conference," President MacIntosh. (c) "The Church and the Young Men."

7.30 P.M.: (a) Address, Dr. John Dixon, of the Board of Home Missions. (b) Address.

Wednesday.—6.30 A.M.: Hill Top Service.

9.00-12.00 A.M.: (a) Devotional Exercises. (b) Bible Study, Dr. Gray. (c) "Malachi's Message to the Men of To-day." (d) "Practical Evangelism." Open discussion.

2.00-5.00 P.M.: (a) Bible Study, Dr. Gray. (b) "The Paul of Philippians." (c) "The Bible School and Saving the Young."

The following brethren took part in the proceedings and contributed largely to the success and permanent value of the meetings:

Dr. John Dixon, Dr. James M. Gray, Rev. P. E. Zartman, Rev. Joseph N. Boyd, Rev. Thomas Boyd, Rev. H. W. Davis, Prof. Thomas F. Day, Rev. W. K. Guthrie, Dr. John Hemphill. Rev. Arthur Hicks, Rev. David James, Prof. Warren H. Landon, Rev. J. H. Laughlin, Rev. Richmond Logan, Dr. George W. Lyons, President John S. MacIntosh, Rev. H. H. McCreary, Dr. William B. Noble, Rev. Francis Palmer, Rev. A. B. Prichard, Secretary Clyde Smith, Rev. R. P. Taylor, Rev. John S. Thomas, President Guy W. Wadsworth.

The special speakers at this last Conference were the Rev. John Dixon, D.D., of the Board of Home Missions; the Rev. James M. Gray, of the Moody Institute, Chicago, and the Rev. P. E. Zartman, the Assistant Secretary of the Assembly's Committee on Evangelistic Work. The effect of Dr. Dixon's presentation of and appeal for Home Missions will be long felt, and the series of Bible Studies conducted by Dr. Gray (who was never happier in his method nor more impulsive and instructive in his teaching) proved to all a very inspiration.

c. Alumni Conference.

To fit into and prepare for the Evangelistic meetings so lately and with so large blessing conducted by Dr. Chapman and his band of efficient coworkers in Oakland, the Annual Conference of the Alumni of the Seminary was arranged to open with a dinner (quite a new and most attractive feature) on February 28, 1905. For three days the Conference was carried on, and closed with a pleasant and informal reception at the home of the President.

The programme was as follows:

Wednesday.—9.00-10.45 A.M.: "Blood Atonement in the Book of Hebrews," Franklin Rhoda.

11.00-12.00 A.M.: "The Personality of Christ," Eli T. Allen.

2.00-3.00 P.M.: "The Pastor as a Bible Teacher," W. Stuart Wilson.

3.00-4.00 P.M.: "Young People in Organized Church Work," Arthur Hicks.

7.30 P.M.: "Some Great European Preachers of the Last Century," President John S. MacIntosh, D.D.

Thursday.—9.00-10.45 A.M.: "Use and Abuse of Benevolences" (Symposium), George G. Eldridge, Dwight E. Potter.

11.00-12.00 A.M.: "Moral Development of the Race," Alexander Eakin.

2.00-3.00 P.M.: "Love's Crescendo," Thomas F. Day, D.D.

3.00-4.00 P.M.: "Christianity in China," Ng Poon Chew.

7.30 P.M.: "The Eschatology of St. Paul," William Martin.

Friday.—9.00-10.45 A.M.: "The Bible as a Guide to Life," James Curry.

11.00-12.00 A.M.: "Why Do We Pray?" Vaclav Bazata.

2.00-3.00 P.M.: Alumni Business Meeting.

3.30 P.M.: Reception at the home of President and Mrs. MacIntosh.

d. Special Lectures.

The following special lectures were given during the year: "Early History of the Church in California," Rev. J. S. McDonald, D.D., Historian of the Synod of California; "The Mediterranean and the Holy Land,"

Rev. H. H. Bell, D.D., Pastor First Presbyterian Church, San Francisco; "Rambles Among Hawthorne, Holly and Heather," Prof. Warren H. Landon, D.D.; "Home Mission Work in Canada," Rev. David James, Pastor Presbyterian Church, San Rafael; "The Liverpool Council," Prof. Warren H. Landon, D.D.; "The Scottish Church Question," President John S. MacIntosh, D.D.; "Morley's Life of Gladstone," Rev. William Kirk Guthrie, '96, Pastor First Presbyterian Church, San Francisco; "The Law and Limitations of Christian Charity," Rev. George C. Eldridge, St. John's, San Francisco; "The Church and the Labor Unions," Rev. Charles Stelzle, Board of Home Missions.

e. Post-graduate Correspondence Course.

Our now established Post-graduate Correspondence Course pursues its quiet, almost silent way of usefulness, and spreads its impulsive influences over a wonderfully large stretch of territory. Part of its influence is direct and part is indirect. To the lonely home missionary it has proved itself a very friend in need, giving him inspiration in advanced study, lending him books and making the hard worker feel that he is not forgotten in his far-off and frequently trying field of labor. A loan library of modest dimensions has been started through the generosity of Mr. Robert Dollar. The missionary, often longing for the new and the better books, but unable to purchase them, is thus cheered and helped. This library ought to be largely increased, for it is assuredly a great necessity, especially upon this Pacific Slope. A new and improved prospectus for this work has been prepared and is in circulation.

f. The Student Mission Work and Station.

The educational policy of the Seminary provides that each student shall carefully study the greater lines of Christian activity in San Francisco; and also engage in practical Gospel work.

By the kindness of Calvary Presbyterian Church comfortable rooms for the students have been furnished in connection with the Second Street Mission. The Seminary also provides transportation to and from the city, and board from Saturday evening to Monday morning.

In this department excellent work has been done this year. The students have served especially in the Calvary Chapel, the Franklin Street, Westminster and Olivet Churches, and in the Japanese Church and Mission in the city. They have served also in Gospel work at the Presbyterian Orphanage and at other places in the vicinity.

Reports of this work are given at a Special Conference of the Faculty and students held Monday evenings.

6. FINANCES.

Seminary Buildings and Land unavailable for income,	$188,137 48
General Fund,	372,951 70
Endowment Funds,	168,976 85
Scholarship Funds,	30,436 76
	$760,502 79
Total Annual Income (estimated),	$21,433 75
" " Expenditures (estimated),	20,359 60

7. SCHOLARSHIPS.

1. The John William Bulkley Scholarship, founded by Mrs. E. A. Bulkley, of Brooklyn, N. Y.

2. The Davenport Scholarship, founded by John D. Thompson, of San Francisco.

3. The John A. Mackenzie Scholarship, founded by Rev. Robert Mackenzie, D.D., of San Francisco.

4. The Williston Scholarship, founded by Mrs. Emily B. Hopkins, of San Francisco.
5, 6. The David Jacks Scholarships, founded by David Jacks, of Monterey, Cal.
7. The Agnes Hodge Booth Nicholl Scholarship, founded by John Nicholl, of East Oakland, Cal.
8. The Joseph Knowland Scholarship, founded by Joseph Knowland, of Alameda, Cal.
9. The Mary Crocker Scholarship, founded by Miss Mary Crocker, of New York, N. Y.
10. The George Burrowes Scholarship, founded by Prof. and Mrs. George Burrowes, D.D.

8. Special Needs.

The improved condition, the growing number and the enlarging promise and opportunity of the Seminary have made painfully prominent three great necessities, which must be immediately met if this indispensable school of the Pacific Slope is to be truly fitted for its great work:
(a) The endowment of the Greek Chair—the Department of New Testament Language and Literature;
(b) The endowment of the new Department of the English Bible, of Evangelistic Missions and of Teacher Training; and (c) The Library Fund.
While there is an admirable, well selected and extensive stock of the older standard books, there is a lack of the later and much-needed books of reference. The library requires to be "specialized" and equipped for advanced studies in the specific branches of work. The gifts of wise and generous friends could not possibly be better bestowed than in the immediate meeting of this want of our San Francisco Seminary.

9. General Influence of the Seminary.

From the President's last report to the Board of Directors the following general statement is taken:
"In a quiet, dignified and appropriate way, your Seminary is more and more making its presence and its influence felt. It steadily comes into more prominence and grows in favor and wins confidence. The professors and the students are always befitting their position and their specific work, taking part in not a few of the better movements of the hour—assisting and cheering the weaker churches and the sometimes tired and discouraged pastors; taking quite an active and influential part in what is the chief work of our own and other Churches at this present time, the evangelistic crusade; delivering special courses of Bible, missionary and literary addresses, and entering generously and freely into the higher humanities and the broader missions of our opening century. We have become associated with the Seminaries of the Bay in the "Federated Summer School Movement" at Berkeley, and have arranged that one of the courses of lectures shall be delivered by one of your Faculty. We have opened correspondence with our widely scattered Alumni and have drawn them all into the closely bound company of 'Seminary Letter Writers.' We have won the kindly praise of the Evangelistic Committee, and of Dr. Chapman in particular. We have come into close touch with the Presbyterian Orphanage and with the Occidental Board. And from Dr. John Dixon, who cheered us by his genial friendship and sweet loving helpfulness, there have come unsought these hearty words of praise, found in his article in the April number of the Assembly Herald, 'The Star of the West': 'The San Anselmo Seminary has taken new hold upon the affectionate interest and support of its friends and has now a bright future. A three days' home missionary and evangelistic conference was held there and was full of good things. Dr. MacIntosh, the President of the Seminary, and Dr. Gilchrist, with the other professors, had made an attractive programme and it was carried out with enthusiasm.
"This institution is destined to play a conspicuous part in the evangelization of the Coast, and therefore ought to receive the hearty support not only of all the Presbyterians on the Pacific, but also of the whole country. It is a city set on a hill—rather, it is a lighthouse on a coast of more than two thousand miles."

Thus speaks one clothed with authority, who is ripely wise through large and exact knowledge, and fully justified to counsel by many years of special experience.

6. General Remarks.

At the annual meeting of the Board of Directors, the foregoing Directors whose term will expire in 1908, were chosen, and in place of Rev. Charles E. Dunn, resigned, Rev. George N. Luccock, D.D., of the Presbytery of Chicago, was chosen. The Assembly is requested to approve this election.

The following changes have been made in the Faculty: Rev. Ferdinand Urbach has been transferred from the professorship to which he had been chosen to the F. H. Peters Professorship of Biblical and Ecclesiastical History, and Rev. Henry Schmitt, Jr., of the Presbytery of Freeport, has been chosen to the Van Vliet Professorship of Systematic Theology. The approval of the transfer and of the election is desired.

In the opinion of the Board the time seemed to have come to take advantage of the provision of the Articles of Incorporation and to erect the Collegiate Department into the German Presbyterian College. In doing this no change is made in the government of the School or in the Faculty, and no additional expense is incurred. The advantage of this new departure is that the School can hold out inducements to the young men of our German churches to seek an education in Dubuque instead of going to other colleges. We are able now to give them as good an education as they can obtain in any small college, and at the same time keep them in touch with the German churches from which they come. The privileges of the College are extended to German youth generally, and it is confidently believed that by this means the number of candidates for the ministry will be increased. And there is pressing need. A number of German churches are vacant and there are no ministers to supply them. Those who are resigning from the active ministry on account of advanced years are more numerous than the graduates this year. The greatest problem of our work is the question of ministerial supply. Greater encouragement must be given to the young men to seek the ministry, and the School must be equipped to give the most thorough education.

The Financial Secretary, Rev. C. M. Steffens, has succeeded well in his work. Some twenty thousand dollars have been added to the permanent funds and considerable headway has been made in the canvass for the funds needed to erect the new building, which has become an absolute necessity. The General Assembly is asked to renew its recommendation of last year, by which our Secretary was aided in his efforts to secure an endowment.

Respectfully submitted on behalf of the Board of Directors,

W. O. RUSTON, President.

WILLIAM GRAHAM, Secretary.
Dubuque, Iowa, April 29, 1905.

X. THE GERMAN THEOLOGICAL SCHOOL OF NEWARK, N. J.

The Board of Directors of the German Theological School of Newark, N. J., present to the Presbytery of Newark and, by the approval of Presbytery, to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America their Report for the year ending May 4, 1905.

1. The Board of Directors.

Rev. David R. Frazer, D.D., President.

2. The Faculty.

Rev. Henry J. Weber, Ph.D., Professor of Theology and Church History.
Rev. Carl T. Hock, Ph.D., Professor of Classics and Hebrew.
Rev. Arnold W. Fismer, Ph.D., Professor of New Testament Exegesis and Ethics.
Rev. Rollin A. Sawyer, D.D., Lecturer on English and Rhetoric.
Rev. Julius H. Wolff, Lecturer on Church Polity.
Rev. Otto Lichti, Tutor.
Rev. Hermann Schultz, Tutor.
Rev. Hermann C. Gruhnert, Teacher of Music.

Reaffirming our loyal devotion to the great work for which our institution was founded, viz.: the uprearing of an educated German ministry for our land, we have undertaken, in compliance with the suggestion of the General Assembly, the larger work of training a ministry for "foreign populations other than German." This enlargement necessitated a corresponding increase in our teaching force, hence we have appointed:

Rev. William Reed, D.D., Lecturer on English.
Rev. John Dikovics, Tutor in Hungarian.
Rev. Bismarck J. Coltorti, Tutor in Italian.

3. The Students.

During the year there have been in attendance forty-four students, representing five nationalities. Of these twenty-three are Germans, nine are Italians and the remainder Hungarians, Bohemians and Dalmatians. Thirty-three are in the Academic and eleven in the Theological Department.

At the last Commencement we graduated three students, making the number of Alumni one hundred and eighteen, of whom eleven entered into rest.

4. The Finances.

The funds are now distributed in property and securities as follows:

Seminary Lot and Buildings,	$30,943 01
Real Estate Donated,	6,824 38

5. General Remarks.

Although this polyglot work has entailed increased expenses on other than strictly educational lines, it has also secured for us the generous assistance of good friends. Dr. Edward B. Hodge and the Board of Education encouraged us in the days when we were discussing possibilities rather than doing practical work. A generous donor, who should not be nameless, paid into our treasury $25,000, to establish the "Charles E. Knox Memorial Fund." Mr. Thomas W. Synnott, of Wenonah, N. J., made a proposition that "he would give a scholarship of $2500, provided $25,000 in all are secured by subscription, prior to July 1, 1905, as an endowment fund" for our school.

The Presbyteries of Newark, Elizabeth, New Brunswick, Morris and Orange, Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York are helping us comply with this most reasonable condition.

We need an endowment of at least $100,000, interest bearing funds, to carry on our work effectively.

On October 3, 1904, the Board elected Mr. Philip Nye Jackson to fill the vacancy caused by the death of his father, Mr. F. Wolcott Jackson, who, for more than thirty-three years was a Director and the faithful Treasurer of our institution. Mr. P. N. Jackson was also elected Treasurer of the Board.

Respectfully submitted on behalf of the Board,

D. R. FRAZER, President.

Approved by Presbytery of Newark, May 10, 1905.
Attest: JULIUS H. WOLFF, Stated Clerk.

NEWARK, N. J., May 10, 1905.

At a meeting of the Presbytery of Newark, held in the First Church, Newark, N. J., on Wednesday, May 10, 1905, Mr. Matthias Price was elected a Director of the German Theological School of Newark, N. J., to fill a vacancy in the Class of 1904 to 1907, and the following were elected for the term 1905 to 1908:

Ministers.	Laymen.
Elijah R. Craven, D.D., LL.D.,	Philip Doremus,
Julius H. Wolff,	Harry C. Richards, M.D.,
Robert Scott Inglis,	Hon. William M. Lanning,
James Beveridge Lee, D D.	William H. Vail, M.D.

Attest: JULIUS H. WOLFF,
Stated Clerk of the Presbytery of Newark.

COMMITTEE ON THEOLOGICAL DEPARTMENT.

Rev. Stephen W. Dana, D.D., Philadelphia, Pa.
Rev. John M. Galbreath, A.M., Lincoln University, Pa.

2. Faculty of Theology.

Rev. Isaac N. Rendall, D.D., Mary Warder Dickey Presidency.
Rev. Robert Laird Stewart, D.D., Professor of Pastoral Theology, Evidences of Christianity and Biblical Archæology.
Rev. William Deas Kerswill, D.D., Henry A. Kerr Professor of Hebrew Language and Exegesis, Dean of the Faculty of Theology.
Rev. John B. Rendall, D.D., Cassidy Professor of Ecclesiastical Latin and Lecturer on Missions.
Rev. George B. Carr, D.D., William E. Dodge Professor of Homiletics.
Rev. John M. Galbreath, A.M., Mrs. Susan D. Brown Professor of Instruction in the Authorized English Version of the Bible.
Rev. George Johnson, A.B., John C. Baldwin Professor of Systematic Theology.
Rev. William Hallock Johnson, Ph.D., Avery Professor of New Testament Literature and Exegesis.
Rev. James Carter, Professor-Elect of the Isaac N. Rendall Professorship of Church History and Sociology.

The Board of Trustees at its annual meeting on the 18th of April, 1905, appointed the Executive Committee as a commission of the Board to elect the Rev. James Carter, of the Presbytery of Northumberland, in the Synod of Pennsylvania, to the Chair of Church History, if the way should prove to be clear.

The Executive Committee, finding the way clear, on the 25th day of April did formally in the name of the Board, and by the authority of the Board, elect the Rev. James Carter to the Chair made vacant by the death of the late Prof. David A. McWilliams. The Secretary of the Board will certify the General Assembly of this election, which the Board respectfully commends to the favorable consideration of the Assembly.

3. Students.

Senior Class	graduated in Full Course,	16
	graduated in English Course,	3
	Special Course,	2

Of the Seniors, Messrs. George S. Burton, Archibald Cruickshanks, Russel D. Golding, Elmore C. Hames, Julius W. Mallard, Samuel J. Ross, Walter O. Taylor and William T. Wilson have been licensed to preach the Gospel by the Presbyteries of Chester and Westminster.

4. Courses of Study.

The curriculum of study for the degree of S.T.B. includes the following fourteen courses distributed through three years:

English Bible,
Homiletics,
New Testament Greek,
Hebrew,
Ecclesiastical Latin,
Christian Ethics,
Systematic Theology,
Pastoral Theology,
Sacred Geography,
Archæology,
Church Government,
Church History,
Apologetics,
Polemics.

English Course.

The General Assembly of 1876 concurred with the University as to the propriety of establishing a course of theological studies in the English language. The Assembly accorded to the Presbyteries a wise discretion in judging of the educational fitness of the candidates pursuing such a course for licensure and ordination, and enjoined upon them the obligation to take great care in exercising it lest incompetent and unworthy men be admitted to the ministry of our Church.

The following selection of studies, distributed through three years, has been adopted by the University agreeably to this concession for students whose deficiency in classical preparation restricts them to the English language:

English Bible,
Homiletics,
Systematic Theology,
Christian Ethics,
Pastoral Theology,
Sacred Geography,
Polemics,
Biblical Antiquities,
Apologetics,
Church Government,
Church and General History.

Any applicant over twenty-five years of age may be admitted to this course (a) on presenting a testimonial from some minister or ecclesiastical body, stating that the applicant has such gifts as render him a promising candidate for the ministry, and that it is deemed wise for him to take the Theological Course without further preparation; and (b) on passing satisfactory examinations, which, except when otherwise arranged, shall be held in Lincoln University on the day preceding the opening of the Seminary, and which will include the English studies required for admission to the College, as follows:

Reading—Grammar—Composition.
History of the United States, from its discovery to the Spanish War.
The Bible History, both in the Old and New Testament.
Mathematics—Arithmetic to Cube Root. Algebra—Elementary and Equations containing one or more unknown quantities.
High School Geography.

The time spent upon Latin, Greek and Hebrew in the Full Course shall in the case of students pursuing the English Theological Course be employed in such College studies as the Faculty may recommend, in view of the needs of each student. Each student shall be required to attend faithfully the classes assigned to him, and to pass the usual examinations in such classes.

A copy of these requirements shall be printed and sent to every applicant for the English Course; he being advised not to present himself unless he can fulfill the above requirements, nor to come to the Seminary until his application has been approved.

The Course in the English Bible.

In 1889 the Board of Trustees of Lincoln University established the Chair of Instruction in the English Bible, and elected a professor whose whole duty of instruction should be to conduct all the classes in the Collegiate and Theological Departments in a thorough study of the whole Bible. Later this Chair was endowed by Mrs. Susan Dod Brown, of Princeton, in the sum of $20,000. The present occupant of this Chair is the Rev. Prof. John M. Galbreath. The instruction given in the classes and the studies of the students have been in accord with the urgent advice of the General Assembly of 1894. The examinations for the year just closed, which were held in the presence of a visiting Committee of the Synod of Pennsylvania, received their unqualified approbation; especially as evidence of the helpfulness of this course of study in evangelistic work and in teaching inquirers the way of salvation.

Special Studies in Theology.

Applicants otherwise admissible to the Theological Department, whose aptitudes or necessities make the regular courses thus described unsuitable, may be enrolled as students, and be permitted to pursue a course of study selected out of the Theological and Collegiate Courses as the Faculty shall direct.

In the Special Course some students, besides taking the English Course, have been permitted to study New Testament Greek. Others have been excused from parts of the English Course.

In the Courses of Study.

1. Provision has been made for a course of instruction on missions.

2. Special attention is given in the Bible course of study to instruct the students in evangelical work, both with the unconcerned and with inquirers after the way of salvation. To this end their memory is stored with appropriate Bible texts.

3. The professor of Biblical Greek has introduced into his department of study an optional Intertestament Course on the rise of Hellenistic Greek, following the conquests of Alexander and during the Maccabean period, and culminating in the Septuagint version of the Old Testament Scriptures. It is the purpose of this course to bring the New Testament life and language into close and intelligible connection with the Old Testament dispensation.

RELATIONS OF THE THEOLOGICAL DEPARTMENT TO THE UNIVERSITY.

The Theological Department is under the control of the General Assembly, both in the care and use of its funds and in the appointment of its professors and in the ultimate determination of its courses of instruction. The University has in addition the care and control of a well-organized and partially equipped Collegiate Department. The University is under obligations to its patrons and to its clientage to provide and conduct courses of collegiate education; a responsibility which the General Assembly will not assume. Candidates for the ministry enjoy the benefit of this equipment in their collegiate course of study.

The pecuniary amount of this obligation is large and untransferable. It consists in:

Grounds,	$10,000 00
Buildings,	150,000 00
Professorships,	60,000 00
Scholarships,	90,000 00
Fayerweather Fund,	100,000 00
	$410,000 00

Wants of the University.

Endowment.

The Theological Department of the University is under the control of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America. This control of the General Assembly necessitates the full and separate endowment of the Theological Department. To carry this plan of the Assembly into practical effect in Lincoln University, the General Assembly which met in Winona, Ind., in 1897 took the following action:

"Resolved, That the General Assembly hereby expresses its deep interest in Lincoln University, and especially in its Theological Department, and commends this school of learning for young colored men to the churches for the liberal support of its whole work and for the separate endowment of its Theological Department."

This separate and adequate endowment and equipment of the Theological Department would require about $150,000. A beginning could be made with any contribution to the Professorship Fund, the Scholarship Fund or the Building Fund.

Special Wants of the Theological Department.

A Dormitory for the Students,	$25,000 00
A Recitation Hall,	25,000 00
A Chair of Christian Ethics,	25,000 00
The more adequate endowment of six existing Chairs, each $10,000,	60,000 00
Deficit toward the Refectory,	5,000 00
	$140,000 00

The Wholesome Influence of Lincoln University.

We could desire no stronger evidence of the exceeding value of our educational work than the voluntary testimony sent to us by ministerial brethren in the Presbyterian, Baptist, Methodist and Episcopal Churches of the Southern States. Some of these brethren write in high praise of our graduate workers for their trained competency in instruction, for their honest devotion to the spiritual and moral elevation of their people, and for their peaceful influence along the line of race distinctions. They write that they attribute the absence of race antagonism in their vicinity to the healthful Christian influence of our students. Others write that Lincoln University, which has trained and sent forth such men (and so long as it shall do so), deserves the hearty and liberal support of the Christian people of the country, who desire to aid in the real elevation and the more thorough evangelization of the colored race.

Lincoln University is carrying into effect the policy of the Presbyterian Church respecting the education of colored candidates for the ministry. In 1876 the General Assembly disclaimed "authority to modify the Regulations of our Form of Government in respect to qualifications of licentiates so as to make provision" for negro candidates as an exceptional class. We crave the moral and financial support of the Presbyterian Church in our effort to put our negro candidates for the ministry into the immediate possession of all educational advantages.

The negro is a sufferer along the roadway of our Christian duty. Lincoln University is an inn to which the Assembly has sent many of his future teachers and ministers for spiritual invigoration and for educational equipment. Our ability to fulfill our commission is limited by the benevolence of the Church. Our opportunity is as large as the necessities of the negro race. God gives them grace without stint. Why should we impute the sins of many to the race? To do so is to distrust the efficacy of God's remedy. We invoke the inspection of the Church and its judgment upon our claims for a hearing, and for adequate and timely encouragement.

In behalf of the Faculty of Theology,

ISAAC N. RENDALL, D.D., President.

Biddle University closes another prosperous and useful year. There was a slight falling off in the general attendance, due to certain local conditions, the enrollment being 221, and of these 17 were in the School of Theology. These students have exhibited marked evidence of diligence in the discharge of their duties, and as opportunities have come to them, a spirit of earnestness and consecration has been shown in doing Christian work. The seven members of the Senior Class have fields, and will enter upon their labors within the next few weeks.

The College work of the University is highly efficient. The enrollment in this school is 123 and the graduating class numbers 25, the largest in the history of the institution. Of this number one-third will go into the ministry.

The Preparatory and Industrial Schools bid fair to become more and more useful as the years go on. In these two schools the work is being sustained under improved conditions.

Of the whole student body 94 per cent. are professing Christians, and about 25 per cent. have the ministry in view.

The next annual commencement will be held June 14.

Very respectfully,

D. J. SANDERS, President.

XIII. OMAHA THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

The Board of Directors of the Presbyterian Theological Seminary at Omaha, Neb., respectfully submits to the General Assembly its Fourteenth Annual Report, for the year ending May 3, 1905, and asks approval of its acts.

2. The Faculty.

The Board reports the unanimous election of the Rev. Charles Herron, D.D., to the Chair of Ecclesiastical History and Missions.

The Faculty for the year now closed was constituted as follows:

Rev. Matthew B. Lowrie, D.D., President, and Professor of Homiletics and Pastoral Theology.
Rev. Joseph J. Lampe, Ph.D., D.D., Professor of Hebrew, Old Testament Literature and Exegesis.
Rev. Daniel E. Jenkins, Ph.D., Professor of Didactic and Polemic Theology.
Rev. Charles A. Mitchell, Ph.D., Professor of New Testament Literature and Exegesis.
Rev. Charles Herron, D.D., Professor-elect of Ecclesiastical History and Missions.

Note.—The subjects of Apologetics, Church Government and English Bible are distributed among the Professors.

3. Students.

Twenty students were in attendance during the last year, the number being the same as reported for the two preceding years.

Frank Albert Lewis and Eli Nathaniel Quist were received into the Middle Class upon certificates of dismission from McCormick Theological Seminary, and Cecil Phillips, also in the Middle Class, upon a similar credential from Princeton Theological Seminary.

The entering class numbered seven:

John William Carr, a graduate of Park College, 1900.
Samuel Xenophon Cross, a graduate of Coe College, 1904.
Vaclav Minneberger, a graduate of Bisek Gymnasium, 1902.
William Nickoll, a graduate of Bellevue College, 1904.
Charles Crawford Sawtelle, not a graduate.
Jose Celestine Rodriguez, not a graduate.

And as special students:

Rev. N. F. Jannsen, a graduate of Princeton Theological Seminary.
Rev. Griggs Holbrook Ranson, from Moody Institute.

The following members of the Senior Class having completed the full course of study were, on recommendation of the Faculty, granted the usual diploma:

James Wilson Bean,
Alexander Black,
Herbert Moore Course,
Charles E. Koehler,
John Edward Spencer.

Though there has been no addition to the permanent funds this year, all current expenses have been paid without incurring debt, and a dwelling known as Vanderburgh House has been built on the Seminary grounds for the use of the President of the Seminary. Each year seems to demonstrate more clearly the place and the need for this institution. The demand for laborers in the ever-enlarging harvest field is great. The Seminary at Omaha is doing for the region about it a service similar to that rendered by our Seminary at Chicago thirty years ago, and though this is but "the day of small things," because it is the period of beginning, we confidently look forward to the enlargement and the provision for permanent support which the coming years will bring. With renewed thanks to God for the many tokens of his favor, and asking again the approval and encouragement of the Presbyterian Church through the General Assembly, this Annual Report is presented.

Signed by order of the Board of Directors,

MATTHEW B. LOWRIE, President.

Omaha, Neb., May 10, 1905.

ABSTRACT OF THE ONE HUNDRED AND THIRD ANNUAL REPORT.

In respectfully presenting its One Hundred and Third Annual Report to the General Assembly the Board of Home Missions devoutly records its gratitude to the Head of the Church for another year of service, made possible by the gifts of the Lord's people and the labors of the men and women who have consecrated themselves to this noble work.

Some of these faithful servants of the Master have been summoned by Him to cease their labors and to enter upon their rest and reward. We bear grateful testimony to their lives and services, and offer to the bereaved households our warmest and deepest sympathy.

FINANCES.—The Treasurer's statement, which forms a part of this Report, shows that the Board has met all its obligations and has remaining in the Treasury a balance of $4007.40. This does not include the Beck legacy of $100,000, which came to us during the last weeks of the fiscal year. We are thus enabled to come to the General Assembly for the seventh successive year without debt.

WORKINGMEN.—The Board rejoices to report to the Assembly that the department of its work recently created and put under the care of the Rev. Charles Stelzle, having reference to workingmen and the labor unions of the country, has increasingly demonstrated both its timeliness and its effectiveness. While there are many ways of mitigating labor evils and dangers, and encouragement should be given to every wise plan to bring the workingmen of the country and their employers into more just and friendly relations, yet the duty of the Board of Home Missions is both limited and simple. It is by gospel messages and Christian service to bring workingmen to see that the Church is their friend and not their enemy, and that the principles of the gospel of Jesus Christ are the only real and permanent solvent of the problem. The amount of work done, as well as the good results which have quickly followed in many instances, have abundantly justified the action of the Board and the approval of the Assembly. The gap between organized labor and the Christian Church is not growing wider but is narrowing. The men are studying afresh the whole situation. Ministers are admitted to many labor unions, not merely to express fellowship but to study the problem, removing errors and learning facts. On the other hand, the unions are seeking admission by their representatives to ecclesiastical meetings, where they learn that the poor and the rich meet together, the Lord is the maker of them all. The excellent results of Mr. Stelzle's work and the importance of this mission seem to the Board to justify the Assembly in taking some special action by which it shall be made very clear to both employers and employees that our Church is fully alive to the responsibility which rests upon it of making practical application of the gospel to the solving of every problem, and the unreserved fellowship of the Church for all classes of the people. We are the servants and followers of Him who in life and in death had fellowship with the rich and the poor and counted none alien to His love and help.

FORWARD MOVEMENT.—The churches have this last year responded to the "call of service" with larger gifts, and the Board is led to believe that its "forward movement" has met with approval. Through personal letters and extensive and discriminating distribution of leaflets and literature, the churches have come into more vital touch with the work of the missionaries and the ever-increasing needs of the field. Many a church has advanced by adopting "a missionary of its own." Many more have increased their contributions. The special conferences held in Presbyteries and cities have, we believe, done much good by creating new interest. Special emphasis has been placed upon the desirability of securing a place in the plans and meetings of men's clubs for the subject of missions, and the progress made encourages the Board to believe that its plan for widening this beginning will have the hearty co-operation of pastors and officers of men's associations in our Church.

The Board reports with peculiar pleasure that an increasing number of individuals have adopted a "substitute" on the field, and others have contributed funds for much needed improvements and enlargements in mission buildings. There has been lively and cordial co-operation on the part of pastors in bringing to the attention of their churches the fact that America is still a great mission field. The help rendered by chairmen and members of presbyterial home mission committees is a labor of love and is greatly appreciated, and has proved to be a large factor in the general campaign of education and inspiration.

THE FIELD.

The self-supporting Synods, through their synodical committees, submit statements of their various fields which follow this report. It appears that there are in the eleven Synods supervising their mission work and providing for it, in whole or in part, a total number of 970 missionaries. When to this is added the 1201 missionaries commissioned by the Board, it appears that there are 2171 ministers who are engaged in this self-denying and blessed work. More than two-fifths of our active ministers are home missionaries and about one-half of our churches receive aid. We are able to report fifty-one churches that have reached self-support during the year, and many churches which ask less during the coming year than they received during the past year. The banner Synod in the matter of making progress towards self-support is Washington.

Synod of New York.—The Synod of New York provides for mission work within its bounds with the exception of the Presbytery of Boston, the Indian work in the Presbytery of Buffalo, and some work among foreigners within the Presbyteries of New York, Westchester and Buffalo.

The Indian work in the Presbytery of Buffalo is cared for by the Rev. M. F. Trippe and the Rev. J. E. Fisher. These brethren send us reports of the continued results of the wonderful work of grace of a year ago. The Spirit of God manifests His presence and power in the various meetings, and not only are believers edified but sinners are being converted, and more additions have been made to the churches in the Allegany field of the Seneca Mission than during any previous year. The moral reformation among the Indians is most marked. There is much less drunkenness, immorality and gambling among the people, and honest debts which were repudiated or neglected are now being paid.

The work among the Hungarians in that Presbytery has been kept up under the ministry of the Rev. Bela Csekes, and with such success that it is now important that they should have a church building of their own, which it is hoped the Presbytery of Buffalo may help them to secure. An excellent work during the past year has been done among the Italians of Portchester and Rye and neighboring towns. Some remarkable conversions have occurred of Pentecostal power, working instant and marvelous changes in the lives and conduct of those affected. The Presbytery of New York recently decided to appoint a home mission committee distinctively for work among foreigners and to co-operate with the Board. We are gratified that this work is under the care of the Rev. D. J. McMillan, D.D., a former Secretary of the Board, under whose sympathetic and energetic leadership much good will certainly be done. Thus far work has been begun among the Hungarians and Bohemians.

Synod of Atlantic.—Our work in this Synod is confined to the two Presbyteries in Florida. The Board took up home mission work in that State thirty years ago with enthusiasm. It was the common belief that Florida would attract a large permanent population of Northern people who would engage in the orange and other industries. This expectation has been realized only in part, and that largely in a way which does not result in a helpful and permanent progress of our mission churches. The Board has therefore thought it advisable to suggest to the two Presbyteries that, in view of the limited growth and meagre returns for the money given by the Board and the work done by the missionaries, they consider the question of either amalgamating our work with that of the Southern Presbyterian Church, or such a revision and rearrangement of the fields as shall secure the best results at the least expenditure of money. In making this suggestion the Board realizes that it has no further constitutional duty in the matter, and therefore properly and willingly leaves the adjudication of the question to the Presbyteries and the General Assembly.

Synod of Kentucky.—The mountain work within the Synods of Kentucky and Tennessee has always possessed unusual attractions to many of our people and churches. The Woman's Board does more work among the mountaineers than anywhere else, and expends almost one-third of its available funds among these people. They are the purest native stock of our American nation, and just because they have been pushed back into the mountains and are therefore poor and uneducated and largely unevangelized, they are all the more deserving of our sympathy and help.

Synod of Tennessee.—Some opportunity is afforded to group churches with those of the Southern and Cumberland bodies. The Board is heartily in favor of such fraternal relations, and is ready to do its full share by way of appropriations to such churches in unifying communities. Evangelistic meetings have been held in many of the churches and in connection with our school work, with blessed results in the bringing in of souls.

Synod of Minnesota.—Dr. Adams says: "There are reasons for the unrest and unsettled feelings, in the Northwest especially, that ought to be noted. One is the opening to settlement of three Indian reservations during the past year, and the great movement into Canada of the people in search of cheap lands. This has the threefold effect of weakening our old-established churches financially and numerically, of almost decimating our weaker ones, and of largely increasing the need of new work.

"There were added to the roll of our churches during the past year 14 new organizations with an aggregate membership of 267, 30 of whom were selected and ordained as elders. This brings the church roll of Minnesota to 309 churches with an aggregate membership of 24,000.

"Special services have been held in the Synod, conducted in part by imported evangelists and to an encouraging extent by our pastors and pastors-at-large, which have served to greatly strengthen our work in the weak fields and also increase the numbers in some of our larger ones."

Synod of Missouri.—The World's Fair held in St. Louis during the past summer furnished an opportunity to the Presbytery and especially the city of St. Louis to inaugurate and carry out an evangelistic campaign intended to meet the spiritual needs of the vast crowds visiting the Fair as well as the great population of the city itself. The recital of that work properly belongs to the Evangelistic Committee of the Assembly. While undoubtedly much good was done, fully compensating for the great expense of money and effort, yet the Presbyteries outside of the city of St. Louis make note of the fact that the Fair was to a considerable degree demoralizing to the churches of the State, both financially and in the matter of church attendance. During the Fair, in the month of October, interdenominational meetings were held to commemorate a century of home missions in the Mississippi Valley. Addresses were delivered by representatives of the various denominations and special services held in the churches of St. Louis and throughout the country.

Synod of Texas.—The question of union with the Cumberland Church has been watched and longed for perhaps more ardently by our brethren in Texas than by any other part of the Church. Our work in Texas has had to contend with peculiar difficulties, which have sorely tried the patience and hope of those who have given their lives there to the work of home missions. In their judgment union with the Cumberland Church would greatly extend our field of labor, and on the other hand it would materially reduce the appropriation needed for the fields now under our care. In many instances where fields are either jointly or contiguously occupied union could be effected, making a strong, self-supporting organization. Dr. Little says that if union be consummated we ought to spend not less than $75,000 on Texas! Last year we spent $9890.

Synod of Indian Territory.—The inability of the Board to take up any new work last year affected the Synod of Indian Territory probably more seriously than any other part of the country. The settlement by the United States Government of the Indian question which is in process draws a great many settlers to this part of the country, which is especially attractive. Then the discovery and opening up of oil wells have greatly stimulated the building of railroads. These in turn create new towns, with increasing business and growing populations. We would do well to push our work there, for this is both seedtime and harvest. The Board might profitably spend in this Synod fully one-half of the entire sum set apart for new work during the coming year throughout the whole country.

Synod of Kansas.—The churches within the Synod of Kansas continue to make steady progress without furnishing any unusual features which would properly be noted in an annual review.

Synod of Nebraska.—Dr. Sexton reports that "the church work in Nebraska has been moving forward during the past year with great energy, harmony and encouraging success. We have now fewer vacant fields than for some years past. Most of our churches are securing installed pastors, thus giving promise of fewer changes and more permanent religious services for our congregations. In securing this end the home mission committees in the several Presbyteries have manifested great fidelity in grouping contiguous congregations under one minister's care, so as to economize the available men as well as the money furnished by the Home Board. In the matter of federation of weak churches we note the union of forces in Nebraska City, where the Cumberland Presbyterian congregation have not employed a minister, but have united with our people in attending the services of the sanctuary and in supporting the pastor recently installed."

Synod of South Dakota.—Dr. Carson says: "Special evangelistic services were held in about one-fifth of our churches and missions with evident spiritual quickening of the members and in gathering more than usual. We have had the constant services of an evangelist and singer for over six months, part of the expense being borne by the Assembly's Evangelistic Committee. Some pastors have conducted special evangelistic meetings alone and others have had the help of neighboring pastors or of the Sunday-school missionaries.

"The increased immigration into the part of the State west of the Missouri river has demanded and received special attention and will doubtless increase during the coming months. In Gregory county (famous Rosebud Reservation), in Lyman county, and possibly in Butte county, in connection with increased immigration, as well as proposed extension of the C., M. & St. P. Railway, new fields are likely to open."

Synod of North Dakota.—Dr. Brown says: "There are a number of new fields which are opening in our State. The Soo Railroad Company have secured the right of way and in many places have begun work on the surveys from Thief River Falls, Minn., to Kenmare, N. D., a distance of nearly three hundred miles, two hundred and forty miles being within North Dakota. The Great Northern Road has projected many new branches, and it is reported by those who know that the prospect of immigration to North Dakota is as great, if not greater, for the year 1905 than it has been in any recent year. In addition to the development along railway lines, there are to be expended some millions of dollars in irrigation in the semi-arid part of the State, which will, without doubt, lead to the rapid settlement and strong development of that region, because the soil is fertile and the climate all that could be desired.

"There are only seventeen fields, counting the cities, where the minister does not have more than one appointment. Nothing marked has been done in the way of federating with weak churches of other denominations, but decided progress has been made toward the union of weak churches in small communities."

Synod of Montana.—Montana is a Synod of magnificent distances. This appears in the matter of grouping churches. Points are grouped that are seventy-five miles apart; another has three points covering a field of ninety-eight miles. Such a condition of affairs increases the cost of doing the work and adds to the difficulty of making rapid and solid growth of particular churches. Yet splendid work has been done. Many of the thirty-four churches receiving aid from the Board have advanced in some measure toward self-support.

Synod of Colorado.—This Synod covers not only the State of Colorado but also a considerable part of Wyoming. Labor difficulties and political excitement have largely engrossed the attention of the people, as during the preceding year. Class has been arrayed against class, and the feeling has been deep and bitter. It is hoped that the worst is past and that the Church may now lift her voice in favor of righteousness and brotherhood. Many of our ministers have been placed in embarrassing positions, but they have feared God rather than man and have borne a true witness.

Synod of New Mexico.—New work and promising fields are being brought to the attention of the Presbyteries. Several new towns in the Pecos Valley have grown rapidly and should be provided with ministers without delay. New lines of railroad cause other towns to spring up which need immediate attention. Then a large number of Mexicans who are our people have moved into the northeastern part of the Territory, and it is hoped that provision may be made for them in conjunction with a station in Texas. In Arizona the opening of new fields amongst the Navajos at Fort Defiance and Tuba is pressed.

The Board, by a representative committee, was heard by President Roosevelt on behalf of the Pima and Papago Indians, who have been suffering even unto starvation for lack of water. The President took an immediate and warm interest in the matter and appointed Dr. Spining and Commissioner Jones to visit the Territory and make personal examination. They were accompanied by the Rev. T. C. Moffet. The report has been submitted to the President, setting forth in detail the most unhappy condition of the Indians. Partial relief has been obtained, but the making of proper and sufficient provision for them yet awaits accomplishment.

Synod of Utah.—The attention of the country has been fastened upon Utah during the past year as never before. The Smoot investigation has not only informed the country, it has startled it. And yet we need not say "informed," for most of the things revealed by the Senate investigation have been told over and over again by our missionaries, but their statements were either not credited or at least largely discounted. The admissions made by those high in authority in the Mormon Church as to the doctrines, both blasphemous and immoral, which are taught, the unblushing readiness to lie and even commit perjury in order to shield the Church, and the unhesitating admission of a superior loyalty to the Mormon Church to that practiced or even professed towards the Government of the United States, make convincingly clear that Mormonism is a gigantic and rapidly growing evil, defying law, schools and civilization. But the gospel is the power of God.

"The moral desolation of two hundred and fifteen towns that never hear a Christian minister, though dark and silent, must have a voice to-day as never before. The intervening valleys also, that furnish homes for the outlying population, are to be reached and transformed. The promise has gone forth, 'Behold, I am against thee, oh, inhabitants of the valley, saith Jehovah, you that say, Who shall come down against us, or who shall enter into our habitation?' The gospel of God has entered these valleys and is for all the people, and the opportunities are multiplying for those who, passing through the valley of Baca, make it a well."

Synod of California.—One of the most interesting facts in our California work the past year was the services held among a colony of Russian Stundists who had found their way to Los Angeles. The attention of Dr. Noble, the synodical missionary, was called to them, and he at once became interested in them. Fortunately there was in Los Angeles the Rev. Mr. Teichrieb, who was able to minister to them in their own tongue. The Stundists received his services with deep gratitude, and we believe a good beginning has been made. Their future home is somewhat undecided, but whether they remain in Los Angeles or go elsewhere the Board will have much satisfaction in ministering to their spiritual need as far as possible. Their number is to be considerably increased by further emigration from Russia.

Other work among foreign-speaking peoples in the State has been taken up and is being prosecuted with energy and success. The Italians, Portuguese and Mexicans are being cared for. The Mexican work in southern California has met with a great loss in the death of the Rev. A. Moss Merwin, who has for many years superintended the missions and labored with unflagging zeal and much success. Fortunately the Rev. Donald McLaren, D.D., who was temporarily in California, consented to carry on Mr. Merwin's work without remuneration from the Board to the close of the year.

Synod of Oregon.—The Lewis and Clark Exposition, to be held at Portland this summer, brings afresh to every student of American history the splendid story of how the Oregon country was saved to the United States. The persistent attempt to deprive Marcus Whitman of the singular and supreme glory of informing and persuading the Government at Washington both of the great value of the extreme Northwest and the imminent danger that, through the schemes of the Hudson Bay Company, the whole of that part of the country would be lost to our nation, has resulted in calling forth additional and indubitable evidence of the truth of the famous story. It was a home missionary who saved that magnificent empire to the United States. The settlement of that whole region, and the wonderful work wrought by the missionaries from the organization in 1846 of the First Presbyterian Church at Clatsop Plains until this present hour, is a story replete with patriotism and missionary consecration of the most noble character.

Synod of Washington.—Last fall Dr. Ghormley, the synodical missionary of Washington, asked the Board to give him specific information regarding the various home mission churches of the Synod, as to the total amount received by such churches from the Board, and how long they had been drawing aid. He then issued a strong circular letter to these churches, presenting the reasons why they should make a vigorous effort towards self-support, and if they could not be wholly successful this year to get as near to it as possible.

This was followed by a carefully prepared itinerary by which a large number of churches were visited during the winter and spring and information specially bearing upon the particular church was given, and as many as possible of the people were personally seen. The result has been highly satisfactory. An unusual number of churches ask for less money than last year, while a goodly number seek no further aid. We are confident that the facts submitted and the reasons urged for self-support will bear fruit for years to come.

During the past year the Rev. James Hayes, of Kamiah, Idaho, pastor of the Nez Perce Church there, has been commissioned by the Board to give part of his time to evangelistic tours among the Indians. His presence has been most cordially welcomed by the Indians and his ministry has been richly blessed. It is a matter for much joy to find this Indian preacher of the gospel, a pupil of the Misses McBeth, so gifted and consecrated and accomplishing so much good among his people.

Synod of West Virginia.—In October last the Synod of West Virginia was organized, consisting of the three Presbyteries of Grafton, Parkersburg and Wheeling. Formerly the churches in that State were connected with the Synod of Pennsylvania. We welcome heartily this youngest of the Synods and are persuaded that a wide and most promising field for home mission work is presented to the Board of Home Missions. The Rev. James B. Ely, D.D., is the synodical missionary, under whose leadership both the Synod and the Board expect both solid and rapid progress will be made. The resources of the State are being rapidly developed and the incoming population not only increases the cities, but many new towns, as well as mining camps, are being formed on the lines of new railways. As the work has just begun under the care of the Board there is little to report in the way of achievement, but another year will doubtless tell an interesting story and reveal the opportunities for increased service for the Church and the Master.

We have received from the Rev. J. Milton Greene., D.D., Superintendent of our missions in Cuba, the facts set forth in the following pages:

Cuba.—A decided advance along all lines of effort on our part, and an ever-growing appreciation and responsiveness on the part of the people—these are the two conclusions which we reach on a thoughtful review of our whole field for the past year. Increased opposition and increased activity on the part both of infidelity and Romanism have been in evidence on all sides, and this very fact has doubtless brought into more positive relief the faith and zeal of God's true people. Certain it is that in the public eye the evangelical movement in Cuba commands an ever-growing respect and is reckoned as a power from which mighty influences are emanating for the intellectual, social, moral and spiritual regeneration of Cuba. This appears in the class of persons who attend our services, in the families who educate their children in our schools, and in the notices of our work which appear in the public prints.

During February a second Evangelical Conference was held in Havana in which representatives from all the missions at work on the island took an active part, and the real, essential, spiritual unity of all evangelical bodies found constant expression. The closing session was a consecration service, and doubtless marked the highest point yet reached by our missionary workers in their experiences of fraternal love and spiritual fellowship. The first of these gatherings was two years ago, and it has been decided to hold them biennially.

The formation of the Presbytery of Havana also made last year conspicuous. This organization was effected November 14, and is composed of six churches, seven ministers and four licentiates. Already we feel upon our work the unifying, solidifying and inspiring influence of such an organic federation of the churches. This is the more interesting and grateful to the native brethren as they see our policy so closely analogous to that of the civil government under the Republic.

Porto Rico.—It is daybreak throughout the island. The last year's work has been even more graciously blessed than the wonderful progress of all the past five years. One must exclaim when the results are seen, "Behold what God hath wrought!" Six years ago, only one Protestant church on the island, and to-day there are more natives of Porto Rico to be found in the Protestant services than in all the Catholic churches. The Presbyterian banner is flung out over fifty-three different stations, and the progress of the religion of Jesus Christ, as proclaimed by our missionaries and teachers, is revolutionizing lives and transforming communities.

The medical missionary work of Dr. Jane Harris and Dr. John W. Colbert is especially to be commended. Their itinerating dispensary ministrations have been the wonder and admiration of the natives. Some of the clinics have been so large that the doctors have been unable to take care of all the patients while daylight held. In some instances over two hundred patients have been treated in one day.

The hospital of San Juan, operated by the Woman's Board, has been particularly successful. It is the pride not only of all our missionaries, but of the citizens of San Juan, and its fame is now island-wide. It will compare favorably in its results with the record of other Presbyterian hospitals in this country.

The school work undertaken by the Woman's Board has had as much to do with the sweep of Protestantism on the island of Porto Rico as any other force, and in this connection it is well to mention that visitors in going over the island everywhere see little schoolhouses flying the American flag.

Alaska.—In no part of our country have there been more changes within the last ten years. The "Great Land" was then comparatively unknown. The golden wealth of rivers and creeks was little more than an idle tale. The unsurpassed fertility of the vast interior, the consequent agricultural possibilities of its short but hot Arctic summer—these had not been guessed. Sturdy Eskimo natives reached down out of this unknown land and, in a variety of tribes and clans and with strange guttural speech, fringed the more accessible southeastern coast. They were Alaska's only inhabitants. They were somewhat known to us as an uncouth race with habits of savage ancestry and a religion revealing itself in distorted idols, belief in witchcraft and horrible customs of heathen feasts and weird orgies.

Then eight schools were maintained by the Woman's Board and seven churches, ministered to by six missionaries working through their interpreters. All these were in southeastern Alaska.

We have now fourteen churches, as compared with seven ten years ago, and one of these is self-supporting—Skaguay. Others are assuming an increasing proportion of the missionary's salary. The following lists show the names of the churches at the beginning and close of the decade :

Organized Churches, 1895.	Additional Churches Organized, 1895–1905.
Sitka (Thlinget).	Wrangell, Second.
" (White).	Saxman (Thlinget).
Juneau (Thlinget).	Chilkat, "
" (White).	Klukwan, "
Wrangell (Thlinget).	Kasaan (Hydah).
Hoonah (Thlinget).	Hanega (Thlinget).
Hydah (Jackson).	Skaguay, First.

While the number of churches has increased 100 per cent., the number of church members has increased about 50 per cent. Of the churches aided by the Board, three are for the white settlers.

LITERATURE.

Since its beginning the work of our Literature Department has shown a steady advance. The total receipts from sales of literature during the fiscal year just closed reached the good sum of $4269.86.

Twenty-eight new leaflets have been issued during the year. In addition to these, circulars for special occasions have been printed and sent out. The new issues and reprints number 6,683,380 pages, which have been bound together into 1,180,155 copies. Three hundred and nine thousand seven hundred and fifty collection envelopes have been printed and sent out. Fifty thousand copies of the special programme prepared for use on the Sunday preceding Washington's Birthday were distributed with collection envelopes in Sunday-schools observing this special day for the cause of home missions.

To 684 churches we have mailed monthly 49,300 leaflets treating the regular topics. As each pastor to whom these were sent gave his promise to distribute them wisely, we have reason to expect fruitful returns from such faithful seed-sowing. We are very gratified that this plan of supplying leaflets for the monthly concert of home missions has met with increasing favor from year to year. The number of leaflets sent out this year, and the number of churches receiving them, show a good advance over the report of last year.

THE ASSEMBLY HERALD.

The Board of Home Missions has made full use of the courtesies extended by the religious press and of the portion allotted to it in The Assembly Herald. The magazine has had the most prosperous year in its history, showing an increase of subscribers and presenting a better appearance as a magazine, and containing, as we believe, more interesting material in the cause of home missions than ever before. We very cordially commend the magazine to pastors and to members of the Church as a most valuable method of keeping informed of the condition and progress of home missions.

YOUNG PEOPLE.

We have pleasure in presenting herewith the report of the Young People's Department, which has had the approval of the Board:

1904.		1905.
$39,036 78	Sunday-schools,	$40,539 74
28,630 38	C. E. and Junior C. E. Societies,	29,378 76
22,760 26	Other Y. P. Organizations,	25,064 93

In the summing up of the year's work of the Board of Home Missions, and in the monthly financial statements issued from the Treasurer's office, no figures are watched with keener interest than those representing the offerings from young people's organizations, for no contributions are less dependable, although in no department of our Church work is the "power of the littles" more fully demonstrated.

The average contribution for home missions from young people's societies is about $5.00, and the calls upon their treasuries are innumerable; but what our young people are doing for the evangelization of our country is much more than can be shown in the figures of this report. In the Synods of Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Michigan, Ohio and Wisconsin the young people are giving more each year for synodical self-support, and everything possible is done by the Young People's Department to foster this loyalty, while efforts toward continuing the intelligent interest of the young people in the larger work of the Board are no less vigorous.

Classes for Home Mission Study.—Earnest efforts have been made to increase the number of home mission study classes and provide material for leaders. No phenomenal success has crowned these efforts, but enough has been reported to encourage all who are interested in this phase of the young people's work. We have endeavored to co-operate in all plans recommended by our General Assembly's Committee on Young People's Work, and, at their request, short outline studies were prepared to advertise the study class book, "Heroes of the Cross in America." As this book came to us late in the year, it has been decided to recommend it again, and many leaders are laying plans for next year's classes. The little books on the specific fields are being used as a reference library by these study classes, and the short outline studies are increasing in value as an elementary course. Reading circles have increased in number, and prove popular where the plan to form a study class has failed.

Sunday-schools.—We are assured that the special programmes prepared for the "Sabbath preceding Thanksgiving" (for mission school work) and "the Sabbath nearest Washington's Birthday" (for the evangelistic work) are helpful to superintendents, and experience convinces us that many Sunday-schools would make no offering for home missions were it not for these special services—provided free to those who apply for them. The contributions from Sunday-schools were as follows:

Home Board, ...	$17,879 90
Woman's Board, ...	22,659 84

A gain for both sides, and a total gain from Sunday-schools of $1502.96.

Mission Bands.—While the number of new Bands may not be larger than last year, reports from various sources indicate that home missions has an equal chance with foreign for the first time in the history of a number of these organizations, and we believe this is due to a more faithful "mothering" on the part of the women's societies to which they are auxiliary.

Junior Societies.—For several years one general object has been assigned to Bands and Junior Societies, but a division of interest seemed advisable, and this year the maintenance of Endeavor Building—the charity building of the hospital group at San Juan, Porto Rico—was asked of the Juniors, while the general work of the Sitka Industrial School is still assigned to Bands. This change of object has proved popular, and the children have shown new enthusiasm through sending hospital supplies as well as money contributions.

Offerings.—Contributions from young people's organizations were as follows:

Christian Endeavor and Junior Christian Endeavor, .	$29,378 76
Other Young People's Societies and Bands, . .	25,064 93

An advance all along the line. It seems necessary to repeat each year the statement that no rule is enforced by which the young people are ordered to send their funds through one special channel.

WOMAN'S BOARD.

The Woman's Board continues its forward march. The Board appreciates to the full this splendid right arm of its service, and takes occasion once more to mention with gratitude the organization and enthusiasm of the women of our Church and their loyalty and devotion to the evangelization of our country.

The Advisory Committee, composed of women residing in New York City and vicinity, renders most valuable service to the Woman's Board. The attendance of the members of this committee at the regular Tuesday meetings, their careful consideration of the various matters presented at these meetings, their willing service upon important committees, their correspondence with and knowledge of the workers upon the field, and their devotion to the interests of the Woman's Board cannot be overestimated and deserve our thanks. There are now eighty members upon this Advisory Committee, representing the leading churches of our denomination. The work of the year is marked by the creation of a new standing committee, that of Work Among Foreign-speaking People.

The services of our beloved and honored President, Mrs. Darwin R. James, who for twenty years has given her time, money and talents without stint to the work of the Woman's Board, are almost without parallel. Her clearness of vision, her broad grasp of public questions, her knowledge of the whole mission field, her great mother-heart, which reaches out to every teacher and the very youngest pupil in our schools, have been a large factor in perfecting the organization of the women of the Presbyterian Church and establishing their work for home missions on a permanent basis.

Day of Prayer.—Recognizing the need for prayer that our country may be delivered from the evils which threaten it, we united with the Woman's Home Missionary Societies of other churches in issuing a call for a Day of Prayer for Home Missions. This was generally observed in February, and we believe the spiritual life of the women of the Church was quickened.

The Mission School, the Helper of the Church.—The total number of pupils in our schools is 11,304; there are 10,872 scholars in the Sabbath-schools carried on, in whole or in part, by our workers, a gain of 1535 over last year. As many of these Sabbath-schools could not be maintained if it were not for the trained help in the person of the missionary teacher, we are gratified at the increase in attendance and the increase of thirty-one Sabbath-schools over last year.

Our schools are of two distinct kinds, the boarding schools and day schools. Of the former class there are twenty-four, varying in size from Elm Spring and Wolf Point, among the Indians, where the parents contribute all the food for their children, to the Normal and Collegiate Institute in North Carolina, with its 249 boarding students.

In all these schools industrial training is combined with the intellectual and spiritual. The Woman's Board believes that along with Christian training the exceptional people must be taught the dignity of labor and the way to earn a living, and no effort is spared to make the boys and girls committed to our care educated and useful Christians.

The day school becomes a Christian settlement. The teachers' home is a social centre, and there is a welcome for all the people. There are many of them in isolated places miles away from railroads. One teacher writes that there was one time last winter when she did not see an American woman for seven weeks, and at another time for five weeks; but these missionary teachers and Bible readers render joyful service, and ever bear in mind the fact that their mission is to win souls to the Master.

Box Work.—Our societies have continued to aid the Board's missionaries by gifts of clothing and household supplies, and from the letters of appreciation received these have been of great assistance. In no case is the value of the box deducted from the salary of the missionary, but is in addition thereto. The number of boxes supplied this year was 461. One hundred and seventy-one boxes of Christmas gifts, 224 boxes of clothing and bedding, including rolls of rag carpet in lengths from 25 to 50 yards, were pledged for our mission schools.

All organizations show an advance in gifts, the total receipts for the year being $475,839, of which $73,047 was designated for the Board for Freedmen. Notwithstanding the anniversary fund was not duplicated this year, there is an advance of $16,403.21 over total receipts of last year, and the amount is the largest received in any one year since the organization. We have met all the expenses of the educational work undertaken by the Woman's Board, and have contributed $6806.60 for the evangelistic work of the Board of Home Missions. Had it not been for the increased cost of living, which has greatly added to the expenses of the boarding schools, the amount would have been larger.

Gospel seed has been sown in every mission station. It has been watered with prayer. May it bring forth fruit to the honor and glory of God.

The women of the Church have brought their gifts and laid them at the feet of the Master for the benefit of the evangelistic school work. They take up the work of the coming year with trust in God, recognizing in their country's need their opportunity to help make and keep America a Christian nation.

CONCLUSION.

The general review herewith presented will make it plain to the reader that the past year has been one of strong and steady progress. The co-operation of the Evangelistic Committee on home mission ground has been instrumental, under God, of a large number of conversions. Many feeble churches have been strengthened and many discouraged pastors have taken a new hold upon the work and are pressing it forward in ways that will show in the years to come.

Forty-six churches have come to self-support, which is a number above the average. In bringing about this result special mention should be made of the fidelity and earnest labors of the home mission committees of the various Presbyteries.

Our work on behalf of the workingmen, begun a few years ago, is beginning to show fruit in the access which our ministers have to the working classes and in the readiness with which labor unions have accepted the advances of our ministers, making them in many cases corresponding members of such unions.

Our work among foreigners is slow in its growth because in part of the difficulty of finding men equipped and fit for this service, but the field is one of boundless opportunity. The Presbytery of New York has invited the Home Board to co-operate with it in opening mission stations among the vast foreign populations of what is perhaps the greatest home mission field in the country.

The report of the Woman's Board tells its own story of continued advancement, and the further development of its work will entail greater and delightful burdens upon the Home Board in entering the fields which the school work is opening on the mountains, on the plains, in the territories and the islands.

We face the new year with large expectation. The Church is waking up to the strategic importance of evangelizing America. Whether for our country's sake or the world's sake, no larger duty is pressed upon the Christian Church of America to-day.

The Board has accepted with great regret the resignation of the Rev. Robert Mackenzie, D.D., because of his election to the presidency of the College Board, and has elected to fill the vacancy so created the Rev. Albert Edwin Keigwin.

By reason of prolonged absence from the country, the Rev. Howard Agnew Johnston, D.D., tendered his resignation as a member of the Board. It was regretfully accepted, and the Rev. Henry Sloane Coffin was elected to fill his unexpired term.

The terms of service of the following members of the Board expire with this General Assembly:

THE INVESTED FUNDS HELD BY THE BOARD FALL UNDER THREE CLASSES.

First.—Money or securities received by the Board as gifts or legacies to be invested or held by the Board, the income alone to be used, either for the general work of the Board or for some specific portion of that work. In some instances the gifts or legacies are to be designated by special name. In the case of one fund, that known as the "John C. Green Fund" for $100,000, the Board is empowered to use one-half of the securities constituting the fund as collateral for temporary loans, especially to help the Board over the summer months, when collections from churches are light. These permanent funds amount in the aggregate to $301,400.88, and are as follows:

Carson W. Adams Fund,	$7,116 26
Baldwin Memorial Fund,	4,250 00
David W. Baxter Fund,	5,000 00
Romney E. Blanton Fund,	1,000 00
A. I. Bulkley Fund,	1,000 00
General Permanent Fund,	86,482 12
Julia F. Gould Fund,	1,000 00
John C. Green Fund,	100,000 00
Charles W. Henry Fund,	5,000 00
George Long Fund,	15,000 00
Edmund Lyon Fund,	25,000 00
"M. T." Fund,	25,000 00
Sarah P. McNair Memorial Fund.	1,000 00
Charles R. Otis Missionary Fund,	5,000 00
Stephen C. Pinkerton Fund,	952 50
Cornelia B. Strong Fund,	10,000 00
"A Thank Offering from a Friend of the Work,"	8,000 00
J. C. Larimore Fund,	400 00
George G. Negley Memorial Fund,	200 00
		$301,400 88

Second.—Money or securities received by the Woman's Board, either as gifts or legacies, the interest alone to be used for the mission school work of the Board. In this class, also, certain of the funds bear a special name. These permanent funds amount in the aggregate to $101,768.16, and are as follows:

Juliet L. Axtell Fund,	$1,000 00
Brown Memorial Scholarship Fund,	5,000 00
A. I. Bulkley Fund,	1,000 00
William Allen Butler Memorial Fund,	1,000 00
Gallup Memorial Fund,	3,232 01
William T. Garratt Scholarship Fund,	2,000 00
Helen Day Gould Fund,	2,000 00
Louisa B. Green Memorial Fund,	6,681 72
Francis Henry Fund,	5,000 00
Anna Kipp Miller Fund,	2,000 00
Emeline G. Pierson Memorial Fund,	1,225 12
Twenty-fifth Anniversary Fund,	40,000 00
Sarah B. Withers Scholarships Fund,	5,865 25
Woman's Board—Permanent Fund,	23,245 11
Matilda M. Burrowes Fund,	946 20
Susan Ann Livingston Guy Memorial Fund,	250 00
Kirkwood Memorial Fund,	322 75
Mary W. Robinson Memorial Fund,	1,000 00
		$101,768 16

Third.—Money or securities received from individuals as absolute gifts to the Board, upon the principal sum of which a certain rate of interest is to be paid to the donor or some designated person during the life of the beneficiary. The annuity gifts, inclusive of $7,500 released during the year, amount in the aggregate to $91,725 00

The Invested Funds.

The various funds of the Board, above noted, aggregating $494,894.04, are invested in the following securities:

Abstract of the Sixty-eighth Annual Report.

With gratitude to the great Head of the Church for His providential care and guidance, the Board of Foreign Missions presents its Sixty-eighth Annual Report.

While the Board would record its many blessings and successes, it has been called to mourn the loss of two of its oldest members, Rev. William M. Paxton, D.D., LL.D., and Mr. Henry Ide, long an elder in the First Presbyterian Church of Brooklyn.

Dr. Paxton had been a member of the Board since 1861, and for several years was its presiding officer. He had been recognized as one of the leading men of the Church, having filled prominent pastorates in Pittsburgh and New York, and having during his later years held an important professorship in Princeton Theological Seminary. His fine Christian culture and his genial spirit had endeared him to the Board, and his sound discretion and balanced judgment rendered him a valuable counselor and administrator. He died at Princeton, November 28, at the mature age of fourscore years. His loss will long be felt in the Board and throughout the Church.

Mr. Ide became a member of the Board at the time of the Reunion of the Church in 1870, and was soon recognized as one of its most careful and conservative counselors; yet he was always to be found in favor of an aggressive policy and of real progress. His death, on January 21, removed the last of the lay members of the Board as constituted at the time of the Reunion of the Presbyterian Church. He had won the esteem and affection of his associate members by his uniform courtesy, his modest demeanor, his sound judgment and kindly spirit, and by the fidelity with which he met all his duties during the long period of thirty-five years.

In addition to the vacancies created in the Board by the death of Dr. Paxton and Mr. Ide, two others have resulted from resignation, namely: Rev. John R. Davies, D.D., of Philadelphia, and Rev. John Balcom Shaw, D.D., who has become pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church of Chicago. The Board has appointed to fill these vacancies (in accordance with General Assembly Standing Order 17), subject to the approval of the General Assembly, Rev. Cleland B. McAfee, D.D., Rev. Stanley White, Rev. W. P. Stevenson, D.D., and Mr. Albert J. Pitkin.

The Board would recommend to the General Assembly the election of Rev. Cleland B. McAfee, D.D., as a member of the Board in the Class of 1903–1906; Rev. Stanley White as a member of the class of 1904–1907; Rev. W. P. Stevenson, D.D., in the Class of 1904–1907, and Mr. Albert J. Pitkin in the Class of 1905–1908.

The membership of the following persons expires, and it will be necessary for the General Assembly to re-elect them or to fill their places by new appointments for a term of three years:

Rev. George Alexander, D.D.,	Mr. Warner Van Norden,
Rev. John F. Patterson, D.D.,	Mr. John T. Underwood,
Rev. J. Ross Stevenson, D.D.	Mr. D. W. McWilliams.

In the good providence of God, the lives of our missionaries have been preserved to an unusual degree. But four deaths have occurred in the entire force of 837 missionaries, namely: Rev. Edward M. Scheirer, of the Canton Mission, who died at Lien Chou, June 20, 1904—a promising young missionary who had been on the field only about twenty months; Rev. W. J. P. Morrison, D.D., a noble veteran of the Punjab Mission, who died at Wooster, Ohio, after a protracted illness, October 13, 1904; Mrs. H. K. Wright, of the Central China Mission, a young wife and mother, who died after a brief illness at Ningpo, December 25, 1904, and Mrs. Abbie M. Stebbins, of the Punjab Mission, who died at Saharanpur, January 7, 1905.

This small number, though a great loss to the service, is below the average annual mortality in the missionary force. There have been, however, twenty-three resignations during the year, mostly on account of ill health. In making new appointments, therefore, the Board is called upon to find twenty-seven available candidates just to supply vacancies and keep its force from declining. Deducting this number from the full number of sixty-three new missionaries sent out during the year, it will be seen that the advance with which to meet the ever-increasing demands of its twenty-seven missions is only thirty-six. This should certainly be regarded as a minimum increase. It is scarcely worthy the greatness and strength of the Presbyterian Church. Certainly the time has not yet come when the Board should decline to appoint any earnest and well-commended applicant.

During the year a visit has been made to the West Africa Mission by Secretary A. W. Halsey, accompanied by Mrs. Halsey. This is the first visit that has ever been made by any representative of the Board to the African Mission. The need of such a deputation has long been felt and pathetically urged by the missionaries. Complications growing out of contact with governmental representatives in French, German and Spanish possessions on the coast and various differences of opinion in regard to missionary policy demanded careful study and adjustment.

The Board would acknowledge its gratitude to God that in spite of exposure to severe climatic changes and the arduous labors incident to such a mission, the lives and health of Dr. and Mrs. Halsey have been kindly preserved. Only partial reports have been given of the results of this conference, but there is reason to believe that great and lasting good has been accomplished for the West Africa Mission.

On the whole, the year has been one of increasing encouragement and success. The statistics of accessions to the churches in most of the mission fields have been large; increased attention has been given to self-support; a growing capacity for self-government has appeared among other tokens of a self-propagating type of Christian life. While general development has been shown in higher collegiate education, a special interest has appeared in several of our missions in the matter of training a native ministry. Increased emphasis has been given to theological as distinguished from academic training, and to general preparation for the great work which must chiefly depend upon the native churches.

Following the example of Japan, Brazil and Mexico, our missions in India, China and Korea have taken important steps toward Presbyterian Union. In India, a consummation was reached on the 15th of December at Allahabad, in the organization of a National Presbyterian Church. Meanwhile, an advanced stage of progress on the same lines has been attained in China. A theological seminary has been established at Nanking under the auspices of the Northern and Southern Presbyterian Churches of America. Two professors have been appointed, namely: Rev. J. C. Garritt, D.D., who during his present furlough has been assisting the Board in the absence of Secretary Halsey, and Rev. John W. Davis, D.D., of the Southern Presbyterian Church.

In Korea, in connection with the Permanent Council of the different Presbyterian Missions there established, a movement has been started for the more thorough training of native preachers in special classes under the leadership of Rev. Dr. S. A. Moffett and others. A proposed plan for the formation of an independent Presbyterian Church in Korea has been submitted to the Assembly with the approval of the Board. In some of our principal mission fields measures are also being adopted for united effort with the missions of other Protestant denominations. In Shantung, China, the union in educational work with the English Baptists has begun most auspiciously in the Shantung Protestant University, while in Peking the North China Union Colleges bring together in educational work our own Board, the American Board and the London Missionary Society.

As the progress of missions in the East was affected by the war with Spain which brought the Philippines under the control of the United States, and by the Boxer outbreak which opened China as never before to Western influence and an enlarged work of evangelization, so the present epoch-making war of Russia and Japan must greatly affect the international movements of the East. The issue of this crisis between Russia and Japan concerns not only the two countries directly in conflict, but the entire Orient. The example of Japan in pressing to the front rank as a nation naturally arouses the racial ambition of other Asiatic peoples, and a desire to subsidize the power of Western civilization. In China especially surprising changes are affecting all intelligent classes and even the policy of the Imperial Dynasty. Meanwhile the diplomatic influence of the United States is assuming a new place and a new importance throughout the East. Our missionary work in the coming decades, whether we will or not, and whether for good or ill, will be more and more closely related to the influence of diplomacy and commerce; and with the exception of the Mohammedan powers of the Levant, our relations with other countries are more than ever friendly and encouraging. This is particularly true of Japan, whose Emperor has recently conferred a title of great honor upon the veteran pioneer missionary, Dr. J. C. Hepburn; and in Siam, whose policy has lately shown special discrimination in favor of American missions.

But the effect of this bringing together of the East and the West is not altogether favorable to the work of evangelization. Already our civilization has introduced standards of expenditure and luxury which render it difficult to project our Christian institutions on the social level of Oriental nations. The new tides of American enterprise will increase this disparity more and more. Already the cost of living is advancing in all Eastern marts. American standards in Hawaii and the Philippines affect not only those islands but contiguous nations, and the economic problems of missionary administration become more and more difficult. Not only missionary service, but that of native helpers becomes increasingly expensive.

These changes have a direct bearing upon the policy of missionary boards, and particularly upon the question of training a native ministry. The great work of the future, nay even that of the present, cannot be done by foreign missionaries, Aside from the difficulty of securing candidates whose qualifications are satisfactorily commended, there arises the financial question of a less expensive force raised up and properly trained on the field.

But there are other reasons of still greater moment. The movement already referred to toward the organization of independent national churches necessitates the preparation of a national ministry competent to assume the responsibilities thrust upon them. Nothing could be more illogical than to encourage the formation of such organizations and at the same time pursue a policy of repression or neglect in the matter of developing an adequate native force. New stress was laid upon this subject by the last General Assembly through the report of its Standing Committee. "From this land," says the report, "we need to send out only the picked leaders. We are not to supply the main working force. The rank and file must be secured on the field. The Board should be commended without reserve in its large purpose in this regard. Men who are able to duplicate themselves by making it possible to train native workers should welcome the opportunity by giving largely to the schools which are to be established and developed. In all the missions there is a feeling that as soon as possible the native Church must bear its own burdens."

In response to this action of the Assembly, as well as to the earnest appeal of the Board to its missions to give increased attention to the subject, there have come many utterances from the field, showing that our missionaries are not unmindful of this necessity, and that new measures are being taken in this direction.

But the Board meets with a practical difficulty which unless removed bids fair to thwart the very object which it has commended to the missions.

The lack of adequate receipts each year necessitates retrenchment at one point or another. The Board's appropriations are made in classes, some of which admit of no curtailment. Its missionary force, so far removed from all sources of supply and pressed by an increasing expensiveness of living, must be supported. Retrenchment therefore falls upon the native force, so far as it is not maintained by self-supporting churches. It not only cripples the work of training helpers, but it frequently leads to the dismissal of those already employed. This precarious element therefore, this uncertainty of permanent employment, seems well-nigh fatal to the all-important work of providing a native ministry. It has a depressing effect not only upon the numbers, but upon the quality of the force employed.

No question of missionary policy is more vital at the present time than this. In the interest of self-support, more use must be made of and greater security must in some way be given to this native element or its proper advancement and efficiency will be impossible. The missions must be assured that the training schools which they institute this year will not have to be closed next year for lack of funds; and native helpers employed by the missions who have relinquished their secular business and devoted themselves to evangelization must feel assured that they will not be dropped from the service a few months hence by retrenchment. The following list of ordained native ministers as per the last annual report will show the inadequacy of this element of its working force:

In Africa, 2; in the seven missions of China, 36; in the three missions of India, 36; Chinese and Japanese in the U. S., 2; Japan, East and West, 14; Korea, 0; Mexico, 25; Persia, East and West, 39; Philippines, 2; Siam, 1; Laos, 8; South Brazil, 4; Chile, 4; Central Brazil, 1; Guatemala, 0; Colombia, 1; Syria, 5. Total, 179.

The number of ordained natives should exceed that of foreign missionaries, who should act the part of bishops, whereas the proportion stands, 172 natives to 280 ordained foreigners, besides 81 commissioned foreign laymen.

It seems very evident that the Church, the Board and the missions must unite in assiduous effort and earnest prayer for the strengthening of this weak and discouraging element in the policy and operation of our missionary enterprise. The paramount issues of future success imperatively demand it. The Church's opportunity is given by the last Assembly in the words already quoted: "Men who are able to reduplicate themselves by making it possible to train native workers should welcome the opportunity by giving largely to the schools which are to be established and developed," and by logical implication giving largely also for the support of natives now already employed. Meanwhile it devolves on the Board and the missions to coöperate by all possible means to secure greater stability and encouragement to the native service.

For a specific account of the work in the various missions, the Assembly and the Church at large are respectfully referred to the carefully prepared reports herewith submitted. They present a succinct and comprehensive résumé of all our missionary work.

The seven Women's Boards have contributed during the year a total of $337,197.89, and in addition have forwarded as contributions from Young People's Societies $48,004.57. Their work commends itself to the confidence of the churches more and more, after an experience of thirty-five years. During that period the total amount of their contributions has reached $7,695,661.21. This amount has been raised almost without expense to the Board or to the cause. It has been a work of love and of prayer, and therefore of unparalleled success.

In reply to a question whether the time had not come to lay aside the separate organizations of woman's work and merge their gifts in the Church collections, the Board on March 6 took the following action:

"The Board having learned from the Secretaries that from time to time questions had been addressed to them as to the future of the distinct missionary work of women for women, seeming to imply uncertainty in the minds of some as to the attitude of the Board in the matter, the Board desires to record its clear and emphatic conviction that the work of the women's missionary organizations is needed now more than ever in the past, and that it knows of no development of the work, either present or prospective, which should be regarded as lessening in the slightest degree the importance of the women's missionary organizations or the necessity of their continuance and their development.

"The Board realizes that there are many problems with such a rapidly growing work as the work of Foreign Missions, and that new conditions will bring new questions, and would express the hope that there may be more frequent and fuller opportunity for conference between representatives of the Board and the Central Committee of the Women's Boards. It would welcome at least a regular Annual Conference, which would allow time for a full consideration of all matters of common interest and serve as a unifying influence in the work."

During the absence of Dr. Halsey on his visit to the Africa Mission, Dr. James S. Dennis, one of the members of the Board, has conducted the editorial work of the Foreign Missions department of the Assembly Herald. This has been done with his well-known fidelity and marked ability, for all of which the Board would express its hearty thanks.

The Annual Conference with Newly Appointed Missionaries was held in June, as usual, and showed an ever-increasing interest and success.

The Twelfth Interdenominational Conference of Foreign Mission Boards and Societies was held at the Bible House in January, and was attended by representatives of twenty-eight Boards and Societies. It was one of the most profitable that has yet been held, and developed an increasing interest in comity and union in missionary work.

The absence of Dr. Halsey, the Secretary of the Home Department, has deprived the force at work among the churches of his most efficient help; but the Rev. J. C. Garritt, D.D., of the Central China Mission, has spent part of his furlough in the offices of the Board, and has rendered admirable service. The home side of the work of the Board, meanwhile, has been aggressively carried forward. Mr. McConaughy has conducted his work as Secretary of the Forward Movement with untiring energy. The period for which he undertook the work expires on September 1, 1905, but arrangements have been made for its continuance, and the work has been more thoroughly coördinated with the other work of the Home Department. The experience of the past three years has developed some very valuable ideas, and it is hoped and believed that further experience may lead in time to such an adaptation of means and such development of methods as will secure the participation of every church and of every member of every church in the work of the evangelization of the world. A small quarterly periodical, entitled "All the World," has been issued in the interests of the Forward Movement, as a means of communication with the local Committees.

Dr. Sailer, as Honorary Educational Secretary, giving his services freely, has continued the work of developing and guiding Mission Study Classes, and has had the assistance, at practically no expense to the Board, of Mr. B. Carter Millikin, formerly of Baltimore. Hundreds of mission study classes have been reported to Dr. Sailer. This is evidently the beginning of an important movement. Much use has been made of the Library of the Board. Books have been sent out to any who asked to borrow, and lantern slides have been supplied for many missionary lectures. Mr. William Henry Grant, after several years' honorary connection with the work of the Board, for three of which he bore the title of Honorary Librarian, felt obliged to resign during the year, in order to carry out special plans for the advancement of missions which the pressure of many calls unavoidable in the Library has hindered. The Board has regretfully accepted Mr. Grant's resignation, but is assured of his continued help in such ways as he may find possible. Much correspondence and attention have been devoted to the question of field secretaries in the Central West to succeed Dr. Marshall, and in other sections of the country as seemed to be desirable for the local missionary interests. The Board hopes soon to be able to conclude arrangements that will provide for these urgent necessities of the work. Missionaries at home on furlough have rendered great service in presenting the cause before the churches; and large quantities of leaflets and missionary exercises have been sent out. Last year the number distributed, almost entirely in response to specific request, was about two and one-quarter millions.

An account of the financial aspects of the year will be found in the Treasurer's report. It is merely urged here that an income of at least $100,000 more per annum is absolutely necessary to meet simply the most pressing requirements of the work.

The recommendations of the last General Assembly with respect to special solicitations of Christmas and Easter offerings have been complied with, and the executive officers in all their communications with the churches during the year have endeavored to transmit and perpetuate the high and earnest Foreign Missionary spirit which characterized that body. While not without concern in forecasting the coming year, and contemplating the greatness and urgency of the work to be accomplished—especially the serious question of adequate supply of funds—the Board is cheered by the thought that the work is of God, and not of men, and that His power and guidance are promised in its support. Nor can the Board forget that in all the exigencies of an undertaking which it has pursued for seventy years, an open way out of every difficulty has been shown, and that in respect to funds thus far the Board has been able to rely upon the heaven-inspired faith of the Church, sustained as it is by the Divine promise.

Great encouragement has been derived from tidings of revival in various parts of the country and other lands, and our fiscal year closes with earnest prayer that its spread may become universal, and embrace all Mission fields.

Treasurer's Report.

The year which ended April 30, 1905, was the greatest year in the history of the Board of Foreign Missions. A careful study of the financial statements which follow this introductory report will repay the reader.

The appropriations and disbursements (Schedule 3) amounted to $1,188,420.32; the receipts applicable to this large expenditure amounted to $1,184,778, leaving a deficit for the year 1905 of $3642.32. The deficit of 1904, which amounted to $40,690.39 on April 30, 1904, was reduced by special gifts (see Schedule 15) to $35,120.66, leaving the present deficit of the Board $38,762.98.

The increased receipts over the receipts of last year from the usual sources were most gratifying, the said increase being as follows:

From Churches,	$46,017 68
Women's Auxiliaries and Young People's Societies,	32,053 64
Miscellaneous (individual gifts),	3,488 60
Legacies,	49,113 56

The only decrease being from Sunday-schools, amounting to $2551.19. The net increase from the above sources was $128,122.29.

The number of individual contributors was thirty less than during the year 1904:.

The net gain to the Board from operating the Presbyterian Building was $16,295.13. Of this amount $849.01 was used in reducing the mortgage on the building, and the balance, $15,446.12, reserved for a further payment on the mortgage of this Board on the building. It will be seen that had no mortgage existed on the building the net earnings could have been applied on the current expenses, in which case there would not have been a deficit for the year, and the deficit of 1904 would have been materially reduced. This of itself is a strong argument in favor of the extinguishment by the Church of the mortgage indebtedness on the Presbyterian Building. The mortgage of this Board now amounts to $60,000.

There were transferred from Board's General Reserve Fund, uninvested, the following amounts:

Improvements on 5 West 20th St., ...	$5,106 84
" " " Presbyterian Building, ...	436 00
Furniture and Fixtures, ...	144 38
Purchase of " Misk " property, Beirut, ...	4,200 00

	$10,887 22

On the field, the main building of the Shantung College has been completed, and a picture of the building is shown facing page 124 of the Annual Report. Through the generosity of Mr. John H. Converse, a large plot of ground has been secured for the Seminary at Coyaocan, Mexico, and several buildings provided by Mr. Converse will soon be erected. Land purchased by Mr. Nathaniel Tooker, during his recent trip in China, has been presented to the Board as a site for a hospital at Siangtan.

The following memorials have been established: John D. Wells Memorial Training School, Seoul, Korea, and Boys' School, Siangtan, Hunan; Ladd Hospital, Pyeng Yang, Korea; Sabine Haines Hospital, Iloilo, Philippine Islands; William M. Paxton Boys' School, Kiungchow, Hainan, and Science Hall, Hangchow College, and Mrs. S. C. Perkins Ward, David Gregg Hospital, Canton. Special gifts were also made for the Union Theological Seminaries at Nanking and Peking by the Princeton Church, Philadelphia, and Messrs. Morris K. Jesup and John S. Kennedy.

The balance sheets from the managers of the Mission Presses at Shanghai and Beirut show a continued condition of prosperity.

During the year six Special Gift Agreements have been issued, covering an aggregate sum of $19,050. The Board issued a booklet on "Legacies and Special Gift Agreements," which has been widely circulated. It is hoped that it my be the means of directing special attention to this class of gifts.

Under the will of Annie Elizabeth McKenzie, late of Sodus Point, N. Y., this Board was made the residuary legatee, and is charged with the maintenance of her residence on Lake Ontario as a home for disabled missionaries on furlough.

EXPENSES.

An analysis of the expenses of the year will be found in Schedule 5 of this Report. The percentages of disbursements in New York to the total sum received are as follows:

Administrative expense,	4.18	per cent.
Disbursements not administrative,	1.32	"
Disbursements directed by General Assembly,	.65	"
	6.15	"

This is a gratifying decrease from last year, and is the lowest since 1893.

Abstract of Eighty-sixth Annual Report.

The Board of Education respectfully report to the General Assembly that they began the year with a cash balance in bank of $494.44 belonging to the current account, that they have received in the course of the year from all sources $119,104, of which $50,214 came from churches, Sabbath-schools, Young People's Societies and individuals, being an increase of $870 as compared with last year's contributions from these sources. The Board have paid out to candidates $64,535, being $14,321 more than the total receipts from the sources just mentioned. The receipts from legacies amounted to $54,810.97.

The Board have made one hundred dollars the maximum amount of scholarship aid for students in college and seminary courses, and ninety dollars the maximum for the comparatively few cases in which students are aided in the academical course. Special provision for the education of candidates for work among foreigners in America involved additional cost. The Board, however, with the aid of unrestricted legacies, closed the year without debt.

Membership.—The Board have to report the resignation of Rev. Robert Hunter, D.D., after a service of eleven years, and the election of Rev. W. H. Oxtoby, D.D., to fill his place. At the meeting of the Board, held on June 13, 1904, the officers of the Board were re-elected.

Candidates.—The total number of candidates enrolled under the care of the Board during the year is 658, of whom 225 are new men and 433 are renewals. The total increase for the year is fifty. The number of Spanish-speaking candidates is seven; the number of negroes eighty-eight, of whom all but nine are collegiate or seminary students. There are forty-seven Germans, eleven Hungarians, ten Italians, four Bohemians, one Dalmatian and one Galician.

The polyglot work, thus under way, has been undertaken by the two seminaries, one at Dubuque, Ia., and the other at Bloomfield, N. J., which were organized some years ago to provide a suitable education for the German-speaking candidates. Conditions at these institutions are such as are needed to meet the requirements of foreign students. In them the student, who has commonly but an elementary training, is taken through a course of eight or nine years, being prepared for college, and then given his college and seminary instruction. It was only necessary to employ additional instructors skilled in the languages of the new students. The Board took advantage of permission given by the last General Assembly and made a somewhat larger appropriation in cases where such additional instructors were necessary.

Serious doubts were entertained at first as to the possibility of finding suitable candidates; but, young as our work is among Italians and Hungarians, our congregations are already furnishing a number of promising men. In addition, a number once members of the Roman Catholic Church, and educated for the priesthood, have come to America with the purpose of devoting their lives to service for their countrymen in the ministry of our Church. While the Board have been given permission to make some exceptions in the application of their rules to foreigners, they are glad to report that these students have shown a praiseworthy readiness to undertake the long and laborious course of study which the Church maps out for those who aspire to her ministry.

The experience of another year confirmed the Board in the opinion expressed a year ago that some modification of Constitutional Rule No. III should be made, with the double object of securing its effectiveness by insuring to the would-be candidate the prompt attention of the Education Committee of his Presbytery and, at the same time, making provision for any necessary exceptions to the Rule. They are sure that the modification of the Rule, which will presumably go at once into effect, will add greatly to the efficiency of administration.

SPECIAL SCHOLARSHIPS.—The Board have awarded the Newberry Scholarship for three years to Mr. Sidney Zandstra, a graduate of Hope College, Mich., and at present a member of the Middle Class, Princeton Seminary. The competition was for this year, for the first time, thrown open to all the seminaries.

Martin L. Bethel, a graduate of Lincoln University College and Seminary, the present incumbent of the Mutchmore Scholarship, elected to take his post-graduate year at Princeton Seminary. James W. Bean, the present incumbent of the Secretary's Scholarship, a graduate of Parsons College, Ia., and of Omaha Seminary, has made the same election.

CONFERENCE WITH THE COLLEGE BOARD.—In accordance with the direction of the General Assembly a conference was held with representatives of the College Board, December 30, 1904, the result of which was the adoption of the following resolution: "Resolved, That it is the sense of this conference that, under existing circumstances, a union of the two Boards is not feasible."

SMALL NUMBER OF CANDIDATES.—The Board recommend that active measures be taken to counteract those influences which have been leading young men of the Church to devote their lives to secular callings rather than to the ministry; and they are firmly persuaded that the simple means which are suggested in the word of God will be found amply sufficient for the purpose. Visits have been made by the Corresponding Secretary to colleges, and literature has been distributed for the purpose of directing the attention of students to the holy office.

DAY OF PRAYER.—The Board recommend the appointment of the last Thursday of January, 1906, as a day of prayer for the conversion of the youth of the Church in schools and colleges and for the increase of the ministry.

By order of the Board,

EDWARD B. HODGE, Corresponding Secretary.

Abstract of the Sixty-seventh Annual Report.

April 1, 1904, to March 31, 1905.

I. SABBATH-SCHOOL AND MISSIONARY DEPARTMENT.

MISSIONARY WORK.

In 38 States and Territories, and in Cuba, the Board has had at work 121 Sabbath-school missionaries and 22 colporteurs, laboring within the bounds of 30 Synods and 104 Presbyteries. Of these 16 were Synodical and 127 were Presbyterial workers, making a total of 143. They have organized 737 new Sabbath-schools and reorganized 316, a total of 1053, into which have been gathered 3484 officers and teachers and 33,297 scholars, making a total membership of 36,781. Our missionaries have also cared for and nurtured 2405 Sabbath-schools which they have organized in previous years. The membership of these schools is 92,906. These missionaries have made 111,418 visits to families and have held 4396 evangelistic services, in which 3358 conversions came under their observation. Sabbath-school institutes and conventions to the number of 616 have been held.

In the homes and Sabbath-schools which they have visited, the missionaries have distributed large numbers of periodicals and tracts, and, in addition, have sold and given away 36,236 volumes. They have also distributed, by gift and sale, 8207 Bibles and Testaments. (This includes the literature distributed by our missionary colporteurs.).

The number of churches developed by our missionaries from their schools during the past year is 100, of which 82 are Presbyterian and 18 of other denominations.

The number of Presbyterian buildings erected last year as the outgrowth of the labors of Sabbath-school missionaries is 61. The cost of these buildings was $86,750. Thus, through the efforts of our Sabbath-school missionaries, over 56 per cent. of the entire cost of the Sabbath-school and Missionary Work was returned to the Presbyterian Church in the money value of the buildings erected.

The value of Presbyterian Sabbath-school Missions is demonstrated by the simple statement that in seventeen years 892 Presbyterian churches have grown from these missions—an average of 52 new churches every year. Other denominations also have shared in the fruits of the work and have gathered from them 495 churches. The whole number of churches, therefore, thus organized since 1887 is 1387—an average of over 81 churches every year.

There are 42 of our Sabbath-school missionaries now supported by generous individual contributors, by churches and Sabbath-schools, and, in some cases, by the combined efforts of all the Sabbath-schools of a Presbytery.

MISSIONARY COLPORTEUR WORK.

Encouraging progress has been made in our missionary colporteur work among foreigners. During the year we have had twenty-two such missionaries laboring in eight States. Under the wise direction of the Presbyteries in which they have labored. effective work has been accomplished. Our experience has demonstrated beyond doubt that the colportage method is the most effectual for reaching our foreign population. These missionary colporteurs gather the people together in neighborhood meetings during the day and in the evenings, meet the men at the noon hour and read and explain the Word in their own tongue. In some communities regular meetings are conducted, and in several cases permanent Presbyterian missions have developed.

The Board has also been instrumental in bringing about the early publication of the Bible in the Ruthenian language, many copies of which have been distributed during the year, and efforts are now being put forth to secure an edition of the Bible in Roman type for the Lithuanians. The aggressiveness of this Board in the work among foreigners is awakening our entire Church to its opportunities in that direction.

The total sales of Bibles, Testaments, books, tracts, etc., by our missionary colporteurs amounted to $1643.31.

EDUCATIONAL WORK.

Received into the Churches.—Last year 36,648 Sabbath-school scholars were received into the full communion of the Church. Since 1884, the date of the first reception of these reports, the total number received from the Sabbath-schools into full membership of the Church is 620,074.

Teacher-training.—The number of persons in our Sabbath-schools who are members of teacher-training classes is 9307. The Board is making efforts, by furnishing text-books for such classes and by furnishing suggestions as to organizing and conducting them, to enlarge this branch of the work.

The Shorter Catechism.—Out of the total number of Sabbath-schools, which is 8601, the number teaching the Shorter Catechism is only 3598, or less than one-half.

Children's Day and Rally Day.—An increase in the interest of Sabbath-schools in our work is evident from the generous gifts of the past year on Children's Day and Rally Day, the total receipts from these celebrations amounting to $63,371.15. The number of Sabbath-schools using our programmes on Children's day was 4349; 1050 Sabbath-schools used our Rally Day programmes and took an offering for our work among foreigners, in accordance with the recommendation of the General Assembly.

GRANTS.

Grants amounting in value to $8053.04 were made as follows:

Periodicals, books and tracts to churches, Sabbath-schools and individuals,	$7,205 94
Bibles, as rewards for reciting Shorter Catechism,	200 50
To aid in the publication of religious literature for our "foreign population,"	300 00
Grant of Westminster Teacher to foreign missionaries,	346 60
	$8,053 04

Contributions to the amount of $2315 were made through the Board to aid in the erection of chapels, and to other special objects, as designated by the donors.

ECONOMY.

While the expenditures for the year 1904-05 show a decrease of $8600.28 from last year, it is gratifying to note that the decrease of expense for purely missionary work is $4554.49, showing a saving of $4045.79 on other expenses. The percentage of expense for administration is 4.89.

Exclusive of the appropriation of two-thirds of the net profit of the Business Department, amounting to $26,898.33, the Sabbath-school and Missionary Department closed the year with a balance of $2962.91, having expended $27,728.32, more than was contributed by churches, Sabbath-schools and individuals, showing that the Board itself added twenty-two cents to every dollar contributed.

GROWTH OF INCOME.

The Board notes with gratitude an increase in contributions to its Sabbath-school Missionary Work from $89,879.39 in 1898–99 to $125,150.55 in 1904–05, an increase of forty per cent. in six years.

There have been forty-one editions reprinted of former publications.

THE LESSON HELPS.

The following is a brief description of the character and purpose of the periodicals published by the Board:

The Westminster Teacher is a monthly magazine, especially prepared for teachers and officers of Sabbath-schools. It is used also in many adult classes. It contains full and varied expositions of the International Bible Lessons. This magazine is published in octavo form, each number containing from 48 to 60 pages, with cover. Price, single copy, by mail, per annum, 60 cents; school subscriptions to one address, 50 cents per copy.

The Westminster Senior Quarterly is used in older and adult classes. Each number contains full lesson material for three months, with Orders of Service, Maps and other valuable matter, and contains 42 pages. School subscriptions to one address, 12 cents a year; single copy, 20 cents.

The Westminster Intermediate Quarterly is designed for scholars of intermediate grade. It contains full lesson text, with notes, questions and practical teachings. In it are found also Maps, Orders of Service, etc. Each number contains 42 pages. School subscriptions to one address, 12 cents a year; single copies, 20 cents.

The Westminster Junior Quarterly is designed for younger children in the Junior Department. School subscriptions to one address, 12 cents a year; single copies, 20 cents.

The Westminster Primary Quarterly is for the little folks of the primary grade. It gives explanations of the lessons, with hymns and music, and is beautifully illustrated. It contains 38 pages. School subscriptions to one address, 12 cents a year; single copies, 20 cents.

The Westminster Home Department Quarterly is prepared for the use of those who, though unable to attend the sessions of the Sabbath-school, yet desire to study the lesson, week by week. This Quarterly contains in each number 46 pages, and is 12 cents a year for school subscriptions to one address; 20 cents for single copies separately mailed.

The Westminster Normal Quarterly was issued only to cover a two years' course of lessons for use in advanced and normal classes. This course has been completed, and the eight quarterly numbers are furnished to those desiring them. The price is 40 cents a year for a single subscription; two or more subscriptions to one address, 24 cents each. The two years' course, bound in cloth, $1 00, postpaid.

The Westminster Lesson Leaf is prepared with special reference to intermediate and younger scholars. It is issued monthly, but is so prepared that, if desired, the leaves can be separated and distributed to scholars weekly. Each leaf contains one lesson complete, with Scripture, Golden Text, Catechism, Notes on the Lesson, Questions and Practical Teachings. School subscriptions to one address, 5 cents a year; single copies, 10 cents.

The Westminster Junior Lessons is a neat leaf adapted to the little people of the Junior Department. Illustrated. It is issued weekly in the same form and at the same price as The Westminster Lesson Leaf.

The Westminster Lesson Card contains a brightly colored lithographic picture, illustrating the lesson of the day, with Lesson Title, Golden Text, Lesson Hymn, Lesson Story and Questions. It is adapted in grade to younger children and to primary classes. The price for school subscriptions to one address is 10 cents a year, 2½ cents a quarter. Single sets, 20 cents a year.

The Bible Roll. Lesson pictures, the same as those on the Lesson Cards, but greatly enlarged, prepared as wall roll for Primary Department. Price, $3.00 per year; 75 cents per quarter.

The Westminster Beginners' Lessons cover the Two Years' International Course for young children of the kindergarten age. The lessons are arranged with reference to the seasons. They can be taken up at any time. The Beginners' Lessons, with the cards for teachers and scholars, and issued as a Quarterly, in eight illustrated numbers, began with September, 1903, and will be finished in August, 1905. The numbers will then be bound in one or two volumes and issued in permanent form.

Accompanying the Beginners' Lessons is a series of large picture cards (12 x 15 inches in size), especially prepared for this course. Both the Quarterly and these cards are solely for the teacher's use in teaching the lesson. For the scholars there are smaller Golden Text Picture Cards to be given out each week.

Running parallel with the Beginners' Lessons is a series of Supplemental Beginners' Lessons, which are to take the place of the formal opening exercises used in the other departments of the school. This Supplemental Course, which covers a period of ten months only, includes a series of lessons for the teacher, published in pamphlet form, elaborating the Supplemental Lessons, and a series of large pictures for use in teaching the Supplemental Lessons (7 x 9 inches in size). For the scholar there are small cards to be distributed the last Sunday of the month, giving the thought for the month with a Bible verse and the words of a song.

ILLUSTRATED PAPERS.

Forward continues to grow in interest, as its increasing circulation attests. While intended primarily for older classes in Sabbath-schools, Forward is adapted also for young people in the home and everywhere. It has a Christian Endeavor Department, with terse notes on the weekly topics and articles from time to time on the work of Christian Endeavor societies. In clubs it costs less than one cent a number. Single subscriptions, per year, 75 cents; subscription for two or more copies addressed to one person, 50 cents a year each.

The Sabbath-school Visitor is the oldest of the periodicals of the Board. It is adapted to a younger class of readers than Forward. It is an illustrated four-page paper, each number containing attractive and interesting matter. It has been improved during the past year. It is published weekly. Single subscriptions, per year, 50 cents; school subscriptions to one address, 30 cents.

The Morning Star is issued to meet the demand in some schools for a paper at small cost. It is of the same quality, grade and style as The Visitor, but only half its size. It is issued every week. Single subscriptions, 25 cents a year; school subscriptions, to one address, 15 cents.

Sunbeam is a four-page weekly illustrated paper for very little people. No subscriptions are taken for less than one month. Single subscriptions, 30 cents a year. School subscriptions to one address, 20 cents a year for each scholar.

III. BUSINESS DEPARTMENT.

There have been published during the year 2,088,981 copies of books and tracts and 47,204,740 copies of periodicals, which, together with 8300 copies of the Annual Report for the year ending March 31, 1904, make an aggregate of 49,302,021 publications for the year.

The work of placing these publications on the market is performed by means of the main store in Philadelphia, the Depositories in New York, Chicago, St. Louis and San Francisco, and seven other houses where the publications of the Board can be obtained.

The Depositories conducted by the Board are as follows:

Depositories.

New York, N. Y., C. W. Hippard, Manager, 156 Fifth Avenue.
Chicago, Ill., W. P. Blessing, Manager, 192 Michigan Avenue.
St. Louis, Mo., D. R. Williams, Manager, 1516 Locust Street.
San Francisco, Cal., L. H. Cary, Manager, 23 Grant Avenue.

The other houses referred to are these:

Boston, Mass., H. D. Noyes & Co., 13½ Bromfield Street.
Cincinnati, O., Western Tract Society, 420 Elm Street.
Pittsburg, Pa., Board of Colportage, 712 Penn Avenue.
Richmond, Va., The Presbyterian Committee of Publication, 212–214 North Sixth Street.
Toronto, Ontario, Upper Canada Tract Society, 102 Yonge Street.
Winnipeg, Manitoba, Russell, Lang & Co., 504 Main Street.
London, England, Publication Committee Presbyterian Church of England, 14 Paternoster Square.

These houses, with the exception of the one in London, furnish all our publications at the Board's prices.

Sales.

The sales for the year in books and tracts were $267,665.15; in periodicals, $350,181.15. These amounts, as they include credit sales, do not agree with the Treasurer's accounts, which account exhibits only cash received. The Treasurer's account includes cash received for the sales of the current year, and also cash received for the credit sales of preceding years.

The aggregate of the preceding sales includes not only the ordinary sales of the main house, and of the depositories and other houses, but all sales made to the Sabbath-school and Missionary Department.*

* The Business Department sells all its publications to the Sabbath-school and Missionary Department at "the highest rate of discount allowed on the same class of publications to the most favored branch houses in this country"; the missionaries are required to sell for cash only.

Capital and Net Profits.

The capital at the beginning of the year, according to the balance sheet of the last report, was $254,950.85. The net profits of the year were $40,347.49, being nearly sixteen per cent. of the capital. Of this sum two-thirds, or $26,898.33, have been placed to the credit of the Sabbath-school and Missionary Fund, in accordance with the direction of the General Assembly. The remaining third, or $13,449.16, has been added to the capital, making the amount as now reported $268,400.01.

C. T. McMULLIN, Treasurer.

Philadelphia, April 1, 1905.

The undersigned, in conjunction with Mr. Horace Hill, Accountant, have examined the account of the Treasurer of the Trustees, and find it correct. The balance of cash in the hands of the Treasurer is One hundred thousand two hundred and eighty-nine dollars and sixty-two cents ($100,289.62). They have also examined the securities in his hands, amounting to One hundred and sixty thousand nine hundred and seventy-nine dollars and eight cents ($160,979.08), and find them in the name of the corporation, except $3000 Schuylkill River East Side, $4000 People's Passenger Railway Company, $4000 People's Passenger Railway Company Consolidated bonds, which are coupon bonds and were received as such from the Executor of the Farr Estate.

(Signed) WILLIAM W. ALLEN,
WILLIAM H SCOTT,
HENRY T. SHILLINGFORD,
Auditing Committee.

Philadelphia, April 17, 1905.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

The Presbyterian Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work,
ROBERT N. WILLSON, President.

ABSTRACT OF THIRTY-FIFTH ANNUAL REPORT.

The Board is again obliged to report the loss of a member greatly respected and esteemed by his colleagues. The Rev. John Reid, D.D., pastor of the Memorial Church of Brooklyn, N. Y., and long a member of this Board, died suddenly on Sunday morning, December 18, 1904.

APPLICATIONS.

The applications during the past year have not equaled in number those of the previous year, which were reported as "in both number and amount exceeding that of any previous year in the history of the Board."

It was probably to be expected that such unusual activity in one year would be followed by a certain degree of falling off in the year following. Yet the number is sufficiently large to show the unceasing advance of the Church and to consume the annual resources of the Board; indeed it may be added that if the demand had been equal to that of the year before, the Board would have been unable to respond adequately to the needs of the churches.

In all departments during the year now under review the number of the applications was 222 and the total amount of aid asked, either as grants or loans for church buildings or manses, was $189,900.

Of the above 222 applications, 120, aggregating $76,418, were to the General Fund for church buildings, either for grants (112, $60,468), loans without interest (8, $4150), or for such loans in addition to grants (6, $10,800); 22, aggregating $46,950, were for loans from the Loan Fund; 54, aggregating $25,907, were for loans from the Manse Fund; 21, aggregating $26,475, were for loans for manses from the Raynolds Fund, and 5, aggregating $6150, were to the Barber Fund for grants either for churches or manses.

The total of appropriations and of churches aided is smaller than for several years, a result which, in view of the unusual demand for two years previously, was possibly to have been expected. It is probable, however, that a more potent reason for the decrease is the inability, owing to lack of funds, of the Board of Home Missions to enter upon new work. So closely are related the interests and work of these two Boards that any enforced check in the progress of the one immediately affects the other. If the Home Board, for lack of men or means, does not enter upon new fields, the Board of Church Erection finds the demands upon it decrease; if, on the other hand, the Board of Erection, for lack of funds, is unable to respond to the calls upon it, the young churches organized by our home missionaries languish and are in danger of dying. The appropriations this year have reached thirty-six States and Territories, Minnesota having received the largest number. They have also extended to 114 Presbyteries.

During the year there have been reported as completed without debt 192 churches and manses of an aggregate value estimated at $614,110. The total receipts in all departments have been $203,080.08, and the disbursements $199,980.73.

THE COMING YEAR.

As it is a part of the duty of the Board, in accordance with the provisions of its charter, to make annually to the Assembly any "suggestions or recommendations which it may deem necessary or suitable," a few words as to the outlook for the coming year may properly close this report.

There is every reason to expect that during the coming year there will be an increased demand upon the Board both for grants and loans.

The country has been very prosperous and new villages and towns are constantly springing up.

Oklahoma and Indian Territory, either as one or separately, will doubtless this year take their place in the family of States; and not improbably New Mexico and Arizona will also be welcomed into the Union.

The advance of these communities from a territorial relation to full statehood can hardly fail to be followed by a rapid increase in population and the founding of villages soon to grow into cities; and thus a new and promising field will be opened for Christian work and missionary advance.

Add to these the new openings in Porto Rico and Cuba. By the action of the General Assembly these islands, which are both practically, and one legally, foreign missionary soil, have been assigned as a field of action to the Home Missionary Board, and by a necessary sequence to the Board of Church Erection. Yet if any effective advance is to be made in these attractive regions, it calls for a larger proportionate outlay than is required in our home communities upon the continent.

Nor is it to be forgotten or overlooked that if the union with the Cumberland Church, which has excited so many bright anticipations, should at no very distant period be happily consummated, the event would doubtless prove an irresistible stimulus to a notable advance in missionary activity and in the erection of needed houses of worship.

May we not also reverently hope that the late marked quickening that the churches have manifested in response to evangelistic services, resulting apparently in a higher, richer tide of spiritual life than has been witnessed for years, will be followed by a lengthening of the cords and strengthening of the stakes in all branches of our American Zion, and that this advance may be sustained and made permanent by a willing consecration of men and means for its enduring and fruitful life.

These considerations lead this Board to ask of the Assembly to urge upon our congregations a more liberal support of the work they have committed to its hands; a work of which sixty years of progress, it ventures to hope, have proved of value in upbuilding the kingdom of Christ in these United States.

ABSTRACT OF THE FIFTIETH ANNUAL REPORT.

ROLL.

We have had upon our roll for the year ending March 31, 1905, 926 names: 375 ministers, 497 widows, 32 orphan families, 1 widow of a medical missionary, 6 women missionaries, and 15 guests in The Merriam Home at Newton, N. J.

COMPARATIVE RECEIPTS FOR THE YEARS 1903–1904 AND 1904–1905 (NOT INCLUDING RECEIPTS FOR THE PERMANENT FUND).

	1903–1904.	1904–1905.
Contributions from Churches and Sabbath-schools,	$87 720 22	$90.499 95
Contributions from Individuals,	8.540 03	10,296 32
Interest from Permanent Fund,	68,205 06	72,957 89
" " Special Funds held by the Synod of Ohio and other Trustees,	689 89	493 64
Unrestricted Legacies,	31,853 57	46,281 77
	$197,008 77	$220,529 57

In addition to these receipts for the Current Fund, the receipts for the Permanent Fund during the year have been $53,098.16.

Besides the cash contributions to the Board from churches and individuals, the Ladies' Aid Societies of our Church have sent to families on our roll gifts of money and boxes of clothing and groceries amounting to the value of $5772.56.

We have received during the past year collections from 4351 churches. Three thousand four hundred and two churches have failed to send any contributions to this hallowed cause during the year. The non-contributing churches are nearly all non-self-sustaining churches.

CALLED OF GOD.

If men are called of God to preach the gospel as we believe they are, there is nothing for them to do but obey the call.

To qualify themselves for this great work they must go through a long and expensive course of preparation, and then give the entire cost of that preparation, amounting to from $5000 to $10,000, to the Church receiving their services.

They must then go wherever the voice of God calls them to go, and face every danger of climate, and turn their backs upon the blandishments of the world, deny themselves and take for a living whatever the people they serve may choose to give. They must not be money-makers, but resolutely go forward with their self-denying and laborious work, until at last they are laid aside from active service by nervous exhaustion, the effects of overwork, by disease, or by old age. They have not abandoned the ministry. No truer heroes have ever lived. They have persevered to the end, and now many of them have no opportunity whatever to provide a living for their families during the years of their enforced retirement.

If these men are called of God to endure all this and keep their consciences clear, is not the Church which they have served called of God to furnish them a living all their days? Is it a righteous thing for the Church, through sheer indifference and shameful neglect, to allow them to go down in their old age, to the end of life's journey, through the trying depths of poverty, through pinching want and harassing perplexities, with the continual fear of dishonoring their fair name by being unable to pay indebtednesses made by those demands of nature which cry out for bread and clothing and shelter and medical relief?

HOW ARE WE TO RAISE MORE MONEY?

Increase the Permanent Fund.—If our Permanent Fund were increased by $4,000,000 we could, with the income from that and the income from our present Permanent Fund, together with the church collections and individual contributions, pay all on our present roll as follows: Honorably Retired men annuities of $500 and widows $300, and increase the payments to all other families $200 a year. Such an addition to this fund is most devoutly to be prayed for by the whole Church. Our wealthy people give millions to colleges, hospitals, and homes; why should they not give millions to support in a respectable manner the 926 ministers' families now left without salary and without income?

The Trustees of "The General Clergy Relief Fund" of the Protestant Episcopal Church say, in their Eleventh Triennial Report, 1904:

"Our great philanthropists have built themselves monuments in endowing excellent material institutions and have won applause, but many times criticism; hardly ever love and gratitude. Here is a field in which to endow living souls and to win from succeeding generations of good men and women love and unbounded gratitude and a blessed memory."

Individual Contributions.—There are many individuals in our churches who have money from year to year which they cheerfully consecrate to God, and we wish their attention called to the magnitude of the work of caring for our worthy ministers' families that are actually in want by reason of their fidelity to duty, having given their whole active lives to the upbuilding of the Redeemer's kingdom, with such small salaries that it has been simply impossible for many of them to lay by any money for their support in the time of old age. If these men and women, who are cheerful givers, could have the facts presented to them concerning the penniless condition of the aged servants of God and of the aged and worthy widows of many departed ministers of Christ, they would take great pleasure in making large offerings to God for the support and comfort of these most worthy people.

THE APPORTIONMENT SCHEME.

The General Assembly, at Buffalo, N. Y., in 1904, in answer to several overtures from Synods, approved of a general Plan of Apportionment, to induce the churches, if possible, to raise more money for the support of her aged and disabled ministers and the dependent families of deceased ministers, and directed the Special Committee on Sustentation to determine the approximate amounts to be raised by the several churches.

(a) Churches paying salaries of $800 and less, to give at least ten cents per communicant.

(b) Churches paying salaries of $800 to $1200, to give at least fifteen cents per communicant.

(c) Churches paying salaries of $1200 and upwards, to give at least fifteen cents per communicant, and in addition one per cent. on the salaries of their ministers.

(d) Churches hitherto contributing to the Board of Relief sums considerably beyond the apportionment above suggested, to continue their generous support of the Board.

Whilst the apportionment, directed to be made by our last General Assembly, is, of course, not a tax upon the churches which they are compelled to pay, as is the case with the churches in Great Britain, it nevertheless sets before each church something definite at which to aim.

Our experience with the apportionment scheme thus far, and the many commendations of the plan received from all parts of the Church, lead us to hope great things for the plan in the future. It is our judgment that an apportionment scheme is most worthy of a faithful, prayerful and persistent trial.

THE MERRIAM HOME.

The Merriam Home, at Newton, N. J., presided over by the new Matron, Mrs. Mary Tuttle, under the immediate direction of the Home Committee of the Presbytery of Newton, is giving great satisfaction. We have fifteen guests at the present time, and expect to have a few more there in the near future.

The Home is located in the hill country of northern New Jersey, the climate is very pleasant in the summer, and there is no more healthful place in the State than the charming county seat of Sussex county.

We now have the interest of $50,000 available for the current expenses of the Home—$30,000 left to the Board by Mr. H. W. Merriam, who bequeathed the Home to the Board; $5000 received from the estate of Mr. Thomas Haward, recently of Flemington, N. J., and $15,000 given to the Board by the heirs of Dr. Alexander M. Bruen when the property at Perth Amboy, N. J., was returned to the heirs after we ceased to use it as a Home. The $15,000 we have received from Dr. Bruen's heirs is forever to remain in our Permanent Fund under the name of "The Bruen Memorial Fund," but the interest of this fund is now available for the support of the Home.

FORM OF BEQUEST.

The laws of the different States vary so much as to testamentary bequests that in making a will it is always desirable to secure the services of a competent lawyer. In all cases, however, where bequests are made to this Board the corporate name should be used, as follows: "The Presbyterian Board of Relief for Disabled Ministers and the Widows and Orphans of Deceased Ministers."

By order of the Board,

Abstract of the Fortieth Annual Report.

For the sixth time in regular succession the Board has closed its year's work without any outstanding obligations. This year the income from church collections exceeded that of last year by $2984, and the amount received from other regular sources exceeded that of the previous year by $4659.

The receipts from miscellaneous sources were $5601 larger than the year before.

Legacies, on the other hand, were this year $6605 less. The total receipts, however, from all sources were $189,654, being $6639 more than last year. The number of churches that helped us in any one way this year was 4894, being a loss of 61 as compared with last year.

The number of churches that helped us by congregational collections was 3959, being a loss of 149.

The number of Sabbath-schools that contributed to our work was 809, being a gain of 45.

The number of Young People's Societies contributing to our work was 1162, being a gain of 63.

The amount of money given by the patrons and friends of our school work on the field is reported this year by our teachers as amounting to $63,270.77.

The amount given in church work toward self-support, as reported by our ministers on the field, is $42,884.86.

The total amount from both church and school work is $106,155.63, none of which passed through the treasury of the Board.

We have been compelled, for lack of funds, to adhere rigidly to the plan of starting no new work for which the necessary expenses were not previously provided.

We have, however, considerably enlarged our school work by insisting on ministers who are in charge of small churches opening small parochial schools in connection with their pastoral work. The number of schools has increased from 91 to 113. The total number of scholars in our schools has risen from 11,763 to 13,852.

The churches under our care gave through annual collections $852.47 to the Freedmen's Board and $1854.20 to the other Boards of the Church.

One additional large building has been erected this year at Harbison College, Abbeville, S. C., through the generosity of Mr. S. P. Harbison, a member of our Board, at a cost of a little over $10,000, consisting of chapel and classrooms, and better accommodations for the religious work of the institution as carried on by the students through their Y. M. C. A. organization.

The contract for a Boys' Dormitory at Swift Memorial Institute, Rogersville, Tenn., has been let and the work begun. We hope the building will be completed and ready for use in time for the opening of the school next fall. Its cost will be something over $10,000.

The new Industrial Building at Biddle University, Charlotte, N. C., completed last year, stands ready for practical use so soon as funds are obtained to equip the various trade departments. Two thousand dollars would provide this equipment. A farm has been purchased in connection with our school work at Anderson, S. C., for $1800, the purchase money having been sent to us for this purpose by a good friend of the work. During the latter part of the year the Board was greatly gratified in having $10,000 placed in its hands by a devout woman, into whose heart God put the noble purpose of doing something for the elevation and evangelization of the colored people of the South. This amount will be expended in erecting an additional building in connection with the school at Augusta, Ga.

Sufficient funds have been raised for the erection of an Academy Building at Statesville, N. C., at an expense of $2600. Several other funds for different schools have been partially raised, and the work of completing these funds will be continued for another year. The last year has been the best year of the Board. Our Church in all the history of this work never gave as much in any one year as it has done this year.

On behalf of the Board,

EDWARD P. COWAN,
Corresponding Secretary and Treasurer.

OFFICE.

156 Fifth Avenue, New York.

Abstract of the Twenty-second Annual Report.

By direction of the Assembly the headquarters of the Board were transferred to New York City, and the office is on the tenth floor of the Presbyterian Building.

The Assembly directed that the Board "be enlarged in sphere of operation and executive force." The most diligent and careful study has been given to the enlargement of the sphere of operation. The fundamental and controlling idea is that suggested by the Assembly's repeated expression—Coöperation: Coöperation between the Board and the Colleges, Coöperation between the Board and the Givers, Coöperation between the Givers and the Colleges.

The executive force of the Board has been enlarged by adding a Secretary and a Treasurer. The Secretary was elected in January and began full service of the Board on the 1st of March. After ten days in the office he began a visitation of Presbyterian colleges which will continue, with brief intervals in the office, until all have been visited. It is believed that such a course lays the deepest, widest and strongest foundation for his future usefulness to this cause.

The Board invited forty-six colleges to coöperate with the Board and to be represented in the first Annual College Conference, to be held at Winona Lake the day before the meeting of this Assembly. It also invited the Boards of Home and Foreign Missions and Missions for the Freedmen to coöperation and representation at the Conference in behalf of their colleges. Five colleges declined the invitation because they were not Presbyterian or were non-sectarian or because the character of their charters made it unwise for them to accept. Forty-one colleges accepted the invitation.

The Assembly of 1904 directed the Board to confer with the Board of Education regarding a possible union of the two Boards. Committees of the Boards conferred and Resolved, "That it is the sense of the Conference that under existing circumstances a union of the two Boards is not feasible." In accepting this report, however, The College Board expresses the conviction that unification of the educational work of the Church as represented in these two Boards is highly desirable; and that every reasonable effort should be continued to bring about such union.

The Assembly of 1904 directed the Board to call a conference during this Assembly of representatives of Presbyterianism in State universities, and such a conference will be held.

The Report, of course, conveys little idea of what the Board has actually done in the way of earnest work. Frequent meetings, labors of various Standing and Special Committees, correspondence and conference will suggest themselves. As the foundation on which a lofty structure is to rise must be laid deep and strong and right, so the Board has deemed it no loss of time to spend the year in foundation work. Neither the Church nor its colleges can afford hurried building with untempered mortar.

THE OUTLOOK.

The Board has announced its programme: one of the widest coöperation. That is to be the watchword. In every way that opens to it, it proposes to stand by the colleges and serve their interests. It will enter upon a "campaign of education." It will make every effort to increase the amount available for the current expenses of needy institutions. It will carry forward campaigns in the various home fields of the colleges.

One-sided coöperation is not enough. Will the churches coöperate with the Board? Will Synods urge it upon all their churches? Will Presbyteries appoint Standing Committees that serve as well as wait? Will pastors open their pulpits—will Sessions insist upon collections—will members read and give and pray? With such coöperation this mighty work can be undertaken with all courage.

In the field the outlook is stimulating and gladdening in the highest degree. Everywhere there is a rising faith that the Church is at last awakening to its high duty and its splendid privilege. The boys and girls in the colleges speak the Church's surest hope. The men and women who have given their lives to Christian teaching, and who are serving in the noblest sacrifice and consecration, cannot be defeated! The work cannot know ultimate failure. A Church committed to Christian Education by its Divine Charter and by its unvarying history will not turn back. The Board, in every way that it sees open, or that it can force open, will coöperate with the colleges. Will the Church coöperate with the Board?

ABSTRACT OF THE TWENTY-SIXTH ANNUAL REPORT, 1905.

The Special Committee of the General Assembly on Systematic Beneficence is still at work. Again it is "Gold and the Gospel." Both are gifts of God, but the gospel is more valuable than gold.

Still, gold is important; for it costs to preach the gospel and support missionaries, teachers and ministers; and as long as the Church continues its activities the matter of giving, promptly, willingly, proportionately, and as an act of worship, will continue to be of first importance.

During the past three decades the Church has heard much about systematic beneficence from ministers in sermons, writers in tracts, essays and books, and chairmen of Presbyterial, Synodical and Assembly Committees; but the end is not yet. Much remains to be said; for the rank and file of our church people are still far from the Christian standard of giving. The great majority of Christians give according to the splutter and spasm method. There is nothing to do but to keep at this business from year to year, with the hope and prayer that, by and by, Christians will feel it a joy and privilege to give to God according to system and as an act of divine worship.

If this be true, the time has not yet come to dismiss our systematic beneficence committees "with thanks"; though no one who knows anything about it doubts that all faithful committees on this subject in Presbytery, Synod and Assembly deserve all the thanks they can get.

The time has come once more for the Special Committee to give account of its stewardship, and we will do so simply and frankly. We feel that we can say the Committee has been diligent and made all possible efforts to advance the holy cause of giving to God. We have not wearied in well doing, though all of us earnestly desire to see more results from our labor.

The work committed to its Special Committee by the Assembly is a definite one, namely: to stimulate Christian giving as an act of worship; to correspond with committees of Synods and Presbyteries; prepare and distribute literature; and act as a bond of union. This Committee lays strong emphasis upon the great principle that God claims a portion of time and money; that neglect on the part of God's people results in deterioration of Christian life and work; and that it is impossible to show our love for the kingdom of Christ without giving both time and money. The real test is the giving test! Many are longing for a revival, but it is doubtful whether there can be any powerful revival until there is a revival of consecrated giving!

As stated in our circular letter, we stand ready to supply literature on the subject of Systematic Beneficence, subscription blanks and envelopes. The past year we have sent out, on application, 35,000 envelopes, 20,000 subscription blanks, and over 25,000 leaflets, and have every reason to believe that these have been used judiciously. The influence of this should be considerable in stimulating giving.

We have received many letters from Presbyterial chairmen asking for literature, blanks, suggestions and advice.

The total average income for the past ten years of the eight Boards of our Church has been about $2,500,000. The average fluctuation is less than $25,000 a year for each Board during the ten years. About one-third of the income of the Boards of the Church comes directly from the Sabbath offerings of the churches; about two-thirds of the income from all other sources. This ratio has remained steady for the past ten years with a total average fluctuation of less than three per cent.

During the past ten years there has been a steady increase of effort on the part of all of our Boards to increase their annual income, and every new device that could be thought of that would have a tendency to improve the yearly financial conditions of our Boards has been resorted to, and yet all these aggregate efforts of our eight agencies have only succeeded in keeping the aggregate income of the Boards at about the same amount it was ten years ago.

When we consider all the efforts that are being put forth for increased income on the part of the Boards, resulting only in keeping the income of the Church to an average standard, it becomes a subject for earnest consideration on the part of the Church to consider reasons why the Church does not respond in an increasing manner to these increased efforts put forth.

We call attention to the following ways of advancing the work of systematic beneficence:

1. By holding popular meetings in Presbyteries, Synods and Assembly. There is no more important subject for consideration, and time should be given to consider it seriously.

2. By a wise distribution of literature among the officers and people of our congregations.

3. By canvasses of congregations by Sessions in order to secure individual pledges. Many Presbyterial chairmen have urged this, and in many cases it has already been done.

4. By calling the roll of churches at meetings of Presbyteries, in order to give pastors the opportunity to state whether the churches have been given the privilege of contributing to all the Boards of the Church.

5. By preparing and exhibiting statistical tables of congregational gifts at meetings of Presbyteries. Printed statistical tables distributed have also proved effective.

6. By enclosing envelopes for benevolent contributions in the bundle of envelopes furnished by trustees in churches supported by the envelope system. We urge this strongly.

7. By sending contributions to the treasurers of the various Boards promptly, and not waiting until the end of March or the middle of April.

8. By presenting this subject faithfully in the pulpit and by properly teaching it in theological seminaries, since nothing can take the place of the living voice.

9. By a determined effort to secure offerings from more of our churches and to increase the size of the offerings.

10. By earnest and persistent prayer for the blessing of the Holy Spirit on the hearts of the people, so that they may be led to give systematically, conscientiously, willingly and joyfully.

We recommend:

1. That every possible effort be made, in Presbyteries and in Synods, according to the most suitable method in each, to increase the gifts of the churches to our denominational agencies.

2. That Presbyteries instruct Church Sessions to secure literature and canvass their congregations with a view to enlisting all our members in the missionary work of the Church.

3. That one thousand dollars, or as much of that amount as may be found necessary, be appropriated by the Assembly for the use of the Special Committee.

Respectfully submitted,

DAVID G. WYLIE, Chairman.

Abstract of the Twenty-fourth Annual Report.

In presenting our Twenty-fourth Annual Report, we desire to record our gratitude to God, and to tender congratulations to our beloved Church on the auspicious inauguration of the new scheme of work by temperance evangelists, authorized by the last General Assembly.

To the somewhat diffident suggestion of the Permanent Committee that the printed page must be supplemented by the living voice in order to success in this work, the General Assembly responded with most cheering promptness and cordiality. The functions of its Permanent Committee were enlarged, and it was empowered to collect funds which should be expended not only in disseminating temperance literature, but in maintaining temperance missionaries.

In this new line of work, in which your Committee entered with joyful alacrity, only a beginning has yet been made, but we have every assurance that it is a good beginning. Two men are now in the work, one of whom, Rev. R. W. Holman, is seeking the emancipation of his colored brethren from thraldom infinitely worse than that in which their forefathers were held. After diligent and prayerful quest, we were directed in the providence of God to Prof. Charles Scanlon, of the Presbytery of Minneapolis, and late of Macalester College, who entered on the work September 1. He has addressed four of our largest Synods and nine Presbyteries and Ministerial Associations, with various conventions and mass meetings, besides 120 churches; his appointments often covering four or five days in the week. Most gratifying testimony comes from all quarters as to his eloquent, forceful, wise and tactful presentation of a subject with which he is thoroughly conversant, and in which his whole heart is enlisted.

We were instructed to secure and equip a room for the office of the Committee's Secretary, and to employ needed clerical help, all which was promptly and satisfactorily accomplished.

From his annual statement which accompanies this report it will be seen that the amount at our disposal has been $5785.98, more than twice the sum usually received in preceding years.

During the year ten new tracts have been added to our list, and it is with gratification that we report the amount of literature issued and circulated as approaching near to 3,000,000 pages. We are trying to reach with Bible Temperance teaching the vast population speaking foreign languages. We have had tracts translated and printed in the German, French, Bohemian, Italian and Spanish languages.

As heretofore we have availed ourselves of the periodical press, making weekly presentation of some phase of the subject of temperance through religious newspapers, and occasionally through the secular press. The Assembly Herald has also been found a valuable medium through which to reach Presbyterians all over the Church, and each month we have occupied a page or two of its space.

A very important department of your Committee's work is correspondence. From a few score of letters a dozen years ago, our correspondence has grown to almost as many thousands now.

The Permanent Committee addressed a memorial to Congress, praying, in the name of the Presbyterian Church, that no bill be passed conferring Statehood on Oklahoma and Indian Territory which should not provide for the exclusion of the liquor traffic from Indian Territory, as heretofore guaranteed to the Indians.

Many letters were written and a printed appeal sent abroad over the Church, asking that petitions, letters and telegrams be sent to Washington in furtherance of this object. A large number of petition forms were printed and sent abroad. Our Field Secretary went to Washington, secured interviews with members of the Senate Committee on Territories and other Senators, and in conjunction with the representatives of the Anti-Saloon League, Bureau of Reform and Woman's Christian Temperance Union, did what he could to promote the desired legislation.

Complaint having been made to the Secretary of War of the unfair attacks on the Anti-Canteen law, a circular has been issued which there is reason to hope will bring relief. Secretary Taft admonishes officers that, relating to the canteen matter, they "state facts only and not their opinions." He reminds them that "an over-zealous witness never aids the side he inclines to." The confident expectation is expressed that their "future reports may be depended upon as colorless statements of the facts."

Protest was made in coöperation with other Christian bodies against legalizing the opium traffic in the Philippines, and was effective in securing an order to abolish it after three years.

An audience was obtained with Hon. John Hay, U. S. Secretary of State, asking him to use his influence to have the British opium treaty with China repealed. The hearing occurred November 10, when representatives were heard from the Boards of Foreign Missions of the Baptist, Methodist Episcopal and Presbyterian Churches, from the Presbyterian Committee on Temperance and the Presbyterian Woman's Temperance Committee of the Synod of Pennsylvania, from the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, and from the International Bureau of Reform, whose superintendent introduced the deputation.

Secretary Hay received this delegation most cordially, giving assurance that the whole subject should be brought to the attention of the President, and expressed hope that happy results may come from the influence which is becoming year by year more manifestly potent in shaping the policy of nations—"a decent regard for the opinions of mankind."

Such help as your Committee has found it possible to give in local struggles with the saloon has everywhere been cheerfully rendered. In Pennsylvania an effort was made to secure from the Legislature the enactment of a general local option law. Letters were sent into each of the twenty Presbyteries of the State, bespeaking the aid of the Presbyterial Temperance Committees in the sending of petitions, letters or delegations to Harrisburg. We were also able to secure the sending of delegations or of telegrams from Ministerial Associations, churches and other bodies. Though the desired legislation was not secured, the agitation was doubtless helpful to the cause, and a valuable reflex influence came to those who participated in the effort. The people of Oregon, being engaged in a like struggle with the liquor power, were more happy in the issue, and the literature sent by your Committee may have contributed to their victory.

As to the efforts being made throughout our Church to combat this ubiquitous and cruel foe, the reports this year bring the usual story of the brave struggle of some and the supine inactivity of others. There has been temperance work in the usual forms, sermons, lectures, Sunday-school teaching, the pledge in the Young People's meetings and Sunday-school, organization and instruction of youth in bands, legions, etc., local option campaigns, remonstrance against license, petitioning State or National Legislatures. Many speak of work done through the Anti-Saloon League, and report large contributions to that agency. In other communities the W. C. T. U. is most active. One report tells of the efficiency of the Good Templars' work. Much literature has been distributed by Temperance Secretaries, and Literature Secretaries in Missionary Societies, Sabbath-schools, etc. Mention is also made of the good work of the Bureau of Reform and the National Temperance Society. In Illinois the Prohibition party has elected three members to the Legislature, and mention is made of a hopeful struggle in that State for a general local option law in which our churches are very active. In Maine the prohibitory law is reported as growing more and more effective. In Indiana and Pennsylvania the legislation for safeguarding the young against the pernicious cigarette habit has been greatly strengthened, but as a report from Indiana justly remarks, "all depends on the condition of public sentiment."

A prominent pastor writes that there is no more occasion for a Board or Committee on Temperance than on gambling, impurity, etc. There are others—not a few—who share in this view, though the General Assembly, year by year, by a very large majority, votes the continuation and maintenance of this agency. Soon after its appointment the Permanent Committee issued a circular letter, from which we beg leave to quote briefly. Among the signers, we note the names of Rev. Drs. John Hall, Henry M. Booth and T. L. Cuyler, and Messrs. Walter Carter, William E. Dodge and E. P. Durant:

"When we single out intemperance to be distinctly and specifically combatted, it is because of two peculiarities connected with this distinctive vice. In the first place it is intimately associated with social usages and customs against which true and strong public sentiment and concerted action are needful in the highest degree; and, secondly, the agencies through which intemperance is propagated are so intimately associated with the legislation of the land, that special and exceptional organization against them is rendered necessary. These special efforts we would make, without any distrust of the power of God's grace on the one hand, or any assumption, on the other, that mere abstinence from this particular vice is 'the whole duty of man' towards his Creator or his fellow-men."

Pernicious as are the other vices, to our Church intemperance seems most to demand specific and organized resistance, because this iniquity is itself organized. Theft, gambling, prostitution, murder have not had the brazen effrontery to attempt general organization. But the drunkard-makers, promoters of that vice which is responsible for the vast bulk of all the crimes of the land, have combined together in powerful alliance, with hundreds of millions of money at their disposal. When the Church witnesses the undisguised efforts of this mighty organized liquor power to tread under foot the holy Sabbath, and to spurn every legal restriction which might curtail its unholy gains, it is high time she should arouse to the consciousness that she is confronted by no ordinary peril.

The following is an extract from a series of articles which seem to proceed from the recently appointed Committee on Temperance of the United Presbyterian Church, and which are appearing in the papers of that body. Little as we seem yet to have accomplished, it is gratifying to find that our example is being used to stimulate effort in a sister Church:

"Some of the things which the Permanent Committee on Temperance of the Presbyterian Church has been doing:

"They have prepared and distributed a summary of the deliverances of the Presbyterian General Assembly from 1812 to 1902.

"They have endeavored to organize the Church, from the General Assembly to the individual local society, for temperance discussion, work, and the distribution of literature. They have prepared, or procured and distributed in one year 1,500,000 pages of temperance literature, and made use of the columns of periodicals for presenting temperance facts and truths to an extent equal to 2,500,000 pages more.

"They secured a recommendation of $10,000 from the last General Assembly for the furtherance of the work for the year just closing. They have secured and sent out two temperance evangelists for addressing all kinds of public meetings in the interest of the great reform. They expect to send out three more, as directed by their Assembly to do.

"They have gone before legislative bodies, both State and national, and in the name of the Presbyterian Church have protested against, or appealed for, legislation in the interest of temperance. They have endeavored to coöperate with every other temperance organization in the interest of the cause.

"They have prepared and sent out blanks for gathering statistics for temperance work done by every congregation.

"They reported to their last General Assembly in a pamphlet of thirty-one pages, making a report full of information and encouragement to every one who has any interest in the progress of the temperance cause.

"They have kept their Church from falling asleep with the comforting reflection that because they stand right individually on the temperance question, therefore the full measure of their duty has been done. They have done something more than "meet and pass condemnatory resolutions —a stereotyped proceeding into which so many branches of the Church of Jesus Christ have fallen and with which they content themselves."

As a result of correspondence had with the publishers of thirty leading magazines, we were able in last year's report to present a list of those which could be commended to Presbyterians with the assurance that their pages would be free from demoralizing liquor advertisements. In almost every case the assurance was also given that questionable medical advertisements should likewise be excluded.

We are happy to be permitted to add three names to the list, which we here present:

The Century, St. Nicholas, Country Life in America, The Critic, Success, The Country Gentleman, Ladies' Home Journal, The Eclectic, Our Day, Saturday Evening Post, Everybody's Magazine. Littell's Living Age, Woman's Home Companion, McClure's Magazine, The Cosmopolitan Magazine, The Chautauquan, National Magazine, Pacific Magazine, Munsey's.

We rejoice to note the fact that the same noble stand has just been taken by a London paper of wide circulation, the Daily News.

It is in the power of the reading public and the advertising public, by the exercise of due discrimination in patronage, to hasten the day when this list may be greatly extended.

In the effort to promote interest and efficiency in the scientific temperance instruction in the public schools we printed an appeal entitled "Save the Children. Forwarned—Forearmed," which in the past year and recent years has been circulated in numbers aggregating almost 200,000. The American scheme of physiological temperance instruction in the common schools is receiving much attention from European statesmen, scientists and educators. "A prophet is not without honor, save in his own country"; but our distinguished countrywoman, Mrs. Mary H. Hunt, is happily not without honor in her own country. She and her temperance instruction scheme, it is true, have been the object of attack in this country, fierce though futile. But despite the assaults of bond-bloated brewers, bibulous bishops and self-constituted committees, American children are still learning in the schools the deleterious effect on the human body of beer, whisky and all narcotics, and now Great Britain is adopting this American educational scheme.

With regard to the duty of total abstinence, the pledge is commended as a safeguard against temptation and as enhancing one's helpful influence. We submit the question whether a pledge might not be of like value with regard to the duty of banishing the traffic. It is manifest that a vast number of those citizens who profess acceptance of this temperance tenet are not dominated by it in the polling booth. Might not good citizens, who have thus failed in the past, fortify themselves against temptation and mutually strengthen each other, should they pledge themselves together that neither in the caucus nor at the polls should any candidate, especially for the office of lawmaker, secure their support who would not promise to seek, as he should have opportunity, to overthrow the license system and banish the ruinous traffic?

Is moderate drinking of alcoholic beverages harmful, or is it only their excessive use that impairs health and shortens life? This is a question vital to temperance reform. Those who candidly seek for a solution of this question will welcome the facts presented in a paper recently read before the British Institute of Actuaries. In this report the author, Mr. R. M. Moore, actuary of the General Provident Institute, set forth the experience of that company—covering a period of sixty-one years and 125,000 cases—as to the comparative mortality among assured lives of abstainers and non-abstainers from alcholic beverages. The paper gives the results of eighteen months of labor with a corps of clerks. The kernel of it all is had in the figures presented in the following table:

Ages	Number of Deaths		Excess Deaths Among Moderate Drinkers
	Total Abstainers	Moderate Drinkers	Number	Per Cent.
20-30	4,221	4,677	456	11
30-40	4,201	7,041	2,840	68
40-50	6,246	10,861	4,615	74
50-60	13,056	18,524	5,468	42
60-70	29,078	34,568	5,490	19

The light thus shed on this question should dissipate all honest doubt.

We commend the action just taken by the judges of Allegheny county, Pa., declaring that henceforth no license shall issue to any person holding office, and we suggest that in all States where the granting or refusal of license is at the discretion of the court, application be made to the judge for a similar ruling. The saloon will be then less conspicuous in politics; the grog-selling school director, councilman and legislator will be a thing of the past.

We desire to make record of the noble service rendered to the cause by the Woman's Christian Temperance Union. We regret to report that the good women comprising the Presbyterian Woman's Temperance Association, having failed to secure the financial support requisite to the maintenance of a Church-wide organization, have ceased to work under that name as an auxiliary of the Permanent Committee. Effective work is being done by the Woman's Synodical Temperance Committee of the Synod of Pennsylvania, whose indefatigable Secretary is still at work, summer and winter, and draws her salary regularly—from her own purse. "Black Rock" and similar books have been sent out by the thousand, and hundreds of thousands of tracts everywhere, from Maine around to Alaska. During years past her efforts have been especially directed toward securing the appointment in every organization of the Church of a temperance secretary, and in hundreds of instances success attended the effort.

In response to the request addressed to the General Assembly of our Church and to other bodies by the Five Year Meeting of the Society of Friends, we recommend that the General Assembly signify its approval of the proposed conference relative to the combining of forces against intemperance and the liquor traffic, and that the Permanent Committee on Temperance represent the General Assembly in said conference.

ABSTRACT OF SECOND ANNUAL REPORT.

There have been two meetings of the entire Committee during the year, and in the interval four meetings of the Executive Committee, held at the Presbyterian Building, New York City. Our work has been carried on under great difficulties. There is no salaried officer to give his whole time to the work; our financial resources are very limited; and the members of the Committee are busy pastors and elders, whose time is already fully occupied. The Committee is now serving under the plan of rotation adopted by the Assembly of 1904, as follows:

"That in order to secure a constant supply of fresh material in the composition of the Committee, it is to be hereafter observed in the appointment of members of this Committee that no person that has served a full term of three years upon the Committee shall be eligible to immediate reappointment."

In creating our Committee, the General Assembly of 1903 authorized it to have "Oversight of Young People's Work throughout the Church, in coöperation with Presbyteries, Synods and General Assembly." It has not been our desire to disturb existing relations, but rather to increase the efficiency of the societies, to aid and encourage the pastors, and to coöperate with all the Boards and agencies engaged in this work. It is to be noted that in carrying on our work we have made no discrimination in societies. They are all Young People's Societies, whether Young Men's Leagues, Young Ladies' Missionary Societies, Christian Endeavor, Junior Societies or Mission Bands.

I. CHRISTIAN STUDY COURSE.

One of the duties laid upon us was to propose a Course of Christian Training. We need lay workers that are trained in matters pertaining to the Bible, Church History, Doctrine, Polity, Missions and Evangelism.

With this end in view the Committee presented to the General Assembly of 1904 an outline of the first year's work of a Christian Study Course. This was approved and recommended for study among all our churches. Each subject is treated in a small, inexpensive handbook of very high merit, written by an acknowledged master of his subject. These topics are well within the ability of any average reader. They will form a valuable reference library, as each year adds its portion.

The method pursued is primarily that of reading. Whether persons are in classes or not, they are to study the text-books. If they can also attend a class it will be a great help, but if not, the class is not a necessity. The persons who are expected to pursue this course are those who are over sixteen years of age and desire to fit themselves for Christian service. They may be members of young people's societies, students at school, church officers, lay helpers, local evangelists, or any members of the congregation. Interesting topics for meetings of boys and girls may be easily selected from these studies. A Junior Study Course is under consideration.

In arranging the subjects, it is intended that the study of the Bible in the Sunday-school shall be supplemented by the study of other great subjects of Christian knowledge, in the societies and at home. Accordingly the text-books for the first year, or Outline A, are as follows:

(1) "How We Got Our Bible, with Valuable Illustrations," by J. Patterson Smyth, B.D., LL.D. (2) "Landmarks of Church History," by Rev. Henry Cowan, D.D., of Scotland. (3) "The Creed of Presbyterians," by Rev. Egbert Watson Smith, D.D. This book might be called "The Contributions of Our Creed to Civil and Religious Liberty." (4) Home Missionary book: "Heroes of the Cross in America," by Don O. Shelton. (5) Foreign Missionary book: "Sunrise in the Sunrise Kingdom," by Rev. John H. DeForest, D.D. These two books are the choice of the Young People's Missionary Movement. The latter book is supplemented by references to Dux Christus (Japan), by Rev. William E. Griffis, D.D., which is sent forth by the Woman's Movement for the United Study of Missions.

Full programmes, with suggestions pertaining to the first three subjects, were prepared by our Secretary as editor, as a help to readers and classes, and were so constructed that they could be used in a series of two meetings each month from October to May, and were printed monthly in The Assembly Herald, The New York Observer, The Presbyterian, The Westminster, The Presbyterian Banner, The Herald and Presbyter and The Interior. The suggestions on Home Missions were prepared by Miss M. Josephine Petrie, Secretary of the Young People's Department of the Board of Home Missions, and were intended to be used in a series of eight weekly meetings in January and February; and those on Foreign Missions by T. H. P. Sailer, Ph.D., Honorary Educational Secretary of the Board of Foreign Missions, to be used in a similar series in March and April. Both these were published in The Assembly Herald and the two monthly magazines of the Women's Boards. In the course of the regular work, extra suggestions were furnished by the editor for special occasions, such as "An Evening with Scotland," "The Waldenses," "John Calvin and American Liberty," "Witherspoon and Washington," "An Evening with the Reformation Heroes: Luther, Calvin, and Knox," "A Programme for the John Knox Quadri-centennial Celebration."

In order that full information of the Study Course might be furnished to the Church, our Secretary, Rev. Hugh B. MacCauley, prepared, with the approval of the Committee, a prospectus consisting of four circulars, to wit: (1) The Need, (2) The First Year: Outline A, (3) How to Begin, (4) Two Programmes. Also later he prepared, as a fifth circular, "A Sample Topic Card." In December, by the authority of the Committee, our Chairman, Rev. John Timothy Stone, prepared a circular letter and sent it to all the pastors in the Church, calling their attention to the very pressing need among our young people of consecutive educational training, and urging them to coöperate in carrying on the Christian Study Course already begun in September. The prospectus mentioned above was enclosed in the circular letter. The pastors were asked to take up the matter personally or to seek for a suitable leader. They were invited to call upon the Committee for any needed help or advice. Also suggestions were solicited. Relative to the subject-matter of this letter and of our work in general our Secretary has conducted a large correspondence, that shows an increasing interest in the work and a need for its vigorous prosecution. The Board of Publication reported to us that, up to the 1st of April last, they had sold 1894 copies of "How We Got Our Bible," 1542 copies of "Landmarks of Church History," and about the same number of "The Creed of Presbyterians." We think this is a good beginning, showing what we might expect if the Church were roused to this work.

We now present for the approval of the Assembly the subjects and related text-books for the second and third years, as follows:

Second Year—Outline B.

BIBLICAL:

Subject—Reading the Old Testament in one year.

Pamphlet—"An Outline of Daily Readings," to be prepared by some one to be appointed.

Handbook—"The Old Testament and Its Contents," by Rev. James Robertson, D.D. (Glasgow).

HISTORICAL:

Subject—The Reformation and the National Presbyterian Churches.

Handbook—"The Presbyterian Churches," by Rev. J. N. Ogilvie (Bangalore).

DOCTRINAL:

Subject—The Apostles' Creed.

Handbook—"Exposition of the Apostles' Creed," by Rev. James Dodds, D.D. (Glasgow).

MISSIONARY:

Subjects and Handbooks—Those chosen by the Boards of Home Missions and of Foreign Missions, to be announced later.

Third Year—Outline C.

BIBLICAL:

Subject—Reading the New Testament in one year.

Pamphlet—"An Outline of Daily Readings," to be prepared by some one to be appointed.

Handbook—"The New Testament and Its Writers," by J. A. McClymont, D.D. (Aberdeen).

HISTORICAL:

Subject—The Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A.

Handbook—"The Presbyterians," by Rev. Charles L. Thompson, D.D.

DOCTRINAL:

Subject—Leading Points in Church Polity.

Handbook—"Church, Ministry and Sacraments," by Rev. Norman Macleod, D.D. (Inverness).

MISSIONARY:

Subjects and Handbooks—Those chosen by the Boards of Home Missions and Foreign Missions, to be announced later.

It is our earnest desire to unite in one complete, harmonious scheme all study courses now operating in our Church. We gladly welcome the plans of supplemental exercises and teacher-training prepared by the Editorial Superintendent of the Board of Publication, and the special missionary studies prepared by the Assembly's Boards and the Women's Boards. Besides these, the Assembly has approved of the Christian Study Course conducted by our Committee, which includes studies in the departments of the Bible, Church History, Doctrine and Polity. It must be evident that there should be consecutive order between the study in the Sunday-school among younger students and the broad ranges of knowledge among older students who are perhaps outside, and also that there should be a unity and progression in all the courses. This can be obtained only by correlation.

It is impossible to exaggerate the importance to the Church of Christian training among the young. The benefit of such work will appear at a glance. There will come a great gain to the pastor. These studies will greatly enrich him, and will help him in his pulpit. He will have a glad spirit in training his young people in these precious subjects of our Church. The heroes of our Presbyterian liberties will walk with them once more, and the young people, whether readers or students, will learn something new. They will lay foundations. They will gain an education. The beautiful monogram will shine with a new glory when C. E. stands for Christian Education as well as Consecrated Enthusiasm. Members will become better fitted for the work of Christ and the Church.

II. Statistics.

Another duty laid upon us was to "present to the Assembly a report of the statistics and a summary of the labors of all the Young People's Societies." It is evident to us, from an examination of the various methods of reporting now in use in this work, that a simpler system must be devised. There should be a single system for all societies. It is also evident that these reports must be forwarded earlier, if they are to be of any use to Presbytery or Assembly. On the statistical blanks issued by us we have asked the Session to forward to the Presbyterial Chairman the statistical report on Young People's Societies not later than March 20, for the year closing March 31, and the Presbyterial Chairman to forward his report to our Committee not later than April 10. In spite of this only one-third of the Presbyterial Chairmen had forwarded their reports to us by April 20, and most of them explained the delay as being due to the tardiness of the churches. On the other hand, we note the custom of the Women's Boards in collecting their reports about March 1. They have also advised that offerings should be forwarded quarterly. Their plan is worthy of imitation.

A summary of the reports is herewith submitted:

* Based on statistics, more or less incomplete, received from 161 Presbyteries.

We are also required to present a "summary of the labors" of all these societies. It would be impossible for us, with the limited facilities at our disposal, to do justice to this requirement at present. Many organizations and forces are at work throughout the entire Church creating and sustaining interest. We can, however, mention some particulars. Most of the societies reporting hold their meetings on Sunday evening. The method of supporting a missionary has in every case kept alive interest. Those that have followed some form of Study Course report increase of numbers and awakened zeal. One Presbyterial chairman hits the mark when he says, "The Young People's Society seems to prosper in proportion as the pastor takes an active, intelligent interest in it. Wherever it is left to the young people, it seems but a matter of time till it runs out. There are many amusements to lead them away, and they need wise and careful direction."

We can truly say that the figures show that much good work has been done. There is much to be thankful for. There is evidence that much more can be accomplished. Special attention should be called to the field of the Intermediate Societies, that is, members between twelve and sixteen years of age. Only 239 are reported with 6138 members. The conversions, however, reached 1006, or nearly seventeen per cent. of the membership!

III. Finances.

The Assembly of 1903 directed that our Committee "shall serve without salary, and is authorized to receive contributions for the necessary expenses of the work." The last Assembly directed "that the expenses of the Permanent Committee on Young People's Societies should be apportioned among the Presbyteries, as follows (it being understood that this action is a recommendation): 'Presbyteries containing 10.000 communicants or over, to contribute twenty dollars or more each; Presbyteries containing between 5000 and 10,000 communicants, to contribute ten dollars each; and Presbyteries having under 5000 communicants, to contribute five dollars each.'" Notice to this effect was sent to all the Presbyteries by the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly, and also by our Secretary. Eighty Presbyteries generously responded by sending to our Treasurer about $700. Other Presbyteries replied by saying that while they sympathized with the work, they did not approve of this plan; while many other Presbyteries did not take any action or make any reply. Therefore we infer that this plan does not seem to meet with the approval of the Church, and we think that this Assembly should consider the advisability of having this expense met in some way that will insure the carrying out of the work in a manner that is consistent with its importance.

From our point of view this work is important and necessary. That faith has inspired our work. To ask the members of this Committee, who are busy pastors and elders, to continue and yet not provide the means with which to continue, must lead shortly to its discontinuance. At the lowest estimate we shall require $1600 for the coming year, exclusive of the necessary printing, which should be done by the Board of Publication. Of this sum, $500 will be needed for clerical help, $400 for correspondence, $400 for space in the Assembly Herald, $200 for traveling expenses, and $100 for miscellaneous items.

IV. Recommendations.

We recommend that the following matters be taken up for action by the General Assembly, to wit:

1. That the thanks of the Assembly be tendered to the journals which, without charge, printed Outlines and opened their columns to the Study Course programmes, to wit: The New York Observer, The Westminster, The Presbyterian, The Presbyterian Banner, The Herald and Presbyter, The Interior; also that the Assembly approve of the provision by the Boards of Home and Foreign Missions of the free pages in The Assembly Herald in behalf of our Committee.

2. That the Assembly approve of a comprehensive plan to include all Study Courses now operating in our Church, and direct the Permanent Committee on Young People's Societies to arrange for a conference to that end with the parties engaged in that work, and to report to the next General Assembly.

3. That the Outlines of the second and third year of the Christian Study Course, as shown in the report of the Permanent Committee on Young People's Societies, be adopted and recommended for study among all our churches.

4. That the Assembly direct the Board of Publication to publish and furnish to the Permanent Committee on Young People's Societies, without charge, all circulars and other printed matter for carrying on this work deemed necessary by the Committee, not to exceed $500, and also to obtain and handle the necessary text-books for the Study Course work as approved by the Assembly and conducted by the Committee.

5. That the Assembly recommend to all our Young People's Societies that, so far as possible, they arrange to forward their offerings in quarterly payments, and send in their reports in time to enable the Sessions to forward their reports to Presbyteries on or before March 20, the required date.

6. That the Assembly approve of a single system for reporting on young people's work, and direct the Permanent Committee on Young People's Societies to confer with our various Boards and agencies as to this matter, and to report to the next General Assembly.

7. That in order that the Permanent Committee shall be furnished with means for carrying on this work, the Assembly appropriate from its treasury not less than $1600 for the coming year, or provide this amount in some other certain way.

8. That the attention of all our pastors and Sessions be called to the new column for reporting conversions, added to our statistical blank, as a reminder of the importance to the Church of the early consecration and training of our young people.

9. That the Assembly elect Rev. A. Edwin Keigwin, of New York, and Elder Von Ogden Vogt, of Boston, Mass., to fill the vacancies caused by the resignation of Rev. J. Ross Stevenson, D.D., of New York, and Elder William L. Amerman, of New York, whose term of office will expire in 1906; and also to re-elect for the full term of three years Rev. Charles Wood, D.D., of Philadelphia, Pa.; Rev. John Timothy Stone, of Baltimore, Md.; Elder George R. Camp, of Philadelphia, Pa., instead of Elder Richard H. Wallace, of Philadelphia, Pa., who withdrew on account of his health; and Elder A. E. MacDonald, of Chicago, Ill., who have served but two years and are, therefore, eligible for re-election.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN TIMOTHY STONE, Chairman,
HUGH B. MACCAULEY, Secretary.

WILLIAM H. ROBERTS, Stated Clerk.

The undersigned, a public acccountant and auditor in the city of Philadelphia, hereby certifies that he has examined the foregoing accounts of the Rev. William Henry Roberts, D.D., Stated Clerk of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., for the period from May 10, 1904, the date of the last audit, to May 10, 1905, and does hereby approve of the same as correct in all particulars; that all the vouchers and certificates connected with said accounts were duly submitted to and examined by him; that he found that there was on May 16, 1904, the cash balance shown by said accounts, to wit: The sum of six thousand, one hundred and two $\frac{85}{100}$ ($6,102.85) dollars, duly deposited as indicated in the accounts to the credit of the said Stated Clerk, and that he has also examined and verified the books of the said Stated Clerk, and finds them well kept and in agreement with the said accounts as above stated.

HORACE HILL, Public Accountant and Auditor.

May 16, 1905.

OFFICERS.

JOHN H. CONVERSE, LL.D., President.
Rev. EDWARD B. HODGE, D.D., Corresponding Secretary.
Mr. JACOB WILSON, Recording Secretary.
FRANK K. HIPPLE, Esq., LL.D., Treasurer.

The Trustees of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, in accordance with the ninth section of its charter, respectfully reports to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America the exact state of the accounts of the Corporation for the year ending March 31. 1905.

These accounts are herewith presented and made part of this report, and consist of the Treasurer's annual account of the principal and income, showing the receipts and disbursements of both funds, together with the balance of each on hand at the end of the fiscal year, together with the investment of the principal.

These accounts are accompanied by the reports of the Committees of the Board of Finance and on Accounts, with the usual certificates of these Committees as to the condition of the finances and the investments of the funds as shown by the accounts, and the audit of the Treasurer's account.

The certificate of Horace Hill, Public Accountant, as to his examination of the accounts, cash and securities of the Corporation, is also appended.

During the year the Corporation has received the following legacies:

For the Mariners' Church, Philadelphia:
Legacy under the will of Emma S. Farr, deceased, paid direct to George Griffiths, Esq., Treasurer of the said Mariners' Church and by order of the Board of Trustees of Mariners' Church, turned over to the Trustees of the General Assembly, to be added to the Joseph Eastburn Fund, and the income applied for the benefit of said Mariners' Church,	$2,500 00
Legacy under the will of Mary L. McCauley, deceased, paid direct to George Griffiths, Esq., Treasurer of the said Mariners' Church, and by order of the Board of Trustees of Mariners' Church turned over to the Trustees of the General Assembly, to be added to the Joseph Eastburn Fund, and the income applied for the benefit of said Mariners' Church,	200 00
For Board of Relief for Disabled Ministers:
Legacy under the will of Jane Holmes, deceased,	93 35
For Board of Missions for Freedmen:
Legacy under the will of W. F. Milliken, deceased,	983 87
For Sundry Funds:
Legacy under the will of Margaret E. Peloubet, deceased,	1,000 00

The disposition made of the income received upon the various trusts will be seen by reference to the Treasurer's accounts.

The Trustees respectfully inform the General Assembly of the existence of two vacancies in the membership of the Board; one caused by the failure of Mr. George T. Harris to accept his election, and the other by the death of Rev. William M. Paxton, D.D., LL.D. These vacancies should be filled at this meeting of the General Assembly.

All of which is respectfully submitted for the Corporation by JOHN H. CONVERSE, President.

JACOB WILSON, Secretary.

The undersigned, a public accountant in the City of Philadelphia, hereby certifies that he has examined the accounts of Frank K. Hipple, Treasurer of the Trustees of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, and after careful vouching as to items of charge and discharge, does approve of the same as correct in all particulars; and that he found that there was, at the close of the fiscal year, March 31, 1905, the cash balances as shown by said account, to wit: the sum of seven thousand and one and $\frac{12}{100}$ dollars ($7001.12), duly deposited to the credit of the said Trustees in the Real Estate Trust Company of Philadelphia; and further, that he also examined all the securities, bonds and mortgages and other evidences of property belonging to the said Trustees, and found the same to be as set forth in the statement thereof accompanying the Treasurer's Report, hereto annexed, the same amounting at their face value to nine hundred and fifty-seven thousand five hundred and eleven and $\frac{80}{100}$ dollars ($957,511.80), and being duly deposited in the safe deposit vaults of the aforesaid Trust Company.

HORACE HILL, Public Accountant.

April 12, 1905.

The Committee on Finance, in compliance with the first item of Article IV of the By-Laws, respectfully report to the Trustees of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America the investments as set forth in the foregoing table.

V. Miscellaneous.

I. THE MILEAGE AND CONTINGENT FUNDS.

SPECIAL attention is called to the Mileage and Contingent System adopted by the General Assembly of 1870, and amended by the General Assemblies of 1875, 1877, 1884 and 1896. As amended it is as follows:

"The Committee to whom it was referred to consider and report a uniform system of Mileage, whereby full provision may be made for the traveling expenses of the Commissioners to our General Assemblies, and to meet the contingent expenses of each Assembly, respectfully report:

"It is affirmed, Form of Government, Chap. xxii, Section 3, that, 'in order, as far as possible, to procure a respectable and full delegation to all our judicatories, it is proper that the expenses of ministers and elders, in their attendance on these judicatories, be defrayed by the bodies which they respectively represent.'

"The principle is thus established, that provision should be made for the payment of the traveling expenses of Commissioners to the General Assembly. This provision should be made by the Presbyteries. As far as possible, the feebler Presbyteries should be aided in this matter by the stronger. It appears just and reasonable, and so has been found by experience, that the estimated contingent expenses of each Assembly, and the traveling expenses of the Commissioners in coming to and returning from the Assembly, should be fully met by the apportionment of the whole amount among the several Presbyteries, according to the number of their communicants respectively.

"It is therefore recommended—

"1. That the Standing Committee on Mileage, annually appointed, be instructed to present an estimate of the probable amount that will be needed by the next General Assembly, in order to meet their contingent expenses and the traveling expenses of their Commissioners, with a statement of the per capita rate, based on the number of communicants, that will be needed to secure the amount.

"2. That the Presbyteries, at their Stated Meeting next following the adjournment of the General Assembly, apportion the amount required of their churches as they deem best.

"3. That the churches be instructed to pay over their respective apportionments at the Stated Meeting of their Presbyteries next preceding the meeting of the General Assembly—the whole amount due from the Presbytery to be forwarded to the Assembly by their Commissioners.

"4. That, as early as the fourth day of the sessions of the Assembly, the apportionment of each Presbytery be paid in full, and a bill of the necessary traveling expenses of its Commissioners be presented to the Standing Committee on Mileage.—N.B. It is understood that Commissioners, both in coming to and returning from the Assembly, will avail themselves of any commutation of fares that may be offered in season; and that in other cases they are to take, when practicable, the most economical route; no allowance to be made for extra accommodations on the way. Also, that no one will charge for return expenses unless he intends to go back to his field of labor; and that no one on a business tour, or excursion of pleasure, will make a convenience of the meeting of the Assembly and expect payment of his traveling expenses from the Mileage Fund. Also, that Commissioners, as soon after their arrival as practicable, are to report themselves to the Committee of Arrangements, and have their respective places of abode assigned them.

"5. That the Mileage Committee, after appropriating from the whole sum an amount sufficient to meet the estimated contingent expenses of the Assembly, be instructed to audit these bills and that the Stated Clerk pay them pro rata (if found in accordance with the preceding regulations), as far as the funds will permit.

"6. That, in order to avail themselves of the proceeds of this fund, the Presbyteries must contribute their full proportion to it according to the per capita rate.

"7. That every minister, and every vacant church contributing to this fund, connected with the Presbyteries thus complying with the provisions of this plan, be entitled to a copy of the Annual Minutes of the General Assembly.

"8. That the Commissioners from Presbyteries in foreign lands receive their necessary traveling expenses, pro rata, from their place of residence in this country."

In accordance with this system, every Presbytery is requested to pay in full, next year, to the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly, a sum equal to three and one-half cents for Mileage, and one and one-half cents for Contingent Expenses, or in all five cents for every communicant under the care of their churches, as determined by their Statistical Report, herewith printed. This will entitle their Commissioners to a full share in the apportionments for necessary traveling expenses. It is expected that these expenses will be fully met, if the Presbyteries comply with the recommendations of the Assembly.

They are expected, also, to provide for an

ENTERTAINMENT FUND.

In addition to the Mileage Fund, the Assembly of 1877 made provision for a "Supplemental Contingent Expense Fund," to "be used for the purpose of meeting the expense of entertaining such Commissioners as are not otherwise provided for." Each Presbytery is requested to contribute to this fund a sum equal at least to one and one-half cents per church member, and to forward it, with the Mileage Fund, to the Stated Clerk of the Assembly. It is to be disbursed by the Committee of Arrangements, whose bills for entertainment the Stated Clerk, as Treasurer, is authorized to pay, after they have been approved by an Auditing Committee composed of the clerks of the Assembly.

☞See, also, Minutes of 1905, p. 209.

II. THE ANNUAL MINUTES.

The Minutes for 1905 will be supplied at One Dollar per copy, postage included. A copy will be sent, without charge, to the Stated Clerk of every Presbytery and of every Synod; also (in the case of every Presbytery that has paid its full apportionment to the Mileage and Contingent Funds of the Assembly), to every ordained minister, and to the Session of each contributing vacant church, whose address is known; also to every ordained missionary of the foreign Presbyteries. A supplementary number of the Minutes will be issued in January, 1906, showing ecclesiastical changes to date, and can be had on application to the Stated Clerk.

III. SYNODICAL REPORTS.

A Statistical Report is to be forwarded to the Assembly by the Stated Clerk of every Synod; in which are to be stated the number and names of the Presbyteries within their bounds; the changes which may have been made in the number or arrangement of their Presbyteries; the names of the Stated Clerks of the Presbyteries; the place and hour of the next annual meeting; and the names of the Moderator and Stated Clerk of the Synod. A blank will be sent to the Stated Clerk of every Synod, near the close of the calendar year, which should be filled up, and forwarded, without delay, to the Stated Clerk of the Assembly.

IV. PRESBYTERIAL REPORTS.

It is required of every Presbytery to prepare and forward to the General Assembly:

1. A Statistical Report, according to the form exhibited on page 399*n* of the present Appendix; a printed blank for which will be furnished in due season, by order of the Assembly, to the Stated Clerk of every Presbytery. This Report should, if possible, embrace all the changes in the Presbytery previous to the first day of April.

2. A Narrative of the State of Religion within the bounds of the Presbytery, for the year ending April 1st. A blank for the Narrative was adopted by the General Assembly of 1904, p. 200, and a copy will be forwarded to every Stated Clerk. By order of the Assembly of 1880, a blank for a Tabulated Statement of facts will annually be forwarded to the Stated Clerk of each Presbytery, to be filled properly, and duly reported to the Assembly. This Tabulated Statement should be sent to the Stated Clerk of the Assembly at least ten days before the meeting of that body. As the Narratives are not to be publicly read, less care may be given to their style, and more to the details of particulars, such as will aid the Committee of the Assembly in preparing their Annual General Narrative of the State of the Church. The blank for the Congregational Narratives, ordered by the Assembly of 1895, can be had from the Stated Clerk of the Assembly.

V. STATED CLERKS OF PRESBYTERIES.*

In preparing the Statistical Report, let the following RULES be strictly observed:

(1) Carefully copy the blank form and order of columns, etc., on page ☞399*n*, Minutes, 1905, if a blank has not been received.

(2) Record ministers in the order of their MINISTERIAL AGE, with their CHRISTIAN names in full, without abbreviations, and their address on the same line, in the adjoining column.

(3) ☞Place the name of every Church and Mission Chapel opposite the name of its Pastor, or Stated Supply; never opposite the name of any other minister; if the Church is Vacant, place it at the foot of the roll. If the Church uses in worship a language other than English, indicate the fact by words such as German, Welsh, etc.☜

(4) Place, after the name of every minister, an abbreviation, denoting his occupation; e. g., P., for a Pastor; P. E., for a Pastor Elect; C. P., for a Colleague Pastor; A. P., for an Associate Pastor; S. S., for a Stated Supply; H. M., for a Home Missionary; D. M., for a District Missionary; C. M., for a City Missionary; T. M., for a Tract Missionary; S. M., for a Synodical Missionary; S. S. M., for a Sunday-school Missionary; P. M., for a Presbyterial Missionary; F. M., for a Foreign Missionary; Pres., for the President of a College; Chan., for a Chancellor; Prof., for a Professor of a Theological Seminary or College; Prin., for the Principal of an Academy, etc.; Sec., for a Secretary or Stated Clerk; D. Sec., for a District Secretary of a Benevolent Institution, Ag., for an Agent of do.; Ch., for a Chaplain; Tea., for a Teacher; Ed., for an Editor; Ev., for an Evangelist; H. R., for a Minister honorably retired; Col., for a Colporteur; Com., for a Commissioner; Supt., for a Superintendent; Libr., for a Librarian; and for other ministers without pastoral charges, no designation whatsoever. Local Evangelists are not ordained ministers.

(5) Place after the name of every Church the abbreviation P., for one that has a Pastor; P. E., for one that has a Pastor Elect; S. S., for one that has a Stated Supply, and V., for one that is vacant.

*These rules were adopted as a whole by the General Assembly of 1891. See "Minutes," p. 181.

(6) If a Church fail to report, let the "whole number" of communicants be given as reported to the Synod, or to the last Assembly, with an asterisk (*) in the column of communicants, denoting the fact.

(7) In the Additions to the Church, distinguish between those on examination and those on certificate; in the Baptisms, between the adults and the infants; and be careful to observe the order of the columns in which these particulars are recorded.

(8) In the Losses to the Church, distinguish between (1) those dismissed, (2) those deceased, and (3) those suspended, erased or placed upon the absentee roll.

(9) In the report of "Funds" contributed, observe the order of the columns, and the directions of the Assembly of 1871 (Minutes, 1871, p. 589) as modified by the Assemblies of 1873, 1874, 1883, 1887 and 1904, as follows:

1. Home Missions. (a) Board and Miscellaneous. To include all moneys collected, whether for the Board, or for any general Home Missionary operations, including value of boxes, Ladies' Societies, etc. (b) Presbyteries and Synods. To include all contributions for Presbyterial and Synodical Home Missions.

2. Foreign Missions. To include all contributions for the spread of the Gospel in foreign lands.

3. Education. To include all that is given for the education of Candidates for the Ministry, whether to the Board or otherwise; and for Theological Seminaries.

4. Sabbath-school Work. To include all moneys contributed to the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work for their Missionary work, Sabbath-schools included, and for Synodical and Presbyterial Depositories.

5. Church Erection. To include all contributions for Church Erection, outside of the congregation, whether through the Board or otherwise.

6. Relief Fund. To include all moneys contributed for the support of disabled ministers, and Missionaries, and in aid of their families.

7. Freedmen. To include all moneys contributed to the evangelization and education of Freedmen, whether through the Board or otherwise.

8. Aid for Colleges. All given for Presbyterian Colleges, Academies and Schools, whether established for the education of males or females.

9. General Assembly. To include all given for ecclesiastical expenses, whether in Presbytery, Synod, or General Assembly.

10. Congregational. To include all moneys contributed for the congregation, the salary of the minister, the support of the Church Sabbath-schools, the relief of the poor of the congregation, building and repairing churches, liquidation of debts and current expenses.

11. Miscellaneous. To include all other collections, for Bible and Tract Societies, etc., and for general benevolence. Report also in this column all miscellaneous and "outside" gifts of the "congregation for religious and charitable causes, provided the donors consent to have them thus reported by the Clerk of Session or by the Pastor." [Minutes, 1904, p. 97.] This applies to individual gifts "outside" the Boards as well as to collections. GIFTS OF INDIVIDUALS to the causes represented by the Boards should be entered in the column assigned to each cause respectively.

12. Temperance. Contributions to any Temperance causes. These amounts to be included under "Miscellaneous" in the Statistical Report of Presbytery, but to be also reported separately.

Be sure to omit the fractions of the dollar, except in the General Assembly column.

(10) The names of the Licentiates are to be recorded immediately after the list of Ministers, in the same column, with their Address in the next column; but of the candidates—including all who are studying for the ministry under the care of the Churches of the Presbytery—the number only is to be given.

(11) ☞ADD UP☜ and verify every column of figures, and Authenticate the Report with your signature.

(12) Avoid erasures and interlineations, make names and numbers distinctly legible, and punctuate properly.

(13) Affix no extraneous matter, such as memoranda, explanations, or orders for the delivery of the printed Minutes of the Assembly; let these be given on a separate sheet; also, every Overture to the Assembly.

Revise your Report, and find out its defects. Put in the commas and periods that are wanting; fill out the abbreviations; supply the Christian name of every minister (an initial letter is not a name), and see that every name and figure is perfectly legible.

☞Forward the Statistical Report by April 25, but if anything should prevent the forwarding of the Statistical Report in time for the meeting of the General Assembly, let it be sent at the earliest date possible to the STATED CLERK OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY, the Rev. W. H. Roberts, D.D.

A statement of the number of licensures, ordinations, installations, dissolutions of pastoral relations, organizations, receptions and dissolutions of churches; also, any changes in the names of churches; and the decease (with age, date and place) of Ministers since the last Annual Report are to be inserted in the proper places in the Tabulated Statement.

FORM OF A PRESBYTERIAL REPORT TO THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

IX. STANDING ORDERS AND RULES.

1. The General Assembly meets invariably on the third Thursday of May, annually, at 11 o'clock A.M.

2. The credentials of Commissioners and Delegates are to be presented at a previous hour of the same day, or of the preceding day, according to public notice, to the Stated and Permanent Clerks, acting as a Permanent Committee on Commissions.

3. The Lord's Supper is to be celebrated by the Assembly on the evening of Thursday, the first day of its sessions.

4. The dates assigned to popular meetings are as follows:

The evening of Friday, the second day, to the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work and the Sabbath-school interests of the Church.

The afternoon of the first Sunday, to the Woman's Executive Committee of Home Missions; the evening to the Board of Aid for Colleges and Academies.

The evening of Monday, the fourth day, to Missions among the Freedmen.

The evening of Tuesday, the fifth day, to the Home Mission Work.

The evening of Wednesday, the sixth day, to the Foreign Mission Work.

The evening of Friday, the eighth day, to the causes of Young People's Work and Temperance.

5. For the purpose only of electing Standing Committees, the General Assembly shall be divided into twenty-two Electing Sections of, as nearly as practicable, equal size, by combining the smaller Synods and dividing the larger by Presbyteries where necessary. The Standing Committees, except those on Mileage and Finance, shall be numbered consecutively; the Electing Sections shall be numbered in like manner.

The Standing Committees shall each consist of twenty-three members, including the Chairman, except the Committees on Mileage and Finance, which shall each consist of twelve elders. Eleven members of the Committees on Mileage and Finance and eleven ministers and eleven elders of the other Committees shall be chosen by the Electing Sections as herein provided. The Moderator shall, as soon as possible after his election, appoint a member of each Standing Committee, who shall be the Chairman thereof; provided that he shall not appoint more than one member and Chairman from the same Electing Section, and that he shall always appoint the retiring Moderator as a member and Chairman of the Committee on Bills and Overtures.

If the Moderator shall appoint as a member and Chairman of any Standing Committee any one chosen by any Electing Section as a member of that or any other Standing Committee, the appointment of the Moderator shall take precedence, and the Electing Section shall choose another member to fill the vacancy on the Committee caused by the Moderator's appointment.

On odd-numbered years each odd-numbered section shall elect one minister for each odd-numbered Committee, and one elder for each even-numbered Committee, and one elder for the Mileage Committee.

On the same year, each even-numbered section shall elect one minister for each even-numbered Committee, and one elder for each odd-numbered Committee, and one elder for the Finance Committee.

On the even-numbered years this order shall be reversed.

After the election of a Moderator, the Permanent Clerk shall report absentees from the first roll call. Vacancies in the Electing Sections may then be filled by the Assembly. The Stated Clerk shall designate one Commissioner in each Section to receive any necessary papers for the Section.

The members of each Electing Section shall be seated together in a compact body. Accordingly each Commissioner shall be assigned to his seat in advance of the meeting of the Assembly by the Committee of Arrangements, under the supervision and direction of the Stated Clerk, and shall occupy such pew or seat from the beginning of the first session until the end of the second day.

The Electing Sections shall meet at the places assigned them for the purpose of selecting members of the Standing Committees at the close of the second session of the first day, provided the Assembly adjourns at or before five o'clock; otherwise, the Assembly shall take a recess promptly at eleven o'clock of the second day and the Electing Sections shall meet for that purpose at that time.

Reports from the sections shall be handed to the Stated Clerk as soon as the Electing Sections adjourn. The quorum of an Electing Section shall be the same in number as the quorum of the Assembly, viz., fourteen.

6. The reports of the Standing Committees shall be considered at the times herein designated, viz.:

Ministerial Relief, Saturday, at 10 o'clock A.M.
Freedmen, Monday, at 10 o'clock A.M.
Education, Monday, at 3 o'clock P.M.
Home Missions, Tuesday, at 10 o'clock A.M.
Aid for Colleges and Academies, Tuesday, at 3 o'clock P.M.
Foreign Missions, Wednesday, at 10 o'clock A. M.
Publication and Sabbath-school Work, Wednesday, at 3 o'clock P.M.
Young People's Societies, second Thursday, at 10 o'clock A.M.
Church Erection, second Thursday, at 3 o'clock P.M.
Benevolence, second Thursday, at 7.30 o'clock P.M.
Temperance, second Friday, at 3 o'clock P.M.

7. That the Standing Committees on Home and Foreign Missions have each two hours; and those on Education, Publication, Church Erection, Ministerial Relief, Freedmen, Temperance, Colleges and Young People's Societies have each one and a half hours; that the Chairman of the Standing Committees on Home and Foreign Missions be allowed only one-half hour for the presenting of his Report and such remarks as he may wish to make, and that the Chairman of other Committees be allowed twenty minutes for the same purpose; that the Secretary or other official representative of the cause be allowed one-half hour for his address or statement, and that the remainder of the time allotted be assigned to Commissiouers and to agents from the field. This rule to be altered only by direct vote of the Assembly. It shall be the duty of the Stated Clerk to communicate this rule to the Chairmen of the Standing Committees upon their appointment.

8. The Stated Clerk shall receive all Memorials, Overtures and other miscellaneous papers addressed to the General Assembly, shall make record of the same, and then deliver them for distribution or reference to the Committee on Bills and Overtures. All complaints and appeals, however, shall be transmitted by the Stated Clerk directly to the Judicial Committee.

9. All Special Committees appointed by one General Assembly to report to the next Assembly shall be ready to present their reports on the second day of the session.

10. The Stated Clerk shall have printed and ready for distribution, so far as practicable, on the morning of the day fixed for their consideration, the resolutions appended to the reports of Special Committees appointed at previous Assemblies to report at that meeting.

11. The Stated Clerk and Permanent Clerk shall be a Committee to revise the phraseology of all papers sent down to the Presbyteries to be voted upon, provided that in no case shall this Committee so change the phraseology as to alter the meaning [1886, p. 113].

12. The Stated and Permanent Clerks shall be a Committee to supervise the publication of any and all editions of the Constitution hereafter issued by the Board of Publication, and also of the Rules for Judicatories [1886, p. 113].

13. Each Board and Permanent Committee is instructed to send up its minutes with its report, that these minutes may be reviewed by the Assembly on the report of the appropriate Standing Committee [1885, p. 690].

14. A sufficient number of the Reports of the Boards and Committees shall be forwarded by them to the place of meeting of each Assembly, prior to the day of meeting; and a complete file of the same, stitched together, shall be delivered to each Commissioner [1886, p. 77].

15. In all regions, where through the organization of Union Presbyteries or the existence of Missions without Presbyterial organization, there are no Presbyteries in connection with this Assembly, each Mission organized as such under our Board of Foreign Missions may send to the General Assembly an ordained missionary, or ruling elder, as a delegate; and the Standing Rules of the Assembly are hereby so amended that such delegate is entitled to sit as an advisory member in the Assembly, and to speak, under the rules, on all questions, and that his expenses from his domicile in this country to and during the Assembly, and return, shall be met as those of Commissioners, out of the funds of the Assembly [1887, p. 247].

16. No person shall serve as a member of a Board who is a salaried executive officer or employé of said Board, or a member of any other benevolent Board of the Church; and no more than one ruling elder from the same congregation shall serve on a Board at the same time [1887, pp. 51, 108; 1898, p. 132].

17. Any vacancy occurring in the membership of any of the Boards of the Church during the interval between the Assemblies may be filled until the next succeeding meeting of the Assembly by the Board in which such vacancy may occur [1887, p. 128].

18. The Moderator is authorized to fill by appointment any vacancies which may occur, by resignation or otherwise, in any of the Special Committees [1892, p. 209].

19. All resolutions for the appropriation of money, outside the Boards, should be brought before the Finance Committee before action by the Assembly [1892, p. 199].

20. The recommendation of any particular congregation to the benevolence of the denomination by the General Assembly is not to be understood as creating either a legal or a moral obligation upon the Assembly for the payment of the amount recommended to be contributed by the churches [1892, p. 36; 1893, p. 41].

21. All Overtures must be presented to the Assembly not later than the fifth day of its sessions.

22. The Stated and Permanent Clerks shall be a Committee to have the oversight of arrangements for the entertainment of the General Assembly [1896, p. 130].

23. All Reports of Special Committees shall be delivered to the Stated Clerk thirty days prior to the meeting of the General Assembly, and shall be printed by him and delivered to Commissioners in bound form on the second day of the sessions [1897, p. 144].

24. Upon the original appointment of any salaried executive officer of any of the Benevolent and Missionary Boards of the Church, such appointment shall be subject to the approval of the General Assembly [1898, p. 132].

25. The Moderator, with the Stated and Permanent Clerks, should an emergency requiring action at any time arise, are authorized to provide a new place of meeting for the General Assembly.

26. The Moderator shall be elected in the following manner:

Where there is only one nominee for Moderator, the election may be made by acclamation. Where there are more than one, the election shall be made by ballot in the following manner:

After the nominations are made each Section shall choose a Chairman and a Secretary, and the Chairman shall appoint two tellers. Each Commissioner shall write the name of his choice on a ticket to be provided in advance by the Stated Clerk. The tellers shall collect the tickets and count them under the supervision of the Chairman. The result will be recorded by the Secretary on tickets in duplicate, one of which shall be handed to the Stated Clerk, with the number of the Section written thereon. The other shall be retained by the Secretary.

When the reports of the ballots have been issued from all the Sections, the Stated Clerk shall read each aloud, giving the number of the Section and the vote cast. Tellers appointed by the Stated Clerk shall take and tabulate the votes as read. The Moderator will then announce the vote as tabulated. If no one has received a majority of the whole vote, another vote shall be taken in the same manner. When one has received a majority, the Moderator shall announce the result, and declare him to be elected.

27. Hereafter all overtures from Presbyteries and Synods which are to come before the General Assembly shall be in the hands of the Stated Clerk at least two weeks before the meeting of the Assembly, and by him shall be printed in convenient form for distribution on the floor of the Assembly. The distribution to be made not later than the second day of the Assembly.

28. The election of members of Judicial Commissions of the General Assembly shall take place on the morning of Tuesday, the fifth day, as the first Order of the Day, in the following manner:

It shall be the duty of the Judicial Committee of the General Assembly to report to the Assembly on Monday, the fourth day, suitable nominations for all members of Judicial Commissions of the General Assembly, from which nominations, together with any others regularly made by the Commissioners at the same time as those made by the Judicial Committtee, the necessary number of persons shall be elected.

29. The Permanent Judicial Commission of the General Assembly shall have authority to adopt rules pertaining to its own method of procedure, and shall report the same to the General Assembly; provided, that such rules shall not be inconsistent with the Constitution of the Church or the rules adopted by the General Assembly.

GENERAL RULES FOR JUDICATORIES.

The following "General Rules for Judicatories," not having been submitted to the Presbyteries, make no part of the Constitution of the Presbyterian Church. Yet the General Assembly of 1871, considering uniformity in proceedings in all the subordinate judicatories as greatly conducive to order and despatch in business, having revised and approved these rules, recommended them to all the lower judicatories of the Church for adoption. The rules were amended by the General Assemblies of 1885 and 1887.]

I. The Moderator shall take the chair precisely at the hour to which the judicatory stands adjourned; and shall immediately call the members to order; and, on the appearance of a quorum, shall open the session with prayer.

II. If a quorum be assembled at the time appointed, and the Moderator be absent, the last Moderator present, being a commissioner, or if there be none, the senior member present, shall be requested to take his place without delay, until a new election.

III. If a quorum be not assembled at the hour appointed, any two members shall be competent to adjourn from time to time, that an opportunity may be given for a quorum to assemble.

IV. It shall be the duty of the Moderator, at all times, to preserve order, and to endeavor to conduct all business before the judicatory to a speedy and proper result.

V. It shall be the duty of the Moderator, carefully to keep notes of the several articles of business which may be assigned for particular days, and to call them up at the time appointed.

VI. The Moderator may speak to points of order, in preference to other members, rising from his seat for that purpose; and shall decide questions of order, subject to an appeal to the judicatory by any two members.

VII. The Moderator shall appoint all committees, except in those cases in which the judicatory shall decide otherwise. In appointing the standing committees, the Moderator may appoint a Vice-Moderator, who may occupy the chair at his request, and otherwise assist him in the discharge of his duties.

VIII. When a vote is taken by ballot in any judicatory, the Moderator shall vote with the other members; but he shall not vote in any other case, unless the judicatory be equally divided; when, if he does not choose to vote, the question shall be lost.

IX. The person first named on any committee shall be considered as the chairman thereof, whose duty it shall be to convene the committee; and, in case of his absence or inability to act, the second named member shall take his place and perform his duties.

X. It shall be the duty of the clerk, as soon as possible after the commencement of the sessions of every judicatory, to form a complete roll of the members present, and put the same into the hands of the Moderator. And it shall also be the duty of the clerk, whenever any additional members take their seats, to add their names, in their proper places, to the said roll.

XI. It shall be the duty of the clerk immediately to file all papers, in the order in which they have been read, with proper indorsements, and to keep them in perfect order. The Stated Clerk shall receive all overtures, memorials and miscellaneous papers addressed to the judicatory; shall make record of the same and deliver them to the Committee on Bills and Overtures for appropriate disposition or reference. This committee shall have the floor on the reassembling of the judicatory after each adjournment, to report its recommendations as to reference of papers, and this right of the committee shall take precedence of the Orders of the Day. This committee shall report the papers retained by it as well as those recommended for reference to other committees, and no committee shall report on matters which have not been referred to it by the judicatory.

XII. The minutes of the last meeting of the judicatory shall be presented at the commencement of its session, and, if requisite, read and corrected.

XIII. Business left unfinished at the last sitting is ordinarily to be taken up first.

XIV. A motion made must be seconded, and afterwards repeated by the Moderator, or read aloud, before it is debated; and every motion shall be reduced to writing, if the Moderator or any member require it.

XV. Any member who shall have made a motion, shall have liberty to withdraw it, with the consent of his second, before any debate has taken place thereon; but not afterwards, without the leave of the judicatory.

XVI. If a motion under debate contain several parts, any two members may have it divided, and a question taken on each part.

XVII. When various motions are made with respect to the filling of blanks, with particular numbers or times, the question shall always be first taken on the highest number and the longest time.

XVIII. Motions to lay on the table, to take up business, to adjourn, and the call for the previous question, shall be put without debate. On questions of order, postponement, or commitment, no member shall speak more than once. On all other questions, each member may speak twice, but not oftener, without express leave of the judicatory.

XIX. When a question is under debate, no motion shall be received, unless to adjourn, to lay on the table, to postpone indefinitely, to postpone to a day certain, to commit, or to amend; which several motions shall have precedence in the order in which they are herein arranged; and the motion for adjournment shall always be in order.

XX. An amendment, and also an amendment to an amendment, may be moved on any motion; but a motion to amend an amendment to an amendment shall not be in order. Action on amendments shall precede action on the original motion. A substitute shall be treated as an amendment.

XXI. A distinction shall be observed between a motion to lay on the table for the present, and a motion to lay on the table unconditionally, namely: A motion to lay on the table, for the present, shall be taken without debate; and, if carried in the affirmative, the effect shall be to place the subject on the docket, and it may be taken up and considered at any subsequent time. But a motion to lay on the table, unconditionally, shall be taken without debate; and, if carried in the affirmative, it shall not be in order to take up the subject during the same meeting of the judicatory, without a vote of reconsideration.

XXII. The previous question shall be put in this form, namely, Shall the main question be now put? It shall only be admitted when demanded by a majority of the members present; and the effect shall be to put an end to all debate and bring the body to a direct vote: First, on a motion to commit the subject under consideration (if such motion shall have been made); secondly, if the motion for commitment does not prevail, on pending amendments; and lastly, on the main question.

XXIII. A question shall not be again called up or reconsidered at the same sessions of the judicatory at which it has been decided, unless by the consent of two-thirds of the members who were present at the decision; and unless the motion to reconsider be made and seconded by persons who voted with the majority.

XXIV. A subject which has been indefinitely postponed, either by the operation of the previous question, or by a motion for indefinite postponement, shall not be again called up during the same sessions of the judicatory, unless by the consent of three-fourths of the members who were present at the decision.

XXV. Members ought not, without weighty reasons, to decline voting, as this practice might leave the decision of very interesting questions to a small proportion of the judicatory. Silent members, unless excused from voting, must be considered as acquiescing with the majority.

XXVI. When the Moderator has commenced taking the vote, no further debate or remark shall be admitted, unless there has evidently been a mistake, in which case the mistake shall be rectified, and the Moderator shall recommence taking the vote. If the House shall pass the motion to "vote on a given subject at a time named," speeches shall thereafter be limited to ten minutes. Should the hour for adjournment or recess arrive during the voting, it shall be postponed to finish the vote, unless the majority shall vote to adjourn; in which case the voting shall, on the reassembling of the House, take precedence of all other business till it is finished. Under this rule the "yeas and nays" shall not be called, except on the final motion to adopt as a whole. This motion to fix a time for voting shall be put without debate.

XXVII. The yeas and nays on any question shall not be recorded, unless required by one-third of the members present. If division is called for on any vote, it shall be by a rising vote, without a count. If on such a rising vote the Moderator is unable to decide, or a quorum rise to second a call for "tellers," then the vote shall be taken by rising, and the count made by tellers, who shall pass through the aisles and report to the Moderator the number voting on each side.

XXVIII. No member, in the course of debate, shall be allowed to indulge in personal reflections.

XXIX. If more than one member rise to speak at the same time, the member who is most distant from the Moderator's chair shall speak first. In the discussion of all matters where the sentiment of the House is divided, it is proper that the floor should be occupied alternately by those representing the different sides of the question.

XXX. When more than three members of the judicatory shall be standing at the same time, the Moderator shall require all to take their seats, the person only excepted who may be speaking.

XXXI. Every member, when speaking, shall address himself to the Moderator, and shall treat his fellow-members, and especially the Moderator, with decorum and respect.

XXXII. No speaker shall be interrupted, unless he be out of order; or for the purpose of correcting mistakes, or misrepresentations.

XXXIII. Without express permission, no member of a judicatory, while business is going on, shall engage in private conversation; nor shall members address one another, nor any person present, but through the Moderator.

XXXIV. It is indispensable, that members of ecclesiastical judicatories maintain great gravity and dignity while judicially convened; that they attend closely in their speeches to the subject under consideration, and avoid prolix and desultory harangues; and, when they deviate from the subject, it is the privilege of any member, and the duty of the Moderator, to call them to order.

XXXV. If any member act, in any respect, in a disorderly manner, it shall be the privilege of any member, and the duty of the Moderator, to call him to order.

XXXVI. If any member consider himself aggrieved by a decision of the Moderator, it shall be his privilege to appeal to the judicatory, and the question on the appeal shall be taken without debate.

XXXVII. No member shall retire from any judicatory without the leave of the Moderator, nor withdraw from it to return home without the consent of the judicatory.

XXXVIII. All judicatories have a right to sit in private, on business, which in their judgment ought not to be matter of public speculation.

XXXIX. Besides the right to sit judicially in private, whenever they think proper to do so, all judicatories have a right to hold what are commonly called "interlocutory meetings," in which members may freely converse together, without the formalities which are usually necessary in judicial proceedings.

XL. Whenever a judicatory is about to sit in a judicial capacity, it shall be the duty of the Moderator solemnly to announce, from the chair, that the body is about to pass to the consideration of the business assigned for trial, and to enjoin on the members to recollect and regard their high character as judges of a court of Jesus Christ, and the solemn duty in which they are about to act.

XLI. In all cases before a judicatory, where there is an accuser or prosecutor, it is expedient that there be a committee of the judicatory appointed (provided the number of members be sufficient to admit it without inconvenience), who shall be called the "Judicial Committee," and whose duty it shall be to digest and arrange all the papers, and to prescribe, under the direction of the judicatory, the whole order of proceedings. The members of this committee shall be entitled, notwithstanding their performance of this duty, to sit and vote in the cause, as members of the judicatory.

XLII. The permanent officers of a judicatory shall have the rights of corresponding members in matters touching their several offices.

XLIII. The Moderator of every judicatory above the Church Session, in finally closing its sessions, in addition to prayer, may cause to be sung, an appropriate psalm or hymn, and shall pronounce the apostolic benediction.

XLIV. Whenever a case is to be taken from an inferior judicatory to the General Assembly, the Stated Clerk of such inferior judicatory shall, at least twenty days before the meeting of the General Assembly, send a notice concerning such case to the Stated Clerk of the Assembly, who shall forthwith notify the Chairman of the Permanent Judicial Commission, unless the General Assembly shall have ordered otherwise, that the services of the Commission will be needed at the approaching Assembly; but if no such notice shall be received by the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly, he shall forthwith notify the Chairman of the Permanent Judicial Commission that the services of the Commission will not be needed at the approaching Assembly.
